It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, one-third of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained is a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, precisely; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while the bread and pastry it is made from have a compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."
HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter or lard the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quickly.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a slow oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoonful of butter; add a pint and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar or one cup of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
is precisely what its name indicates, for, while discreet to the taste, it is revitalizing, exhilirating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence suited to the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and alay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilirating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influence, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequence following upon change of climate and water. Persons about to travel should take a bottle with them, and all should take a tablespoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies should keep it much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to her we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, JANUARY 21, 1861.

☞ The Charleston Courier, in its issue of Jan. 12th, has a four line paragraph of great significance. It says: "The removal of many excellent families from the capital is regretted, but nobody proposes to stop them from managing their own domestic affairs in their own way." From this it may be inferred that some of the "first families" are leaving the secession hot-bed.

It is surely a wonderful piece of magnanimity, that the wealthy and excellent people in Charleston, are not coerced to stay there; —and it is noteworthy that the Courier says, many such families are leaving.

The reader has observed before that ex-Governor Aiken of South Carolina has been compelled to pay a large sum, say $40,000, to carry on the humbug.

In confirmation of these statements, the Louisville Journal says:—

"A distinguished gentleman, just from Charleston, informs us that a fearful reign of terror prevails there. The secession authorities, knowing exactly what all the rich men, merchants and persons engaged in business of every kind, severally have in bank, and what means of other kinds they are supposed to have at their command, continually levy upon them accordingly, no man daring to resist the levy, inasmuch as a wild and infuriated mob is ready to execute vengeance upon every man deemed refractory. Our informant says that the deepest distress and the deepest alarm go hand in hand, and that all the railroads and other roads leading from South Carolina are thronged with persons escaping from the State as if they felt that a rain of fire and brimstone were already falling upon it.

We earnestly hope there will be no necessity for the shedding of South Carolina blood by the general government. If South Carolina be but left to itself a little longer, the spirit of rebellion and revolution will perish within her borders, like a rat in an exhausted receiver."

CONGRESS.—In the U. S. Senate, Friday, Jan. 18, Mr. Sumner called for the yeas and nays on Mr. Cameron's motion to reconsider the vote on Mr. Clark's amendment to Mr. Crittenden's resolution. Carried—yeas 27, nays 24.

The Pacific Railroad bill was made the special order for Tuesday.

The bill authorizing a loan and a bill relative to outstanding treasury notes, was made the special order for Wednesday.

The Kansas bill was then taken up.

Mr. Douglas favored the admission of Kansas.

Mr. Seward spoke of the evidence he witnessed of the favorable condition of society, government, &c. in Kansas.

Mr. Collamer favored the admission of Kansas, saying she has more population than is requisite for admission.

The question on Mr. Green's amendment, changing the boundaries of Kansas, was lost, 23 against 31.

Mr. Green offered another amendment, changing the boundaries of Kansas, which was lost.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the army bill, and passed it.

Mr. Pendleton of Ohio, referred to the bill authorizing the President to collect the revenues at Charleston, which was debated. Mr. Sherman defended the Republicans and the Republic. He said the army had never been used to oppress a State, except in the case of Kansas.

After further proceedings Mr. Burnett of Kentucky offered an amendment that no forces shall be employed against the seceding States. Rejected.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The nomination of Mr. Holt was finally confirmed, 38 against 13.

The bill introduced by Mr. McKean in the House on Monday was to repeal the law making Charleston, Georgetown and Beaufort ports of entry, as even in time of peace the collection of the revenue at those ports costs more than it amounts to. Mr. McKean's desire is to stop the foreign trade of those ports and to send a sufficient force to blockade them, and he is not alone in this view.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The correspondent of the Commercial Advertiser telegraphs that Mr. Iverson has received advices from Pensacola that Fort Pickens will be assaulted, because it has been recently garrisoned by the government.

SHIP ON FIRE.—Norfolk, Va., Jan. 18. Ship Morning Star, from Liverpool for City Point, arrived at Hampton Roads, reports fell in with ship Globus, bound to New York, 12th inst., on fire. Took off captain, crew and passengers, 140 in number, including 60 females and children. Only one was lost.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 18.—The Convention bill occupied the attention of both Houses to day. There was not so much opposition to a Convention, as to the particular details relating to State matters. The Convention will be called.

There is some disappointment at the northern opposition to Mr. Crittenden's resolutions, which weakens the Union sentiment.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Jan. 18. — The Convention has been in secret session all day. At 4 o'clock this afternoon a resolution was adopted declaring it to be the right and duty of Georgia to secede, and that a committee of seventeen be appointed to report a secession ordinance. The resolution was carried—165 against 130.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 18.—The Senate debated the House National Convention resolutions but without taking any action. The House passed the million appropriation bill for the defense of the State and the bill issuing Treasury six per cent. notes to that amount.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger inclines to the opinion that the fate of Charleston will be like that of Sunbury, a port in Georgia of some consequence before the Revolutionary war. The people of that place pursued much the same course as the Charlestonians have now, obstructing the channel by every means in their power, and the consequence is that now not a single white family remains in the town, the site of which has been converted into a plantation. Savannah, the Ledger claims, is slowly but certainly drawing all the trade from Charleston.

☞ Prof. Haddock, (formerly spelled Hadduck,) was a nephew of Daniel Webster, and formerly Professor in Dartmouth College, a fine intellectual scholar, and a gentlemen of great amenity and dignity of manners. His death will be much regretted. He was Charge d' Affaires of the United States in Portugal, in John Tyler's time, sent out by his uncle Webster. He was recently engaged in preparing a historical work on Portugal, which we suppose was left unfinished.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 18.—The programme of the secession of Louisiana has been agreed upon by the leading members of the Convention; also arrangements for perfecting a General Convention of the seceding States, at Montgomery, on the 10th of February, to devise a plan for a new Confederacy, based upon the Federal Constitution, to claim title and ask recognition of European Powers.

Forts Jackson and St. Phillip are to be largely reinforced for the defence of the mouths of the Mississippi. It is contemplated to fit out privateers in case of coercion by the North.

TALLAHASSEE, Fa., Jan. 12.—The Governor has appointed, and the Senate confirmed three delegates to the Southern Congress, which meets at Montgomery.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 18. — Resolutions have been introduced into the Senate, instructing the New Jersey Senators and Representatives in Congress to support Mr. Crittenden's resolutions; also in case of the failure of Congress to pass these resolutions, asking Congress to order a National Convention.

SAD CASE OF DESTITUTION. A boy in Cambridge of some fifteen years was brought into the Second Station on Friday night, having been found in a shed on Maine street, nearly frozen. His father, who is a mechanic in Boston, had deserted his wife, and the boy having no other resource, had built a pen in which he slept, and set up housekeeping for himself, but being without fuel had nearly perished with the cold when he was discovered.

GREAT RIDING.—Don Pico, of California, has recently ridden on horseback 150 miles in less than six hours—which is at the rate of 2:22 for each mile. Certainly, a remarkable performance for the kind of horses he rode.

In 1831, on a race course in England, Mr. Osbaldeston rode 400 miles in less than nine hours—at the rate of 2:12 per mile, or 26 miles an hour! He used twenty-eight blood horses, four mile heats.

☞ A correspondent sends us the Resolutions in favor of Union, the Constitution, and support of the General government, passed by the Ohio Legislature;—but we have not room for them in our crowded columns.

☞ In South Malden, Ms., a lad named Gurney, some 12 years of age, was badly burned by burning fluid Thursday evening. The fluid was in a bottle in his pocket; he went and stood by the stove, and in a few minutes the bottle exploded.

☞ Senator Simmons of Rhode Island said in his speech the other day that had the secession doctrine, as now preached, been brought forward in the Presidential canvass, the ticket of Mr. Breckinridge would not have polled 300,000 votes.

☞ The Georgia Constitutionalist says the State was carried for secession by the grossest frauds and sensation dispatches that the United States troops were bombarding Charleston.

A PROFITABLE COW.—The Fall River News says that Mayor Buffinton, in that city, owns a cow that has given him during the last twelve months 5991 quarts of milk, being an average of sixteen quarts and nearly a pint per day.

A CHILD SMOTHERED.—A poor, half-witted mother, near St. Louis, last week placed a feather bed over her little baby to keep it warm, as she said, and smothered it.

☞ In that bitter, cold storm on Friday night last, no less than six hundred persons, more than one hundred of whom were women, applied for, and were furnished with lodgings, at the various station houses in New York. Think of a whole village of people roofless on such a night.

☞ Mr. Lincoln, the President elect, is expected to start for Washington about the middle of February. The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road have tendered him a special train.

Why is the heel of your boot partisan in its character? Because it's bound to run down one side or the other.

Local.

☞ Through the agency of one liberal minded gentleman, who is in favor of some enterprise in our quiet city, the arrival of one ship's cargo at our wharves, has been accomplished. This will give employment to many men for a number of days to come. Thus a channel is open to our farmers for one more favorable opportunity to dispose of their hay crop. It would be gratifying to many of our citizens to see teams, heavily loaded with bales of hay for a southern market, passing through our streets.

Many of our merchants also could do the same, and we trust they will profit by this example. A.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—At a meeting of Portsmouth Division No. 17 on Monday evening, the following officers were installed for the January term:—

Jonathan Hall, W. P.;—Francis Reed, W. A.;—T. J. Banks, R. S.;—Frank Tarlton, A. R. S.;—Charles Wetherell, F. S.; A. C. Hoyt, T.;—Meshach Bell, C.;—Henry Yeaton, A. C.;—Eben Brackett, I. S.; Geo. E. Paul, O. S.

☞ The horse and sleigh stolen at Stratham, by the robbers of Dearborn's store in Exeter, discovered by Mr. Stephen Seamon, as he was proceeding to Exeter, shortly after 5 o'clock on Wednesday morning, near the Post Office in Stratham, and subsequently returned to Mr. Pitman, the owner.

☞ The snow in our streets is superabundant. The breaking out of paths is going on, and is found to be a laborious and costly business. In some of our narrow streets it is extremely difficult to make a sufficient sleigh path, without burying the sidewalks.

CORRECTION.—Mr. Dresser informs us that he made no charge or bribery against Marshal Norton, in the case of Charles Stevens, as investigated by the Board of Aldermen.

☞ The ship Judah Touro was towed to this city from Boston on Saturday. She now lies at Pier wharf.

☞ By a despatch dated Washington, Jan. 18, we learn that the vote to reconsider the rejection of the Crittenden resolutions was ayes 27, nays 24. All the Republicans voted against the re-consideration. The resolutions were made the special order for Monday.

DEATH AT A CHURCH MEETING.—In Portland, Ct., on Saturday afternoon, Mr. Ebenezer White, one of the most prominent, influential and respected citizens of the place, while in a society meeting in the Rev. Mr. Talcott's (Cong.) church, died suddenly. He was about to make some remarks to the meeting, and just as he was uttering the first word, he suddenly gasped, and fell forward, and was taken up—dead

THE ART UNION.—Copies of the fine engraving, 'Falstaff Mustering his Recruits,' may be seen in various styles of frames, at Exchange Hall. Pictures delivered at the time of subscribing. "Shakspeare and his Friends," or "The Village Blacksmith," will be furnished subscribers, if preferred; or either of these two last, without the Art Journal or a share in the drawing, for $2. The books close in Portsmouth Jan. 28th. See the advertisement of the "Seventh Year."

Perfection has been obtained, through art, science and experience, in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, as every lady who has tested it universally exclaims, "There is nothing like it!" Don't fail to test a paper, and you will never use any other. Call on your grocer for it, and do not be put off with any other. All the grocers sell it.

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Colds. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the neat objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawâm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, and is prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!
Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,
Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions; from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawâm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are sufficiently strong enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

THE GLORY OF LIFE.

Conflict between Man and his Circumstances.

A DISCOURSE

Delivered in the North Church, Portsmouth, Sunday, Jan. 20th;

BY REV. WILLIAM L. GAGE, PASTOR.

Iron sharpeneth iron.—PROV. XXVII, 17.

I wish to leave this afternoon the ordinary current of a sermon, not to wander into any uncertain philosophical speculations, not to solve the great problems that vex men's minds, not to talk of a theme that is alien to the purposes of preaching; yet one which is well worthy our thought, Man in conflict with his circumstances.

I could wish that there were some Fast Day soon to occur, on which I could speak all that I feel on this theme. The Sabbath alone is left me. I shall so speak, as not to forget the place or the day. I shall not fail to gather up at last some strictly gospel lesson, and as we pass along through the subject, it will be my wish to have the whole duty of man the one and constant thought.

The reason of my present argument is double; first, that the subject which I am to discuss is important; and secondly, because it has been thought by some that the sermon preached in this church last Thanksgiving day, coincides with a train of remark which has more or less acceptance with men, that the position of the laborer is in a state of slavery. The subject of the sermon of Thanksgiving day was, as some of you remember, the sources of national virtues and vices found in the individuals of the nation. The two manuscript pages on the subject of slavery, were as follows:

"So of slavery. We decry it as a national sin, or at any rate, as the sin of a large part of our nation. We think of it as an evil that attaches itself to a body of men in their collective, not in their individual capacity. We are prone to forget that it grows from seed that lies in every man's heart, and that the fruit ripens not more surely under the warm sun of Georgia, than in the cool air of New England. It grows from, and is the expression of, the tyranny and selfishness that lie in the nature of every man and every woman. It is an evil that takes a thousand forms, and its relation to those of different color from our own, is only one among these thousand forms. Human nature is black, base, cruel. There is a certain sense of honor in a duel that prevents us from striking a man when he is down, but it is an exception to our uniform way, of stamping and jumping on a man who is in our power. When a man is up, we love to pull him down, (all the slander that we hear and are tempted to give utterance to, proves that,) and when he is down we give him far more contempt than pity. We love to be masters, and nothing would please us more than irresponsible power. By the grace of God, some of us keep this feeling under, and in abeyance, but we cannot stifle it wholly; it constantly asserts itself in clangorous tones. And so long as we cannot say, 'The love of Christ constraineth me;' so long as we are daily bringing others into bondage to our indolence or pride; so long as the little rills of private character are darkened with this foul selfish love of power, and this unpitying want of favor to all who depend on us; so long will the great aggregate be slavery: slavery of all kinds, in all latitudes, always gross and hideous, and no more to be ignored and passed over here in the northern forms than there in its southern aspects."

And this view of Slavery I endorse, and re-affirm to-day no less heartily than I did eight weeks ago. There is slavery here at the North, and among us; and there are few people who pass from the cradle to the grave without trying to draw others into bondage to them. There are few who do not try to exercise a despotic spirit over their little circle. Notice two men in debate. See the one who straightens himself up, presses his lips together firmly at the close of every sentence, is boisterous in his utterance, knits his brow in defiance, and is excited in his mien. He has no better arguments than the other, and no more reliance on them than the other. But he has a despot's spirit, and is trying to face down opposition, not argue it away. There is the spirit of slavery wherever will tries to master will. There is slavery wherever pride tries to make a servant of humility.—There is slavery whenever I make men come to me instead of going half way to meet them. There is slavery whenever and under whatever forms, might tries to master right. All this is slavery; all this is the working out of man's imperious nature.—It takes its form in the South where the black man is brought into bondage to the white; here at the North, existing without organized form, it is found wherever will tries unjustly to master will, and where might tries to master right.

Now this is plainly a very different thing from the relation which exists between labor and capital, between man and his circumstances. To apply the term slavery to the relation which labor holds to capital, which man has to his circumstances, is to give it a meaning wholly unnatural, and contrary to all the proprieties of speech. There is a certain accuracy in speaking of a man as in bondage to his passions; as the slave of his lusts; where the nobler reason has to bow and serve the baser appetite; where the might of brutal nature masters the right of the divinity that stirs within us;—but it is a wrong and unwarranted use of speech to call a man's submitting to the necessities of laboring and caring, the being brought into enslavement. I am not the slave of him who employs me; I am the slave of him who compels me.

Slavery is never found excepting when a despotic spirit is put forth on the one side, and submitted to on the other. It may never be confounded with the eternal conflict of man and his circumstances. This is not the place nor the day to discuss the relations between labor and capital, and show that in their proper administration they are in harmony, not in conflict; that labor is the great co-worker with capital, not its antagonist; that the capitalist is not the master of the laborer, but his best friend.—I rather discuss the conflict of man with his circumstances. This sets it on a platform higher than that of the relations between capital and labor; this is a theme worthy of the pulpit and of the day; because it shows man raised from a place of abasement, and made a conqueror in a great cause.

It has been for many years a favorite question with debating clubs, which is the greater, man or his circumstances? does a great man create circumstances, or do circumstances create a great man? Like many questions which have been raised, this has been argued too much in an extreme way, certain persons looking exclusively at one side of the question, certain persons looking exclusively at the other. We come to its true answer, when we do not put ourselves at either extreme, but try to see, in a single but strong light, man where he is brought to meet his circumstances. And in that light we discover that in a life that is heroic, that is worthy of admiration, man is in conflict with his circumstances. We do not look at man, standing alone, with a strong, resolute nature: apart from life, and its conditions, and its work. Nor do we look at things alone, at circumstances unconnected with man, and see how rigid and unconforming they are. We look at the two where they meet; we look at the point of conflict. We see man born into a world of elements which condition him, which constrain him, which shape him; a world of circumstances; we see some men bow down to their conditions, and go thro' the world abased and abject. But they are not in slavery. Slavery is when will meets will, when man's might meets and tries to master man's right.

But our being born into a world of circumstances is completely unlike this. It is the glory of life that, born where things keep us down, we may rise above them.—Some men are born into an atmosphere of ignorance, gross and thick; it is their glory that they run out of its blinding mists and enter into the clear atmosphere of knowledge. Some men are born into an atmosphere of immorality, of pollution; it is their glory that they come out from it incontaminate and sweet. Some men are born into an atmosphere of poverty, deep and sore; it is their glory if they rise above it and conquer competence. Some men are born into an atmosphere of wealth; it is their glory if they rise above the fascinations of luxurious chairs and groaning tables, and conquer activity. Nothing grows hardy or strong without it has obstacles to meet. Our conditions are not meant to fetter us, but to harden and nurture us. The laborer here with us was not made to fold his hands, and weep and deplore his lot, and say that he is in bondage to some rich capitalist, that he is the slave of some hard master:—he is to remember that the great freedom is his to go forward and conquer; to win a competence if he can; if not, to win intelligence, capacity, thought, influence. It is right for me to say it, for it is true that the artizan who can do little more than earn his living has a more open field than he who is born into a life of luxury. Wealth stands more obstinately in the way of noble achievement than poverty. Poverty stimulates, if it does not cheer; inherited wealth soothes and unmans. All honor to the man and to the woman who can throw off the apathy which wealth induces; all praise to him and to her who can preserve activity and ambition under such a pressure. "Golden fetters are stronger than iron."

The French government is opposed to the spread of Protestantism in France; and so, with shrewd insight into human nature, it endows Protestant churches, and pays Protestant ministers the same salaries which it allows to Catholic priests of the same talent; and bought, like Iscariot, with gold, they become humbly subservient to the government, which is their patron, taking pious care of their own churches, but not seeking to extend a faith which is obnoxious to the ministers of such princely liberality. I do not assert that this is always the working of wealth, but that it is the tendency. Yet there are many—yea, many in every town and city and church, who in the possession of large means never lose the spring of their aspirations; who are active and earnest, contending successfully with circumstances, which, yielded to, have more power to unman the soul than poverty has. And this I say again, is our work, the work of every one who hears my voice.

Our lives can have the same elements of sublimity in them which made a Washington's life sublime. Once in a while a man whom God has well endowed, is born into the midst of troublesome times. He goes forth to meet the marshalled circumstances of his age. He comes in conflict with them. He summons up all the powers of thought, energy and will that he possesses, and, strong in their combined force, he shapes his times anew. He surmounts conditions—he masters circumstances. Thus it is that Washington and Cromwell and Frederick become immortal, in gaining the victory in the great conflict between themselves and the circumstances of their times. Thus it is that such men as Raglan and Neckar and Turgot go down. The power of their manhood is not great enough to command the circumstances of their age.

Thus the question of the debating societies, Which is the greatest, man or his circumstances? cannot have a single answer. It all depends upon the man. Some are victorious in the conflict with their circumstances; some are vanquished. There are as many answers to the question as there are men in the world. We have each of us a battle-field, where we each of us conquer or fall. Our life is not a plantation field where we, in the badge of slavery, are whipped by such masters as care for our families, desire to better our condition and the like, and where we are to cow down under the lash and acknowledge that such servitude is our natural condition. It is a battle-field where we meet our conditions and fight them, and master them so far as we may, contending for every inch, and proud of every inch that we win. Some of you have read Miss Wetherell's book called The Hills of the Shatemuc, and remember how the two boys in the country, who had read little and heard little of what the world holds, sat down on the plough tail, and reached out in mind to the great domains of man beyond their circle of hills, and determined that they would know what lay there. That was the first blow in their conflict with the conditions of their life. Such reachings out you all ought to have. You are hemmed in by circumstances; you can make your lives sublime by mastering them. You know that you are not their slave; you know that they are to be mastered; they are to be to you what flint is to steel.

I suppose there may be times when labor stands in false relations to capital, and when for a little while a spirit of despotism may be put forth by those who command labor. But this is where the right order of things is inverted, not where true and permanent laws are in operation. I do not think, however, that such things have taken place in England or in France during our day.—Where an immense population has a limited amount of work to do, the prices of labor must run low, and the laborer have hard work to live. Yet even there he is not and may not be called a slave. The evil does not lie in the will of the capitalist, but in the number of the population. And there was the evil in the great manufacturing cities of the old world ten years ago. A swarming population had but a limited amount to do, and they suffered; and men on this side of the water called it British slavery; as though British capitalists had a spite against those who drove their looms.—Things have changed, the cotton market has so extended, and the demands have so poured in, from China and Africa, and all the isles of the sea, for the products of civilized lands, that the rate of prices does not vary materially between Manchester in England and Manchester, New Hampshire, between Glasgow and Lowell.—The sentence which you read in the sermon scattered among you last week, you have heard in every form of expression since Mary Barton was written, more than ten years ago; that "Great Britain well boasts of her freedom, yet she has thousands of slaves in her factories; men and women who have no more control over their own muscles than they have over those of their antipodes; who are not even able to change their place of service." Not only is the word slave always wrongly used in such a passage as that, but the assertion itself no longer conveys a fact. I do not impugn the sincerity with which the assertion is made, but personal inquiries, made not more than eight months ago, have shown me what a change ten years have wrought; a change that American writers have not as yet generally seen. It is more difficult to procure a servant girl now in Glasgow than in Boston, and the price paid is the same in both cities. What was called British slavery is all past. Not a vestige of it remains. Work is abundant, and prices are good. It never was slavery; it is not longer even an evil.

Let us bid farewell to our subject in a solemn view. To advance along the general line of thought to the religious aspect of the theme is but a step—a natural, easy step. God does lay upon us burdens here which we cannot bear in our own strength. He brings to us trials which overwhelm the heart. Our own brave battle will not carry us off conqueror in all the conflict. But this is our consolation: that whenever those intolerable burdens come, and we grow sick and faint in our efforts to bear them, he gives us the strength that we lack in ourselves. Even death approaches without a sting, if we meet it in a Christian's strength. Nerved by this sustaining power, Paul could say, "We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair: persecuted, but not forsaken, cast down, but not destroyed." The help of the Holy Spirit is with us, and in that help we can each of us say, "I can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth me." If we go forth in the panoply of Christ, we need be daunted by nothing, for nothing can bring us into subjection. For all things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours; and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's."

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending

COSMOPOLITAN

Art Association

have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five membership, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

Address C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A., 548 Broadway, New York.

N. B.—Subscriptions received received and forwarded by

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dye Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Lowell, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. G. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, EX Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

☞ The failure of Cyrus W. Field is said to be a bad one. It is said that the estate will pay less than twenty-five cents on the dollar. He has has never recovered from the Atlantic cable operation. Had that been a successful affair, he would have been one of the marked and successful men of New York; but that failed, and he has gone down with it, as every correspondent of the Journal.

☞ Timothy Heenan, father of the pugilist, died in West Troy, N. Y., on Thursday. The deceased had a good share of the "muscle" possessed by his son, but he used it to better advantage, and was an industrious and respected master blacksmith in the Watervliet Arsenal.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you cut of order? Do your system derranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be warded by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions, if not relieved, fixed upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. Nature in this condition, opposed by the disordered humors, takes Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. Where is the man or woman in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Causal by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Where other cathartics fail, these Pills will perfect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured me of a long train of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purgas. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills, because I have cured almost every every with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as a purgative, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, in bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in discharge of my pastoral duties. To regulate the stomach, purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of life blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. V. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I was entirely cured.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its improper use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long established want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Cramp or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—practical, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE, SAFE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some time past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and the numerous testimonials of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyzes of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

DEBILITY,

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, purify the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In the class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing to which the weaker sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with pulseless, sallow face, a clammy feeling of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have in our possession hundreds of testimonials, the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or physical pursuits are contracted through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, as well as those of the Kidneys, Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as superior to all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, and certificates of its extraordinary cures will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-similie signature upon the wrapper None other is genuine.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 409 Broadway, New York.

And sold by them, and all respectable Druggists.

Sold in Portsmouth by PRESTON, THACHER, HUTCHINGS and KIMBALL. s6 1y

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

—FOR—

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form the nutritive properties of Wheat, and has received the highest encomiums from eminent medicinal authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATTERING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective in the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a cordial or agent it has a tendency to recreate and strengthen; while age having contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and mellow body, it affords a pleasure conducive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO., (Established 1778.)

Dyspepsia remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Flatus in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Fits of Dizziness, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquor, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a cure or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personewho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the effects, (a pitiable condition,) liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, isa trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents per bottle.

WHITE GUN POWDER.—A letter from London says:—"I have heard in the city of a curious invention, which concerns alike sportsmen, riflemen and the scientific. It is the manufacture of "white" gunpowder. It is made no mystery of, being composed of yellow potassa, chloride of potassium, loaf sugar, crystallized sugar and brimstone. It possesses superior qualities over the black powder, being quicker and more powerful in its action, and not fouling the gun. For the delicate in the olfactory nerves, it may be added that it is without unpleasant smell. It has just been patented."

CAPITAL.—A few days since, while in conversation with a Republican friend who don't often attend church, when there is no meeting, the folly and insane course of South Carolina happened to be mention.—"Well," said our friend, "I never did have very strong faith in the Bible, but I can't resist the force of its declaration, that "whom the gods will to destroy they first make mad."—Bath Times.

Mr. Corwin in one of his recent appeals for compromise before the House Committee of Thirty-three, said:—"The people must agree to some terms or see the opening of the 'Sixth Seal.'" Turning to the sixth chapter of Revelation the great significance of the illustration is at once apparent.

The compositor in the Courier office in Portland, made the editor speak of Zoological instead of Theological School. Not so great a mistake as he might have made.—Bath Times.

Whatever you are required to do, do it to the best of your ability. You will find great benefit from such a course, even if your position in life should be greatly changed.

SNAILS.—If hewas a bold man who ate the first oyster, it is evident that he was a bolder or more hungry man who ate the first snail. Nevertheless, the snail has been regarded as an article of food, from the earliest ages.

An old Grecian philosopher advised all men to know themselves. That's advising a good many to form very low and disreputable acquaintances.

Many a poor woman thinks she can do nothing without a husband; and when she gets one, finds she can do nothing with him.

"I was nearly ruined twice in my life," said Voltaire, "once when I lost a lawsuit, and once when I gained one."

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 53 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is stated, because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea, in all climates, and under all circumstances; it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, which waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficacy of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook. The article is made by me on the premises of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use.
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BISCUIT, FAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste with cold milk or water, milk is preferable; it must be enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together, add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal; all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth, then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTRIC CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together: add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; flavor and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of Peruvian Bark, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said: "As a tonic the preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, scrutinizes and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only medicine ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by those who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful a least, before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often cut down by the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But this cannot be, as always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 44 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1861.

OFFICIAL EVIDENCE OF TREASON.—Information communicated from the War Department adds to the previous evidence that Secretary Floyd was acting in complicity with the conspirators against the government long before any suspicion was entertained on the subject. Secretary Holt says of the guns, 124 in number, which were ordered from Pittsburg to the South—the order being countermanded on account of the excitement at Pittsburg—"they were not manufactured for the forts to which they were to have been forwarded, nor had they been purchased by any special appropriation for the erecting or arming of these forts.

He further says that they would have been perfectly useless at these forts, as they will not be in a condition to receive their armament for several years to come. Gen. Totten, of the Engineer Department, says of the fort at Galveston, Texas, that no more work has been done than for temporary purposes, sheds, warehouses, and quarters for mechanics, &c. The ground has hardly been broken for the foundation of the forts, and the armament cannot be needed for five years. The fort on Ship Island will not be ready for its first tier of guns for some months, even on temporary platforms. Not a gun could be mounted now, and another large appropriation will be needed before the work can be ready for its entire armament.

A late dispatch from Washington states as a singular fact that Colonel Craig, a thorough Union man, who was at the head of the Ordnance Bureau, and the only man who was thoroughly posted in regard to the transfer of the public arms from Northern armories and arsenals to Southern secession States, was about to be removed by Secretary Floyd to California when Mr. Floyd resigned, and a secessionist was to take his place.

Secretary Holt's first letter to Congress, giving a statement of only ordinary distributions of arms, not being satisfactory, further information was asked for, and he transmitted a statement of Col. Craig, Chief of the Ordnance Bureau, which shows that early last year, by special direction of Gov. Floyd, he transferred 150,000 stand of arms from Springfield and Watervliet, N. Y., to arsenals in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Louisiana. The larger number were Springfield muskets, of the latest pattern. The remainder were muskets altered to percussion caps, and rifles. Col. C. adds: "The arms sent to South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana have since been seized by the State authorities."

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, Saturday, Jan. 19,—the Kansas admission bill was considered.

In the House, the Army bill was passed. The bill providing for the payment of the California war debt, amounting to $500,000, for suppressing Indian hostilities, was passed. Private bills were also considered. Mr. Florence gave notice that he would on Monday offer an amendment to the report of the Committee of Thirty-three, so as to give the House an opportunity of considering the Crittenden compromise.

☞ A late dispatch from New Orleans says:

The pilots of Pensacola have been notified not to bring in United States vessels under the penalty of death.

These are people who must not be coerced, we suppose. How true it is, that all those who oppress others, enslave them, or deprive them of their rights, are wonderfully sensitive when anybody invades their prerogatives, or interferes in any way with their claims.

☞ The Concord Railroad corporation has just concluded a business contract with the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad, to extend twenty years from December 1st, 1861. It is substantially a renewal of the existing contract in point of the division of receipts, &c. The arrangement is regarded as a beneficial one, both to the roads and the public, and has been adopted by the stockholders of both corporations.

☞ The Democratic candidate for Register of Deeds in Carroll county, is Loammi Hardy of Ossipee,—for many years a cripple, from the effects of rheumatism. The Republican candidate for the same office, is Joseph Gilman of Tamworth. It will doubtless be interesting to see how these cripples run against each other.

Had Mr. Seward laid down a regular and definite programme to be followed by the new administration, he would only have set himself and his plan up for a target for political sharpshooters to fire at for the next six weeks. The country needs calmness rather than plans. A fever needs to be allayed by sedatives, and then remedial agents may be applied with some hope of success. Mr. Seward has indicated the general spirit and temper of the new administration, and for this he is entitled to the thanks of all patriots.—Bath Times.

EUROPEAN NEWS.—New York, Jan. 19. Steamship Asia, from Liverpool 5th and Queenstown 6th arrived here this morning. She brings 340,000 pounds sterling in specie.

It is stated that the English government has sent a strong note to France against the extension of French occupation in Syria. No reply has been received as yet.

Four steamers from the United States were over due when the Asia sailed.—There had been a heavy easterly storm.—The ship Bostonian is breaking up.

It was reported that the Prince of Wales will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

It is reported that there had been an unsatisfactory correspondence between England and France relative to the French fleet before Gaeta.

Negotiations are pending for the extension of the armistice at Gaeta.

Two Sardinian vessels with war materials had been seized at Galatz.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Letters from distinguished sources in Georgia say that, though the State considers it her duty to secede, she is willing to re-unite with the other States on terms satisfactory as to her political and social safety.

Two nights ago Fort Pickens was in immediate danger of assault, but there seems now to be no ground for fear of an immediate conflict, as dispatches have been sent by numerous secessionists in Congress, urging the avoidance of a collision

Col. Hayne will remain in Washington a fortnight longer. His visit has been productive of great good in the interest of peace. No attack on Fort Sumter is apprehended at present.

Ex-President Tyler is expected in a day or two to urge upon government to avoid all measures likely to lead to hostilities in the southern States. Judge Robinson proceeds to South Carolina and Florida on a similar errand.

Washington is more free from excitement than at any time since the commencement of the session. Apprehensions of difficulty at the inauguration exist, but to a limited extent. Ample measures have been taken to guard against the possibility of trouble.

With the probable action of Louisiana this week, the secession movement will be retarded as to other States.

A company of sappers and miners from West Point, acting as infantry, has arrived.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—[Dispatch to the Boston Journal.]—Hon. John C. Rives left this morning for Richmond. He is more hopeful for a preservation of the Union between the Northern States.

Judge Greenwood will probably accept the appointment to the Interior Department.

Marshal Kane of Baltimore and Mayor Berrett of this city declare that there is no danger that the inauguration of Lincoln will be prevented by a mob. PERLEY.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19.—The steamer Atlantic, arrived from Pensacola last evening, reports 2000 men at the Navy Yard. Troops are arriving from all directions. The Wyandotte, lying at the mouth of the harbor, is communicating with Fort Pickens, the families of the officers being on board. She is out of coal and supplies, but is not permitted to enter the harbor. Opinion is divided as regards fighting.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 21.—The four soldiers, from Fort Sumter, who were brought here as witnesses in a murder case, on Saturday, attempted to escape, but were unsuccessful, and were escorted in a coach by a file of soldiers to the boat.

Gov. Pickens sent some fresh provisions on Sunday to Major Anderson with his compliments, but Maj. Anderson refused to receive them, thanking the Governor for his courtesy, saying that he would decline to receive anything until he knew what the government at Washington intended to order.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Numerous applications continue to be received from postmasters of the seceding States for stamps, but the Department will not supply them till they guarantee to hold themselves responsible to the government for all postal revenues.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—All the military of this city, as well as of Brooklyn, have been notified to be in readiness at signals from the City Hall bells.

☞ Mr. J. R. Hamilton, late Lieutenant in the United States Naval service, having resigned his commission has addressed a letter to his late associates in the service, desiring them in his own words "to search their hearts and there learn how much allegiance they owe to such a Government, with its tattered, and almost blood stained Constitution." He further addresses them:

"The forts along the whole Southern seaboard are now, or soon will be, in possession of the States to which they belong. If those still held by the United States are not given up to us peaceably, then, in a few weeks at the most, must we make a formal declaration of war. In that hour I know you will not serve with the North against the South. The South expects you to strike for her honor wherever you are; and, when you have the power, to bring back your ships into Southern waters with the Southern flag nailed to the mast."

That is, in plain English, he invites them to turn pirates, and steal the ships.—And this is Chivalry.

The Boston Post remarks:—

The pronunciamento of Lieut. Hamilton is not very important, but it adds force to the suggestion that every officer and man in the army ought to be required to take the oath of allegiance to the government anew.

FIRE IN CHICOPEE.—The Arms Manufactory at Chicopee, a large establishment, was destroyed by fire on Friday night. This manufactory had a contrast for a large amount of fire-arms to go South, which the workmen were engaged upon at the time.

MARSHAL NORTON'S STATEMENT.

To the Editors of the Chronicle:—I did not intend to make any reply to an article in your paper of the 19th, headed "City Affairs;" but as many of my friends think that justice to myself and the public calls for some reply, permit me, through your columns, to make a plain statement of all that took place between myself and the Mr. Johnson of New Market, referred to in your paper of the day above named.

On the 22d of December, being very stormy, I was sitting in the watch house about 3 P. M., when I was called to go to Mr. Cheever's store. He stated to me that a man in company with another person, had come there to buy some pants. Two pairs were handed him to take into a back room to try on. The customer soon came out, and said neither would fit him, and started to leave the store, when some one said one pair was missing. Mr. C. charged the man with having them; the customer paid over $5.50, the price of the pants, and left the store. Soon afterward it was ascertained that the two pairs of pants were missing. Then I was sent for. After getting a description of the person, I found him in Mr. Downs' store. He was brought before Mr. Cheever, and at once recognized as the person who took the pants. He was accused of the theft, but said he had no knowledge of any pants. He paid over $5.50 for the two pairs, but could give no account of either pair. Mr. C. was asked by me what he wished to have done in the matter. His reply was, "I don't want anything done; the man is evidently crazy with liquor;" he said he had got his pay for all his goods, and added that he thought the best thing I could do, was to see that the man was got home.

I then said to the man, "My friend you are in bad company, and would be likely to get into trouble;" and advised him to go home, telling him that cars would leave shortly for New Market. His reply was, "I should be glad to go home if I knew how to find the cars." I then said to him if he would go, I would go to the depot with him, and see that he had a seat in the cars. He consented, Mr. Cheever remarking, "That is the best thing you can do." We left the store, but in Vaughan street we met a person with whom I had a moment's conversation, and when I turned round my companion was not to be seen.

I went directly to the depot, hoping to find him there; stopped till the cars left, but he did not appear. I came back to the watch-house, and found Johnson there. I looked on the slate (which is kept for the purpose of entering all commitments and cases, with name of person committing;)—found he was put there by officer Dresser; no cause named.

Taking it for granted that he was put there for being drunk, I told him if he would go home I would let him out; and at that moment Dresser came and told me that the man had been stealing; the man was put back in the cell. Dresser and myself left to see the injured parties, and ascertain the extent of crime; called at Mr. Freeman's saloon; not finding him there, went to his dwelling, and ascertained by the ladies there that the man had entered the front entry and taken from a hat rack some furs, and was about leaving, when detected; and on request gave them all up. The ladies were told by me that they would be wanted in the Police Court on Monday.—They all refused to come, saying they never were in Court, and did not want to go—saying at the same time that they had not lost anything. Next I called on Mr. Thacher; he told me a man came in there and bought a piece of sponge, which he paid 81 cents for; in going out took three umbrellas left at the door by some of his customers. I asked him the value of the umbrellas. He replied, "Not much—all old ones." I then asked Mr. T. if he wished the man prosecuted? He said, "No; we have lost nothing, and the man didn't appear to know what he was about." I then went to Mr. Freeman's saloon, and asked him what was his wish in regard to the man that got his wife's furs. His reply was, "I don't want anything done; my folks do not want to go to Court." I replied, "We cannot do anything in Court without witnesses." I left the saloon, not knowing what to do; it being Saturday evening, the Mayor was at home, and could not be seen till Monday.

I went back to the Watch house, and told Johnson I did not know what to do with him; after weighing the matter, well in my own mind, I came to the conclusion, that if the Mayor was here and knew the circumstances, he would order the man discharged. I then told the man if he would go out of town, I would discharge him. He said he would go home. I told him he could not get to New Market that night, as the cars had gone, and it stormed very hard. He then said he was well acquainted at Greenland, and he would go to Mr. Frink's Hotel that night. He was then told that if he would go directly out of town, I would let him out, telling him at the same time that I lived at the next part of the city, and as I was going home, would show him the road to Greenland. We left the Watch-house and started for my home on State street, near Mr. Whitcomb's saloon, Johnson made a halt, and said, "I cannot go to Greenland in this storm." He was told that he must either go out of town or be locked up in the watch-house till Monday. He then took out his wallet, and offered me $3 to take him to Greenland that night. I replied, "That is a poor equivalent for going to Greenland in this storm, and paying half of it for a team." But I would do it rather than he should be locked up till Monday. I got a team and took him to Greenland, arriving home about 7. On reaching home, I learned that Mr. Cheever had lost a coat.

As I was in the habit of doing, I reported all the circumstances to Mayor Reding on Monday morning, telling him at the same time that I had done as I thought he would have ordered me to do, if I had seen him on Saturday evening; but if I had done wrong in discharging the man, and he wished him brought back, I was ready at any moment to bring him back without one cent's expense to the city. His reply was, I do not know what better you could have done. No order was given me to get the man, nor was fault found by the Mayor with what had been done.

A few days after, I learned there was a warrant sent to New Market for Johnson. I again asked Mayor Reding if it was his wish that Johnson should be brought back. His answer was, "I have no wish about it." I supposed the matter stood at rest there; knowing that the City Charter made the Mayor Chief of Police, and myself, as well as the assistant marshals, were at work under him and subject to his order at all times. Johnson was brought back and tried without the authority of Mayor Reding or Mayor Simes, and without the request of any injured party.

I will name some reasons why I took the course I did, in the absence of the Mayor. I have always been cautioned by the Mayor—whose orders I always took pleasure in executing—to be careful how I brought cases before the Police Court to make expense to the City, unless I was quite sure of convicting. In this case all refused to appear in Court. Another reason was, I have been told by the Mayor, where the injured parties were satisfied, not to prosecute at the expense of the City. There was a case where one boy was stabbed, which created quite a sensation. I called on the injured parties, and made known my errand. I was told there was no wish to have any one troubled about it. I so reported to the Mayor, and his reply was, "If the injured parties did not wish to prosecute, I need not do anything about it." In other cases of that kind, and some stealing cases, where the injured parties did not wish a prosecution, the matter was dropped by order of the Mayor.

Many have asked how the man—whose real name is Stevens,—appeared. His appearance and movements were irregular; while standing still, he appeared gloomy and stupid; then starting suddenly, he would move with all his might. He was a little too much in liquor to walk steadily; but would run very swiftly. He could not give any account of the pants he had paid Mr. Cheever for; but the next day the pants were found in Mr. Gregory's wood shed. The coat, which was missed after the man had gone, has never been heard from, nor was it taken out of town by the person himself. It appeared like cases that occur sometimes: persons who when in liquor would do things cunningly and shrewdly, after getting sober had no knowledge of what they had done. After being arrested and brought back, he knew no one, and would not recognize the pants that he had paid Mr. Cheever for, when they were shown him. He was an entire stranger to me—good looking and well dressed.

Many too have asked why Mr. Dresser was so anxious to have the man brought back, when the Mayor was satisfied, and gave no orders to have it done. I have always tried to think it was done in good faith and with honorable motives, until I learned he laid an application before the Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Thursday evening last, for the appointment of City Marshal. Since then, the matter is fully explained.

But the worst feature in the matter has not been named. I have been charged by Mr. Dresser with being bribed to let the prisoner out. That I have denied, and still deny. That charge has been thoroughly investigated, and the result, Messrs. Editors, you may copy from the resolution passed in the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, at their last meeting.

Resolved, that, in the opinion of this Board, City Marshal Norton was not justified in discharging the prisoner Charles Stevens from custody; and it is furthermore the opinion of this Board, that there is no evidence that he (Marshal Norton) received money from said Stevens as a bribe.

Notwithstanding Mr. Dresser's denial of charging me with being bribed, he did make the charge, to more than three or four persons; and said he could prove it, which he has failed to do.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawdm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!
Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills
Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,
Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent. One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawdm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Miller, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.
Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me very unwell for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

GREENLAND, Jan. 18, 1861.

Messrs. Editors:—We are in the enjoyment of the full tide of an old-fashioned winter. The storm of last night, like those of years gone by, covers the division lines of stone walls and fences, and makes one feel like a great landholder, when we can see no limits to our usually small farm.—Let those who talk of the desolateness of country life in the winter, leave their snow blocked streets, harness up their double teams, and come and see some of the beauties that now bless the vision of country dwellers like ourself. 'Tis true that Spring's verdure is more grateful to the eye than the dazzling whiteness in which the sleeping earth is now enrobed. But there is so much to admire in the varied effect of the new fallen snow upon the trees and landscape; each limb and tuft of twigs having caught one by one from heaven the tiny flakes, presenting some form of beauty adjusted to its capabilities, before undiscovered.

The evergreens, hemlocks, larches, spruce and arbor vitæ, having more than ordinary capacity in their majestic branches and wide-spread palms, vie with each other in the graceful curves with which they bend beneath their load, until the branches droop to the snow-clad earth. The graceful, modest elm, has decorated itself around its trunk with a thousand fantastical twistings of lace-work—whiter certainly, and far more delicate than the wonderful tracery of the fingers of the East India girls; and each tree presents a thousand more new and original forms peculiar to itself. A designer of patterns for lace-work might here find a harvest of exquisite hints.

Beside these stands the giant oak—symbol of strength;—its limbs are bedecked with the feathery flakes; but it scorns to bend its tough and knotted branches, dreaming in its frigid leaflessness of its future destiny beneath the gallant stars and stripes, to plough the ocean wave in every clime; proudly invading the very region where the iceberg had its cradling. The pretty apple trees in the orchard, look like a sisterhood of nuns, with bended heads and spotless caps of white.

And the old farmhouse itself, upon the northerly side, has received a coat, giving it the look of an old castle, freshly white-washed. On such a morning, when the fingers of the storm magician have been busy all the night in their decorating art, the country is full of beauty to him who hath eyes to see, and taste to appreciate

But we must not dwell longer on the poetic scene. There's work to be done: we must turn out our team, and do our share of breaking out the roads; and many a joke and hearty ha! ha! will ring around among the farmers: and the merry voices of gleeful childhood will fill in, as in their arctic furs and warm mittens they roll up the big snow man. The sound of tinkling bells, mingled with the hilarious voices of the sweeter sex, comes up the road, and they are no less stirring and pleasant, when we behold the noble greys of our neighbor, the Colonel, prancing boldly through the untrodden path, looking so proud of their merry load—the sprightly daughters of their owner. The sight reminds me that I am to ride to town to-day, to buy one of those elegant sleighs advertised in the Chronicle, and at the same time to leave this with you. From GREENLAND.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR KANSAS.—Messrs. Editors:—Our citizens have responded nobly to the call for aid, which has come to them from those hardly but suffering sons of toil in Kansas.

A short time since, Hon. Lorenzo Dow of Kansas appeared before a large audience at the North Church, and made a plain statement of the deplorable condition of affairs in the territory; after which, the various religious societies of which the audience was composed, responded with a collection of $140. Since then, money has been freely contributed, clothing has been sent suitable for men, women and children, and every effort has been made to relieve those now destitute and in a suffering condition. One of our merchants, a noble-hearted man, has forwarded a box of clothing, valued at $135, and another large box has been sent, containing a great variety of useful things, which were contributed by different individuals.

A great many donations and presents have also been sent, which will swell the amount to more than $300, which, with the $100 collected by Dr. Fuller, will make not far from $600 given by the citizens of Portsmouth. Thus have they followed the words of holy writ, "Give to him that asketh thee," &c. R.

☞ Rev. Mr. Lindley, whose interesting lecture, on Missions in Africa, was listened to with so much interest a few weeks ago, will speak again at the North Church this (Tuesday) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock.—All who wish well to the spread of the gospel among all nations, are invited to be present.

SACO, ME., Jan. 19.—Hon. Jonathan Tuck, Mayor of Biddford, died this morning.

CHARLESTON, Jan.19.—Lieut. Talbot arrived last night with gloomy tidings. The Governor and Cabinet were consulting a greater part of the night on his intelligence.

A boat with a white flag arrived from Fort Sumter this morning, for the purpose of demanding of South Carolina to cease building fortifications.

Lieutenant Davis is here from Fort Sumter on parole; also four soldiers, who are witnesses in a murder case. The fort is allowed to obtain fresh provisions here.

PETERSBURG, Va., Jan. 20.—One thousand kegs of powder and twenty thousand pounds of shot and shell, from Tredegar works in Richmond, left this morning in a special train, en route for Charleston, to the order of Governor Pickens.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 19.—A colored woman, a fugitive slave from Wheeling, Va., was arrested to-day, and will be examined on Monday. Judge Tilden has issued a writ of habeas corpus, returnable on Monday morning. There is a little excitement, but it is confined entirely to the colored population. The woman admits that she belongs to the claimant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The House special committee of five will report on Monday or Tuesday. The report will be adopted.

Kansas will be admitted on Monday.

Mr. Etheridge of Tennessee will again attempt, on Monday, to introduce his compromise resolutions.

☞ It is rumored that Joseph McKibben has been elected Senator from California by a Republican and Dougl ascombined vote.

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending

COSMOPOLITAN

have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 23 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound" in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

The sceptic who denies a great first uncreated cause of all things, says nothing can exist without a natural cause. Let him tell what caused or produced the first bird's egg. He will doubtless say it was laid by a bird; but from whence came the bird that laid the first egg?—This is no new or original argument, but it is a "short method" with the sceptic, and as logically effectual as it is short. Both the necessity for, and the incontrovertible evidence of a first uncreated, uncaused Cause, he wrapped up in that first egg.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OGDENSBURG, N.Y., Mail, Jan. 1, 1859.

J. C. AYER & CO. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it shows out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me with Dyspepsia. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many remedies and many physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was urged to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla) which I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the sore, and it soon after which I ceased taking it. I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I pray to God for the success of the agent, and remain ever gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 15th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate Scrofulous disease of the nature of Erysipelas, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by the same.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a cutaneous disease which broke out on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. T. R. Gunning, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Jones, of Newbury, Ala., writes: "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could command, at last yielded to some persevering trials with your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects of your Sarsaparilla in my practice.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects so wonderful in the cure of the secondary forms of Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the bones of his nose. Your Sarsaparilla, with the iodide, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believed the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from pains in her bones, ulcers in her mouth, and swellings to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She was kept entirely off work by her sufferings. I had her taken, unknown from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a good remedy; consequently, I have truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. Y. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 4th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER, Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla; one bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FRASH.

John Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Lyon, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew from, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a man of me. I feel like a new man. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, and Nervous Ills.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus removes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the physicians of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of the various lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its extraordinary virtues for these complaints, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Its unrivalled excellence in allaying the troublesome cough in those who have put some personal experience of its efficacy, now bring trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. And since the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as we know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it will now give the same proof that it did have when making the cures which have made it so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and prescription of DR. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple affections of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and easily cured, if cured, a slight shiverings, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumptive, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being in hand, simple, and you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects produced are certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the value of these remedies for the use of private persons, as being THE MOST PERFECT AND THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST EFFICACIOUS AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariably success. They speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, which is known as the Vital Phosphorus, and which is identical with its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and languid nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, weak-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, now believed by many, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

DEBILITY,

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Whites, Uterine Pains, especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality, any thing of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be overlooked. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patant or officinal, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a stimulating cordial, when all other brandies fail, we guard our bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses, France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed for the medicinal purposes, and family use. Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

Dyspepsia Remedy

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended for Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Dizziness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do:

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are painfully afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual system, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations of the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Spirit three times a day in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

SPAYING A MARE.—Dr. Dadd, V. S., has recently performed the novel operation of spaying a mare (removing the ovaries). The mare was six years old, and belonged to Charles H. Ballard, of Hartford, Vt. We believe this is the first case of the kind in this country, if indeed it is not the first one ever tried, and Mr. Ballard is entitled to much credit for offering so valuable an animal for the benefit of science, as it has been generally supposed that an operation of the kind would prove fatal. The animal was under the influence of sulphuric ether, and the operation proves entirely successful, ten days having elapsed since it was performed. The object to be attained in this particular case was to render the mare more docile, as she had heretofore been nearly unmanageable during her periods of heat. Physiologists are of opinion that removing the ovaries, if successfully performed, will render the animal mild and gentle. Am. Agriculturist.

DESTITUTION IN ROME.—There is now great distress at Rome. Every article of food is at famine prices. A short time ago, the chapter of the church of San Lorenzo assembled, for the purpose of opening the box placed at one of the entrances to receive the "Peter's Pence," when they found it filled with slips of paper containing the words, "We desire Victor Emmanuel King of Italy," and similar sentences. Beggars assail the passers at every step. A French soldier, who refused to give up his soup to a beggar, recently, was run through the body by the latter; and Bishop Meller, on quitting the door way of his palace, was set upon by a group of robbers, and stripped of everything he had about him, even to his episcopal ring.

We have seen people sometimes so fashionable and so bigoted that they would prefer being killed by a scientific doctor to being cured by an "ignorant quack." We hope we have no people in our midst who would prefer the destruction of the Union to having an effectually healing salve applied by a Republican doctor like Seward. If Mr. Seward, or any other man, can say a word, or do an act, or propose a measure to allay our national fever and to produce convalescence, we implore him, in the name of suffering and down-trodden humanity's last hope, to make the effort.—Bath Times.

☞ By the death of King Frederick William IV, without issue, his brother, William, Prince of Prussia, becomes King. It is supposed, however, he will abdicate in favor of his son, Prince Frederick William, a young man twenty nine years of age, who married in 1858 the eldest daughter of the queen of England.

☞ One of the coldest nights last week a brute of a fellow in Goshen, Ia., turned his wife out of doors barefooted, with no covering but an old quilt wrapped around her, with an infant child in her arms. Her cries soon brought some young men to her assistance, who battered down the door, admitted the wife, and gave the husband a terrible thrashing.

HOW TO MAKE DOGS USEFUL.—Your San Franciscan seizes upon his white cur and with stencil plate and black ink, inscribes his business card upon each side of the wrecked pup, and sends him forth, a quadrupedal locomotive advertisement. It is reckoned that a lively dog will be worth at least five dollars per day. If they can't get a white dog, they reverse the process, and try white paint on a black skin.

SMALL POX.—Quite a number of cases of this loathsome disease are reported in several towns in Grafton county, New Hampshire. It is making fearful ravages for this season of the year.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating housekeepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nutty taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, or at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the saccharine matter. Suppose a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs. baked, by the process 200 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food for the bread, to remain in the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more swelling of the bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it imparts a light and much finer texture to the cake.
"The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860.

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste thin with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonfuls of essence of lemon; and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoonful of butter; add six eggs and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTRIC CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of sugar, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, tonicates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by any reaction or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness or Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, speedy and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.
Of all Wholesale Druggists, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

GOOD OUT OF EVIL.

An old proverb says, It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good: meaning to say, in this hard Saxon way, that no state of affairs can be so bad, as not to be overruled to produce benefits in some direction.

We do not and cannot shut our eyes upon the direct and present evils that grow out of the secession noise and strife;—but ultimate good effects will proceed from this same confusion. The poor whites at the South, are brought up by it, into a consequence they never before possessed:—and their power hereafter must be felt.

Instigated by their own demagogues, and ignorant of public affairs, they have aimed a dreadful blow at the prosperity of the free States, to punish them for being, as they suppose, abolitionists; but it already recoils with tenfold force, on the slave power.

The bluster, the military array, and general turmoil, which is sport to men who never had great sport before, turns out to be death to the prosperity of the great planters and business men. The result must be, a reconstruction of society to a great extent, in all the slave States, and the ultimate elevation of the laboring classes, black and white.

We have before noted the report that ex-Gov. Aiken of S. Carolina had been assessed $40,000 for a war tax. This has not been denied; but the Boston Post endeavors to blunt its edge, by insinuating that it ought not to be believed because it was in republican papers.

It is thus confirmed, however, by the Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.

Letters received here from Charleston give gloomy accounts of affairs there.—Slaveholders who formerly had to pay a tax of seventy-five cents on each of their slaves are now taxed sixteen dollars on each. It was in this way that ex-Gov. Aiken was taxed $50,000, which he informed the authorities he could not pay, because he had not the money. The reply to this excuse was, that he could sell his niggers; and it is reported that he sold part to pay the tax, and moved most of the others to Virginia, and left for Europe himself. Another statement is, that two booksellers were taxed $1000 each. They refused to pay. The reply was, "Your books are worth the money." "They are worth a great deal more," responded the dealers. They packed up their stock and left Charleston, passing here a day or two since, en route North.

A similar statement follows from the Boston Journal:—

We understand that a business firm in Boston has recently received $2000 worth of merchandise from a trader in Charleston, who writes that he was actually obliged to remove it surreptitiously from his store in order not to excite suspicion. He had been assessed $1000 for the support of the military, and fearing other like impositions he had determined to pay his indebtedness with his goods and transfer what he could to a State where property was respected. The writer mentioned other parties who had also been heavily assessed for the defence of the State.

A more decisive article still, we copy below, from the Louisville, Kentucky, Journal, Jan. 17, viz. a statement of oppression in Mississippi. We read thus:—

The secessionists in South Carolina and Mississippi are particularly anxious to keep the world from knowing the things that are going on in those States. Yesterday a gentleman, formerly a member of the Kentucky Legislature, stated that he was just starting for Mississippi to endeavor to relieve his brother in that State. The brother had written him that a tax was imposed upon every slave owner in that State of twelve dollars for each negro; that, unless the tax was paid within a few days, the negro property was to be confiscated to the public use; that his own negro tax amounted to $1500, which he had no means whatever of paying; and that hundreds of slave proprietors were hurrying their slaves out of the State to escape the intolerable oppression. He moreover wrote that this was known to be only the beginning of a terrible system of taxation, and added the expression of his perfect conviction that the people would not stand it—that within thirty days the people would rise up in their wrath and their strength and crush oppression and oppressors alike beneath their feet.

☞ Ex-President Tyler has written a letter on the state of the country, in which he says:—

All other efforts having failed, then I would advise a dernier measure, a Convention of all the Southern States, and after incorporating upon the present Constitution guaranties, going not one iota beyond what strict justice and security of the South requires, adopt the Constitution of the United States as it now is, and give a broad invitation to the other states to enter our Union with the old flag flying over one and all."

A very modest proposition indeed, for all the north, west, and middle States, to take the honorable position of a bob to the South Carolina kite. Who will enlist?—Don't all speak at once.

"A Little Sharpish."—At Montpelier, Vt., on Sunday morning, the 13th, the thermometer indicated forty degrees below zero. It was a Vermont stage driver who once stated that "the thermometer was sixty degrees below Jericho" when he started from home in the morning.

A CALM AT CHARLESTON.

Washington, Jan. 20.—(Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.)—No expectation is entertained here that Fort Sumter will be attacked by South Carolina troops. They know its strength, and Jefferson Davis, who is military and political authority with them, has advised against the experiment, as one which will involve a large loss of life, and must fail in the object, if hazarded by raw troops. Consequently the stars and stripes are likely to float unmolested.

Col. Hayne has made no communication yet to the President. Mr. Buchanan's decisive reply to the suggestion of withdrawing Major Anderson, settled it without further correspondence.

The prompt manner in which Gov. Pickens followed the advice of Messrs. Davis, Hunter and others, by allowing Major Anderson access to supplies, exhibits a reactive tendency there.

An intelligent gentleman, just returned from an extended trip through North Carolina, reports the Union sentiment to be immensely in the ascendant, and that the planters and others near the South Carolina line are selling out at sacrifices and moving away.

(Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.)—The exact nature of the letter of Colonel Hayne to the President, which was transmitted yesterday, has not transpired. The fact that it met the sanction of Senators Hunter and Mason is a sure indication that its tone is more pacific.

I am informed, on the highest authority, that Gov. Pickens has yielded to the suggestions of his friends here, and has accordingly addressed Col. Hayne to change his policy. Therefore, for the present, we are to have no demonstration of a hostile character on either side.

It is understood that the President will strike the name of Capt. Armstrong from the list of the Navy as soon as that officer's official report is received. Traitors in the civil service of the government are being spotted every day, and the whole force of the conspirators will receive no quarter.

There is no doubt that instructions have been sent to the commander of the Gulf or Home squadron for a speedy return of some of the vessels on that station.

(Dispatch to N. Y. Times.)—It was proposed by the State troops at Pensacola to attack Fort Pickens, and it is asserted here that they were only prevented by letters and dispatches from this city. I understand that Senator Yulee has some apprehension that an attack will be made.

There is no danger of an attack upon Fort Monroe. I learn that it is fully garrisoned with from five to six hundred men. Being where Gen. Scott can easily issue orders to them, there is no necessity for apprehensions as regards that fortification, as has been suggested in many of the papers.

Another company of United States troops arrived Saturday night, and are stationed at an armory on Pennsylvania avenue, near the National Hotel, where there were several stands of government arms.

(Dispatch to the New York World)—It is understood that the Post Office Department will exact the same rigid obedience to postal laws, on pain of a withdrawal of the postal service in those States that have seceded, as in the case of South Carolina.

A letter from an officer at Fort Sumter states that after Gov. Pickens' demand for a surrender on the 11th, Major Anderson called a council of war. It was unanimously voted "NEVER."

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 21.—The Union meeting to-day endorsed Mr. Crittenden's resolutions, recommending a vote of the State on the same. It also recommended the appointment of State Commissioners to visit Washington. Resolutions disapproving of the rebellion at the South, and approving of the President's course, and opposing conciliatory measures while the government was defied, were ruled out by the chairman, and another meeting was organized outside which passed them.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 21.—The bill preventing the aiding and abetting of the enemies of the Republic was made the special order for Wednesday. A bill was also reported for the better enrolment of the militia. It unanimously passed the committee, and will pass the House.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The Post Office at Pensacola was abolished to-day, and the mail service discontinued, and Postmasters throughout the country are directed to send all letters addressed to Pensacola to the dead letter office. This course has been taken in consequence of the interruption of the mails by the Florida authorities.

The Capitol police force has been doubled by direction of the Vice President and the Speaker of the House.

Mr. Cobb did not join his colleagues in signing the communication to the Speaker, announcing the secession of Alabama and their withdrawal from the House.

☞ A large and enthusiastic meeting of the working men and mechanics of Nashville, Tenn., held recently, passed strong Union resolutions, one of them earnestly invoking "the aid of Him who rules the storm, to enable us to stand firm in the breach prematurely made by our deluded sister, South Carolina." A public meeting in Hawkins county, in the same State, resolved in favor of sustaining the Union, and declared—"we endorse the views of Andrew Jackson, that secession is treason."

Death of Lola Montes.—Maria Dolores Louis Montes died in New York, on Thursday. It is not known whether she was born in Seville, Spain, in 1818; in Montrose, Scotland, in 1820; or in Limerick, Ireland, 1824; but it has been ascertained that her mother was a creole, and that she was brought up in England. Her life was erratic, eventful, and conspicuously scandalous at various times.

Imperial Influence on the Side of the Sabbath.—Through the influence of the Emperor and Empress, shops are now shut in Paris on Sunday to a great extent.

For the Chronicle.

Five or Ten Minutes' Talk on Morals.—About a century ago, a dozen citizens of a certain monarchical kingdom fancied that the government under which they lived was not progressive enough for their plans and purposes, and that they would have an independent government, in which crowned heads and titled nobles should have no place. Now a certain stripling youth, who was at the same time meditating on a scheme of aggrandisement, and luxury, joined their company, and was ready to be one with them in the common cause of antagonism against monarchy. A struggle ensued, which resulted in the success of republicanism; and then, for the purpose of compactness, to establish their success, and transmit its blessings to posterity, they made certain covenants and agreements between themselves, and published the same to the world; and our new nation went onward in its career of development and progress, and such was the extent of its greatness and prosperity, it became flattered that nothing could check or destroy them. Meanwhile it became apparent "who" was the stripling youth, viz., no less than a young king, whose name was "Cotton." He had great sway in the South country, and as one item of his belief was "property in man," his policy was somewhat in conflict with the notions of the people of the North, who were rather inclined to what was extremely antagonistic, viz., that if other people were not as moral and pious as they thought necessary, they were rather inclined to "take a stick" to them, and if that should not be found to answer the purpose, then look out for the sword.

Now there was also another king, more mighty than the first, whose sway extended both North and South, subjecting both the pretended freemen of the North and the first-named king and people of the South.—His name is "Alcohol," and the great engine of his power was all sorts of "mixed drinks." He could inspire terror where there was no real cause for alarm—incite people to talk of fighting and bloodshed on subjects that needed only a few prudent words. Women and men generally were made imbecile, and many destitute of the common necessities of subsistence by the worse than useless and expensive articles of tea and coffee, and many were maddened by his fiery fluids.

Now, in the humble belief of the writer, the foregoing is a true picture of the present condition of our country—a country full of every blessing of God's Providence which is needful for the comfort and happiness of the people; while at the same time we are deprived of their enjoyment by the method we take ift the management of affairs.

Now I respectfully suggest what I believe would be a direct and sure relief of all our troubles, viz., that instead of fighting South Carolina or any other State, we set on foot a warfare against the aforenamed greatest king,—by making a clear sweep of all his instruments of destruction; and then, with clear perceptions and vigorous minds, all other evils would become circumscribed and made easy of solution and remedy.

And further, that we shall soon see that what seems to some persons the total wreck and annihilation of all the blessings of our government, is in reality only a part and parcel of the genial and beneficent workings of the mighty and glorious principle of freedom.

That this is not an illusive idea, I will specify in one or two particulars.

1. Was our general government to be cemented by a continued and uninterrupted course of prosperity? Is there not danger that our central government would become altogether too large, powerful and dangerous for the good of the great cause?

2. This present trouble must tend to damp the enthusiasm and break the power of mere politicians.

3. It will reveal the importance of strengthening and perfecting the different State organizations, as being like so many different "water-tight compartments" in a steamship — and as in reality the great power and security of the nation as a whole.

That there is then no real cause for fear might be shown by the fact that distracted as our affairs appear to be at this time, an outside foe or evil would, I trust, unite the whole in action as one man.

Away, then, with foolish fears and vain confidence and boasting! Begin with the first lesson that our people need to be taught, that not stimulants but temperate nutriment is the right treatment of the body; and that (according to the substance of a late comprehensive and sound discourse by the Rev. A. P. Peabody, D. D.) growth in the spirit of the Lord alone can make individuals and nations of freemen. J. P.

☞ The workmen in the employ of the Winsted (Conn.) Carriage Company, sympathizing with their employers in the present lull of business, informed the agent of the company, Thursday, that they had met and decided to strike off 10 per cent. of the prices paid them for work in livelier seasons.

More Men than Arms.—The New York Senate Committee on Military and Public Defense, have made a report that there are 20,000 men in the State, uniformed, well drilled, and nominally equipped, but they have only 8000 muskets or rifles fit for immediate service. The remaining 12,000 men, if called into action to day, would not be prepared to go. A bill has been introduced into the Legislature, appropriating $500,000 for the purpose of procuring arms and equipments for the use of the militia of the State.

Earthquake.—A correspondent writing from Gorham, N. H., Friday, says:—"A severe shock of an earthquake was felt here this morning, at 12:45 o'clock. It commenced with a low rumbling sound, then two heavy reports, which were followed by a long rumbling sound, which lasted about two minutes. The windows rattled, the houses shook, and there was a general commotion among the dishes, &c."

A sculptor residing in the neighborhood of Abergavenny, having to engrave on a tombstone the words:—"A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband," being somewhat pressed for space, executed his task as follows: "A virtuous woman is 5s. to her husband."

New Orleans, Jan. 21.—Fifty ships cleared to-day with 110,000 bales of cotton.

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov23 dawâm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called Blood Food. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,
Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of Sir James Clarke's Female Pills, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov23 dawâm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and well-established Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

Norway Village, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as fastened upon them, and fastened, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In southwestern Virginia it is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ The statement (concerning the City Marshal's release of a prisoner) made by Asst. Marshal Dresser before the investigating Committee of the Board of Aldermen, was received too late for publication this morning. We shall give it to-morrow.

An article from a correspondent, in dissent from the sentiments of the extracts of Prof. Peabody's Fast Day sermon, as published in our city papers, will also appear to-morrow. By the way, while we are individually inclined to agree with those sentiments, as understood (or misunderstood) by those who read but did not hear them; those who did hear the discourse, say the report does Prof. P. injustice, and that his opinions concerning "slavery," long entertained and freely expressed here, have undergone no change whatever. And, for our part, we never supposed they had. JR.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have read with no small degree of interest, the statement of Mr. Norton, which appeared in your issue of yesterday. It seems that no unprejudiced person could bestow one word of disapprobation upon his course in the affair he refers to.

We think it has been evident to every careful observer, that Mr. Norton, when in power, attended to his duty faithfully, and always proved himself a gentleman, in all cases; and we doubt not there are hundreds of our citizens, of both parties, who consider him an honest and competent man, one well qualified to discharge faithfully and impartially the duties of City Marshal. **

CAPITAL TRIAL.—In the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine, at Biddeford, Jan. 16, came on the trial of State vs. Wm. F. Graffam. Assault with intent to kill. R. P. Tapley, County Attorney, for the State. Stillman B. Allen for defendant. Plea, not guilty. The attempt was made to kill E. R. Wiggin, Esq., and the offence was abundantly proved. The defence set up was insanity.

Mr. Allen for the defence, opened by depicting the horrors of the long imprisonment awaiting the prisoner, should he be found guilty; how the dreary winters and smiling summers for twenty long years, would pass alike unnoticed over him, shut up in the gloomy cell of a prison; said that the defence "Not guilty by reason of insanity," would appear from a single glance at the prisoner; said that it would be shown that insanity was hereditary in the family of the prisoner; that some of the family had come to a violent death by reason of it; that the prisoner injured his head some ten years ago, and since then he had suffered from aberration of the intellect, and spoke of certain symptoms of insanity lately manifested by the prisoner, which will appear in the evidence; said that the law didn't require that insanity should be proved to exist for a long time before or after the alleged crime; stated his own firm conviction of the prisoner's insanity, and his belief that Graffam should rather be consigned to the tender mercies of an Insane Asylum, whence perchance he could be restored to his family a sane and happy man, than to that gloomy grave for the living—the State Prison.

The testimony for defence, and also that for the government, fully established the prisoner's insanity.

The evidence was briefly reviewed in Mr. Allen's closing plea, Jan. 18,—and after a plea for the prosecution, the judge gave his charge, closing thus:

The question in brief before the Jury was this:—Was the prisoner conscious of committing the act at the time, and did he know it was criminal? The case was then given to the Jury.

At five minutes before six the Jury came in, and gave in their verdict, not guilty, by reason of insanity.

From the Traveller Extra, Jan. 22, we condense these items.

The fears of a disturbance here on the 4th of March, have in so great a degree subsided that preparations are now going on for the usual grand Inauguration Ball.

The union of all parties at the North in the offer of aid to the General Government to maintain the Union, has astonished the fire-eaters.

The rumors from the South still continue favorable. The secessionists have abandoned all hope of gaining anything by a collision with the U. S. Government.

BATON ROUGE, Jan. 21.—The members of the Convention are assembling. A secession sentiment prevails. Various reports are in circulation that troops are coming from the North.

ADVICE FROM THE SOUTH.—A postcript of a letter, from one of the first business men in Kentucky to a gentleman in New York, is as follows:—

"I hope you of the North will not budge one jot from Lincoln's principles. There is no danger of the Union; it is all gas at the South."

TAKING A FATAL STAND.—While practising at a target, Saturday, at Augusta, Ga., a young man named Foster unguardedly went in front as a comrade fired. The ball passed though his head, and struck the target half an inch from the bull's eye.

NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20, 1860.

Dear Chronicle:—The enthusiasm of New Yorkers, which has in past times manifested itself in Cable celebrations, Japanese bills, and the Prince of Wales' ball, has put its fingers into the secession pie, and turned every corner into a platform upon which our citizens discuss union and dissolution, with almost the wisdom of a Webster, or the ardor of a Calhoun.

Had Mayor Wood's proposition to make New York an independent city, been made two years ago, it would have proved a "disjointer;" but now, when His Honor's supporters have dwindled down to the ambiguous number supposed to constitute a "corporal's guard," it has little effect. Unless "heavier timber" take hold of it, the Spuyten Tuyvil creek will never have the honor of being the dividing line between the "Kingdom of Manhattan" and New York State.

Jas. E. Kerrigan, pugilist, and representative to the next Congress from the Five Points and other like localities,—who was elected last fall over Michael Tourney, a fellow countryman, and like Kerrigan, as well qualified to manage the affairs of the nation as your printing press, is likely to be troubled with a warrant which has been issued, charging him with treason against the United States, in having advertised in the Herald for "volunteers to aid and assist the South." It is not probable the case will be made out.

The first course of lectures by Mr. Rarey, was concluded on Saturday. Mr. R. goes to Boston, and will, on his return, probably give several more entertainments. Niblo's was crowded to the last.

The horse fever bids fair to rage as high as did the hen-fever years ago; and the famous practitioner has convinced the public that Rarey-ism is no humbug.

Whether we are made independent or not, so long as the P. M. General continues the mail between here and Portsmouth, and brings us daily our Daily, it matters little to NEWINGTON.

☞ The Southern agent, who visited the Tolland, Ct. county factories for operatives to go to slavedom, a few weeks since, succeeded in fooling four Germans into the belief that it would be a profitable job, and they went. At Richmond, Va., the vigilance committee overhauled them and sent them back. They rode while money lasted, and then walked until they reached home, penniless and with bare feet, from their bootless journey.

☞ Rev. Chas. Lowell for fifty-five years pastor of the West Boston Church, died in Boston on Sunday morning, suddenly and without pain. Dr. Lowell was 76 years of age.

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending

COSMOPOLITAN

have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, partans, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships, and one extra Engraving for their trouble. Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND;

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—DEAR SIR,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, years or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Square,

Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 18, 1860.

Morning Chronicle.

"What do I consider the boundaries of my country, sir?" exclaimed a Kentuckian. "Why, sir, on the east we are bounded by the rising sun—on the north by the aurora borealis—on the west by the procession of the equinox—and on the south by the day of judgment."

A lion is said to have left the impression of his teeth upon a piece of solid iron. The most prodigious power of a muscle is exhibited by the fish. The whale moves with a velocity, through a dense medium, water, that would carry him around the world in less than a fortnight. A swordfish has been known to strike his weapon through "inch thick plank of a ship.

A PUGILIST KILLED.—Ned Price, the well known "buffer," who accompanied Heenan on his sparring tour, was shot and killed in New Orleans on the 4th inst.—Detroit Free Press.

CATHARTIC
PILLS,

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the precursors of serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disease and impurities from your system. They will expel from your blood, and the dull humors which obstructed in health again, they stimulate the functions of the body into healthy activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While this condition, opposed by the disease-expellants, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true in this common case in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Being known to the world that these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Sold everywhere by druggists and dealers.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. Many years ago I was afflicted with a spot of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cutbright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR SIR, AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body could ever wish by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect,

ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find they do more good in curing the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D.C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my private and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quite decided, and consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. Geo. Rogers, Pittsburg, Pa.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in discharge of my duties. To regulate the stomach and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours,

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of life and health.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prolific source of others that are worse. I believe ailments to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent purgatives of the natural secretions when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

PELASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Blood, Muscle, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules; but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostration, nightsweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the Blood and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT and LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the nervous organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus's Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In all cases of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those wasting to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., in which the curative powers of the Blood Food are so well adapted to paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous irritability. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vital energy, or those in ill health whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through nervous, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to make the Blood Food a genuine Invigorator, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged to be unsurpassed in all medicinal compounds, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the theory upon which this remedy is founded, also recipes for preparing the article, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canada, upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. Note other advertisement.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY
BOURBON
"1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure distilled article, peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recreate and strengthen; while age has long contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a flavor, mellow and oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified testimony, recommending it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being grey, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a fair trial. I find it a perfect

During the year 1856, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I was astonished at having a hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; and, if I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little,

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, is about 70 years of age, had never lost his hair in youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the efficacy of this specific. I give this at you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this place and adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOM'SON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I owe you for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming grey, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. Yours, &c., THADDEUS BRAHLER.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; medium holds a pint, and retails for one and a half dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, and retails for two dollars per bottle. MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the diseases of infancy are chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and a trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly adapted to

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the suffrings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all pain. FOR DISEASES AT TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain, safe and speedy cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself as well as your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which is not pretended to be claimed for any other preparation for sale by druggists, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics administered in the form of quieting powders; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, causing oftentimes convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy.

IT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Headaches, Costiveness, Want of Appetite in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Tremblings, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all bad Spirits.
One dose will cure the Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels:

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaint, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the commencement of pregnancy.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, 50 cents, and quarts, $1.

☞ The son of a respectable tradesman named Dywer has been arrested in Dublin upon the charge of attempt at murder. The young man is said to have associated for a year past with the swell-mob of Dublin, much to the grief of his parents, who gave him a university education, and tried to render him a respectable member of society. He went into the Oak Hall of Dublin, (Hyam's clothing store,) and purchased on credit a few clothes. When the porter brought them with the bill to the hotel, the amateur swell mob's man decoyed him into a stable and tried to murder him. The porter managed to escape alive, but it was subsequently found that a grave had been prepared for him in the rear of the stable. The city of Dublin was very much excited about the occurrence.

Kimball & Robinson started their steam shoe factory, in Brookfield, Mass., last Monday, on full time; and although at some what reduced rates of wages, it is gratifying to the operatives, they having no other employment. The proprietors are only able to do this, in these times, by turning out, with the aid of machinery, goods that excel any made by hand.—Boston Courier.

The Natchez, (Miss.,) of the 11th inst., thus speaks of the reception in that city of the news of the secession of Mississippi from the Union;—"The secession ordinance was received yesterday with almost unanimous disapproval and condemnation. 'Has ty,' 'ill-judged,' and 'wrong' were the terms generally, applied to it. Our citizens, generally, felt that the Convention had sacrificed everything and obtained nothing."

EFFECT OF SECESSION ON THE CUBA TRADE. — The brig Putnam, arrived at Charleston from Havana, reports that no freight for the United States can be had in Havana, the political excitement here having suspended all trade between Cuba and this country.—Boston Courier.

Has the secession at Charleston suspended the Cuba trade to Portland? Tell that to the marines.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine matter is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. In using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious—and consequently a saving of a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs. gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending and thoroughly rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a wholesome salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We suppend a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter or half the size of an egg, and make the paste up with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one pint of warm water and two eggs; mix them with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, one cup of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of six eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonsfuls of leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity; and thus renovates and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in harmony and accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritations. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have experienced from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of enemy of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Scrofula, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Paleness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Lassitude, and all that train of ills, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scaldings or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following, upon change or climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a bottle about the last of March or first of April, as it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers, and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Thus, upon the whole, it is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your dear daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they would go and travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always alarmed, and ever on the watchfully vigilant, for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1861.

A VIRGINIA SPEECH.—In the U. S. House of Representatives, Tuesday, Jan. 22, the Report of the Committee of Thirty-Three was under consideration, and Mr. Bingham of Ohio expressed his opposition to the measures recommended.

Mr. Clemens of Virginia believed, before God, that slavery would be crucified if this unhappy controversy ends in a dissolution of the Union It remains to be seen whether treason can be carried on. There was a brave and holy minority in the slave States; Lazarus is not dead, but sleepeth. He asked no favors for the South, but he demanded that justice only which springs from honest magnanimity. North Carolina, which first proclaimed independence, and Virginia, which gave birth to it, were both allied with Massachusetts. He believed there yet lingers a spirit of patriotism which will save a country whose glory belongs to us all. Will you be appealed to to step forward and do the spirit which made your fathers illustrious, and not shut out every access to sympathy? Mr. Clemens showed that the law of population governed the question. It was population and capital that the South wanted, and not territory. He showed that the object of the Southern Confederacy is to reopen the slave trade. The South out of the Union could never be able to secure as much territory as he could hold in his hand. He reprobated the South sending Commissioners to Europe to effect an alliance against their brothers in language and lineage. If the South should take the constitution of the United States as a provisional government, the cotton States will have the legislative power over the border States, which will be bound hand and foot to a policy as oppressive as they ever were under our constitution intensified fifty times.

Several gentlemen here moved that Mr. Clemens be allowed to continue his remarks beyond the hour allotted to each speaker.

Mr. Martin of Virginia excitedly expressed the hope that the member would not be allowed to continue his traitorous remarks.

There was much confusion here, but it soon subsided.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.]—The action of the Virginia Legislature, so far from being conciliatory, as is supposed in some quarters, precludes any probability of adjustment, by making demands little short of those preferred by South Carolina. Her conspirators are prompted by ambitious designs in favor of the disunion movement, under the idea that Virginia will control the policy of the projected confederacy, and Mr. Hunter be provisional President. They are ready to sacrifice the State to this selfish idea.

The terms upon which Georgia has seceded, preserving the postal and revenue laws, and retaining the officers of the United States, have excited much comment here. This course is calculated, if not intended, to draw off the trade of South Carolina, and build up Savannah to the ruin of Charleston, which has already sacrificed all her foreign commerce, and is fast losing the domestic trade. This sham is likely to provoke much irritation in South Carolina, as she was urged on by Mr. Toombs and others, who are now profiting by her precipitancy. Mr. Iverson, who was so very hot for secession, yet retains his seat in the Senate, though Georgia has nominally retired.

GEORGIA.—Milledgeville, Ga., Jan. 22. Among the resolutions adopted was one appointing a committee of sixteen to report on the power of the convention to reduce the number of the Legislature; another that Georgia will demand her share of the public property; another pledging the State to pay the carriers for transporting the mails; another instructing a committee to report an ordinance establishing a Council of Safety.

Six delegates entered a protest against the ordinance of secession, but pledged their lives, fortunes and sacred honor for the defence of Georgia against coercion or invasion.

An ordinance was offered declaring all the white persons in the State, at the time of the adoption of the ordinance, citizens of the State. Referred.

An ordinance was adopted providing for the execution of sentences passed in the federal Courts for the present, and the execution of processes issued in the same courts, and to preserve indictments.

An ordinance was offered, which is the special order for to-morrow, continuing in force all the federal laws in reference to the African slave trade. It will be almost unanimously adopted.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Atlas & Bee says:—

Mr. Edwards of New Hampshire is entitled to great praise for defeating the bogus claims of the Geo. Fisher heirs, a matter that was before the Committee on Indian Affairs, and which seems to have been an attempt to swindle the treasury out of $68,000 on a Florida claim, dating back to the Seminole war. Mr. Edwards industriously investigated and then opposed the claim, and obtained a unanimous report against it. Edwards is an honest member of Congress.

NEW YORK AND THE BORDER STATES.—Albany, Jan. 22.—A resolution was adopted in the Senate, this morning, approving of the action of the border States in refusing to sanction secession, and also approving of the action of Governor Hicks of Maryland.

ACCIDENT TO A CATTLE TRAIN.—Bellows Falls, Vt., Jan. 22.—A cattle train on the Rutland and Burlington Railroad, consisting of fourteen cars, last night broke through the bridge, killing fifty sheep and four cattle. No injury was sustained by the men on the train.

STATE EQUALITY has been a sort of catch-word. Below we give a curious illustration of it:

The free States as a whole have not fared so well in the distribution of arms by the federal government, in proportion to the number of inhabitants entitled to bear arms, as have the slave States, to say nothing of what the latter have stolen.

In 1802 a law was passed by Congress, appropriating $200,000 annually for the manufacture of arms and equipments, to be distributed among the different States upon the basis of the enrolled militia, reported to the authorities at Washington. In 1855, however, the law regulating the distribution of arms underwent a change, by which the free States were deprived of their just right. The South, finding the freemen of the North were rapidly outnumbering them, and consequently receiving a larger share of the public arms, obtained the passage of a law fixing the representation of the States in Congress as the basis of distribution.

Everybody knows the basis of representation, viz., five slaves equal to three freemen.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The Intelligencer contains an account of a conversation in English, between Louis Napoleon and Minister Faulkner, at the official presentation on New Year's Day, at which the Emperor said, "I hope it is not true that any of the States have separated from the General Confederation."

Mr. Faulkner spoke of the excitement, but said that the strength of the Union will now be found to be equal to the strain upon it.

Napoleon replied "I sincerely hope it may be so, and that you may long continue an united and prosperous people."

This corroborates the opinion formed here, that the Emperor has declined an alliance with the Southern Confederacy, as the secession agents reported.

The speech of Mr. Millson of Virginia, is generally regarded as the turning point of the difficulty in Congress, yet he explicitly demanded guaranties for the South on the slavery question, and many Republicans declaring they will give none.

The return of Mr. Kellogg from Springfield is looked for with interest.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 22.—The call for a convention is more doubtful to-day, on account of a disagreement as to the time.—One party is for haste, and the other for deliberate action. The Senate has agreed on Feb. 1st as the day for electing delegates, which date is likely to kill the bill.

The House debated the convention bill, but without taking any action.

North Carolina will prove conservative, but not submissive. Everybody is for secession if it becomes necessary.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Thirty-eight cases of muskets, containing two dozen each, and a quantity of balls and gunpowder were seized by the police to-day, on board the steamship Monticello, about to sail for Savannah.

Fifty soldiers were brought from West Point to Fort Hamilton to-day.

A dispatch is said to have been received from Senator Bigler saying that there was no chance of his propositions passing the Senate.

Last Sunday morning the sexton of the Freewill Baptist Church at Lewiston, astonished the audience by entering the room in rather a novel manner. He was walking over the rafters over the audience room to reach a window, and missing his footing stepped upon the laths, which gave way and let him through the plastering just over the pulpit in rather an unceremonious manner. He caught with his hands on a rafter, and thus saved a fall of some thirty feet.—Portland Adv.

COTTON GROWING IN MASSACHUSETTS. In the Claflin Mills, New England Village, there is a thrifty cotton tree growing, which sprung from a cotton seed thrown out with the refuse at the mills. It is stated that it wields a steady, though limited, supply of the finest cotton—considerably finer than that which comes from South Carolina. Its leaf resembles the grape, and its blossom is a close imitation of the white morning glory. It is to be expected that Worcester county, since she can boast of growing the best of cotton, will revive from the Union with others of the cotton growing States.—Atlas.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 22.—The apportionment bill has passed both Houses.—The convention bill has passed the Senate, and will probably pass the House.

There is little doubt that the Legislature will break up to-morrow by the resignation of the Democratic members.

TORONTO, Canada, Jan. 22.—Mayor Bower, in a speech to the Council, stated that a large accession to the population might soon be expected on account of the troubles in the United States, and recommended the policy of especially favoring such emigration.

BRIDGEPORT, Ct., Jan. 22.—The three express robbers were sentenced to day, to five years in the State Prison, being the full statutory limit.

The venerable Rev. Parsons Cooke of Lynn, preached a sermon in that city on the late National Fast Day, in which he stated with emphasis that "the present cause of the present trouble, so far as that cause proceeds from the North, has been our abolition preaching." The preacher illustrated his proposition in a variety of ways, perfectly convincing to all who agree with him on this point. Col. Benton, were he alive, would dissent, and say that abolition has rather aggravated than actually produced the troubles referred to.

Prince Alfred is coming to America, as a midshipman. If he should visit one of the secession ports, he might find a crown there. He could, at all events, study a revolution in progress, and see what kind of a thing it is. Englishmen have less practical knowledge of revolutions than other men, their country being happily free from violence, while our country is hastening to become a worse Mexico.—Traveller.

S. J. COURT—EXETER.

The January term commenced in Exeter on Tuesday, Jan. 15th—Chief Justice Bell presiding; but as our reporter was not in attendance, we condense the record from the Exeter papers.

Tuesday afternoon, in the trial of Andrew J. Sides—indictment for an assault upon George Pearse, at Rye, Oct. 1st,—the evidence was somewhat conflicting, and the jury remained out all night without being able to agree; but upon reconsideration, after some additional suggestions from the Court on Wednesday morning, came in with a verdict of guilty.

Chester v. Plaistow was commenced on Wednesday morning. Action brought to recover money paid for the support of two paupers, Phillip Flanders and wife. Given to the jury Friday evening; Saturday morning, being unable to agree, were discharged.

Nath'l Chase vs. Daniel Peaslee was commenced Saturday. Action founded on an account ($90.03) for lumber—and has been before an auditor, who reported in favor of plf. Defence that the lumber was never delivered. Verdict for plf. for $95.57.

Merrill v. Rand—an action on a promissory note—was commenced and continued Tuesday. Evidence to impeach the plf.'s reputation for truth was introduced by the defence; and the case lies until Thursday P. M., to give the plff. an opportunity to rebut the evidence, which he alleges was a surprise.

Blake v. Rowe was commenced, but afterwards taken from the jury and referred.

Bowman v. Manter—a real action—was then taken, and was on trial Wednesday afternoon.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Steamship Arago, from Southampton 9th, arrived at New York on Thursday. She brings nearly $400,000 in specie.

Steamship City of Washington, to sail from Liverpool to New York on the 9th, takes out nearly half a million dollars in specie.

Gaeta, Jan. 5.—The King's Ministers insist on his removal, as the Sardinians' shells had penetrated to his quarters.

Constantinople, Jan. 2.—The Hungarian and Polish Garibaldian volunteers were beginning to arrive at Pera, on their way to the Danubian principalities.

Vienna, Wednesday.—The Emperor of Austria proclaims a very comprehensive amnesty to Hungary and other provinces.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—[Dispatch to the Boston Journal.]—Commodore Armstrong and family have arrived here just in time perhaps for his gray hairs to ward off an official inquiry into his conduct in the surrender of Fort Barrancas, at Pensacola, which the government were about making.

The secessionists are using great exertions to carry Virginia into the ranks of the secession States, in which case they argue that Maryland is sure to follow.

Gen Scott is sure that he can preserve the peace in this city, but he has doubts as to the influence of Baltimore, where he is well informed that there are secret movements going on.

From the Boston Traveller Extra.

The Kansas bill will pass the House to-day or to-morrow without being referred to a committee.

It is rumored that Mr. Clemens of Va. demands satisfaction of his colleague, Millson, who called him a traitor after the delivery of his Union speech yesterday.

It is freely asserted that Cobb, late Secretary of the Treasury, has used over five million dollars of the government funds in aiding the secessionists

It is reported that Mr. Lincoln, will arrive in Washington next week. It is said that he will be the guest of Pesident Buchanan.

Eighty-four Republican members of the House announce their intention to vote against Crittenden's measure, or any other compromise.

THE SHOE TRADE.—It is necessary for the South to have boots and shoes, and they come North for that article. Several buyers have recently appeared in Lynn and Haverhill, and one firm in the last named place lately received a check of $2000 from a Charleston dealer to liquidate an old claim, accompanied with an order for $1000 worth of shoes, to be immediately shipped to him.—Atlas.

A highly respectable firm in Baltimore, Messrs. Benjamin Crane & Co., have discontinued the New York Express newspaper, because they regard it as being an incendiary sheet! "Having slaves in our families," they say, "we think your paper an incendiary one." The Messrs. Brooks must have thought they were receiving a hot shower bath when they were reading the letter.

A "FAST" LADY.—A few days ago, Lady Charlotte Chestwynd made a wager to ride from Grendonhall, Atherston, to Cliff-house, six miles distant, in twenty-five minutes. Her ladyship, notwithstanding the bad state of the road, performed her undertaking with fifty-eight seconds to spare.—London paper.

The worst secessionists at the South are creatures of Yankee birth, or the children of Yankees who went to the South long ago. Were it not for these abject wretches, there would be but little trouble between the South and the North. The genuine Southerners are mostly superior people, who have their faults, like the rest of the world, but are not fools or blackguards.—Trav.

☞ Vera Cruz dates are to the 10th.—They state that Miramon and some of his principal officers had been captured by the Indians, but Miramon escaped after killing three Indians. Juarez had left for the capitol on the 5th, there to establish a liberal government.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for February contains a capital article on Our Artists in Italy; a poem called Cobbler Keesar's Vision, which reads Longfellowish; and a fanciful article about the sympathy of animals, with The First Atlantic Telegraph! A notice of the late Lady Byron, and some prose reflections in the style of the introduction to the Lay of the Last Minstrel, called Getting Home Again, with a political-economical mercantile article entitled A Dry Goods Jobber in 1861, and a poem called The Old Homestead, brings us up to the Professor's Story. Some editorial statistics and comments on the magnitude of the lake trade, and the usual able political article on the great topic of the day, which is now Secession, bring us to the book notices, of which two are particularly readable and valuable—the one on Lord Bacon, and the one on the Laws of the Race.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.—The Legislature, 87 to 6, yesterday, passed resolutions, that in view of the men and money, tendered by the Northern States to the General Government, Kentucky will unite with her brethren of the South, to resist invasion at all hazards, and to the last extremity.

CAR CHAT.—Two persons were conversing the other day in a railway carriage about music. One gentleman asked the other, who appeared rather simple, "Do you know the Barber of Seville?" "No," the latter replied, "I always shave myself."

THE ART UNION.—Copies of the fine engraving, 'Falstaff Mustering his Recruits,' may be seen in various styles of frames, at Exchange Hall. Pictures delivered at the time of subscribing. "Shakspeare and his Friends," or "The Village Blacksmith," will be furnished subscribers, if preferred; or either of these two last, without the Art Journal or a share in the drawing, for $2. The books close in Portsmouth Jan. 28th. See the advertisement of the "Seventh Year."

Perfection has been obtained, through art, science and experience, in the manufacture of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, as every lady who has tested it universally exclaims, "There is nothing like it!" Don't fail to test a paper, and you will never use any other. Call on your grocer for it, and do not be put off with any other. All the grocers sell it.

Sold at wholesale, by Israel Nash & Co., Boston; and Sumner, Swasey & Currier, Newburyport.

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawśm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial, and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing coughing, and which took such hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I believe it will do for them, as it did for me, and be service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

OFFICER DRESSER'S STATEMENT.

Editors Chronicle: — Marshal Norton having seen fit to present his statement respecting the release of that prisoner, to the public; I deem it my duty to myself, and my friends, to request you to publish my story also, as given to the Investigating Committee of the Board of Aldermen, per their request, and not volunteered. I wish to add also, that I entered no complaint to the Board, as your reporter stated last week—but only appeared when summoned before their Committee.

Statement to the Investigating Committee. Passing through Market street, Saturday afternoon, saw Marshal Norton and another man go into the store of Benj. Cheever. I went up street, and, thinking something was wrong, when I went back I called at Mr. Cheever's store. When I left the store I met a young man, who said a man had been stealing furs, etc., from Mr. Freeman. I then went to Mr. Freeman's, where I saw a lady, who said a man had stolen some furs from them, and she gave me a description of the man, and I recognized him as the same man I had seen with the Marshal.

I then went out and found the man at Downs' store. Took the man by the arm and carried him in to Freeman's house. The lady recognized the man as the one who had stolen from them. I then walked with the man over towards the watch-house.—The man said he would give me $25 to let him go. I locked him up. I then went out and met some men enquiring for umbrellas. Afterwards I went back to station-house to correct the slate, and met Marshal at the door of the watch-house with my prisoner. I said to the Marshal, "That man is my prisoner." The Marshal objected to my locking the prisoner up again. I locked him up in a cell and then explained to the Marshal.

I then went over to Freeman's saloon with the Marshal. He was not in; then went to Freeman's house. Marshal said he supposed the prisoner was locked up for some old offence. Saw the lady before-mentioned; she said she did not wish to appear in Police Court. Then came out to Moulton & Blaisdell's corner, and left the Marshal; went to tea; was gone perhaps 20 minutes; when I came from tea I went to the watch-house and found my prisoner gone. Then I went and built a fire in the stove of the watch-house.

I then went out and saw ex-Marshal Dearborn, and asked him if he thought the Marshal had done right, (after explaining the case to him.) He said No. I then went and saw Jos. B. Adams. Mr. Cheever sent for me, and said he had lost a coat. I went back to station-house and waited till the Marshal came back, and told him Cheever wanted to see him, and he went to Cheever's. When he came back to station-house he said, "Cheever has lost a coat." I said, "I have lost a prisoner." I staid there till ten o'clock and then went home.

Next day I had some further conversation with Norton. He said he had orders from the Mayor (Reding) to let no man come to trial if he would be an expense to the city. I told him I should report him to the Mayor Monday morning. I did so, and the Mayor said he would assist me to re-arrest him, (the ex-prisoner) if he was going to stay in office, but as he was going out he did not wish to do anything with it. I then went to Goodall's, and got warrants, and paid for them myself.

The prisoner's name is Charles Stevens; he has given his name as Chas. Johnson. I told Mayor Reding I did not get the warrant nor enter the complaint out of revenge to the Marshal. Goodall told me he would make out three warrants. Gave the warrants to Sheriff Adams, who sent them to his deputy at Newmarket. The Deputy wrote down on Saturday, and said he he had arrested a Charles Johnson, and he thought he could not be the man he wanted. On Sunday I went to Newmarket; saw the Deputy, and found this was not the man, but he thought it must be a man by the name of Samuel Savage. Got a warrant for Samuel Savage, which was the name the prisoner gave to Mr. Frink of Greenland when he went back. The prisoner gave me the name of Chas. Stevens. Newmarket people told me he was a slippery fellow. Policemen picked him up in Newmarket. I asked him if he remembered me, and if I did not arrest him at Portsmouth. I asked him how much he paid Marshal Norton for carrying him to Greenland? He said he paid Norton $10 for letting him out of the station-house; passed it out of a square hole in the door of the cell, and $1.50 for carrying him to Greenland. Mr. Norton said he had a witness fee for me, but he should not give it me, for he had an order from the Mayor not to pay it.—When I arrested the prisoner he appeared to have been drinking.

When in Clay's office at Newmarket, one of the Selectmen said he had kept him out of prison twice, and he was glad somebody else had got him beside Newmarket folks. Norton acknowledges he paid him $3. The prisoner said he had never seen Norton before. Norton said he was well acquainted with the prisoner's father. His father said he did not know Norton.

"SLAVERY."— Messrs. Editors:—Is it not really refreshing to have something to enliven us in these quiet times? The little buzz created by the report of Dr. Peabody's sermon, is a godsend for the gossips. But it is said that the Dr. denies the parentage of much of the report. I think he ought to, but if the Dr. has not committed the blunder of that discourse, he ought not to suffer for it.

It is difficult for those of us who work for a living, to understand the theory that laborers are not free. Is the minister who labors upon a salary, a freeman or a slave? Is the Cambridge Professor free? Can he say what he chooses, go and come when he pleases, and possess the ordinary rights of a freeman? Where is the distinction between one laborer and another? The slavery part of the sermon seems to be a mixture of all sorts of contrary theories. But the insult (tho' perhaps not so intended) to the laborer and the sailor is too apparent. Does the good Doctor intend to hit Ex-Gov. Banks the Bobbin Boy, or the sea captain's men, from the common sailor's place, to the highest post on shipboard? The fact is, too many intelligent and capable people are daily demonstrating, as laborers, that the Doctor's notions in this particular, are entirely unsound, and ought not to be promulgated among a free people.

MEG MERRILIE.

Remarks.—It is more than probable that this much-mooted Fast Day discourse will soon be given entire to the public, in some form or other; and we have no doubt that this will stop considerable discussion, by taking from disputants no little amount of capital, in the way of misrepresentation and misconception. "Examine first."—In the meantime it will probably be difficult to find a man who has worked harder for the last quarter of a century or more, than this same offending Professsor.—"JR" Ed. Chron.

BANISHED FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Manchester (N. H.) American says that Mr. Lyman A. Dickey of that city, a young and industrious machinist, nearly a year ago went South and engaged in the prosecution of his business in a retired country town in South Carolina, about sixty miles from Charleston. He had nothing to do with the institution of slavery—never spoke of it—but diligently attended to his own business. Being taken ill, he became short of funds and wrote to his mother in Boston, sending his letter to the post office by a free negro. Shortly after he received the following letter:—

Mr. Lyman A. Dickey—Sir: Having found in the possession of a free negro a letter directed to Boston, the Vigilance Committee ordered it opened, which having been done, it was sealed again and sent to its destination. This is to notify you that you are hereby ordered to leave the State of South Carolina as soon as your health will permit you to do so. Per Order,

SAMUEL SOLOMONS, Secretary.

The mere fact that he had directed a letter to Boston, and sent it to the post office by the hands of a free negro, appears to have procured the banishment of Mr. Dickey. He has arrived at Manchester.

Negroes are selling at low figures in Charleston. As States "rise," slaves fall.

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending

COSMOPOLITAN

Art Association

have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, par or or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very first writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five membership, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous fine engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 8 cents in stamps or coin.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1855, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

A MUTUAL MISTAKE IN CARPET BAGS. Two inconvenient mistakes occurred at the railroad depot, at Plymouth, one day last week. Two friends—one a clergyman and the other a doctor—met in the saloon, and set down their carpet-bags, which were just alike. When they came to start, they by mistake, took each other's carpet-bags, and when the doctor reached home, he found himself in possession of a set of sermons; and the clergyman, when he got home, found he had gone to another place, found in his bag a full armament of forceps, lances, phials, pills, &c., which he could not use to much advantage in the pulpit of a friend which he was to supply the next day. The doctor had not made quite so bad a swap, for if he had been called on any severe case of compound fracture, or neuralgia, tooth-ache, or fits, a sermon might have been administered as an effective opinate.

AYER'S

Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & CO. GENTS: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in boyhood for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms, sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my neck and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and humiliating beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from anything. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was persuaded to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative Sarsaparilla, for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took five bottles, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles more. Now and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone out of my system. I can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I owe you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Erysipelas, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and has also cured a case of Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelling of the Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hidden swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus, the ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Cincinnati, writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 24th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have experienced from your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects wonderful in the cure of the worst forms of Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Four bottles of your Sarsaparilla taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of the bone. I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulceration healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from the effects of it in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she could not stir, exercising pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy, and frequently, then, truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family for chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. It cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. JOB TEAGUE.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have witnessed your Sarsaparilla for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Depy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew its effects, and say that it was one such worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratuitously to those who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the medical men of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs, colds, &c., is a well and truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as the cures here, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all its truly wonderful powers, and that its cures which have been so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, Faculties, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Healthy Blood, or red Blood—in all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of blood, show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy flush of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, waxlike skin and countenance, — which evinces a considerable deficiency of red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been secured in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

DEBILITY,

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the COLOR, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when the nervous system is much impaired, with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous derangement. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality, or who feel that they need a nutritious and invigorating tonic, and in all diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in his favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as possessing more real merit than preparations, patant or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified credentials, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, snap from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining a reputation in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddy against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and exterior portion of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, both a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription employed.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, from my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using it a few weeks, found his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you as a voluntary. Respectfully, &c. Please sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents, and after using it, you will.

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color: from the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative, it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very worthy and invaluable article. Yours, &c.

S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle, especially when there is a family to be supplied, or more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first standing of infants and children, depends on the condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for all bowel complaints, and our trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended for

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING DIARRHŒA, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as certain, speedy and effectual remedy when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic, and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to our suffering children. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we fully understand is a strong argument against the use of any form of preparation for infantile diseases, at this time. Testimonials from all parts of the country. Mothers are becoming convinced of "the truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting medicines, their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of pain. We cannot recommend to you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail you when the time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take no other but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Fever and Ague, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become debilitated, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of this Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts. $1.

MEANNESS.—The City Council of Columbia, S. C., which imposes a tax of little less than one per cent. on real estate, and one dollar per head on slaves, to be paid by their masters, requires a tax from free negroes of one dollar for children under ten years, up to twenty-five dollars for those exercising any mechanic art or trade. Either it must be taken that the free negroes are better able to take care of themselves than anyother class, or else it is designed to drive them off, or reduce them to slavery.—Atlas.

FORT SUMTER REINFORCED.—A letter from Charleston to the Courrier des Etats-Unis, dated January 13, says:—"The vigilant guard of the Charlestonians was not able to prevent, last night, an addition of two individuals to the garrison of Fort Sumter. The mother and her twin children are doing well."

The Republicans and the Breckinridge Secessionists, before the election, were very jocular about Douglas' search for his mother. It looks now as though Lincoln will have to make an unsuccessful search for a country to rule over, while it is very sure, if justice is done, many of the secessionists will require a hard search to find their heads.—Bath Times.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE,

Containing the news of the week, at home and abroad, as published in the six previous issues of the Daily Chronicle,—is printed on Friday morning, and immediately delivered by our carriers to subscribers in the city, or sent by mail to any part of the State or the world.

As the Weekly Chronicle contains most of the matter from our "local" Daily columns, it will be found an attractive paper for natives of Portsmouth living abroad, and all others interested in our city.

Terms of subscription to the Weekly Chronicle, only $1 per year in advance—sent by carrier without extra charge, to any part of the city and vicinity; or by mail, postage free, to any part of Rockingham County. Direct letters, "Chronicle, Portsmouth, N. H."

THE INFANTILE CORDIAL.—We notice our druggists have received a supply of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is also said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved.

Excellent Chance—Encouraging News.

The undersigned, aware of the hard times, for the next thirty days will dispose of his entire stock of Winter Goods at Cost Prices.

Let all persons who are desirous of procuring a good suit of clothes for little money, immediately avail themselves of this offer, which is lower than can be afforded by any other house in town.

The stock, comprising all the latest styles, will be sold without reserve. Having laid in a complete assortment, the subscriber can confidently assert that no better chance could be offered during the present period of tightness in the money market.

The stock consists of fine Beaver, Pilot and Broadcloth Overcoats, heavy Cassimeres and Doeskin Pants, with a superior lot of Vests. Also, fine Business Coats, Black Frock Coats, &c. He can also recommend his assortment of Furnishing Goods, consisting of fine Shirts, Undershirts, Drawers, &c. Orders punctually attended to and executed at the shortest notice.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and is made less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a portion of the nutriment of meal; thus, in a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs. give by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES.
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a durable food. In the bread, the salt remains the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of bread will produce more or less digestible bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it leads all risk, and much time of the operator.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg; and make the paste into a stiff dough with milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; melt the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and half a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil in a pot or steamer.

CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

TUMBLE—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar, six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to this taste. Bake about half an hour.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, vitalizes and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Coughs, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will effectually prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not untomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their bloom, and which, if left to take their course without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about the—this Cordial is all we claim.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your sweet pleading affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 1861.

DEGREES OF SLAVERY,—AGAIN.—It is certain that some portions of Rev. Dr. Peabody's Sermon, lately published in the Journal, have been misunderstood by some readers, and that his principal aim in the whole discourse, is misapprehended by many.

With his general position that, Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty: and its converse, that Where the spirit of the Lord, or the Christian spirit, is not, there sprouts up slavery or oppression or bondage of some sort,—we shall find no fault;—and we see no evidence that the author of the sermon has been converted into a wilful supporter of slavery; but on the contrary, he styles slavery and the slave trade "a wrong and crime without one redeeming feature."

He gets before the public, however, in the discourse as reported, with two errors, or apparent errors, by which the common reader is enabled, and indeed almost compelled to misunderstand and misapply the whole,—so that some pro-slavery men claim it,—and many anti-slavery men condemn.

One of these is the confounding of the various and lighter degrees of bondage, with utter chattel slavery. This last, the essence of which is, that its hereditary victims are bought and sold as cattle, and that their domestic and social ties are ruptured by their holders at will, or by the holder's creditors, is slavery proper.

All other and lighter degrees of bondage are better known by some other name;—because the common reader understands better when plain distinctions are made between different things.

The other error, real or apparent, is in the statement that the men who formed this Union, expected it soon to drop to pieces,—and the sermon says:—

This present fearful crisis, though it has taken us by surprise, corresponds to the expectations of the patriotic men who formed our government. This government has lasted much longer than they dared to expect. They looked for no permanent union even of the thirteen original states, with their wide disseverance of ideas, society and interests.

However this might have been as to any one, or few of these men, we have no idea that the great body of them thought so; and the constitution says nothing of the kind.

Gen. Washington, in his letter to Congress, enclosing a copy of the Constitution, concludes by saying:

That it may promote the lasting welfare of that country so dear to us all, and secure her freedom and happiness, is our most ardent wish.

Daniel Webster, who had some clear ideas of the Constitution and Government, said in a speech in Congress in 1833:—

The Constitution, Sir, regards itself as perpetual and immortal. It seeks to establish a union among the people of the States, which shall last through all time. Or, if the common fate of things human must be expected at some period to happen to it, yet that catastrophe is not anticipated.

The instrument contains ample provision for its amendment at all times; none for its abandonment, at any time. It declares that new States may come into the Union, but it does not declare that old States may go out. The Union is not a temporary partnership of States. It is the association of the people, under a constitution of government, uniting their power, joining together their highest interests, cementing their present enjoyments, and blending in one indivisible mass all their hopes for the future.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—[Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.]—No danger is now apprehended of an attack on Fort Pickens. The President telegraphed yesterday, and dispatched an officer of high rank in the navy, enjoining on the officers in Florida to furnish no pretext for an attack.

Similar representations have been sent by the secessionists to Major Chase, who commands the Florida forces.

Governor Pickens to-day telegraphed Colonel Hayne that there was no truth in the rumor that Major Anderson had refused the courtesy of fresh provisions, &c. These are daily sent to him from the market, as also his mails.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan 22.—The reason of the clearance of so large a number of cotton vessels yesterday, was in consequence of the belief that the State would be out of the Union in a few days, and it was therefore preferable to have a clearance from the United States, than run the chance of difficulty after the act of secession had passed. There are but few vessels now up at this port for cargoes, and rates of freight in cotton to Liverpool are held with great firmness at 7-8 of a penny per pound.

FAITH.—Speaking of the present lamentable and gloomy conditions of national affairs, a Washington correspondent of a New York paper says:—

"Our only hope is in God, under the compromises of the Constitution and the faithful execution of the laws."

It would seem that a "hope in God" would not be affected much by any constitution or law, or contract, or condition of man.

☞ In the S. J. Court, at Manchester, N. H., last week, Joseph Bell for selling liquor, plead nolo contendere, and was fined $50 and costs.

WEBSTER AND JACKSON.

The Charleston rebellion in 1833, was something like the present hubbub there;—and had about as much sense in it.

Mr. Calhoun introduced into Congress, resolutions justifying nullification and secession. Daniel Webster made a speech against them, and in favor of the Force Bill, in which he said:

Mr. President, every man must see that these are all questions which can arise only after a revolution. They presuppose the breaking up of the government. While the Constitution lasts, they are repressed; they spring up to annoy and startle us only from its grave.

The Constitution does not provide for events which must be preceded by its own destruction. Secession, therefore, is revolutionary, and nullification is equally revolutionary.

Mr. Calhoun's resolutions did not pass: but the Force Bill did pass;—and in Gen. Jackson's proclamation on the occasion, he says:—

The Constitution of the United States, then, forms a government, not a league, and whether it be formed by compact between the States, or in any other manner, its character is the same. It is a government in which all the people are represented, which operates directly on the people individually, not upon the States; they retained all the power they did not grant. But each State having expressly parted with so many powers as to constitute jointly with the other States a single nation, can not from that period possess any right to secede, because such secession does not break a league, but destroys the unity of a nation, and any injury to that unity is not only a breach which would result from the contravention of a compact, but it is an offence against the whole Union. To say that any State may at pleasure secede from the Union, is to say that the United States are not a nation; because it would be a solecism to contend that any part of a nation might dissolve its connection with the other parts, to their injury or ruin, without committing any offense.

Those who told you that you might peaceably prevent their execution, deceived you—they could not have been deceived themselves. They know that a forcible opposition could alone prevent the execution of the laws, and they know that such opposition must be repelled. There object is disunion: but be not deceived by names; disunion, by armed force, is treason.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Captain Armstrong, late commander of the Pensacola Navy Yard, reports that about three-fourths of the sixty men at that yard were secessionists, who would have revolted had resistance been offered to Major Chase with over 400 hundred men, who demanded the surrender of the yard; therefore opposition was useless. The secession feeling was so rife as to silence the Union men. As an instance, one man, who avowed himself a Union man, was stabbed. Before the surrender of the yard, the secessionists were by no means dominant in Pensacola; but the people were drawn into the movement by the inflammatory appeals of Major Chase. At a meeting where secession resolutions were adopted, when the American flag was being lowered by orders of Lieut. Henshaw, it suddenly fell into the dust, when the exultant multitude loudly cheered, under the lead of an officer of the Wyandotte, which vessel proceeds shortly to Philadelphia.—Lieut. Saunders, bearer of dispatches to Capt. Armstrong, had them demanded of him, but he refused to give them up. A reply was made that they would be taken from him. He said that would be an act of war against the government. He was conducted to Capt. Armstrong, who had surrendered, when, farther resistance being unavailing, they were surrendered.

There are about 80 men in Fort Pickens to 240 guns. Lieut. Skinner, commanding—has his family with him. After abandoning Fort McRee his wife went thither to procure some clothing, which was denied her. She indignantly left, saying, she herself would man one of the guns of Fort Pickens.

Ex-Senators Mallory and Yulee, and Ex Representative Hawkins have been appointed commissioners to negotiate for the surrender of the forts, &c., to Florida.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—A paper is being circulated which asserts that being convinced there is no hope that any measure which will reconcile the existing difficulties can receive a majority vote, and as none of the present members were elected in view of the existing troubles, and believing it to be proper to refer the question to the people, we propose that members of this Congress resign, their resignation to take effect on the 21st of February, and that their successors who shall have been chosen at a special election, shall assemble on the 22d of February, and that to these representatives bearing instructions from the people shall be submitted the various propositions now before Congress. The paper is signed by Bocock, Martin, Sickles, Florence, Montgomery and Clemens.

The Committee on Elections unanimously agreed to report in favor of Mr. Sickles retaining his seat.

A naval officer has left for Fort Pickens with such instructions as may prevent a collision.

Governor Pickens telegraphs that the best understanding exists between Major Anderson and the South Carolina authorities. No collision is apprehended.

The freinds of the Virginia peace proposition assign as a reason for pressing it on the border States that it will have the effect to prevent them from joining the cotton States, and afford them an opportunity of returning to the Union.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 23.—The Senate passed the bill making the taxes 20 per cent. higher than they were in 1859, to meet the demand for a million and a half of treasury notes, issued for seven hundred thousand dollars, and bills receivable by the State for three hundred and fifty thousand dollars for military contingencies.

☞ Alonzo Lewis, familiarly known as the "Lynn Bard," died in that city, Tuesday, at the age of sixty-six years.

[Correspondence of the Chronicle.]

BOSTON STATION, Ky., Jan. 21.

The condition of affairs in reference to the Union grows more and more serious, and the present lull of the elements but precedes a terrific storm, which threatens to engulf the country in civil war.

The condition of affairs at the extreme South is deplorable enough. The "Reign of Terror" is supreme, and the devastating effects of secession are making themselves felt by all classes. Forced contributions to the revolution are daily made by drunken hordes of the enlisted soldiers of the kingdom or republic (?) of South Carolina.—Ex-Gov. Aiken, the largest slave-holder in the State, has been forced to contribute the sum of $40,000 as his share of the expenses.

The espionage practiced upon the Mississippi River is increasing, and acts of hostility towards all persons suspected of being from the North are becoming more and more numerous. Last week one of the regular steamers, running between Cincinnati and New Orleans, came very near being fired into while passing a certain point on the way up river. The night was very dark, and as you know, all these western boats stop at any point in the river: in the day-time a handerchief being the signal; in the night, a lantern. A lantern being waved for them to stop, they rounded to, and took on board the person, who proved to be a negro. When asked where he was going, he said, "up the river, twenty miles," where his master was waiting for them to take him on board. This answer being satisfactory, they proceeded on the river, and on arriving at the place the captain saw a large crowd of men, numbering several hundred, on the wharf. Suspecting some thing wrong, he put in and called for a policeman, stating that he had a runaway slave on board, and wished to deliver him up. It was ascertained afterwards that there was a preconcerted plan to blow up the boat; the negro acted as a decoy, and had they not stopped at the place, a cannon was in readiness, loaded to the muzzle with old spikes, scraps of iron, etc., and the gunner stationed at his post with lighted torch, to fire upon a boat-load of innocent and unsuspecting passengers. It is needless to add that the captain has made his last trip in that direction, and the boat is laid up until a more auspicious season. This state of things cannot long exist, and the reaction will be terrible. "The man recovered of the bite, the dog it was that died."

Our Legislature is now in session, and should a Convention of the people be called by it, Kentucky is lost. The Union men of all parties are working hard against it, and the result is doubtful.

A meeting of the voters of this county was held at Falmouth, Saturday, at which resolutions in favor of a Convention, secession, etc., were voted down, and strong Union resolves carried, declaring against coercive measures.

It is rumored that several companies are forming in Covington, for the ostensible purpose of taking the fort at Newport.

Yours, G. W. M.

THE BOSTON MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS.—The Committee appointed o obtain signatures to the memorial to Congress, asking for the adoption of compromise measures for the restoration of harmony to the country, obtained upwards of fourteen hundred names, and say they would easily have got five thousand in another day. The Committee consists of Messrs. Edward Everett, Robert C. Winthrop, A. A. Lawrence, Charles L. Woodbury, and E. S. Tobey.—They started for Washington on Wednesday afternoon. A large company assembled at the station, and as the train started, three most hearty cheers were given for the Committee and the object of their mission.

☞ In the U. S. Senate, Wednesday Jan. 22.—Mr. Bigler moved to take up Mr. Crittenden's resolutions. Lost—24 to 27.

The Pacific Railroad bill was then taken up.

An amendment was adopted for a branch to Portland, Oregon.

The House considered and amended the post route bill.

☞ The weather in England was severely cold at the last dates, Jan. 10,—and navigation was getting more and more difficult Many parts of the Thames were choked with floating ice, and dock entrances were kept open by steam tugs.

☞ Major John G. Reynolds, of the Marine Corps, is detached from the Navy Yard on this station, and ordered to Charlestown, Mass.

Col. Delaney, of the Marine Corps, is ordered to this station.

☞ Rev. Mr. Reed is to deliver the next Lecture of the Series on Temperance, next Sunday evening, at the Temple. By arrangement among the ministers, the services are to begin at 8 o'clock.

NEW YORK, Jan 23.—The military of Brooklyn are under arms every night, from alleged apprehensions of an attack upon the Navy Yard.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 23.—The defence was withdrawn in the case of the fugitive slave Lucy, and she will be returned to Virginia to-morrow morning.

ADVERTISING.—There are few people who understand the law of advertising. The few who do understand it, invariably succeed and amass fortunes. There is not a solitary exception to this rule. The law of advertising, clearly understood and obeyed, enables the advertiser to realize to the abounding truth there is in one of the proverbs of Solomon: "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth." And he who misunderstands the law of advertising, or fails to give obedience to it, will surely realize the other half of the same proverb: "There is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." Advertising, to be successful as a means of business, should not be spasmodic or intermittent, but continuous. Persevered in, it always yields a reward. There is no such word as fail to the persistent advertiser. And he who expects results from a single advertisement which has had but two or three insertions, and is then withdrawn, is no more reasonable than a man would be to expect favorable results from taking his shutters down three days in a month, and keeping the shutters closed the remainder of the time; or than the man who shrouds his sign of business excepting particular days and at long intervals of time.—Courier.

All very well, no doubt, for the printers, says some reader who would like to advertise if he knew how and had the courage. No trader anywhere who has had anything worth advertising, and knew how to do it, and did it, ever yet failed to make it pay. A celebrated modern philosopher says the time is coming, and not far off, when any man who pays more for store-rent than for advertising, will be deemed injudicious.—What would Portsmouth tradesmen say to that? Why, the publisher of a certain excellent New York paper, often pays as more for one day's advertising of a single number, than most of our city merchants are willing to pay for a year. And he has tried it long enough to know whether it will pay or not, too. And Messrs. Allen & Paine, the famous wholesale Cloak manufacturers, now of Boston, who probably advertised more liberally than any other firm ever did in Portsmouth; told us, a few days ago, that they are to continue on the same scale in Boston; and that were they to commence again in Portsmouth, they should invest in advertising yet more extensively than before.

☞ On Wednesday evening, the usual routine of the duties of our police were varied somewhat by the intrusion of an unshaved quadruped, which Webster defines as "a pachydermatous mammal of the genus Sus, which furnishes man with a large portion of his most nourishing food." We mean—a pig; and after rooting around the door of the lockup a short time, an officer discovered the wanderer, and immediately locked him up in one of the cells. This was certainly a piggish act of his, and if met with a just retribution; in a short time, the owners appeared and demanded his release, without even a writ of habeas corpus. **

WHAT A LITTLE WOMAN DID.—A subscriber in Androscoggin county informs us that a lady neighbor of his—yet on the sunny side of 40, and weighing only 83 lbs. avoirdupois—owning a farm of 200 acres, has raised during the past season, 60 bushels of corn, 38 1-2 do. of wheat, 41 do. of rye, 42 do. of barley, 300 do. of oats, 400 do. of potatoes, 1,000 do. of apples, grafted fruit, and 60 tons of hay. She also keeps 20 head of neat stock, 8 horses, and 60 sheep. The value of the above products is estimated at not less than $1,500, while the expense has been about $600—leaving a net profit of a thousand dollars for the smart little woman to put into her pocket. If farming will pay under the management of a woman why should the big two-footed fellows complain that they cannot get a living by it?—Maine Farmer.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The surveying schooner Dane has been seized by the authorities of St. Augustine, Fla., while the commander was absent on an expedition in connection with his duties.

It is rumored that arms and ammunitions of war are being shipped in the vicinity of Amboy, N. J. Cartridges, it is also said, are being manufactured in the same vicinity. The United States authorities in New Jersey will take prompt action.

☞ The Ames Manufacturing Company voted at their annual meeting a week ago, not to forward any arms to States which have declared themselves out of the Union. This was done before the charge of Judge Smalley was published.

☞ The small pox exists to a fearful extent on board the corvette Cumberland, of the Home Fleet. She is at Vera Cruz.—Communication with the ship has been prohibited for the present by the Flag Officer.

☞ Rev. William Page has closed his labors as a stated supply of the Congregational church in Bath.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—It is reported that there has been another seizure of ammunition to-night destined for the South, at a store in Beekman street.

THE ART UNION.—Copies of the fine engraving, 'Falstaff Mustering his Recruits,' may be seen in various styles of frames, at Exchange Hall. Pictures delivered at the time of subscribing. "Shakspeare and his Friends," or "The Village Blacksmith," will be furnished subscribers, if preferred; or either of these two last, without the Art Journal or a share in the drawing, for $2. The books close in Portsmouth Jan. 28th. See the advertisement of the "Seventh Year."

BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, Jan. 24.—Chairman of Committee on bills of second reading, reported an ordinance for the appointment of a City Solicitor, at a salary of $150 per year. The report was re committed to the same committee, for amendment.

A petition signed by numerous individuals, was presented, for the re-appointment of Marshal Norton, Mr. Rowell having declined. Laid on the table.

Petition for the appointment of Mayor Simes as City Marshal,—laid on the table.

☞ The number of Deaths in Exeter, in 1860, was 52—males 28, females 24. Population 3400. Average age, 37 1-2 years. Under 5 years, 12; only about one-fifth of the total.

The Oxygenated Bitters have no equal as a tonic medicine. They contain no alcohol, and are especially adapted to the delicate constitution of females suffering from debility or from any derangement of the natural functions.

Dyspeptic persons, would you be cured of this dreadful disease, and all others arising from the use of common Saleratus? Also, have white, light and healthy Bread and Biscuit? Do not fail to procure a paper of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, after which you will never use any other. It is the best in the world. Try it.—Call on your grocer for it.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the most objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawSm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate correct to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawSm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand for use when a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who offer will but make it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

NORTON vs. DRESSER.

Editors of the Chronicle:—Mr. Dresser, in his statement of the 22d, was very careful to say "as given to the Investigating Committee;" and adds, he didn't enter any complaint to the Board when in session;—but he did enter complaints to the Aldermen, or some of them, when not in session, and told them and others that I did receive money to let the prisoner out, and received it through the little square hole in the cell. He made a similar charge at Greenland, and said he could prove it—which he has failed to do. When he was before the Board of Aldermen, he was asked how he knew Mr. N. received money to let the prisoner out. His answer was, "The man himself told me so."

Is it not a little queer that the prisoner should recollect so distinctly about the little square hole in the door of his cell, and couldn't remember anything that took place that day?

The statement that I told him that the Mayor gave me orders not to pay him his usual fee, is false.

The statement that I objected to have the man locked up after I was told he had been stealing furs, is also incorrect.

B. NORTON, City Marshal.

SEVEN YEARS!
The seven years of unrivalled success attending
COSMOPOLITAN
Art Association
have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.
Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.
Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive
1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 36 inches, entitled
Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,
2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the
"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."
3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to
"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."
In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over
Five Hundred Beautiful Works of Art,
comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.
THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 36 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars
The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a richly-illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.
The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.
Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.
No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.
Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.
For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND.
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fainting frame on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the more extended and fatal diseases to which it is liable. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they yield rapidly, and many of them safely cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the purest and all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR SIR: AYER: I cannot answer your whole complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to my all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I know the purgative Pills you cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Ball, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills entirely adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I cheerfully adjure that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their lasting action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I find them a ready cure of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not yield readily to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have met with during my long practice. The best evidence of them an excellent remedy, where given to meet such a bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the propagator of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent preventives of the malady to which women wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Healthy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies nervous derangement. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental vigor, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE THROAT or LUNGS, such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In all cases of Female Complaints, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as to chase harrassing

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend to make Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with pakeness, a debilitated state of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the strongest evidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers have been impaired through excess, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated.

A fruitful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in the treatment of diseases, particularly the Theory upon which this remedy is founded. also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskey.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for use with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Debility, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age having contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and oily body, it affords a medicinal stimulative to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, bad diseases of the system and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray up from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to use it myself, and I can say that it is a perfect treasure.

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I tried everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillips, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early manhood, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can use it as you think best. Hair Restoratives in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very good dervital invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: large medium, and small the small holds half a pant, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more than the small, and retails for one dollar; two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Lubricating Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Vomiting of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which many infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We cannot ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in a ating cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find this a great consolation to Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the well-established consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions Here is DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the nervous children, but operates naturally, through its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend our friends, who may be about to procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels. Taken as a spirit,

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating effects of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are troubled with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, with excited headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

SOME DIFFERENCE.—The Newark, N. J. Journal of January 17, says:—

The Democracy of New Hampshire have nominated for Governor, Gen. George Stark, a noble grandson of Gen. Stark of Revolutionary memory. The Convention which nominated him placed themselves squarely upon a Southern rights platform.

Per Contra, the Concord, N. H Democratic Standard says:—

"In our judgment, the Convention was not very fortunate in the selection of a candidate.

It supports Benning W. Jenness for Governor, who was nominated by the Breckinridge Democrats last fall, and goes on to say:—

The Douglas faction in this State now stand precisely where they did in the late election. If they should succeed, (which they cannot) it would be the triumph of Douglasism, and nothing else. And Douglasism is as odious to the South as Black Republicanism. National Democrats, stand by your colors.

Hogs which are kept in close pens, and fed on very nutritious food, have an appetite for carbonaceous matter, particularly for charcoal. If they cannot get this, they will eat decayed wood, straw or hay, peaty earth, stone-coal or coal ashes. Even poultry of all kinds, while confined and fed with grain, will eat considerable charcoal, if put into such condition that they can swallow it. Those who have observed the effect of charcoal on these animals, know that it promotes their health and thrift. Among the human race, charcoal is sometimes taken with good effect by dyspeptic people, especially for the correction of acids in the stomach. Is it not probable that this substance produces a similar effect on the lower animals?

AN OLD SOLDIER IN NEW HAMPSHIRE. We are not aware that there is a solitary revolutionary soldier now living in this State, with the exception of Mr. Joel McGregory of this town. Mr. McGregory is now in the 101st year of his age, having been born in Enfield, Conn, Nov. 22, 1760, He enlisted in the army April 17, 1777, and was in the service five years in all.—He was taken prisoner by the British, and confined in the old Sugar House, in New York city, eight months, from May to January. He came to this town in 1789, where he has since resided. We learn that the old soldier is in a good state of health, considering his advanced years and bids fair to hold on sometime longer.—Newport Argus.

☞ It is estimated that about three thousand sleighs were in the New York Central Park on Sunday, while great numbers seized upon the opportunity the snow had offered, and went bowling along behing the long striding trotting horses to High Bridge and many other places of beauty and popular resort with which that great city abounds. Then to this vast number, are to be added tens of thousands of skaters and pedestrians who found their delight and entertainment in and about the Central Park.

How women do admire weddings!—not their own, but anybody's. How they throng the churches just to see the ceremony, you know." Then what animated descriptions of the whole affair; what glowing accounts of what the bride "had on." What criticism of the bridesmaid! In short, what an immense amount of simper, giggle and prattle all because two inoffensive young people are going, in a legal and orderly way, to set up house keeping.

Never put much confidence in persons who put no confidence in others. A man prone to suspect evil, is mostly looking in his neighbor for what he sees in himself. As to the pure all things are pure even so to the impure are all things impure.

Excellent Chance—Encouraging News.

The undersigned, aware of the hard times, for the next thirty days will dispose of his entire stock of Winter Goods at Cost Prices.

Let all persons who are desirous of procuring a good suit of clothes for little money, immediately avail themselves of this offer, which is lower than can be afforded by any other house in town.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty in procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the substance of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common and ordinary mode, makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 300 lbs., thus affording the very important saving of 16 per cent in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in fermenting dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from the purest pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle of the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three tablespoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two sugar, and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoonful of butter; add half a pound of sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
FLEET STREET CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonfuls of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of four, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to tith taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good for children, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, he aid is invaluable.
For diarrhea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a palatable form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and always all, without exception, to health. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, but has never been thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of diseases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements, Costiveness, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs. Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent what is attributed to Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon changes of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a teaspoonful at least before eating. And it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not satisfied to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which pain them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known: in time, the latter are often so misled up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always watchful, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.
Prepared by Prof. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 26, 1861.

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY.—While the Boston Post terms the firing on the Star of the West, treason and barbarism, the Charleston Mercury hails it as a glorious exploit. The Mercury says, on the day after the piracy:—

The expulsion of the steamer Star of the West from the Charleston harbor yesterday morning was the opening of the ball of the revolution. We are proud that our harbor has been so honored. We are more proud that the State of South Carolina, so long, so bitterly, so contemptuously reviled and scoffed at, above all others, should thus proudly have thrown back the scoff of her enemies. Entrenched upon her soil she has spoken from the mouth of her cannon, and not from the mouths of scurrilous demagogues, fanatics and scribblers.

Contemned, the sanctity of her waters violated with the hostile purpose of reinforcing enemies in our harbor, she has not hesitated to strike the first blow, full in the face of her insulter. Let the United States bear, or return at their good will, the blow still tingling about her ears—the fruit of her own bandit temerity. We would not exchange or recall that blow for millions! It has wiped out a half century of scorn and outrage. Again South Carolina may be proud of her historic fame and ancestry, without a blush upon her cheek, for her present honor. The haughty echo of her cannon has ere this reverberated from Maine to Texas, through every hamlet of the North, and down along the great waters of the Southwest.

The decree has gone forth. Upon every acre of the peaceful soil of the South armed men will spring up as the sound breaks upon their ears; and it will be found that every word of our insolent foes has indeed been a dragon's tooth sown for their destruction. And though grizly and treacherous ruffians may cry on the dogs of war, and treacherous politicians may lend their aid in deceptions, South Carolina will stand under her own Palmetto tree, unterrified by the snarling growls or assaults of the one, undeceived by the wily machinations of the other. And if that red seal of blood be still lacking to the parchment of our liberties, and blood they want—blood they shall have—and blood enough to stamp it all in red. For, by the God of our fathers, the soil of South Carolina shall be free.

That is free from the Union,—but covered over with slaves. Her historic fame is, that she was the most tory State of the old thirteen, and the least effective in the revolution.

☞ News from Europe via Queenstown, Jan. 13th.

From Italy, the intelligence from Gaeta is contradictory. One dispatch asserts that an armistice of ten days had been signed; another says the Piedmontese had redoubled their vigilance and activity before Gaeta, and the Paris Moniteur says the negotiations for an armistice remained without result.

A correspondent of the Times has been ordered to quit Rome.

The French Ambassador announces that the French fleet will leave Gaeta on the 19th inst.

The Moors not having fulfilled the treaty it is said Spain is about to occupy the principal forts in Morocco. A solution of the difficulty between Spain and Venezuela is shortly expected.

In New Zealand, a desperate engagement was fought on the 6th of November. The natives were completely defeated, and the head chief killed.

POLITICAL.—The Bell-Everett party of New Hampshire are once more in the field. Levi Bartlett of Warner is their man for Governor. Their Congressional candidates are: 1st district, John F. Moses of Exeter; 2d district, James U. Parker of Manchester; 3d district, Charles B. Haddock of Lebanon. Mr. Haddock has deceased since his nomination; Mr. Moses in the 1st district refuses to allow his name to be used in opposition to that of Mr. Marston, the Republican candidate; and the Manchester American anticipates the same magnanimity from Mr. Parker in the second district, inasmuch as he was an earnest Lincoln man. The Bell vote of New Hampshire last November was 417.

THE RIGHT OF SECESSION.—Here is a peep into the future. How does it look?

January, 1870—United States voted to buy Canada of England for $25,000,000.

February, 1870—England assents, provided Canada is willing.

March, 1870—Canada votes yes.

April, 1870—Money paid, $25,000,000.

May, 1870—Canada belongs to the United States.

June, 1870—Canada seceded, under her reserved rights as a "sovereign State."

☞ Despatches from Washington (which must of course be received with great caution) mention a rumor that the House will prefer a charge of treason against Secretary Toucey, that Gen. Harney is to command the military of the District of Columbia, and that army barracks for one hundred men, and stables for one hundred and twenty-five horses are to be erected near the Capital. It is stated that Gen. Scott has received information of a plot to seize the St. Louis arsenal.

☞ The house in which Thomas Jefferson was born, at Shadwell Depot, in the county of Albemarle, Va., was burned a few days since.

CONGRESS, THURSDAY, Jan. 24.

SENATE.—The Red River Raft bill was taken up. Mr. Trumbull opposed, and Mr. Douglas favored it. The bill was passed.

Mr. Gwin moved to take up the Pacific Railroad bill.

Mr. Crittenden moved to take up his resolution. He made an explanation, saying that he never authorized the publication of his remarks in secret session. He said he had not advocated coercion, but in his judgment Congress had such power, and there might be cases where it could be made applicable. He took occasion to say that the present time was not one for coercive doctrines.

Mr. Crittenden's motion was disagreed to—26 against 20.

The Pacific Railroad bill was taken up, Gwin and Latham voting with the Republicans against its postponement.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the bill was amended, issuing bonds and mortgages only to the United States.

HOUSE.—The Post Route bill was considered. The Senate amendment, making the postage on letters to and from San Francisco ten cents by steamer or overland mail, was adopted. An amendment was considered to receive proposals to carry the mails from St. Louis or any other point connected with the Eastern Railroad, for daily transportation overland for four years to San Francisco. The letter mail is to be carried in twenty days, and papers and documents in thirty days. The contract is to be given to the lowest bidder.

Salt Lake and Denver City are to be supplied semi-weekly without extra expense. The entire expense is not to exceed $800,000 per annum.

Mr. Hamilton of Texas desired to offer an amendment.

Mr. Colfax said that before accepting it he would ask if Texas was going to secede.

Mr. Hamilton trusted not. He said if she was treated fairly by Congress, it would be to her advantage to remain in the Union.

No action was taken.

The report of the Committee of Thirty-three was considered.

Mr. Rust of Ark. characterized the report as a miserable abortion, and as a mockery to the Southerners on the Committee, who could get nothing inconsistent with the Chicago platform.

Mr. Dunn of Ind. defended the Chicago platform and the action of the Committee. He said that Mr. Rust charged that John Brown was the hero of the Republicans.—He was surprised that any gentleman should give circulation to such an infamous libel. (Sensation.)

Mr. Rust—in reference to the charge of infamous libel—asked Mr. Dunn if he held himself responsible. If the gentleman is for war, I am willing to accommodate him.

Mr. Dunn—This is a free country, and the gentleman can take any mode of redress he pleases.

Mr. Rust, emphatically—I have the answer I wanted. If the Northern sentiment was represented by the Republican members of the Committee, there is no hope of compromise. Mr. Rust then advocated secession.

Mr. Dunn explained that he did not intend to use offensive language to Mr. Rust, but he believed the charge libelous to the Republican platform and party.

Mr. Rust—the gentleman says he did not intend offensive language. I have the right to demand an unqualified retraction.

Mr. Dunn—I have made all the explanation I feel it to be my duty to make.

Mr. Rust—Very good.

Mr. Ferry of Conn. said that treason not only lurked in the capitol, but was found in the Executive Department, striking hands in grand and petty larceny for the accomplishment of unholy purposes. The Dred Scott decision destroyed confidence in the Supreme Court, and the Lecompton policy destroyed confidence in the administration.—The Republicans are driven out of the Southern States, and the same fate will be meted out to the Union Democracy. He was opposed to all amendments to the Constitution. He would never recognize property in man by an amendment to the Constitution. He was opposed to the admission of New Mexico, and dissented from other measures recommended in the report. He appealed to the Republicans to stand by their principles. Others might do as they pleased, but he would never conform with treason. Adj.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—Hillsborough County.—Manchester, Jan. 22.—The case of State vs. Edward Rannie, for murder of Bridget Riley, was given to the jury about 6 1-2 o'clock. The evidence in the case has been quite conflicting, the State claiming that Rannie had whiskers at the time of the murder, and the defence that he hadn't; that he was seen with the Riley girl a short time previous to the murder, while the defence maintained that it was a different girl, different man, and at a time before Rannie came to this country. Verdict not guilty.

NO DAMAGES WHERE THE DRIVER WAS DRUNK.—In the case of Thomas Curtis vs. the Western Railroad, for damages, at Worcester, the jury returned a verdict for defendant, on the ground that the driver of the carriage was drunk and not exercising proper care at the time of the collision.—Boston Courier.

☞ The swill milk nuisance still continues in New York. The City Inspector says the sale of distillery milk is as general as ever, and milk was never worse.

GOOD SAILORS.

Sailors we must have; good sailors we would have:—but do we go the right way to work? The power to command, the captain must have; or else the ship will not make her voyage: but he does not always have the requisite skill to command well and wisely. His position is trying and responsible; for sailors are not all obedient or intelligent. A friend who was brought up among masters, owners and merchants, recommends the following article to the attention of all sea faring and mercantile men.

Two or three weeks ago we had the pleasure of meeting the Rev. Capt. C. H. Barrett, commanding the clipper ship C. F. Willets. A minister a sea-captain! A rare enough sight. We inferred he must follow the sea for his health. No, not for his health, but for the Gospel's sake. He follows the sea to preach to sailors, and to show to the world that when sailors are treated like human beings, like human beings they act and work.

From an early schoolmate of Capt. Barrett, we have learned the following and highly interesting particulars:

To fit himself for the work of preaching the Gospel, he left the sea, and pursued his studies at Yale. From Yale he went to Union Theological Seminary, New York city, and pursued a full course. After graduating in 1855, he superintended the building and rigging of the bark Revolution. In 1860 he made two voyages in the bark William, as captain—the first to Marseilles and Palermo, the second to Cuba. In 1857–8, he commanded the bark Welkin from New York to Valparaiso, Callao, Chincha islands, Mauritius, Peraug, Singapore, and back to New York. This vessel was owned by R. P. Buck & Co., New York. In 1859 he commanded the ship Eliza Mallory from New York to New Orleans, cleared thence to San Blas, west coast of Mexico, and was wrecked of Cape Florida. In 1860, Mr. Mallory gave him another ship, E. F. Willets. He brought the ship safely to this port, and in twenty-four days from the time he arrived, he unloaded his cargo, reloaded for New York, got all his crew, and was under way—a despatch not often equaled.

But the meetings and discipline on board Capt. Barrett's ship interested us more than any thing else. Capt. Barrett, in the first place, assumes that sailors are human beings, not dogs or brutes, to be mauled, handspiked, chained, starved, and abused in every conceivable manner, in order to keep them from insubordination.

Every Sabbath he holds a public service, and preaches to all on board. Every day prayers are held at 4 o'clock P. M.; twice a week, meetings for religious conference and prayer; once a week, a Bible-class, of which he is the leader; a mutual improvement circle twice a week; and once a week, a seamen's prayer-meeting, conducted wholly by themselves.

Capt. Barrett has inaugurated a mode of apprenticeship, which we predict in a few years will be a feature in our commercial world. He takes boys and educates them for the service; teaches them both the theory and the practice of navigation. These boys are taken at a certain age, and are kept under his special supervision, and room separately from the men, so that the vicious in the forecastle are kept in some measure from exerting their pernicious influence over them. In this way, when the plan becomes general, we shall have seamen who, for intelligence, morals, as well as skill in their profession, will be an honor to the service and a pride to their country.

Some of the good results of Capt. Barrett's mode of managing his men, is seen in the fact that on his way from New York to San Francisco there were not less than five conversions; also, while in port he had more applications for berths as seamen than he needed. In fact, so eager were men to go on board his ship, that one man had to pay a bonus of five dollars to one whose name had been entered by a mistake, to hold on to his place. This is remarkable indeed, when we know that it often takes from two to three weeks to obtain an ordinary crew for a ship ready for sea. Sailors are human beings, all the savage protestations of quarter-deck tyrants to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fifty such men as Capt. Barrett would, in a few years, sweep the seas of monsters in human shape, who outrage all humanity by their barbarous conduct. We trust the time will soon come when ship owners will see for themselves that their own interests demand men like Barrett to command their ships. We look upon this as the beginning of a great reform. God speed it.—San Francisco Pacific.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 24.—The House of Representatives appointed a committee to inquire what changes are necessary in the banking system and currency of South Carolina in consequence of the change in its political relations. A resolution was passed to inquire of the Postal Committee what provisions can be made in the contingency of the stopping of the mail by the Federal Government. The Legislature will adjourn on Friday.

EXCITEMENT AT SAVANNAH.—New York, Jan. 24.—The agents of the Savannah line of steamers telegraphed to-day from Savannah as follows:—"The seizure of arms from steamer Monticello causes great excitement here. Can you get them back. We fear retaliation. It is rumored that Federal troops have been ordered to the armory to prevent any apprehended attack for the recovery of the muskets recently seized."

☞ The Committee entrusted with the memorial of the citizens of Boston to Congress have arrived at Washington. A despatch from that city says:—

The Committee attract great attention here. Hon. Edward Everett has been called on by many distinguished Congressmen, South as well as North. The petition will have a good effect.

☞ The Richmond Dispatch appears in new type, which was manufactured in Richmond, being the first type ever made south of Baltimore.

From the Boston Traveller Extra.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The Kentucky Congressional delegation have received dispatches that the Legislature of that State will neither call a convention nor vote to secede from the Union.

Mr. Rust has challenged Mr. Dunn, but the matter will be arranged.

Threats are made that if Southern steamers are searched at New York to seize arms intended for the South, they will be detained on their arrival out for service in the Southern confederacy, thus making reprisals on the owners, who are mostly New Yorkers.

THE COST OF COERCION.—A private letter written by a South Carolinian to a relative in New York makes the following pertinent suggestions:

"If it cost the General Government, with all the States a union, from eight to ten years' war, and upwards of $100,000,000 to subdue a half-armed body of Seminoles not exceeding in all 15,000 men, women and children, how long will it take, to subdue 400,000 men, women, and children, well armed, fighting for their homes, and sworn to hand down hatred to an abolition government as an heir-loom?"

☞ The Convention in Georgia, on Wednesday, passed unanimously an ordinance amending the old Constitution, by substituting imprisonment for death for engaging in the African slave trade. That would probably be more effective than the death penalty, and does not look like reopening the slave trade.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Mr. Holt formally took leave of the Post Office Department yesterday. Major Trott expressed the friendly feeling of the employees toward him. Mr. Holt eloquently responded.

Mr. Dundas, Second Assistant Postmaster General, died this morning.

The Boston Committee have arrived.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 24.—Seven hundred State troops assembled here this morning, for a demonstration on the United States Arsenal.

The Federal troops will salute the American flag and leave for New York.

☞ It is said that the friends of Lieut. Hartstein, with his cognizance, have asked for his reinstatement in the Navy.

☞ Joel Tenney, keeper of the Union House, Lawrence, Mass., has been arrested for passing counterfeit money.

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawâm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawâm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ During the storm of snow and rain on Thursday night, the roof of the east end of the Ropewalk at the South End, gave way beneath the heavy mass of snow and ice, and over 300 feet of the building fell in. It is owned by Messrs. Johnson & Handy, who will undoubtedly soon repair it.

☞ We learn that three boys belonging in this city, not over 17 years old, got drunk, a few days since, and after proceeding about two miles out of town, two of them turned and left their comrade in a state of helpless drunkenness, which, together with the severe cold, would have caused him to perish, had it not been for some one passing that way, who discovered the unfortunate youth, and took care of him.

☞ On Thursday morning, a man (whose name we do not learn) was knocked down and run over, by a brewery cart, and injured so badly that his life is despaired of.

ECLIPSE.—The skeleton of this famous horse, which was preserved by the enthusiastic and scientific English veterinary anatomist, M. Sainbel, has recently been purchased for $500 and is to form one of the curiosities of the New Veterinary College of London. He was high behind, short in the fore-hand and thick in the withers. He went with his head very low, and in this the American racehorse Planet is much like him. Eclipse was never beaten, at any distance, and ran many four mile races.

CHILD KILLED BY A BOOT.—John Jolly, of 158 Cherry street, New York, while having an altercation with his wife, Wednesday morning, last hurled a heavy boot at her, but the missile, instead of taking effect as intended, struck upon the head of an infant child which was in the arms of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, who sat near by, killing it almost instantly.

A FEMININE PUN ON WINE.—The National Intelligencer, in its item department, says:—

"A young lady writes to us to suggest that the two sorts of Stuttgard wine mentioned in our paper yesterday, (to drink one of which 'is like swallowing an angry cat, and to drink the other like pulling the animal back by the tail,') must both be made of the Cat-awba grape."

PENSACOLA, Jan. 24.—Preparations to attack Fort Pickens are going on actively. Volunteers are engaged in mounting cannon, and carpenters are making scaling ladders. The Wyandotte is anchored west of Fort Pickens, and it is supposed she will assist Lieut. Slimmer in the defense. The pilots have been notified that they may bring government vessels into the harbor if they bear a flag of truce.

NAME OF IOWA.—Many years ago, before the "pale faces" had taken possession of the fertile lands west of Mississippi, a tribe of Indians encamped on the bluffs overlooking the Iowa River. The chief of the tribe coming in view of the river unexpectedly, was struck with rapture at the surrounding grand and picturesque beauty, and in his native dialect exclaimed, "Iowa Iowa!" Beautiful, Beautiful! Hence the name of the river, afterwards given to all that portion of the Louisiana purchase now forming the State of Iowa.

COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Square.

Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 18, 1860.

From the Journal.

A COMMERCIAL ASPECT OF SECESSION.—The Southern secessionists find that though they can abrogate the laws of the nation, they cannot control the laws of trade.

The New York Herald says, they are beginning to understand this at the South. That journal says:

"The leaders of the secession movement in the Southern States are learning wisdom by experience. When the State of South Carolina severed the bonds which attached her to this country, and released her inhabitants from the allegiance they owed to the United States, she considerately suffered the United States to go on carrying the South Carolina mails, at a loss of $200,000 a year, but she began to clear from Charleston in the name of the State. In Mississippi, Alabama and Florida a similar course was pursued. The collectors at ports of entry ceased to act in the name of the United States on the passage of ordinances of secession. The consequences were obvious.—At Charleston the prospect of hostilities closed the port. At Mobile and Apalachicola every ship in port cleared on the day of the passage of the ordinance, and thus obtained a federal clearance, it being understood that the port officials would wink at the loading of vessels after they had cleared.

In Georgia, it seems, this plan has been improved upon. The ordinance of secession was followed in sharp order by a series of resolutions declaring that the United States laws were still in force including the tariff, and of course maintaining the United States courts, collectors, naval officers, &c in full force and function. By this means Savannah continues to enjoy a foreign trade, while her neighbor, Charleston, is not exporting a pound of cotton or importing a case of foreign goods.—Georgia has in fact seceded on paper only, and the people of Savannah thus escape the sufferings which the precipitate conduct of South Carolina and Alabama has inflicted on Charleston and Mobile.

THE U. S. TREASURY.—It appears from a communication from Secretary Dix to the Committee on Ways and Means, that in addition to the amount received, a loan of twenty millions of dollars will be required to carry on the Government till the first of July. We see it stated that Howell Cobb, while Secretary of the Treasury, directed several millions of dollars from its legitimate use to aid the secessionists. He managed to bankrupt the Government while he was in the Cabinet, and did what he could to overthrow it.

The treason of Cobb and Floyd, so far as is known, is without a parallel. The best symptom we have seen is, that Georgia has repudiated Cobb and kept him out of the Secession Committee. The worst sign from Virginia is the fact, that people who claim to be respectable appear to be willing to have it known that they associate with Floyd. Secession may be an honest delusion, rebellion may spring from generous impulses, and even revolution may be a duty,—but treason is a crime in a citizen, in a minister it is infamy.

THE CITY MARSHAL.—We regret the course of our new City Government in relation to Marshal Norton. The prejudice which exists against this efficient officer arises more from his faithful discharge of duty than from any reason given, and is such as any man may hereafter expect who undertakes and performs the duties of that position in a proper manner. Mr. Norton has, as far as our knowledge extends, attended to his duties promptly and without partiality, and our streets have not for a long while been more orderly than during the past year. Opposition from some sources is sometimes a high compliment to a City Marshal, but it is a shame to the city that an efficient officer cannot depend upon the hearty cooperation of the City Government, and that the Government cannot, in view of general efficiency, overlook what at the worst is but one slight error of judgment, and one which would be committed by nine men out of ten in similar circumstances. We think Mr. Norton gives good reasons for his course, and the public interest requires his reappointment.

PORTSMOUTH ATHENEUM.

At the late annual meeting the following officers were elected for the current year:

President—Rev. Dr. Burroughs.
Directors—Alfred W. Haven, Richard Jenness, J. M. Tredick, Albert R. Hatch, Daniel Austin.
Sec. & Treasurer—William H. Rollins.

A vote of thanks to Rev. Dr. Peabody was unanimously passed for his valuable services as Director for twenty-four successive years.

It will be seen that the vacancy made in the board by the removal of Dr. Peabody to Cambridge has been filled by Rev. Daniel Austin—a gentleman of liberal spirit, who feels a deep interest in the institution, and will be an efficient Director.

The Library now contains nearly 10,000 vols.

VOICES OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Resolutions of the Republican Convention at Concord, presented by the late Gov. Haile, (who read them with fine voice and emphasis,) and adopted with acclamation, together with similar ones in the Rockingham, Cheshire and Sullivan Councillor Conventions, tell emphatically the story for New Hampshire—where she is, and her readiness to support the General Government in defense of the Constitution and the Union.

Dr. J. G. Holland, author of "Timothy Titcomb's Letters," "Bitter Sweet," "Gold Foil," and other works of merit, is to be the Speaker next Tuesday evening before the Mercantile Lyceum. The subject is to be "Work and Play," which the orator will place before his audience in his peculiarly able manner. As the evening tickets are but 15 cents, the house should be crowded.

CRAYON PORTRAITS.—A fine specimen of the skill of Mr. Meinerth is on exhibition in Mr. Shores' window.

A FORMIDABLE REPUBLIC.—The seceding States of South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi contain 1,043,995 white inhabitants—while the blacks number 1,090,148—colored majority 40,145. Georgia by a small majority is now added, reducing somewhat the black majority.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & CO. GENTS: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my legs and arms, which would in turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore. I tried a great many medicines beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse and worse. I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you put up must be good. I lived in Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has left my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, &c.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla. He also cures dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Tennessee, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over ten years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. R. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the ovaries. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newark, Ohio, writes: "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of his female in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: SIR, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, I believe, nearly most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had lost his nose in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another patient had a secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon have made a hideous and fatal hole. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A young man who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a cloudy day they suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism, for a long time, baffling the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in the worst form, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules V. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Epp, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was good for the Liver. The blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not too good for you."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable maladies have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Its use by the communities, or even families, among them will have kill some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the fatal fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure those that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Globules, or red blood. In all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

DEBILITY,

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., in which cases it is marked and instantaneous. "Very well, thank you. Pleasant to-day."
"Yes, very bright; but we had a shower yesterday."

We hope no one will try to exhibit Joel McGregory of Newport, this State, as they did old Ralph Farnham, to make money, and finally cause his death. McGregory was five years in the Revolutionary war.—Manchester Mirror.

The names of the Seceding Senators are called regularly at Washington, the same as before they retired; as Swedenborgians place an empty chair and plate for a deceased member of the family.—Mirror.

A STATE WORKING ON A TOGGLE-JOINT.—A thief made his escape from Charleston the other day, but was pursued by a Charleston officer and caught in Baltimore. South Carolina seems to be in the Union or out of the Union, just as it happens to suit her at any particular moment to consider herself in the one condition or the other.—Boston Courier.

A BRAVE DOMESTIC.—Bridget Ruddle, a servant girl, discovered robbers in her master's house, in New York, the other night, and, armed with a skillet, bravely attacked them. The noise she made about it led to their arrest.

ELECTION SERVICES.—A decision has been rendered at Newark, New Jersey, compelling a democratic office-holder to pay one of his strikers $218 for services rendered in the late canvass.—Boston Courier.

PSYCHOLOGICAL FACT.—The husband or wife by our side, the friend who sits at our board or visits us for an hour, and the friend or stranger we pass in the street, are all somewhat different in character because we have met. We have come within each other's sphere, and are so affected.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturer entrusts it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread made with this article, instead of CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour, will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is very much cheaper than yeast, is portable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner quietly efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the saccharine matter, and hence a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, light bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
"The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup of a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; make thin with milk and bake in a quick oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of four, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to this taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and *stomachic*s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So cheaply and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence suited to the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly suitable for the delicate and yet tender or followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and equalizing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Dainness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so painfully total if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, rousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretories and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will urge you to procure and use Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

GEORGIA A NATION.

Present appearances indicate that the Southern seceders, are likely to be, not a new nation, but a little lot of petty principalities, like those of Germany, or little kingdoms, like those of Old Ireland long ago. At all events, Georgia seems to be disposed to play a "lone hand." The Augusta Chronicle says:—

The State is now free, not only of the Union, but of all the world. Our highest endeavor shall be, in the future, as it has been in the past, to aid in disseminating the blessings of true independence among all our people. Having dissolved her connections with the other States, it remains for Georgia wisely to determine for herself her own best interests. It is a matter of grave doubt whether she should again enter into a confederacy with the other States or people. The old Union was formed mainly for purposes of self defense against the outside world. Georgia may or may not be prepared to maintain her own separate independent existence. We believe that she is, and that, possibly, no Union she may form can benefit her people, except as to foreign defense; and that she is abundantly able to take care of herself in that respect, we will not allow ourselves to doubt. If she can form a Union with other States upon terms satisfactorily to her people, it may be well. But unless that Union can be in all respects such as Georgia requires for her own safety and her own interests, it ought not to be. And if a Union be formed agreeably to her will and her interests, we doubt exceedingly whether it can be altogether agreeable to others or permanent. But come what may, we are for Georgia, first, last, and all the time.

Some of the Savannah merchants are chuckling over their proposed division of South Carolina. Annexed is an extract of a letter dated at Savannah, which we find in the Boston Journal:—

Execute the orders; remittances will be made previous to your shipment. The great rivalry between this city and Charleston is at an end. Savannah is triumphant; Charleston is commercially dead. It will take twenty years before she can recover her former position. I regret to say that Georgia has, in a measure, invited South Carolina to secede, thinking thereby, to ruin her rival in trade. The traders of our city have forwarded funds to South Carolina to keep up the excitement.—All that we want is about ninety days more of the trade of the North and Europe, then we will divide South Carolina between this State and North Carolina, giving the latter State the ports of Georgetown and Charleston. Soon many of the Charleston traders will locate themselves in this city. Trade is very active; real estate advancing.

Now, says Uncle Toby, we have heard a great deal about Chivalry, in a certain country,—and this we suppose is the chivalry of stealing, swindling and cheating.

But what better could be expected?—When great men, Senators and Cabinet Secretaries cheat and steal, and play the traitor to the old Union, why should they not cheat and steal from each other, and swindle and betray sister States, even sister secessionists?

EFFECTS OF SECESSION.—The Tribune, in a compact statement, shows that the loyal North are to be, involuntarily, immense gainers by the revolt of the Southern States. As soon as we have a government which dares to act, every Southern port of the seceding States will be closed, rigidly blockaded. Southern products of every kind will seek an outlet, of course, through Northern ports. New Orleans, Mobile and Savannah will be utterly deserted by Commerce, and the longer they remain "outside," the more complete will be their ruin. Baltimore and Richmond will thrive immensely at the expense of those beforementioned ports, so long as Maryland and Virginia remain loyal to the Union. If they join the Cotton States, they must share their fate. All the shipping in the world will turn its prows towards New York, Boston, Portsmouth and Portland, and there receive freights of cotton, tobacco, pork, hemp, sugar, &c., which will reach our ports over the Baltimore and Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Erie, N. York Central, Ogdensburg and Grand Trunk railways, and Erie Canal. The South must sell its products, or starve. Their ports closed, these products must come North. Having no navy, and no means or credit with which to supply one, they cannot force the blockade, and are consequently entirely at the mercy of the government. Under this aspect of the case, the Tribune pertinently asks why people are still talking and thinking about Northern concessions to Southern traitors?

Two things must be looked to:—That the City of Washington is made safe from an attack, and that the Army and Navy be throughly purged of all officers and men whose fidelity to the Union there is any reason to suspect. When that is done we may bid defiance to Treason, and not a drop of blood need be shed in reducing the revolted madmen to obedience.

☞ The Michigan Central Railroad Co. estimates that it has now on hand a hundred thousand dollars' worth of freight that would not have come to it but for secession.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

NATIONAL HOTEL, Washington, Jan. 22, 1861.

Dear Chronicle:—There is much to see, much to hear, and much to learn, in the great political centre of the nation. If a thoughtful man cannot find food for reflection here, he might as well commence his post mortem arrangements without delay. If he cannot get an occasional glimpse behind the political curtain, and view the concealed machinery of government, he proves himself anything but a careful observer.

Washington has been a seething cauldron for many weeks, but the fire is diminishing, the ebullition is subsiding, and a few bubbles alone agitate the surface of the political waters. The South sickens at its position, surrenders in private circles its bitterness, and in the halls of Congress its arrogance. The Union-loving North is fearless, determined, vigilant. Northern Democrats beg and plead for compromises and concessions from the dominant party, while the South rejects them with scorn, and laughs mockingly at the humility of Crittenden and his followers. The South accepts concessions only to use them as rods for those who tender them, and not as means of adjustment for present difficulties. Northern Republicans who exhibit flexible vertebra now, are doomed.

The House to-day was a scene for Hogarth. Bingham of Ohio made a somewhat poetical and attractive speech in behalf of the Union, and alluded eloquently to its past glories, its present greatness and its future hopes. He was listened to attentively by both sides, and his speech would have elicited no little comment had it not been completely swallowed up in the carefully written and vehemently uttered oration of Sherrard Clemens of Va., by whom he was immediately followed. The immense bundle of "Daily Globes" for the use of the members was being distributed when Clemens commenced, and nobody paid particular attention to the first few pages of the speaker's manuscript. But at last came the denunciation of the cotton States and their treasonable plots. The excoriating words flew like burning coals into the faces of his Southern brethren, who looked aghast at this attack from a border slave State. It was enthusiastic, statistical, argumentative, and in some points unanswerable. Members pressed around the speaker, and every face was turned toward him. His hour expired; three of his fifty pages were unread. It was a pity to shut off a peroration which promised so much. The Republican side cried, "Go on! go on!" The South responded, "No! no!" Branch of North Carolina lifted his loud voice above the tumult and trusted that the "member" from Virginia would be allowed to continue his traitorous and treasonable remarks. A hundred gentlemen sprang to their feet and cried "Order! order!" Mr. Clemens was thus compelled to take his seat, which he did, apparently with great unwillingness, crumpling his three lost pages nervously, while in doubt as to whether he would receive permission to conclude in his own way.

Then there was much moving to and fro upon the floor. Members gathered in little knots and discussed the speech with much gesticulation. Southern members were indignant, for an unexpected demon had arisen among their household gods. Their domestic affairs had been interfered with by a member of the family. O, for an Alabama swamp to plunge the traitor into! O, for a convenient palmetto to hang him on, higher than Haman hung!

Our New Hampshire members are not idle, though persons not on the ground cannot always see the fruits of their labor.—Speech-making is fortunately not the whole duty of Congressmen. Mr. Tappan will probably speak on the minority report of the Committee of Thirty-three, and will denounce all concessions. He enters into no compromises with slavery; he is for justice, in the name of humanity, and according to the law of the living God.

To morrow, Mr. Lovejoy of Ill, the eccentric, the fearless, has the floor, and a scene of confusion is expected. I will take notes for my next letter.

Come to the "National" when you visit Washington, if you desire to meet the leading Republican politicians of the country.—Mr. Franklin Tenney is the landlord, the same gentleman who won so favorable a reputation as a hotel-keeper in Manchester. Four years ago he invested a hundred thousand dollars in repairing and furnishing this immense establishment. It had been wretchedly conducted and was dying: it is now the leading hotel in Washington. F. P.

☞ A tippler named Oliver C. Burr, of Stamford, Conn., aged 55 years, was found frozen to death a few rods from the highway, on the 21st. He had bought some North Adams liquor, and one of the men who found his body was mean enough to steal his jug with what the dead man had left in it.

If you wish to learn all your defects, quarrel with your best friend, and you will be surprised to find what a villain you are even in the estimation of a friend.

MR. DOUGLAS' FRIENDS.—"Occasional" of the Philadelphia Press, relates the following:—

During the debate on Friday in the Senate, on the bill admitting Kansas into the Union, a motion to adjourn from Friday to Monday, was made by the enemies of the bill, and when Judge Douglas' name was called, he happened to be temporarily out of his seat. The vote was a tie, but before it was announced the Judge returned, and of course voted with the friends of the bill, against the adjournment over. A very distinguished Senator, heretofore an Administration Democrat, and now heartily sympathizing with the secessionists, came up to the Senator from Illinois and said, "This is a party vote. You see the Black Republicans are all on one side, and the Democrats on the other. Why do you not vote with your friends?" To which the Little Giant, it is said, quietly responded by asking, "Will you be good enough to tell me where my friends are to be found on your side of the chamber?"

SKILLFUL RESCUE OF A DROWNING SKATER.—On Monday night, a young man named Mackey, one of a party of skaters on Lake Erie, from Buffalo, was saved from a cold death by a very simple arrangement of his associates. He ventured to cross a spot but newly frozen over, but it broke under him, and he kept sinking until his chin rested on the edge. His friends formed a human chain, laid out upon the firm ice, and pushed each other forward by the heels, until the foremost was near enough to to young Mackey to throw the end of a scarf to him. By this means they drew him forth from the jaws of a fearful death. He was the eldest son of Dr. Mackey.

☞ Rev. Dr. Dowey, of Bostou, the same who was made a chaplain in the Navy in Fillmoru's time, preached on the President's Fast Day a sermon, in which he shows, beyond all controversy, that the slavery propagandists, and all who claim slavery as a right, have departed from the old ground on which the North and South stood quietly together. He shows further that the Southern leaders require the North to write and speak of slavery as if we thought it right, too; and adds, this we cannot do.

His sermon is published in Saturday morning's Daily Atlas. It is worthy of a wide circulation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Mr. Toombs of Georgia telegraphed to Mayor Wood yesterday, asking whether there had been any seizure of arms intended for Georgia, by the authorities of New York, saying, your answer is important to us and to New York.

A dispatch to the World says a fraud has been discovered in the Land Office. Dr. Dowling of Ga., the delinquent, is now in the jail on another charge. The government loses nothing.

A dispatch to the Herald says that the government has sent forces to Fort Sumter and Fort Pickens.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The House Military Committee have prepared a bill, appropriating $1150 to indemnify the soldiers of Fort Sumter, for their losses in consequence of so suddenly leaving Fort Moultrie.

It is said that the Grand Jury have presented Goddard Bailey for larceny of the Indian trust bonds, and Russell as an accessory, and together with Ex-Secretary Floyd, of conspiracy to defraud the government.

The destination of the U. S. steamer Brooklyn is Fort Pickens.

Ex-President Tyler had another interview with the President to-day.

BATON ROUGE, La., Jan. 24.—The Committee of Fifteen reported an ordinance dissolving all connection with the United States, but all treaties, acts of Congress, &c., not incompatible with the ordinance of secession, are to remain in force also recognizing the right of ingress and egress to and from the mouths of the Mississippi River by all friendly States, and declaring the willingness of Louisiana to enter into stipulations or guarantees for the exercise of those rights.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The Post's Washington correspondent says the buoys in the harbor of Mobile have been removed; also that 2000 persons are engaged in building fortifications on the islands in Charleston harbor, but they could be easily taken. An attack on Fort Sumter is liable to take place at any moment by the populace, who are displeased with Gov. Pickens' policy.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Raleigh, January 25.—Resolutions to send Commissioners to Washington, and also to the Montgomery Convention, are being debated in the House. The last proposition is strongly opposed; They were also debated in the Senate today, Senator Bragg making a strong conservative southern rights speech. No action was taken.

☞ In the New Jersey House, on Friday, after a long session, resolutions were passed endorsing Mr. Crittenden's propositions, and appointing Robert F. Stockton and eight other commissioners to represent New Jersey at Washington on the 4th of February.

☞ A dispatch to the Baltimore American says the Charleston Vigilance Committee have discovered that a man named Dodge, a soldier at Fort Moultrie, was the correspondent of the New York Tribune, and compelled him to leave the State.

☞ Rev. E. D. Eldredge of Alton, having received and accepted a call from the Society of the 1st Congregational Church in that place, was installed on Thursday, 25th January. Mr. E. was formerly a pastor in Hampton.

S. J. COURT—EXETER.

In the action Bowman v. Manter, the jury returned a verdict for the pltf. for $32,75.

Kingston v. Hampstead was commenced, and occupied Thursday afternoon. The case was not finished—and on Friday, the trial of the action, Merrill v. Rand, was resumed. The pltf. introduced 13 witnesses in support of his good reputation for truth and veracity, which closed the evidence. Christie for Deft.; Wood for Pltf. The Jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

Brown v. Brown et als. was commenced Friday afternoon. There is a prospect that the Farmer Will Case may be taken up on Wednesday next.

GEORGIA.—Milledgeville, Ga., Jan. 25. A resolution was presented in the convention to-day, that no State shall be admitted into the southern Union unless it is slaveholding, and if it should subsequently abolish slavery, it shall be excluded. Laid on the table.

A resolution was also offered relative to a direct southern trade; also that commissioners be sent to the slaveholding States. Objection was made to including Delaware.

An ordinance was offered abolishing federal and establishing State courts; also continuing in force federal laws under control of the State; also declaring what shall constitute treason; also concerning citizenship. Made the special order for to-morrow.

An ordinance was adopted relative to the oaths of lawyers.

An ordinance was passed resuming State authority over territory ceded to the United States.

Most of the day was spent by the convention in secret session. It will probably take a recess until after Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Mr. Bouligny of Louisiana declares that he was elected as a Union man by Union men, to represent them in the Union. He has not changed if they have, and they cannot take him into the secession movement. He will, therefore, continue to occupy his seat in Congress unless called home.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 25.—Gov. Hicks has appointed Reverdy Johnson, A. W. Bradford, W. S. Gouldsborough, J. W. Cruisfield, and J. Dixon Romaine, all devoted Union men, Commissioners to represent the State at Washington on the 4th of February.

THE ART UNION.—Copies of the fine engraving, 'Falstaff Mustering his Recruits,' may be seen in various styles of frames, at Exchange Hall. Pictures delivered at the time of subscribing. "Shakespeare and his Friends," or "The Village Blacksmith," will be furnished subscribers, if preferred; or either of these two last, without the Art Journal or a share in the drawing, for $2. The books close in Portsmouth Jan. 28th. See the advertisement of the "Seventh Year."

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the lozenge confectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawôm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as this WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took strong hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

AN INCONVENIENCE.—Messrs. Editors: arge number of our citizens make com- nts regarding the great inconvenience e new Post Office. Persons having pa- or letters to deposit after office hours, not do so, as there is no place provided that purpose. Also from ten to eleven ock A. M., persons wishing to take let- or papers out, or purchase stamps, are ged to wait until the mail is assorted.— e citizens supposed that when the new e was opened, we should have the same ommodations as there are in other cities.

☞ One of our reporters stated, on the thority of somebody else, that one of the every teams struck and seriously injured man. But we learn on inquiry that no h accident has happened; and we im- ve the occasion to say, that besides al ys having excellent teams, the brewers this city always have the best and most reful drivers—and are among the last amsters from whom we should ever ex- ct other than an unavoidable accident.

DR. HOLLAND'S LECTURE.—The sev- th of the Course of Lectures before the ercantile Library Association, will be de- vered to morrow, Tuesday evening, by r. J. G. Holland, of Springfield—the in- itable "Timothy Titcomb." His subject ill be "Work and Play." Evening tick- s only 15 cents, to be obtained at the usu- l places, and at the door.

☞ Look out for snow slides! mind here you hitch your horse! The heavy ody of snow on the roofs of high buildings dangerous, when it runs off. On Friday, e snow from three stores in Market street ame down, bringing sixty feet of spout with it. Stand from under!

POLICE COURT, Saturday, Jan. 26.—Be- fore Justice Odell—William Emery was brought up to answer to a charge of as- sault upon Alfred Tucker, a minor. He plead not guilty; considered guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5, and cost of prosecution. Mittimus issued.

☞ A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held this (Monday) even- ing, for the election of City Marshal and Superintendent of the City Farm.

☞ The appraised valuation of real es- tate in Vermont, for 1860, is $70,429,159, a net gain of $1,146,330 since 1858.

The Paris Journal thes Debats says of the proposed Southern confederacy,—"There is not a corner upon earth where it will find sympathy and assistance."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. Times.]—Mr. Lincoln probably will not come to Washington before the 20th of February. He will not interfere himself at present in the settlement of questions at issue, but is conciliatory and disposed to deal kindly but justly with the South.

Cassius M. Clay, who is here, comes on for the purpose of securing a compromise from the Republicans as a basis upon which the Union men in the border States can stand to resist secession. He is well known not to be a compromiser, but as Kentucky has refused to call a Convention, and Clay has great strength among Republicans, it is believed that if he makes this demand on them they may concede it.

[Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.]—The Boston committee, headed by Edward Everett, arrived to-night, and are booked at Willard's. Whatever effect they may have upon the South and the government, it is not expected they will have great weight with the Republicans. If personal feeling is enlisted, their appearance is more likely to solidify Republican action, rather than otherwise, for all the committee save one opposed the election of Congressmen from Boston districts, viz. Anson Burlingame and Alex. H. Rice.

[Dispatch to the N. Y. World.]—Mr. Hughes, Postmaster at Charleston, has been informed that the Post Office in that city will be discontinued if Major Anderson's mails are trifled with.

☞ The South Carolina Declaration of Independence contained some reference to the Personal Liberty laws of the Northern States; but in the course of the discussion which ensued upon it, Messrs. Rhett, Spratt and others declared the opinion that the Fugitive Slave Law was unconstitutional.—Mr. Memminger declared that the point was "legally embarrassing." These are curious opinions to come from that quarter.

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending

COSMOPOLITAN

Art Association

have made it a household word throughout every Quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL,"

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a great choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, par or or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five membership, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

Address C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A., 546 Broadway, New York.

From the Gazette.

Munitions of War at the Navy Yard.

As a matter of general interest we have obtained the following statement of the vessels at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and the kinds and quantity of munitions of war which may be made available, should occasion require.

The ships at present at this station are as follows:

Steam Frigate Franklin—Now on the stocks, about 4000 tons, and pierced for about 90 guns. Could not be put in readiness for sea in less than a year. Engines not yet built, and no appropriation made for them.

Alabama—74. On the stocks; commenced in 1819. This ship will probably never be launched in her present condition. The Alabama is one of the vessels recommended by a naval board for conversion into a steamer.

Frigate Santee—44. In good condition to receive an armament. Could be fitted for sea in two months. The ship was commenced in 182 During President Pierce's administration she was greatly improved by being lengthened out at each end, and otherwise modernized, and would prove an efficient vessel.

Sloops-of-War Marion and Dale—Each of these vessels are third class sloops, in ordinary. Both of them have been attached two years to the African squadron, and are not probably in a safe condition for service.

The Santee, therefore, is the only vessel at this station that could be readily prepared for active service.

The quantities and kinds of ordnance, arms and ammunition, are as follows:

In the gun park, are 1 ten inch gun of 12,000 lbs.; 2 sixty-fours of 12,000 lbs.; 28 nine inch guns of 91 cwt.; 36 eight inch guns of 63 cwt.; 8 ditto of 55 cwt.; 46 thirty-two pounders of 51 cwt.; 40 ditto of 57 cwt.; 28 ditto of 46 cwt.; 2 ditto of 42 cwt.; 20 ditto of 33 cwt.; 41 ditto of 27 cwt.; 32 forty-two pounders of 71 cwt.; 1 eighteen pounder of 40 cwt.; 18 nine pounders of 17 to 25 cwt.; 45 forty-two pounder carronades of 27 cwt.; 1 twelve pounder carronade, and 2 six pounder ditto;—making a total of 351 guns and carronades.

The armory contains 285 breech-loading carbines, 167 muskets, 32 Sharp's rifles, 439 pistols, and 25 revolvers.

Powder and Shot—In the gun park there are 200 sixty-four pounder solid shot; 7635 forty-two ditto to 5350 thirty two ditto; 421 twenty-four ditto; 2100 eighteen ditto; 212 six ditto; 967 eight inch shells, 214 thirty-two pounder shells.

The quantity of cannon and musket powder in the magazine amounts to 65,000 lbs.

Another Sermon.

The public have been favored (?) this week through the columns of the Chronicle with another political sermon, which was delivered in the North Church in this city last Sunday, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Gage. The preacher seems to have been ambitious to place himself before the public in antagonism to the Rev. Dr. Peabody upon the issue of the day—slavery. But to accomplish this he was obliged to recant from the positions of his last Thanksgiving-day sermon, as most clearly appears by an extract given in the present from the former sermon. His ideas as expressed in that sermon coincide most strikingly with those advanced by Dr. Peabody—he affirms that he still adheres to them, but in this he is altogether mistaken. He has qualified them so much that they bear no more resemblance to the original than many modern preachers do to the Christian fathers. Still it don't strike us that he has accomplished much by his recant. We think Dr. Peabody's positions, and his own as first taken, still stand, and are likely to until the spirit of Christianity pervades the professed champions of freedom a great deal more extensively than is at present apparent.

It will gladden the hearts of the philanthropic to learn, as they may from this sermon, that there is nothing like slavery or oppression now in England—that down-trodden Ireland has been emancipated—that the farm laborers are paid a compensation that enables them to smell of animal food once in a twelvemonth—that the manufacturing capitalists divide their profits with their operatives, and that the mining population are permitted to see the light of heaven at least once in their lifetime, and to change the appearance of beast for man as such time by standing erect and having their limbs covered with clothing. But then the evidence given to prove this may not be quite satisfactory to all viz: that it is now more difficult, as the preacher has witnessed within eight months, to procure a servant girl in Glasgow than in Boston!

Truly what a reliable source of instruction is the political pulpit upon the science of government, political economy and political duty!

THE UNITED STATES FORTRESSES IN VIRGINIA.—The United States fortress Monroe, near Norfolk, Virginia, is the largest belonging to the Government. It is capable of holding ten thousand men. It is evidently the purpose of the secession party of Virginia to take that stronghold, though no public avowal of it has yet been made. The Richmond Enquirer is cautiously preparing the people to sanction such a proceeding.

This fortress is now garrisoned by a force of about 500 men, under command of our townsman, Col. Justin Dimmick, 2d Artillery, upon whose staff, as Adjutant of the Regiment, is Lieut. T. J. Haines, also of this city. We have information from private sources that the fort is at all times under strict military control. The gates are kept closed, and at night a cordon of sentinels patrol the lines outside the walls. It is probable no attempt will at present be made to capture the work.

AYER'S

CATHARTIC

PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system disarranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors — purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed and healthy again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions, but nature will rebel, and, insist upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, nothing but a dose of Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true on a small scale in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Cased by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with hoarseness and coughing, and will, in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR SIR, AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we cure treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficacious cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have, by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,

Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as we represent, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They are, in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I have used. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my private and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver I have found in addition, so frequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that I did not succeed in giving them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,

Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. A. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy in those cases of bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in discharge of my pastoral duties. To regulate the system and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to all who need such a cathartic. J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of life and health.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe cutaneous eruptions in the blood, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Bassett, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled to my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 8 Dec. 1856.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, combining Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is therein in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is an indication of perfect health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, invariably evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules, consequent on diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been often used for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the desideratum in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, now claimed, is attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, General, St. Vito's Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Whites, Nervous Weakness, &c. especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, loss of appetite, debility, nervous irritability, want of spirits, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all such as are suffering from a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-work, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, it may be relied upon to give the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the Blood Food to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or officinal, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free, when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-similie signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S

GENUINE

Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of such importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling a cognac brandy, of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.

Put up in pint and quart bottles, in case containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and wine merchants.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighths and Quarter Casks.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of organic disease of the lungs or any brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

Thus and no other circumstance induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of good hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,

M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He purchased to me a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties, if you will do proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURCHSOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and is sufficient for one bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars; the large holds a quart, and forty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to the notice of the faulty attention and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at the period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Allaying Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Pain in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, and to all as your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of a soporific nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in stating cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which can certainly be traced from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of soothing cordials; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy.

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give a keen appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, viz. 25 ct.

SEVEN FOOLS.—1. The envious man, who sends away his mutton because the person next him is eating venison. 2. The jealous man, who spreads his bed with stinging nettles, and then sleeps in it. 3. The proud man, who gets wet through, sooner than ride in the carriage of his inferior. 4 The litigious man, who goes to law in the hopes of ruining his opponent, and gets ruined himself. 5. The extravagant man, who buys a herring, and takes a cab to carry it home. 6. The angry man, who learns to play the tambourine because he is annoyed by playing of his neighbor's piano. 7. The ostentatious man, who illumines the outside of his house most brilliantly, and sits inside in the dark.—Punch.

☞ George Flitcroft, the supposed murderer of the negro Storms, at Troy, arrested at Ogdensburg, is a young man about twenty-five years of age, of fair complexion and pleasing appearance. He confesses the crime, says he was drunk, had been visiting disreputable houses with some friends, and being insulted by the negro, he attacked and killed him. He went to Fulton, and from thence walked one hundred and fifty miles to Canada, where he was living; but having come to Ogdensburg for a letter, he was surprised and arrested.

☞ The London Times has another leader on the political crisis in America, in which it says the citizens of the United States may confidently assure themselves that there is no party in England which desire anything but the maintenance and prosperity of the Union; but there is a right and a wrong to every question, and the Times considers that in this case the right belongs with all its advantages to the States of the North.

Some forty years ago, a child of Mr. Caleb G. Loring, of Boston, was permitted to wear upon its neck one of the Franklin medals, awarded to its father in 1807, and white upon the street, as the child said, a girl stole it. From that day, until the 19th of January, 1861, nothing was heard from it, when it was returned in a letter.

A Quebec paper says that "what appears most singular to outside lookers-on, in this American revolution, is the frantic efforts to save the country by making long Congressional speeches."

If a man is dissipated, his fortune will probably soon be so, too.

Why is the letter G like an individual who has left an evening party?—Because it makes one gone.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of overall chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by the ordinary process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nutty taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable, because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is hot within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving of one barrel of flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, in yeast, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour—which the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs.—gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conforming to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of well prepared flour more even and light bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time and trouble.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."
HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all or kinds of cake, also in puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste into a stiff dough with milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired forms, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; rub the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and bake quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil twenty minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoonful of butter; add a cup and a half of sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one pint of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and a quarter of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten; and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of four, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake one half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and aromatic herbs, cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, preventing the gloom in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and to fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "And it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, rejuvenates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be a valuable tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and invigorate the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet never followed by any reaction or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and thus thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of ills, so carefully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Also, Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incrustations of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Phthisis, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a trifle—spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel to the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal! for We are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1861.

☞ The statement originally made by the Washington Star, that ex-Governor Aiken has been compelled reluctantly to disgorge $40,000, the Mercury pronounces "an absurd lie, made out of whole cloth, and containing not one word of truth from begining to end."

A Charleston letter to the Evening Post uses the same language; but winds up as follows:—

It is true that the merchants, all of them, are waited upon almost daily for contributions in money and goods to the support of military. Generally they respond liberally, in spite of their losses by the total secession of business. I do not pretend to say that refusal or nigardliness might not be resented as indicating lukewarmness or want of patriotism, or that some are not indirectly coerced by this consideration. Such cases must exist, though they can necessarily be but suspected rather than ascertained.—It may be worthy of observation that Charleston business men of Northern birth are particularly and rather ostentatiously demonstrative of their ultra devotion to Southern interests, for a suggestive reason.

This spoils the whole story: daily calls for aid; resentment if they refuse; ostentatious giving, &c. do not look very favorable.

☞ The New York Herald says:—

There is a great difference between being in and out of the Union. Ex-Senator Yulee, late Chairman of the Post Office Committee of the Senate, having called upon acting Postmaster King yesterday, to know by whose authority the mails had been stopped in Florida, was informed that it was the last official act of Mr. Holt as Postmaster General. Mr. Yulee then demanded to see the papers, but Mr. King, very properly informed him that he could not see them. Only the day before, Mr. Yulee's order, as Chairman of the Senate Committee, would have produced the required information without a murmer from Mr. King.

A College Principal Swindled.—Rev. J. A. Saxton, Principal of the Collegiate Institute in Norwich Town, Conn., was recently swindled out of $100 in a very laborious manner by the rogue who did it. He first wrote from Washington that he wished to place his brother in the institute. The letter was signed A. H. Hughes. On the 15th inst Mr. Hughes made his appearance, without his brother, but with a check of $300 to pay the advance of $200. Mr. Hughes wanted the balance to enable him to reach Boston, and Mr. Saxton paid him the $100. The expected pupil did not arrive from New Haven the next day, but the protested draft did. It proved to be a forgery.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—The resolutions recently passed by the Tennessee Legislature, relative to the action of New York in tendering men and money to the President to coerce the seceding States, came before the House yesterday, and were referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

The same resolutions we e made the special order for to-day in the Senate.

The Democratic caucus last night adopted resolutions similar to those of Mr. Crittenden's.

Advices from different parts of the State indicate a Union feeling, and that the convention will be filled with conservative men.

What They'll Agree To.—"I wish," said Senator Simmons in his speech in the U. S. Senate, "I could see a proposition that I could hear somebody who was disaffected say would satisfy him. I have not heard one of them say so. The Senator from Texas said if we would do about forty things that he knew we would not do, he would then consider. That is the nearest approach to a settlement that I have heard. (Laughter.) If we would stop the pulpits, burn the school houses, suppress the newspapers, imprison the abolitionists, and break up this government, everything that is here now, he would think about staying in." (Laughter.)

Washington, Jan. 27.—Cassius M. Clay of Kentucky addressed a large audience on Saturday night, strongly sustaining Mr. Adams' proposition for the admission of New Mexico. He was followed by Judge Adams, from Henry Clay's district in Kentucky, who appealed to the Republicans to save the Union.

From Kentucky.—Louisville, Ky., Jan. 27.—The Leislature yesterday adopted the Virginia resolutions, so amended as to require government protection to slavery in all territories now held or hereafter acquiesl south of 36 30, and to guarantee the right to transmit slaves through free States.

☞ Theodore Rynders, nephew of the U. S. Marshal, who it was alleged some time ago, connived at the escape of a slaver from New York, is dead. Softening of the brain, the malady with which he was soon after seized, carried him off on Monday last.

Why is a selfish friend like the letter P? Because, though the first in pity he is the last in help.

Abstemiousness and frugality are the best bankers. They show a handsome interest, and never dishonor a draft drawn on them by their humblest customers.

When is the letter L a piece of unparalleled generosity?—When it enables a lady to make over a lover.

Oftentimes it is not until we no longer have the means of serving our friends that we can know who they are.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

U. S. House of Representatives,
Jan. 24, 1861.

Yesterday was another great day in the House. It placed upon the record a strong Union speech from Mr. Etheridge of Tenn., a slave-owner; and a bitter, defiant Union speech from Mr. Lovejoy of Ill., a thorough abolitionist. Both were characterized by great force of utterance, and eloquence of delivery. Both were able, and both attracted a crowded gallery, and the entire attention of the House. Just after Lovejoy began, a number of the Senators entered the House. Mr. Sumner sat leisurely upon the arm of a chair, unable to repress an occasional smile at the vehement declamation of the long haired gentleman from Illinois.—Lovejoy commenced his speech, standing behind his desk, according to the rule, which makes it the duty of every member to rise in his place when addressing the chair. As he progressed, and warmed with his subject, his thin voice rose to a scream; his face glowed and reddened with excitement; he snatched his cravat from his neck, unbuttoned his collar, and, accompanying his words with vehement gesticulation, walked gradually down the aisle, toward the Speaker. Presently he was interrupted by a question from a Southern member, and on attempting to reply, another gentleman from the South undertook the parliamentary dodge of claiming the floor, on the ground that the gentleman from Illinois was not in his place. The Speaker called aloud, "The gentleman from Illinois will continue his remarks in his seat!" "Do I understand the Speaker to rule that I must stand in my chair during the remainder of my speech?" responded Mr. Lovejoy in tones of mock humility.

At one point of his speech a marked sensation was visible on the floor, and through the galleries. He alluded in impressive tones to the fact that on the ninth day of the present month, a United States steamer was fired into by the military rabble of a Southern State; that she turned her back upon the enemy, and came home. And upon the very heel of this act we are asked to conciliate, to compromise. "Compromise, with whom? Traitors who have insulted our Government! Concilate whom? Rebels who have fired upon our flag! The spider's most attenuated thread is cord, is cable, compared with the concessions which I will make until this insult is atoned, apologized for or avenged!"

The last words quoted above were fairly shrieked in the ears of the listeners. He bent toward the Southern side of the House, with arms extended, shaking his long locks about his head like the mane of an angry lion, and looked as if about to leap into the very midst of the opposition ranks. He afterwards asked of the South permission to visit that section of the country and stump the Southern States in behalf of his doctrines, which called out a shout of derisive laughter. He stated towards the conclusion of his speech that he had intended to say a great many kind things to the South in his speech, but he feared time would not permit. Mr. Lovejoy used no notes or manuscript. He never hesitated for a word, and usually selected the strongest one for the purpose; but when questioned or interrupted, his response was not ready, conclusive, or even adroit. For so bold a man, so violent a speaker, he seemed very easily disconcerted.

A report of the incidents which hourly transpire in the House would suffice to fill a column of your paper. To write out everything of interest would give employment to a dozen ready writers. Matters of interest are not wholly confined to the two Houses of Congress. At the National Hotel, the great political centre before noon, when the session begins, and after four o'clock, at which hour they close, the ingredients are prepared and mixed for the bubbling cauldron of Congress.

In one of my letters I intend to give your readers a birds' eye view of "A Day at the National Hotel," in which I will speak of the celebrities who have homes at this vast and admirably conducted establishment.

F. F.

Gentlemen.—A man in the dress and with the manners of a gentleman, must not talk loudly, vulgarly, indecently, obscenely, irreverently, or even ignorantly, (if the ignorance be very gross,) without forfeiture of the rank to which his dress and his manners would seem to entitle him. But granting all these three essentials, the would-be gentleman is not a gentleman if his heart be wrong. Dress is an ornament, manners are a grace, conversation is a charm; but these three may be possessed in all possible perfection by a blackguard. But these three combined with a noble heart and a sound judgment—the one balancing the other—combine to form the true gentleman.

To rub book leaves on the back of a child, and beat in the learning with a birch, is to educate. To educate young ladies is to let them know all about the ologies, the onomies, the ifics, and the icks, and the nasticks; but nothing about the ings—such as sewing, knitting, washing, baking and making pudding.

Why are a pair of lovers, estranged from one another, like railway accounts and railway affairs? Because they don't correspond.

Nothing carries so much suspicion upon the very face of it as—a moustache.

PROF. PEABODY'S SERMON.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26, '61.

Messrs. Editors:—Some things have been said in your paper about the rumored gross unfaithfulness of the late report, in the Journal, of Dr. Peabody's Fast Day sermon. Will you and your readers look at the following facts?

"Those who did hear the sermon say that the report does Prof. P. injustice."—Jr. in Chronicle.

How is the fact? Who the "those" are we do not know. Two at least of the Portsmouth delegation in Harvard College say, "the report is very correct;" one, "that he supposed it gave the sermon word for word."

Another student in the University who heard the sermon writes:—"You have not only set forth Dr. Peabody's ideas, but the report is almost verbatim. Of course you have not reported all that was said in a discourse of forty-five minutes, but it does not occur to me that you have omitted any prominent feature."

I took no notes of the sermon, but the following views were impressed upon my mind. 1st. Our fathers did not attempt to build a ship of state, but only constructed a raft for their temporary advantage. 2d. The system of African slavery in our Southern States is the source of our present troubles. 3d. Slavery exists in some form the world over. We have it even in New England. Thousands of the employed are as much dependent on their employer, as slaves at the South are upon their masters. This state of things is caused by avarice, arrogance, and aristocracy.—4th. Dr. Peabody has no sympathy with black slavery at the South, nor white slavery at the North. Both "are without a redeeming feature." Both are abborrent to all his notions of right. 5th. Let Northern employers do all in their power to improve the condition of those they employ. Let them increase their wages; reduce their hours of labors; cultivate their minds and hearts; endeavor no longer to make them leaving machines, but strive to raise them to the proper condition for living souls: in fine, treat all as brothers. Had all the misdirected efforts made at the North in behalf of Southern slaves, been put forth to elevate the laboring classes at the North—it would have offered a moral argument the South could not resist. 6th. Christianity is the world's only hope or help. "Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." Where the spirit of the Lord is not, there slavery will exist in some form or another. In proportion as the spirit of Christ prevails, will slavery be modified; and when that spirit shall pervade every heart, all men will dwell together as brothers."

Mr. ——— got a similar impression. * * It would be strange if there are none in Portsmouth, to whom Dr. Peabody's remarks apply, though not especially meant for them. I doubt if Northerners would be more willing than Southerners to have their systems of labor shown up in their true light. Do not the "impressions" of these two persons, both among the best qualified to judge, seem to agree well with Bowdoin's report.

One more testimony from one who did not hear the sermon. "I can cheerfully bear witness that those reports which I have read in manuscript of sermons which we have both heard, are extremely faithful, and that I know from your manner of notetaking, that you could not mis-represent an idea."

Your readers may not deem the course I have taken modest; but I prize accuracy highly, and this is the only method of defense I have against reports covertly circulated and exaggerated. The question only can be decided by the publication of the sermon precisely as it was preached. Then, and not till then, will justice be done to every one concerned, and the public be satisfied.

Considerable has been said about a supposed change in Dr. P.'s views. Now it is not the slightest disgrace for a man to change his views. But I do not think that Dr. P. has made any essential change in his opinion upon slavery. His Burns Rendition and John Brown sermons indicated that he was not an ultra-abolitionist, though he differs from that class much more in modes of action proposed, than in feeling; that is, he is an anti-slavery man. He has preached the substance of the main ideas of this much-discussed and much-abused sermon, in his former pulpit in Portsmouth.

I would add, that some in Cambridge misunderstood, and some disagreed with Dr. P.'s sermon, when they heard it, in the same way as some in Portsmouth have his report; but the majority understood and approved the sermon as the letter I quote indicated.

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawâm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called Blood Food. It is an entirely new discovery and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food and be restored to health.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILDCHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs," Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

Norway Village, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and the operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

The Board proceeded to the choice of City Marshal, and Oren Bragdon was chosen. City Farm Superintendent, no choice.

OH! THE SNOW! THE SNOW!—The late heavy fall of snow, and such heavy snow, too, has caused no little inconvenience in street, yard and building. The ropewalk was crushed in, spouts torn off various buildings, almost everybody's roof leaked at the eaves, and hundreds of tons of snow has been shovelled into streets and yards already too full. On the road, it is dangerous and difficult to induce horses to turn out sufficiently to allow teams to pass—so liable and fearful are the beasts of flounder in the drifts, which cover the walls in many places for rods.

A farmer living near the city, had his oxsled broken down by turning too short, in town, on Friday; and while getting over or out of that difficulty, his horse and sleigh, hitched near Congress Block, were covered by an avalanche from the roof; and the sleigh and harness demolished in the horse's very excusable fright.

Our own chapter of accidents was not small, though neither very serious. Fearful the load of ice at the eaves of our office, should injure some passer, and not liking the "backing-up" of the snow-water, and the consequent leakage into our sanctum—we resolved to dislodge the said ice. A few blows, and down it came; and down came also, two or three swinging signs on front of the building—which told of music, watches, and printing—one of which swung through a pane of glass. Then in shoveling off the drifts from the roof, smash went two panes of a sky-light, and soon crack the handle of a snow-shovel; and not long after, off came the head of an axe, to descend deep into the drift below, and lay there till Spring shall thaw the icebergs; and to crown all—somebody took from near our door, a cutter, with which we had hoped to have the ice removed from the sidewalk. We shall not mention the thorough wetting, or blistering of hands, or scraping of knuckles, received by those who cleared the roof over our heads; and we will only add, that though we are very fond of snow in any reasonable quantity—we devoutly hope that the next we have, will come in a liquid form.

☞ A good Sewing Machine is as valuable and desirable in a household, as a Cooking Stove—and as surely and greatly promotes the comfort and convenience of the ladies, at least. And no Machine is complete without one of the Universal Hemmers attached—concerning which, see Mr. C. T. Emery's advertisement. No excuse for not having a Sewing Machine now, when $30 will buy a good one, and $40 will furnish a veritable Grover & Baker.

☞ Don't fail to secure tickets for Dr. Holland's lecture this evening. He is said to be one of the best speakers in the lecture field, and the lecture he is to deliver before the Mercantile Library Association is spoken of by the press, as one of his best efforts.

☞ Subscriptions to the Cosmopolitan Art Association, will be received in this city until Thursday, Jan. 31st, at which time (Thursday evening) the drawing takes place in New York. Subscribers by paying three dollars, are entitled to the elegant and useful Art Journal for one year, and the choice of either of the following beautiful and costly pictures—"The Village Blacksmith," "Shakspeare and his Friends," "Saturday Night," "Manifest Destiny."—Copies of all the Pictures, and the Magazine, may be seen at Exchange Hall, where the Secretary will furnish all desired information.

☞ It is a matter of regret to his numerous friends in Portsmouth, that the Dypartment should transfer Maj. Reynolds from this naval station. During his short term at our Navy Yard, he has industriously and economically applied his time and money to laying out in tasteful and convenient forms, the grounds around the Barracks, improved the buildings, and erected a neat entrance, and graded and perfected the carriage-ways and walks. As an officer and gentleman he is esteemed by all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He leaves with the best wishes of numerous friends.

DR. SWETT'S
COUGH DROPS,
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.

☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but efficual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.

Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:

Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.

New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known fo coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.

Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.

Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several child en in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Pauacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.

Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was expressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and continued with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.

Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.

Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief from using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY JONES.

"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.

Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of impaired lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Exeter, July 30 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F JONES.

Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.

Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.

I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending
COSMOPOLITAN
Art Association
have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best Writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

Address C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A., 546 Broadway, New York.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and can cheerfully recommend it. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst forms for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from the sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 89 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE RITTEDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most decided remedy for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. RITTEDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1859.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Gen. Stark's Acceptance.

The following letter of acceptance from General STARK speaks for itself. The ardent patriotism which characterizes it throughout, is such as we should expect from the descendant of John Stark; and the prudent conservatism, which also marks the letter, is characteristic of its author. Those who are acquainted with General STARK, says the Patriot, will at once perceive how fully, in these respects, his character illustrates the sentiments expressed in this letter. They show just what the man is. And those sentiments are what are now wanted. They, and they alone, can now save the country. We, therefore, earnestly commend the letter to the perusal and careful consideration of every citizen of this State. It cannot fail to do good at this time:

NASHUA, Jan. 19th, 1861.

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter of the 12th instant, notifying me of my nomination by the Democratic State Convention, held at Concord on the 8th inst., as its candidate for Governor, and soliciting my acceptance of the same, has been duly received.

My acknowledgments are due to the members of the Convention for so signal a mark of their regard and confidence; and, although politics form no part of my daily avocations or desires, I shall esteem it a duty as well as a privilege, in these days of misgivings for the permanency of our national institutions, to speak of whatever powers and duties the people of my native State may desire me to assume. The resolutions of the Convention indicate that the nomination was made, not with the expectation that I should act, if elected, as the representative merely of a party, but for the far higher and nobler object of promoting, irrespective of party, the interest and welfare of our State and Country. And in this view, it is heartily accepted.

The condition of public affairs at this time cannot but excite the most serious alarm in the mind of every citizen of intelligence and patriotism. Our common country is on the brink of a revolution, which will, if not averted, in a brief space of time transform this Confederacy of States into a scene of anarchy and blood, and bring down upon us all the horrors of civil war. Five of the Southern States already bristle with revolutionary bayonets in the hands of an excited people, and ten other States threaten to follow in their footsteps. It becomes every good citizen, in this momentous crisis, to do all that in him lies to avert the impending rupture, and to contribute his strength and influence towards the perpetuity of a Nation which has had no parallel, and which, if now suffered to go out in darkness, will leave a melancholy history, as the greatest and last of free Republics. An appeal to arms, with all the attendant ruin and misery of war and devastation that would inevitably follow, should be the last possible resort of an enlightened people. Threats of coercion, whether from the North against the South, or the South against the North, but add fuel to the flame, and are only received with defiance and derision. The internal safety of this country lies not in force of arms; for, let the conflict terminate as it may, history shows that a conquered people is never fraternized. Should one section of this Confederacy subjugate another, the bond of brotherhood would be destroyed, and the Union as effectually sundered as if broken by foreign power.

The coming election in New Hampshire will be the first opportunity for the citizens of a Northern State to express, at the polls, their opinions upon the expediency of continuing the disgraceful sectional agitation which has brought the country into its present condition. Let us hope that all who claim the name of patriots will rally to the support of the Union, and by the silent artillery of the ballot, sweep from place and power whatever and whoever stands in the way of the Union, the peace, and the prosperity of our land.

As a citizen of the State, having a common interest with all others in whatever pertains to its honor and welfare, I may be allowed to express the hope that New Hampshire will, in this emergency, prove true to her Revolutionary fame—true to her honor and interests—really true to the Union and the Constitution.

Respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
GEORGE STARK.

To Messrs.
JOSEPH ROBINSON,
HENRY J. CHAPMAN, } Committee.
J. L. WOODMAN,

BERRY AN ABOLITIONIST.—Nathaniel S. Berry, the Republican candidate for governor, is an Abolitionist. He was the candidate of the Abolition or Liberty Party for governor in 1846, 1847, 1848, 1849, and 1850. In 1852 he headed the list of candidates for Electors of the party, which supported John P. Hale, of this State, for President. Hale was nominated by the Free Soil party at Pittsburg, in August, 1852. A few weeks afterwards he was, also, nominated by the "National Liberty" or Simon Pure Abolition party, which held a Convention in the State of New York. At the Pittsburg Convention, the following among the declarations of principles were adopted as the Platform for Hale to stand upon:

"5. That, to the persevering and improvement demands of the Slave power for more Slave States, new Slave Territories and the nationalization of Slavery, our distinct and final answer is—no more Slave States, no Slave Territory, no nationalized Slavery, and no legislation for the extradition of Slaves.

6. That Slavery is a sin against God, and a crime against men, which no human enactment nor usage can make right; and that Christianity, humanity, and patriotism alike demand its abolition."

The same Platform repudiated both the whig and democratic parties "as hopelessly corrupt, and utterly unworthy of confidence." In also denounced the Fugitive Slave Law "unjust, oppressive, and unconstitutional." This is the Platform, to which Nathaniel S. Berry was pledged in 1852, when he was a candidate for Elector on the Hale ticket. Has he repudiated a single plank in that Platform since? He has not.—Nashua Gazette.

☞ The Exeter Ballot excuses the silence and inaction of our members of Congress in the present fearful crisis of our country, by saying that they are engaged in "pushing through" the bills which usually remain unacted upon till near the end of the session. We suppose we might interpret the language of the Ballot to mean, that they are engaged in the profitable business of log-rolling. Without accusing them of such baseness, ought we not still to say, that it is pitiful, that these men, whom we have made Representatives to guard our interests and our honor, should be wholly and blindly engrossed with the petty details of routine legislation, when the safety—the very existence of the country is at stake. We repeat that we do not believe they can take any other course than the silent and indifferent one which they are pursuing; but it is not therefore any less the duty of the people to replace them by men who can and will exert a better influence.

The proprietors of the Newburyport Herald, which ranks among the first papers in Mass. have lately made an enlargement of their office, with large additions to their types, presses and machinery, including one of Ericsson's caloric engines. It is pleasing to see such marks of prosperity in one of the best newspapers issued in New England.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, — which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies every disease of organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, or Phosphorus alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES or of THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In Nervous Debility, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, dizzy vertigo, pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the most confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all such. We be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through excess, either of the mind or body, we would say it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation is a specific. We intention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof. In recommending its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, whether of medical or other character. We, therefore, lays giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures of the worst kind. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States 66 Ca ndas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Cases of Dyspepsia, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruate and strengthen; while age has ring contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily bouquet, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in ironbound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, any from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative gives general satisfaction in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrific blow; causing a great deal of injutation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription I advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result. Immediately after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following facts and evidence, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early manhood, and has tried all the remedies used to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States I was fast becoming grey, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative to be a powerful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: six large, medium, and small. The small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more than the small, and retails for one and a half dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of the bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable, by Relaxing the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in s'ating cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We would that thoughtless mothers, Mothers we becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and frightful consequences which are certain to result from the use of Opiates disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their general administration by nurses is invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but invigorating their rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts. per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended by cures Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Dizziness, Costiveness, Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing loud and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, nausea, lassitude, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

HOW TO WASH FLANNEL.—Some washerwoman possess quite a knack in washing flannel so as to prevent its fulling. It is not the soap suds, nor rinsing waters that, thicken up flannel in washing, but the rubbing of cloth. It is fulled by being pounced and jounced in the fulling mill with soap suds. The action of rubbing flannel on a wash-board is just the same as that of the fulling mill. Flannel, therefore, should always be washed in very strong soap suds, which will remove the dirt and grease by squeezing, better than hard rubbing will in weak soap suds. It should always be rinsed out of the soap in warm water, and never in cold, as the fibers of the wool do not shrink up so much as in cold water after coming out of the warm soap suds.—Great care should be taken to rinse the soap completely out of the flannel.

This advice will apply to the washing of blankets, the same as it does of flannel.

ORIGIN OF THE WORD "FOOLSCAP PAPER."—It is well known that Charles I. of England granted numerous monopolies for the support of his government. Among others was the privilege of manufacturing paper. The water mark of the finest sort was the royal arms of England. The consumption of this article was great, at this time, and large fortunes were made by those who had purchased the exclusive right to make and vend it. This, among other monopolies, was set aside by the Parliament that brought Charles I. to the scaffold, and by way of showing their contempt for the King, they ordered the royal arms to be taken from the paper, and a fool, with his cap and bells to be substituted. It is now more than an hundred and seventy-five years since the fool's cap and bells were taken from the paper; but still paper of the size which the Rump Parliament ordered for their journals, bears the name of the water-mark then ordered as an indignity to Charles.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Broad, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour, will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances, it can be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is accumulatively for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method [illegible] produces 190 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. The article is skillfully compounded from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a digestible food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all the time and much time of the cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour), to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste into a stiff batter, with milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; rub the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; make thin with milk and bake in a quick oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, one cup of sugar, three cups of sugar, and beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and for fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "I feel it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may continue themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is reviviying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, invigorates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the most valuable tonic ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be a most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, but at the same time it invigorates the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritations. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by any reaction, mental or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness and Irregularities. Also Fever Arrangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Chills, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. Also it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, and it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon changes of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, invigorates the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accused to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty, for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a period Mothers Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreaded period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about this. This Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so wicked up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest the ball of fate full. Be your mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1861.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Jan. 23, 1861.

The labor of Congressmen is light or burdensome, according to the temperament of the individual. Those who make the loudest speeches are by no means the most efficient members. In the heavy business of the "morning hour;" the brief wordy conflicts which are rarely reported — these, more than flaming speeches, mark the man of industry, the honest, conscientious laborer in this great political vineyard. It is the manner of the man, here as everywhere, that makes his reputation; and upon his reputation depends his influence here, and his value to his constituents at home.

But Representatives have a double duty, in the discharge of a portion of which many are singularly neglectful. It is understood, primarily, that they are elected to Congress to represent their districts; but custom and duty render it equally necessary that the doings of Congress should be represented to their constituencies. For the first-named service they are remunerated by the government; the latter comes out of their own pockets.

Do you know precisely how this matter of speech-printing is managed? Watch Judge Nelson of Tenn., who is now concluding an able and brilliant Union speech. One of those little uniformed pages—twenty of whom are tripping lightly about the floor—stands at his elbow, while he sits down quietly and writes into his manuscript the interpolations of questions and his replies. Then the page takes it to any printer whom he may select, securing its manufacture into pamphlet form, at whatever discount from the lawful rates he may be able to bargain for, receiving the difference as his perquisite. The larger the number of copies printed, the greater the page's commission; there is, therefore, no little competition among the boys, to secure a place in the regard of acknowledged leaders. The lucky page who handed around among the members a subscription paper to dispose of Clemens' Union speech, had secured one hundred and thirty thousand copies before the House adjourned. From this little transaction the page will clear about thirty dollars. These little perquisites, added to their two dollars per diem, which the very smallest of them receive, bring up their salary to a very respectable figure.

By the way, these pages are a great institution. They have the confidence of members to a great extent. They are consulted by them in a variety of matters.—They are entrusted with the keys of their private desks, that they may safely deposit valuable matter in the members' absence.—They know their rights, and tenaciously defend them. One of them was concerned a few days since in an altercation with Capt. Darling, the first assistant Doorkeeper, and the predecessor of Mr. George Marston, the present popular Doorkeeper of the House. It appears that the somewhat officious Captain took it upon himself to order from the floor a gentleman who had been invited thither by Mr. Scott of California. Mr. Scott, being naturally indignant at this act of discourtesy, arose in his place and called the attention of the Chair to the fact that there were persons upon the Republican side of the House who were not entitled to the privilege, and severely censured the assistant Doorkeeper for his partiality in allowing such to remain, while singling out friends of the opposition upon whom to exhibit his authority.—He however carefully exempted the Doorkeeper, Mr. Marston, from blame in the premises. The floor was accordingly cleared. The indignant Captain on Wednesday attempted to retaliate upon Mr. Scott by endeavoring to wrest from the page having it in charge, the key to the gentleman's private desk. But the boy knew his rights, and maintained them vigorously. A small fight ensued, in which some blood was shed, and the Captain came out of the melee with lacerated hands.

This was early in the morning, some hours before the commencement of the session; and on the arrival of the Doorkeeper, both parties had their complaints to offer.—Darling was manifestly in the wrong, but persisted in declaring that if the boy was not discharged, he should resign his position. Mr. Marston carefully investigated the matter, and concluded to accept the valiant Captain's resignation, much to the surprise of that hero. Accordingly the keys of the House were yesterday morning handed over to the second assistant, who now rejoices in the honors and emoluments pertaining to the post of first assistant.

I have been thus particular in explaining this matter, because I have noticed in the Union Democrat the statement that Mr. Scott and others censured Mr. Marston for this contretemps, when in fact no person has attached the slightest blame to him. As a public officer he is much esteemed, and the impartiality with which he discharges his important trusts receives unqualified commendation from all.

I have said that one of the most important duties of members is to represent Congress to their constituents. Observation and the statements of others, convince me that no gentleman on the floor of Congress discharges this important trust more thoroughly and conscientiously than Hon. Gilman Marston of our District. A printer of House documents informed me that the sum of money received from Mr. Marston for printed copies of speeches to be circulated in New Hampshire, far exceeded that received from many entire delegations. He is a most industrious, hard-working man, and has acquired an excellent reputation for political integrity and sagacity, throughout the Capital. He has not, thus far, sought fame as an orator, although his speeches before the Committee on Elections, of which he is Chairman, have received the heartiest commendations. It was told me to-day, that his speech last session upon the Blair contested election case, was the ablest argument made upon the subject, either before the Committee or on the floor of Congress.

Mr. Edwards, too, has many friends. He is, I think, the oldest member of either branch from N. H., and commands respect from all. I listened to his remarks the other day, in opposition to the Senate amendments to the House bill on mail conveyances, which amendments proposed a reduction in the prices paid for carrying the mails upon railroads. He spoke with much vigor, and evinced a thorough understanding of the subject.

As for Mr. Tappan, his course is worthy of all praise. He is emphatically a man for the time, and for all time. Amid all the excitements of this wildest of sessions, he has remained unawed. Amid threats and persuasions he has stood firm and unmoved. His whole political course has been marked by uncompromising hostility to slavery, and every form of tyranny, and now that the issue has come, he fears not boldly to face it. He has won the entire respect of even his political opponents, who admire boldness and consistency in political action, even in the ranks of the enemy.—His position as a member of the Committee of Thirty-three has placed him in the thickest of the fight, and I assure you he has yet to swerve a single hair's breadth. He is, moreover, the finest looking man upon the floor of Congress, and so far as I can learn, the most popular with all parties.

From my seat in the Reporters' gallery, I saw Mr. Douglas enter the House this morning. He stood for a moment in the aisle, without removing his hat; no one advanced to offer him a seat, and he presently retired.

Thus far I have passed nearly all my time in the House. My visits to the Senate have not occurred at very favorable periods, and I have not witnessed anything in that end of the Capital worthy of reporting. I shall stick to the House as long as the troubles are under discussion, and will then turn my attention to the higher branch.

I had a long interview with Cassius M. Clay last night. He is here seeking an adjustment of the present troubles. F. P.

☞ The old and valuable Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, published in New York, by Wm. H. Bidwell, still retains its high place among the Monthlies, in spite of the many new aspirants for favor. Each number contains 144 large pages of the choicest reading, with one or more beautiful steel portraits; the twelve numbers comprising three volumes of 800 pages each, with embellishments, titles and indexes. Price $5 per year.

☞ A Quaker living not a hundred miles from North Berwick, Me., was out making hay on the Sabbath; on being asked if it was not contrary to scripture, he replied, "no, there is scripture for it;" and being asked for the passage, said; "do you not remember where it speaks of getting a beast out of a ditch on the Sabbath;" and receiving an answer in the affirmative, said, "well, that is it—it was no use to get him out, unless you had something for him to eat."

☞ Secretary Dix has instructed commanders of revenue cutters, if attacked, to make the best defence in their power, and, if assailed by superior force, to run their vessels ashore and blow them up. He has also written to the Collector of New Orleans to apply to the Governor of Louisiana to revoke the seizure of the government hospitals and the order for the removal of the 260 patients, the Secretary denouncing it as an act of outrageous barbarity, disgraceful to any age or country.

☞ The New Hampshire Journal of Agriculture, published at Manchester, weekly, is one of the best papers of the sort in the country—and every farmer in the State, at least, ought to take it. Only $1,50 per year.

If men will insist on cheating sleep, he "twin-sister, death," will avenge the insult!

CONGRESS, MONDAY, Jan. 28.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward presented a petition of the citizens of New York against protecting slavery in the Territories.

Mr. Douglas presented a bill amendatory to the act relative to fugitive slaves.—Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Wilson presented the petition of citizens of Newburyport in favor of Mr. Crittenden's resolutions.

Mr. Wilson explained the petition, saying it prayed for the recognition and protection of slavery south of 36 30, not only in existing territory, but in territory yet to be conquered, purchased or stolen.

It also denies the power of Congress to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia while it exists in Virginia, or to prohibit the transportation of slaves from one State to another, or in the Territories recognizing slavery.

Also, to pay the owner full value of the fugitive slave when rescued; also to take the right of suffrage from negroes, &c. It was also in favor of acquiring territory in Africa or South America, to colonize with free negroes.

He (Wilson) said, surely the prayer of these men of Massachusetts for such objects ought to be heeded by the Senate. Tabled.

Mr. Bigler presented petitions in favor of the passage of Mr. Crittenden's resolutions. Mr. Crittenden presented resolutions from Michigan and other States in favor of his resolutions; also the resolutions of the Railroad Presidents.

Mr. Hale objected to the latter.

Mr. Iverson presented the ordinance of secession of Georgia, which he read. He addressed the Senate, justifying the course of his State. He said there were two important points for the consideration of government either to make war or preserve peace. If it made war the South would seize all the fortifications and not pay a dollar of the public debt. (Laughter.) If coercion was attempted the South would fight and never submit to subjection until every white man was exterminated. Cotton is King. If the government blockaded the ports, other nations would interfere. If no war ensued, the South might consider the subject of a reconstruction, but he was opposed to it. He acknowledged many courtesies, and bade the Senate farewell.

The President's message was then read.

The resolutions of the Virginia Legislature were also read.

Mr. Mason, after moving that the message be printed, addressed the Senate. He said Virginia offered herself as a mediator, and the resolutions request the President to prevent a collision, which, if occurring, no mortal could remedy the evils that would follow.

Mr. Hale asked if Virginia had made a similar appeal to the seceding States.

Mr. Mason answered that commissioners had been sent to all the separating States. The motion to print was agreed to.

Mr. Hemphill made a lengthy address arguing in favor of secession. He said secession was not rebellion, and therefore no cause for war. In his judgment Texas would be constrained to withdraw from the Union and resume her glorious independence.

The further consideration of the subject was postponed to Wednesday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Rice of Massachusetts presented the Boston petition, enclosed in an American flag.

On motion of Mr. Aldrich of Minnesota, the Committee on Ways and Means were instructed to consider the expediency of repealing the tariff on sugar.

Mr. Morris of Pennsylvania offered a resolution that members from slaveholding States be requested to present an ultimatum proposition embracing their views and upon which they are willing to pledge their States to act up to in the Union as a final adjustment, and moved the previous question. Lost—26 only voting in the affirmative.

The Speaker presented the President's message.

The consideration of the message was postponed until to-morrow.

The report of the Committee of Thirty-three was taken up.

Mr. Pryor vindicated the South.

Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania moved a suspension of the rules, to take up the Senate's amendment to the Kansas bill. Carried.

The Kansas bill with the Senate's amendment was then passed, 117 against 42. So the Kansas bill has passed both Houses.

On motion of Mr. Stanton of Ohio, the House, under a suspension of the rules, passed the bill more effectually organizing the militia of the District of Columbia, 119 against 42. There was much opposition from the Democrats. Adjourned.

☞ News from Europe, via Queenstown Jan. 17.

In the Court of the Queen's Bench, Edwin James applied for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Anderson, a fugitive slave imprisoned at Toronto. The motion was founded upon the affidavit of the Secretary of the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society. The Court, after consultation, granted the writ. Chief Justice Cockburn admitted that in doing so it might be regarded as incompatible with colonial independence, but still the Queen's Bench had jurisdiction, Anderson being regarded as a British subject.

It is stated that several rifled cannon have been shipped from Liverpool for Charleston.

The weather is again quite severe throughout England.

Hostilities have been suspended at Gaeta. Part of the French fleet had left and all of the fleet would leave on the 19th.

☞ President Buchanan, in his last message, deems his powers inadequate to ordering troops where they might bring on a war,—and refers the thing to Congress.—Well, be it so: but when it was desired to get up the Mexican War, the President ordered Gen. Taylor to the spot where he designed to begin the war, and where it did begin,—without waiting for Congress to move: but then that war was on the side of slavery and Texas,—which makes a difference, we suppose.

JOHN H. GEORGE DECLINES.—Col. George has published a letter to the Democracy of the Second Congressional District of this State, declining to be a candidate for Representative to Congress, and suggests Hon. Samuel D. Bell.

☞ The Mayor of Washington has been summoned before the select committee to testify relative to the supposed conspiracy to seize Washington. He privately says he knows nothing about it.

☞ Wm. Finick, son of one of the contractors at the Hoosac Tunnel works, was found dead in the stable on Thursday. It is thought he was kicked in the back by one of the horses.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says that arrangements are being made for the protection of the city and to secure it against hostile attacks from a conspiracy within and invasion without.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawSm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail in moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawSm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Miller, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLER.

CITY MARSHAL.—The vote in the Board of Aldermen, Monday evening, stood—for Oren Bragdon 5, A. J. Hough 2; and the Mayor confirmed the nomination of Mr. Bragdon. We have not learned whether he will accept the office—but should suppose any man would hesitate to do so, in the face of the strong petition for Mr. Norton's re-appointment.

The Republican wire-pullers in Ward One, long ago resolved on their own partisan arrangement of City Officers; and to that end, commenced to work in the caucuses—but they don't seem to have things all their own way, quite yet.

The election of Superintendent of the City Farm, was not attempted; and will therefore now go to both Boards of the City Council, in Convention—when we shall see what we shall see.

☞ On Monday evening, the scholars of Mr. Israel Kimball "surprised" him by visiting his house about 80'clock, P.M., and presenting him a beautifully bound volume of Shakspeare. Master Robert Shillaber made a short presentation speech, to which Mr. Kimball replied in a happy manner. These small courtesies serve to make stronger the tie of friendship which should always bind teacher and scholar together.

Messrs. Editors: — Will your readers make the following correction in "B.'s" communication of Tuesday? Remove the quotation marks after "prominent feature," and after "together as brothers," and insert them after "the true light," making a paragraph after the latter. What precedes the latter belongs to the letter of the student last-mentioned, and not to the part of the communication written by B.

ANOTHER SNOW PLOUGH DODGE.—The Traveller tells of a rather singular railroad incident at Rowley, upon the Eastern Railroad, one night last week.—The last train for Portsmouth, started from Boston with one of the modern snow ploughs, an enormous machine, about the size of a small house. When near the Rowley station, the engineer blew his whistle to break up, and announced that his snow plough had disappeared, somewhere, but that he had not noticed his loss at the time. As this huge instrument was fastened to the engine with heavy bolts, the fact seemed almost incredible that it could have been torn from the train without any jar being experienced either by the engineer or passengers. Upon searching, however, the plough was found in a marsh about half a mile back, completely turned round and heading for Boston. It had been twisted round by the heavy snow and thrown down an embankment to the place where it was found. The passengers in this train reached Portsmouth not till after 1 o'clock at night, instead of half-past seven as due.

☞ The New York papers tell a good joke, at the "expense" of P. T. Barnum.—Being in a hurry, at the barber's, he told "the next gentleman" before him—a raw and unkempt Irishman—that if he would give him his turn, he would pay for Pat's shaving; which being agreed to, he told the barber to "do what Pat wanted done."—Great was Barnum's surprise, next morning, to see the items and amount of the bill:—"For shaving Irishman 10 cents, cutting his hair 25 cents, curling it 25 cents, shampooing it 25 cents, and bathing Irishman 25 cents—total for Irishman $1.10."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 28.—The Governor, it is thought with the advice of Mr. Lincoln, has decided to send commissioners to the convention at Washington Feb. 4th, to devise remedies for the adjustment of present difficulties.

The first draft of Mr. Lincoln's inaugural, making the Chicago platform its basis, will not be finished till after consultation with Republican leaders at Washington.

Col. Sumner and Maj. Hunter have been detailed by the War Department to accompany the President elect to Washington.

Subscribers by paying three dollars, are entitled to the elegant and useful Art Journal for one year, and the choice of either of the following beautiful and costly pictures:—"The Village Blacksmith," "Shakspeare and his Friends," "Saturday Night," "Manifest Destiny."—Copies of all the Pictures, and the Magazine, may be seen at Exchange Hall, where the Secretary will furnish all desired information.

REDPATH AND BROUGHAM.

The following Correspondence, copied from the London Times, speaks for itself.

BOSTON, Nov. 2, 1860.

My Lord,—A number of young men unconnected at this time with any organization, but earnestly desirous of devoting themselves to the work of eradicating slavery in United States, respectfully invite you to meet them in a public convention to be held in this city on Monday, the 3d of December next, and then address them in reply to the question so vital to the interests and the honor of our country and the progress of freedom in the world,—"How can American slavery be abolished?"

It seems to them that the anniversary of the death of John Brown, who on the 2d of December, 1859, was killed for attempting to decide this problem in the mode that he believed to be the most efficient, is an occasion peculiarly appropriate for the discussion of our duty to the race for which he suffered, and more especially for the unfolding of practical methods for achieving the holy object he desired to attain by his descent on Harper's Ferry, Virginia.

An invitation, therefore, will be extended to the leaders and representatives of all the different anti-slavery bodies, and to various men of eminence who have done honor to their own souls by advocating the cause of impartial freedom.

Every one thus invited is expected in his speeches or letters to confine himself exclusively to the great question of the day, for it would be a work of supererogation now to defend John Brown, and a useless waste of time to eulogize him. Leaving both of these duties to the coming ages, let us seek to continue his life by striving to accomplish what he left us to finish.

An immediate or speedy answer will greatly oblige, by enabling us to make the necessary arrangements on a plan sufficiently extensive. For the Committee,

JAMES REDPATH, Sec.

Committee.—C. W. Eldridge, W. D. O'Connor, R. J. Hinton, W. W. Thayer, H. Ford Douglass, I. L. Craigen, J. Sella Martin, J. B. Smith, Herbert Gleason, John Oliver, Edwin Coombs, J. H. Stephenson, Lewis Hayden, J. W. Le Barnes, J. H. Fowler, A. B. Brown, Ad. Ackerman, Jas. Redpath,

To Henry, Lord Brougham.

Brougham, Nov. 20.

Sir,—I feel honored by the invitation to attend the Boston Convention, and to give my opinion upon the question "How can American Slavery be abolished?" I consider the application is made to me as conceiving me to represent the anti-slavery body in this country; and I believe that I speak their sentiments as well as my own in expressing the widest difference of opinion with you upon the merits of those who promoted the Harper's Ferry expedition, and upon the fate of those who suffered for their conduct in it. No one will doubt my earnest desire to see slavery extinguished; but that desire can only be gratified by lawful means—a strict regard to the rights of property, or what the law declares to be property, and a constant repugnance to the shedding of blood. No man can be considered a martyr unless he not only suffers, but is witness to the truth; and he does not bear this testimony who seeks a lawful object by illegal means. Any other course taken for the abolition of slavery can only delay the consummation we so devoutly wish, besides exposing the community to the hazard of an insurrection, perhaps less hurtful to the master than the slave. When the British emancipation was finally carried it was accomplished by steps, and five years elapsed between the commencement of the measure in 1833 and its completion in 1838.

The declaration which pronounced a slave free as soon as he touched British ground (erroneously ascribed to Lord Mansfield, but really made by the judge in Scotland) may seem to be inconsistent with the principle now laid down. But I am bound to express my doubts if such a decision would have been given had Jamaica touched upon the coasts of this country. It is certain that the judges did not intend to declare that all property in slaves should instantly cease, and yet such would have been the inevitable effect of their judgment in the case supposed, which somewhat resembles that of America.

In the elevation of your new President all friends of America, of its continued union, of the final extinction of slavery by peaceful means, and of the utter immediate extinction of the execrable slave trade—all friends of the human race must heartily rejoice. They will, let us hope, find in him a powerful ally, as his country may expect to find an able, a consistent, and an honest ruler.

I have the honor to be your faithful servant, BROUGHAM.

SEVEN YEARS!

The seven years of unrivalled success attending

COSMOPOLITAN

Art Association

have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular ever m de in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No excess is required to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five members; and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND;

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, scarcely being able to walk afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from suffering of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

DR. SWETT'S

COUGH DROPS,

—FOR—

Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.

☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.

Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:

Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Dr. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."

SAMUEL R. DENNETT.

New Castle, Jan. 15, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.

Exeter, Feb. 12, 1838.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.

Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Pauacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.

Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."

DAVID LANG.

Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.

CHARLES C. RICKER.

Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."

ELIZABETH CURRIER.

Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick. Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."

NANCY F JONES.

Canaan, Aug. 29, 1859.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,

SALLY CURRIER.

Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.

I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr Swett."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous taint, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and troublesome beyond description. I took much medicine from the physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was recommended to read in the Gospel Messenger that Christ has provided an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your representation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which soon after while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,
ALFRED R TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble, writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas of the face, which had baffled many days the common Eruptions by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre or Bronchocele swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla an excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured by it. I take pleasure in my knowledge equal it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of New Bury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on my wife, which had baffled all the skill of regular physicians, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physicians thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and record my testimony in behalf of the efficacy I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have combined with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Tainted and Mercurial Diseases. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were so badly diseased that I feared the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, which commenced and eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla. The ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some deformity in his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury, lost her teeth from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pains in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from mercurial disease has a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Yours, respectfully, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which defied the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than I was before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules T. Goddin, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for years, from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Engs, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and knew you would not put up a worthless article. Something of God's has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best thing I can do, is to tell of you to half a half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have been effected from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this compound. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disease of which it would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreading fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is distinctive in composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and wasting disarrangement, and yyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Reddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and sallow complexion, evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, so long sought for and attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

DEBILITY,

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in DYSPEPSIA, DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Grawel, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which lead to premature consumption, and to suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Fever and Ague, Chills, especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food as a safe and reliable remedy for a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-work, excess, or the indiscretions of youth, we desire it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, the preparation will prove a source of comfort to sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most conclusive proof in regard to its efficacy the claims made for it. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the Blood Food to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or medical, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent to any address, free of charge. The Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle. Se for six bottles. BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception, it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meet the opposite demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often recommended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling remarkable rare, old Brandy, of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It may, without vanity, be said, and is designed to be a brand of uniform quality and character. Put up in pint and quart bottles, and distributing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and selling by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, imp from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddle against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of healthy hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall continue your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish all you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman, connected with me (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to make use of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew quite plentifully, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arriving in this United States it was as paly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious and safe. Yours, &c.,
S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles or three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars; the large holds about forty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of the stomach and bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the relief and relief and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the suferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Subduing all Pain. THE MANY DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been repeatedly known, that one bottle, another, until the same of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We do not, therefore, feel it to be a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE.

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We do not, therefore, feel it to be a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, gives from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the vital powers of the nervous system, but naturally, into its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

Dyspepsia Remedy

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantaneously revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating influence of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the Stomach or Bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are accustomed to indulge with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce that trial, he offers the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

"NEW WAY TO PAY OLD DEBTS."—We learn from a private letter that the recent expulsion of Lemuel Gilbert of Memphis, Tenn., formerly a resident of Boston, from the town of Shreveport, La., was during a visit to that place for the purpose of collecting bills long since contracted by a party in that town. Mr. Gilbert called upon his debtor, but instead of that gentleman promptly responding to the call by cancelling his obligations, the Louisianian preferred to charge before the Vigilance Committee that his creditor was an abolitionist from Boston, and the gentleman was waited upon and ordered to leave the State by the first conveyance.—Travellers.

ATTENDING A CONVENTION.—The delegates to the County Convention, last week, were weather-bound at Danforth's Corner—and it isn't much of a corner to be weather-bound in, either—and so they were pretty fairly cornered. As it happened, however, somebody's cans of milk shared the same fate, and a bag of Indian meal was found among the uncalled for freight, and so they fared sumptuously, with mush and milk for supper, mush and milk for lodging, and mush and milk for breakfast.—Nashua Telegraph.

☞ Through some means it was discovered that one Maxim Guyon, a Frenchman, would, on Thursday evening, make an assault on Moses D. Perkins, at Manchester, for the purpose of robbery. Preparations were made accordingly, and Guyon was arrested just in the act of commencing the attack. Mr. Perkins resides in Pittsfield, N. H., and often carries considerable money with him.

☞ The recent census of New York city shows a negro population of nearly eleven thousand, amongst which are thirty families consisting of negro husbands with white wives. This is a very small proportion of mixed races; probably much smaller than in any southern State.

It is not by great deeds, like those of the martyrs, that good is to be done—it is by the daily quiet virtues of life—the Christian temper, the good qualities of relatives and friends and all, that good is to be done.

A Pawtucket (Mass.) boy was complaining, the other day, about the boundary line, and on being asked what objection he had to the change, said, "they won't let 'em slide down hill in Rhode Island."

Excellent Chance—Encouraging News.

The undersigned, aware of the hard times, for the next thirty days will dispose of his entire stock of Winter Goods at Cost Prices.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit to the entire candid decision of the judiciary of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not available, or difficult to obtain. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and in consequence, a barrel of flour, when made into bread by the common method ordinarily makes about 300 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES.
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending the dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is entirely free and desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and leaves the dough or bread in a condition more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves a great deal of time and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in dumplings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour) to one quart of flour; sift thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste thin with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; rub the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal; add two eggs and half a teacup of molasses, and a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in about half a pound of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
COFFEE CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk, then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PEREVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating, to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the most eminent Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the very perfection of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renovates the system invariably to attack of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all, so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the weakest nerve, and hence suited to the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly innocuous in its effect upon the nerves, and never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Bloody Issues of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, constipation, to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all persons of a sedentary habit, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's relief. Take a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about Wood's Cordial; it will cure it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we know from never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be at hand in time of need.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1861.

THE VOTE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Now that both parties, or rather all parties, as there are four, have made their nominations in this State, it may be well to bring out the figures of our late elections.

In 1859, when the present members of Congress were chosen,—Mr. Marston, in District No. 1, had about 750 votes more than Mr. Marcy, and about 700 majority over all.

In No. 2, Mr. Tappan was re elected in 1859 by almost 1200 votes over Mr. George, who now declines and names Judge Bell.—Last November, this same District gave 2700 majority for Lincoln.

In No. 3, Mr. Edwards was elected in 1859, by nearly 1100 majority.

In the same election, Gov. Goodwin received 3500 majority.

In 1860, Gov. G. was re-elected by 4500 majority.

And in November, 1860, Lincoln had 11,638 over Douglas, and 9115 over all.

The reader will judge, on looking over this scale of increasing majorities, who and what are likely to prevail in the coming election.

It is said that the Republican nominee for Governor, Mr. Berry, is an abolitionist; and therefore it is insinuated that Republicans ought not to vote for him, for fear, we suppose, that somebody down South might run off or shoot. But Mr. Tappan, of No. 2, is surely as much an abolitionist as Mr. Berry; yet the people of his District sent him to Congress three times in spite of threats and shrieks.

Now that in No. 2, Mr. Rollins, who has not been numbered with abolitionists, is nominated for Congress, Mr. George don't think it at all probable he can defeat him, and so proposes Judge Bell, as a forlorn hope.

It does not seem very likely that Col. George's change of programme will induce the people of No. 2 to change theirs; nor that the charge of abolition urged against Mr. Berry, will frighten away votes enough to elect his opponent.

It is, on the contrary, to be expected that the Republicans of New Hampshire will continue voting, in the Spring of 1861, very much as they have done for a few years past—electing their Governor and Congressmen with only their usual amount of effort.

☞ We have already copied an item, stating that the great men of the South Carolina secession declare the U. S. fugitive slave law to be unconstitutional. It is a curious fact, in this connection, that Senator Seward, in a debate on this very law, said—"I think this law is contrary to the Constitution; but there is a higher law!" &c., &c. It is another curious fact, that all the seceders now claim a higher law than the Constitution; but not the same higher law of which Seward spoke. He alluded to the Divine law, the law of humanity.—They appeal to the dignity of Carolina, to the law of their own wills, the law of slavery.

☞ The Historical Register says Dean Dudley has made extensive collections of materials for a history of Exeter, New-Hampshire. It is proposed to publish the work by subscription. Exeter has always been noted as the residence of eminent men. The Tennys, Peabodys, Folsoms, Gilmans, Smiths, and other great men of the Granite State, were citizens of this town, and its annals in the hands of so competent a writer as Mr. Dudley, cannot fail to be of great interest.

ONE OF THE EFFECTS.—The New Orleans Picayune of Jan. 17,—says that Mobile Cotton is coming to New Orleans for shipping; and adds:—

We learn that, in consequence of the difficulty of shipping cotton at Mobile, the Collector of which port has resigned his office, so that there can be no clearances, large quantities of the staple are being sent over here daily by the mail boats, for shipping at this port. This is one of the significant incidents of the troublous times upon which we have fallen, and more of the same sort are yet to be experienced.

The civil war of Marius and Sylla liberated the slaves in Italy. The civil war in Mexico and of the South American republics abolished it within them. The states invaded by Bolivar offered freedom to all the slaves who would join the ranks to oppose him. Bolivar, on his part, proclaimed universal emancipation to recruit his ranks. History records the result.—F. P. Blair.

☞ The Littleton (N. H.) Journal says the mercury in that town, on the morning of the 15th inst., stood at 40 below zero—At Coos, on the same day, it was from 36 to 40 below. If the thermometer had been longer, it would have been a dreadful cold morning.

☞ The new Unitarian church on the hills of Wilton, built on the site of the old church, which was burnt last winter, was dedicated Jan. 10th. Rev. A. A. Livermore, of New York, gave the sermon.

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 21.

Did you ever, dear reader, in the plenitude of your metropolitan breeding, curl your lip in scorn at the steadfast gaze of your rustic cousin, as he curiously scanned the contents of shop-windows, blinded by the glare of the gas-lights, and confused by the splendor (to him) displayed therein. Short-sighted mortal! The store-windows of a city are the best indices to the manners and tastes of its people. A close observer, in this city, perceives at once by this guide, when he comes to the French quarter, when the holidays are approaching, and even the state of public feeling on questions of political moment.

The attitude of this section of the country is strongly exemplified in this manner, at present. The windows of the hatter contain specimens of "Southern manufacture"—those of the music-dealer show a collection of songs, marches, etc., commemorative of Southern valor or beauty, or dedicated to some modern Mars, who "rolls himself up in the Pelican flag"—knives gleam and pistols frown in the windows of the jewellers, where cut lay glittering diamonds and golden manacles for those we love—while the dry goods men set forth their "Osnaburgs" and "Attakapas," and remove all goods bearing the damning brand of Massachusetts to the back of the store.

I have sent you files of papers containing particulars of the acts of seizure and occupation of Forts Pike (at the head of Lake Pontchartrain,) Jackson and Philip (below the city,) and the arsenal at Baton Rouge. But you can gather only a feeble idea of the feeling which prevailed when "by torch and trumpet fast arrayed," the troops embarked on their several errands, nor of the welcome they met on their return from a bloodless victory.

In addition to the numerous military companies recently formed, the firemen, a thousand strong, are to become a regular military organization. Offers of material aid in loans of from $1,000 to $10,000, without interest, are pouring in upon the Governor. A number of steamboats have been chartered by the State for transport duty, among them the Ophelia, owned by Peter Marcy, Esq.

Clearances were made in large numbers on Saturday and to-day, on account of the meeting of the Convention on Wednesday, when the State will probably be declared out of the Union. Collector Hatch says he shall not resign.

The Mobile Register, of the 18th, says there is in that port a Portsmouth, N. H., ship which was in P. at the time of the Presidential election. The owner who voted for "Old Abe" wished the captain (a Bell-Everett man) to do the same. Now the captain receives a letter from his owner, saying he "had rather give $10,000 than to have voted for Lincoln." Here is the match story on the opposite side: It is said a New Orleans merchant ordered fifty barrels of potatoes from a dealer in Boston. The curt (not courteous) reply was—'Eat cotton, d—n you.'

Patti sings to-night, in "Trovatore." Geo. Christy begins a season of six nights. Dan Rice is still drawing at the Academy of Music.

The steamboats are doing a better business, and foreign and coastwise freights are high. IOX.

☞ The Boston Post, in its editorial article of Tuesday Jan. 29, on Finance and Business, really treats secession as a noisy, windy show. It says:—

Panic and fear can scarcely have much hold upon us, so long as we thoroughly believe that the home condition of affairs cannot be disturbed—so long as we realize that the National Administration at Washington is the sole rightful, enduring and inevitable government over the entire thirty-three States of the Union—over all their forts and arsenals—over all the Territories—whatever any people in any States may choose to declare.

For Government purposes, it fortunately happens that the mercantile demand for money is exceedingly limited. In New York, and at the mint, on New York account, are about forty millions of dollars, with business dull, and exchanges ruling strongly in favor of the great metropolis.—Through Government borrowings only will money be kept from becoming a drug, as it now appears, and the national necessities will be of great service to the whole country, by distributing far and wide, the gold that is now accumulating at the seaboard.—The Government could have one hundred millions in six months—let alone twenty—and if, like other borrowers, it would take good bank notes in payment it could have a hundred millions in six day.

Well, why not let the gold humbug go overboard, with the other humbug.

☞ The following retort courteous from the Student and Playmate, seems appropriate to the season:

A minister, walking with an aged acquaintance on the ice, the friend slipped and fell flat on his back. The minister observing that the old man had not hurt himself much, observed, that "sinners stand on slippery places;" the old man looking up, replied, "yes, I see they do, but I can't."

MUTILATING THE RECORD.—A guest at the St. Nicholas having registered himself as a citizen of the "Republic of Mississippi," an irreverent wag wrote immediately thereunder "Two for a cent."

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

CITY GOVERNMENT VS. COCK-FIGHTING.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.

Dear Chronicle:—One day last week the Board of Aldermen adjourned for want of a quorum; the reason, and the report of a cock-fight at Harlem, were made public the next morning, and our citizens found that at least one of the rulers of New York considered the governing of the city as subservient to the glory attending a cock-fight.—A select company was present, and though the cocks—nineteen from Troy and the same from New York—did all the fighting, the principals in the affair were Henry Genet, President of the Aldermanic board, on the part of the New Yorkers, and John Morrissey, of pugilistic notoriety, for the Trojans.

Troy came out ahead, after several cocks had been sent out of the walk, and as many more had lost their visional organs. Then the proprietors went inside and 'cussed and discussed the different decisions of the referees on "fowl" play.

The last week has been a series of fete days at the Central Park. The skating has been excellent, and crowds have enjoyed it each day, from noon till midnight. What think you of 5000 persons, men, women and children, gliding in and out—and all visible from one point, the bridge that spans the pond midway? Our Down-East girls—perhaps I had better take that up to "young ladies"—need not fear comparison with the lady skaters here. We have many graceful ones, but they lack the off-hand, dashing stroke acquired by many on the "North and South Mill Ponds."

The late snow will be swept off by the police, and the ponds, (or rather the pond, as it is all connected, about twice as large, too, as both the Portsmouth ponds together,) flooded the first cold night, and then we shall have another opportunity to play tangent to the ice.

Another snow-storm to-day, which will add to the already good sleighing,—such a rarity in New York that every imaginable sort of a sleigh is in use. Large and small teams are trotting up and down the avenues, and fast teams are racing on the Bloomingdale.

A new daily paper is to be started in this city about the 1st of May, by the editors of the "Weekly Nation," a paper which, although of but few months' standing, has a circulation of over five thousand copies. The new (one cent) daily will be devoted to the interests of the Roman Catholics, and will also contain the Hotel and Shipping lists, and general news items.

Are we not especially favored? An Aldermanic cock-fight, good skating, sleighing, and the prospect of a new daily paper, all in one week! NEWINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. World.]—The withdrawal of Iverson to-day was in singular contrast to the withdrawals last week. The insane declarations of Iverson elicited laughter from both sides of the Senate, and created irrepressible merriment in the galleries.

Senatorial revolutionists say, if the President's policy, as announced in his message, be carried out, to wit, acting on the defensive, by reinforcing the southern forts—it is the policy of coercion, and will cause war in twenty days. Nothing less than the unconditional yielding up of all the federal property would seem to please the revolutionists.

The message meets with favor among border State men, but pleases neither extremists North or South.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Owing to the urgent remonstrances made by Secretary Dix, the seizure of the Marine Hospital at New Orleans has been satisfactorily settled.

Captain Fonce, of the revenue Cutter Harriet Lane, is here.

Dr. Jones of Louisiana, a prominent member of the Douglas Executive Committee, and Lieut. Wilson of Tennessee, left yesterday for Delaware to fight a duel. A private dispatch says that Wilson was wounded in the hip. The quarrel is said to have originated in remarks of Wilson about Douglas distasteful to Jones.

There is no truth in the statement that Mr. Lincoln has written to Mr. Colfax upon the subject of a compromise.

The daily overland California mail, as it passed the House, limits the cost to $800,000. Bids are to be received until April. The contract will commence July 1st, or as soon thereafter as possible. The postage on letters is to be 10 cents and on newspapers 1 cent. It passed—101 against 94.

Several artillery companies arrived here to night.

☞ The steamer Joseph Whitney, which sailed from New York, with troops for Fort Jefferson, Tortugas, fully accomplished her mission, and Fort Jefferson and Fort Taylor, which command the harbor Key West, are in a condition to resist stronger forces than the secessionists are able to send against them. The Federal Government will therefore maintain undisputed command of the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico.

☞ The Congregationalists of this State have 185 churches, 88 of which have pastors, 52 stated supplies, and 25 vacant. They have 38 other ministers, agents of Societies, Professors in College, &c. The number of Church members is 19,898. Added the past year by profession 288, by letter 355.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 29.—It is stated that a large war steamer was seen off the harbor on Saturday, and that she showed signals and stood to the southward. It is surmised that she is still hovering on the coast.

Last night a negro informed his master that a suspicious craft was seen yesterday, near Church's Flat Stono, with about 20 men on board, without arms or uniforms.—It is thought they were about to pounce on the plantations.

The Legislature adjourned last night sine die.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 29.—The Convention, last night, in secret session, adopted resolutions instructing the Alabama deputies to the Southern Convention to insist upon the adoption of an enactment to forever prevent the opening of the African slave trade.

The Convention to-day passed a supplemental ordinance for the protection of the defences in the Gulf; also an ordinance adopting as the law of Alabama the laws of the United States relative to patents, securing the rights of invention to the citizens of all the slave States. Adjourned to the 4th of March.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Washington correspondent of the Times states that Mr. Winthrop called on Senator Mason, and referring to the Senator's former visit, remarked: "I hope, Mr. Mason, we shall see you again on Bunker Hill," to which the Senator stiffly replied, "Not unless I come as an Ambassador, sir."

The same correspondent is fully satisfied that it is the intention of the President to veto the Pacific Railroad.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Capt. Samuel C. Reid, commander of the privateer General Armstrong, died here last evening.

There was an immense meeting of the citizens at Cooper Institute last night. A committee was appointed to visit the conventions of seceding States, in regard to the settlement of the disunion question at Washington.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 29.—The hall where the abolitionists were to hold their Convention was taken possession of by a body of men whose arrangements had been preconcerted. The hall was the scene of confusion all the afternoon, and there is a riotous crowd about the building to-night. The friends of anti-slavery intend to hold a meeting to-morrow, but there is an evident intention to break it up.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawSm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only safe and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawSm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly-celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the NORWAY Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such a hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and the operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our Iowa this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

24 MARKET STREET.....J. C. CARR.

☞ Barque Marmion, Capt. Adams, of and from New York, for Londonderry, was abandoned Dec. 31, in lat. 42, lon. 45, with loss of rudder, head knees started, and four feet of water in the hold. The crew were taken off by the "Canova," and carried into Liverpool Jan. 14th. The Marmion was an A 2 vessel, of 358 tons, built at Thomaston, Me., in 1848, and owned in New York by John Wiley, Esq. She had on board the following cargo: 1529 bbls. flour, 5 tcs. clover seed, 100 tcs. flax seed.

THE GREAT FIRE AT HALIFAX.— All accounts agree in stating that the loss by the great fire at Halifax will reach at least four hundred thousand dollars.

Most of the buildings burned were occupied either as shops or offices, and contained only two dwelling houses; otherwise the fire might have been productive even of more suffering than it has. One man was killed by falling walls, and others were seriously injured. Drunkenness was a prominent feature in connection with the fire.— We copy the following in regard to this matter:—

The most disgraceful feature, painfully evident throughout the progress of the fire, was the drunkenness. Liquor was easily procured from the stores of the various groceries. Not only low individuals, but also those who should have had more respect for themselves, partook freely of what intoxicating liquors they could find, until many of them became beastly drunk.

For those who were hard worked, and almost prostrated by the intense cold, there was some need, perhaps, of stimulant, and we would have less reason to express our disapprobation. But when men went round and sought liquor for the mere pleasure of drinking, it is but proper that some notice should be taken. The prevalent drunkenness was a spectacle for which no respectable citizen can find an apology. We hope never to see similar despicable qualities evidenced in this city on a like occasion, if it should ever be the misfortune of this city to witness another such sad calamity.

Many persons, including soldiers, were found prostrated on the ground under the influence of liquor, and some were thus severely frost-bitten.

Whilst the fire was progressing, several fights took place, and several respectable persons were attacked by individuals excited by drink. The City Marshal, we regret to say, was severely injured by some of these ruffians.

The total loss is variously estimated at from £80,000 to $100,000. The losses are principally borne by the American and old Halifax offices—the former in the aggregate about £70,000 to £70,000—the latter £7000 to £8000.

The drunkenness, plundering and disorderly conduct on the streets appears to have been thoroughly disgraceful. Some of the fire wards were assaulted in the discharge of their duties, and the City Marshal had two of his ribs broken, and was so severely beaten in endeavoring to arrest some plunderer, that he will be confined to his house for several days.

A gentleman who was present writes as follows: "The stock in Harrington's and Lithgow's grocery and liquor establishments were among the first to be saved, and the consequences you can imagine. Brandy, old Jamaica, port, sherry, fine old Madeira in wood and bottles, champagne and light wines, were freely distributed, the latter being as a general thing preferred. In fact, a regular business of looting was carried on, and in the course of a few hours I saw more drunkenness than I have witnessed for years."

SECESSION PRINCIPLE CARRIED OUT. A Georgia paper states that the town of Gordon, situated on the Central Railroad, at the junction of the road to Milledgeville, has, by an ordinance duly drawn up, signed and adopted by a meeting of the citizens of the place, formally seceded from Wikinson county, State of Georgia. The narrator proposes to call it the independent city of Gordon. The people of Gordon can probably give as good reasons for secession, and the act can as well be justified on principle, as can be the secession of the Gulf States.

☞ In consequence of reports at Key West that a force was about leaving New Orleans for the purpose of seizing Forts Taylor and Jefferson, many people were leaving the place at last accounts, particularly the natives of the Bahamas, several schooner loads having already gone, being in great dread of the fillibusters, as these Southern volunteers are called on that island.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger of the 29th says:

On Saturday, twelve boxes of Minnie rifles were sent South, over the Baltimore Railroad. They came from the Frankfort Arsenal, and it is understood that they have gone to Washington in obedience to orders from the War Department. It is rumored that Fort Delaware, near the mouth of the Delaware River, is to be furnished with several pieces of heavy artillery and shell, which are now on their way from the United States Arsenal at Lawrenceville, near Pittsburg.

☞ The Albany Journal says the President elect will be escorted to Washington by the Springfield (Ill.) Zouaves.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 29.—The Legislature has passed a resolution inviting Mr. Lincoln to visit Trenton, and extending to him the hospitalities of the State.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.— The Pacific Railroad bill was amended to-day by the addition of Perham's Northern route.

The bill will no doubt pass both branches of Congress.

☞ The house of Stetmer & Co., of Havana, have failed for $2,200,000. The failure created a great sensation among the merchants, particularly on the discovery of the frauds on the sugar warehouses, by false warehouse certificates, which were deposited by this house with the Bank of Havana.

☞ The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Express says that a "brave band of men" waited on His Excellency Gov. Letcher, recently, and offered to take forcible possession of Fort Monroe, but the proposition did not meet with the approval of that distinguished functionary.

NOT BAD—FOR A SPANIARD.—A Madrid journal advises the President (in view of the Ostend manifesto) to invest the surplus of the government funds in the purchase of South Carrolina, and to abandon the Cuban negotiation for the present.

The directors of the Inebriates' Home, at Berlin, Cal., wean confirmed drunkards from a love of drink by feeding them for the first fortnight on food strongly dosed with whiskey; they soon become disgusted.

THREE BLIND RATS.

Contemptuously inscribed, without permission, to Messrs. Cobb, Floyd and Thompson.

Rats leave a sinking ship, they say:
Would you the reason seek?
The rats know best how long to stay,
They helped to make the leak.

Let none from duty shrink;
All hands to work, the leak to stay!
THE GOOD SHIP SHALL NOT SINK!

SEVEN YEARS!
Theseven years of unrivalled success attending
COSMOPOLITAN
Art Association
have made it a household word throughout every quarter of our country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables—the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled by that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Any person can become a member by subscribing three dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30 x 38 inches, entitled

Falstaff Mustering His Recruits,

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, the

"COSMOPOLITAN ART JOURNAL."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to

"The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, New York."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over

Five Hundred Beautiful Works of Art,

comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

THE SUPERB ENGRAVING, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS," is one of the most beautiful and popular over made in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the recruits which had been gathered for his "Ragged Regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of January 31, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships, and one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 25 cts. per number.—Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin.

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well."—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

DR. SWETT'S
COUGH DROPS,
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life"
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1848.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $20 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have known a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Rld. EDWIN BURNHAM.
Exeter, July 30 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F. JONES.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1859.—"The certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Compound and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system obstruction and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors and stagnant bile which are the fruitful nurse of disease. Let them alone, and obstructed in health again, they stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deeper and dangerous disorders. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they yield rapidly, and are thus cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we have known. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR SIR: I can honestly answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been entirely cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills entirely adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more efficacious in the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the professional and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot honestly say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in whose so well the best cathartic I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver make them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I visit, for years, in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent means to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Piles, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. Hitherto of our fraternity have found them so efficacious that I have, they should join in publishing it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent purgatives and the natural remedies when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawks, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PLANTERS HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Nevertheless, I had the same physical weakness the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were so decisive, that I persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENECA CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 D—, 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the blood globules, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and nervous derangement, and those of the blood, which deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, waxy-like and sallow complexion, evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before established, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in are to soften the cough, hence the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, restore the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food is recommended in all CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, &c. Fever Sores, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

DEBILITY,

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vital energy, and to those of whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Nervous Exhaustion, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of invalids which cannot be overlooked or slighted. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as preeminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures of all the foregoing diseases, and testimonials, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature on the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 499 Broadway, New York.

And sold by them, and all respectable Druggists.

Sold in Portsmouth by PRESTON, THACHER, HUTCHINGS and KIMBALL. s6 1y

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form the nutritive properties of Wheat, and has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATTENINO; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing preparation.

Put up in quart bottles, in tin cases, with one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskey.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age has long confirmed its medicinal virtues, and it has been a delicious favorite and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the world, as well as one, prefer to rest their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and skin, all would need it, since it is the only thing that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my chaise, and strike near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which compelled me to blister and scarify the entire surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I recovered from its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed every thing I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to place your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after I began application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Pittsfield, Vt., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you like to.

Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was (as plainly perceived by others) quite grayish, and your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, quite a large bottle; the large bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, three times in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every active and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, to prevent the occurrence of, alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL.

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing their darlings suffering from colic, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Allaying Pain, THE GREAT EVIL FOR DISEASES DURING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, and to the to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which is now fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time be in the public. We find that throughout the country, MOTHERS WRITE TESTIMONIALS to the truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies, their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending in fatal consumption. Relief in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy, in the Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, through its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and causes of disease. We cannot recommend to you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Prepared only by DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Dizziness, Kidney Complaint, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating effects of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, and give you a good appetite.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the usual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents per bottle.

THE FAMOUS ANDERSONS.—One of the men is the Major Anderson of the Army, who happens to be the commander of a very small force in a fort in Boston harbor.

The other was a Negro slave, and is now in Canada, where he is claimed, not as a slave but as a murderer. We copy an item about him and his case, from the London Times of Jan. 5:

"According to a decision just given by the Judges of the Court of Queen's Bench in Canada, we are about to deliver up a black man to be burnt alive by the slaveowners of Missouri. The public are already familiar with the facts of the case, but they may be recapitulated in a few words. It is now more than a year since a strange Negro was seen hurrying over a plantation of which Mr. Seneca Digges was the proprietor. By the law of Missouri, in which this plantation was situated, it is the duty of every man to arrest a slave found distant more than 20 miles from his master's plantation. Digges, in performance of the duty thus imposed, pursued the fugitive, and after a chase came up with him. In the struggle which ensued, the slave drew a knife and wounded his pursuer to the death. There is no opportunity for dispute about the facts. The slave slew a man who was in the execution of his public duty, according to the laws of Missouri. According to all other laws but those of Missouri, and Missouri's kindred States, the slave was acting in the direct exercise of the inalienable prerogative of manhood; according to the laws of Missouri, he was committing murder. After the act had been consummated, he completed his escape to Canada. Thither he was tracked by the agents of the slave State, and a requisition has been made that he be delivered up, under our Extradition Treaty with the United States, as a murderer.

The Times then goes on to show that the Canadian Court was probably right, in a technical view, in deciding to deliver up the fugitive,—but shows also that there are two higher Courts in which appeals are heard, and concludes that those Courts will set the man at liberty, as not coming within a proper view of the treaty.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,

NO. 83 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating purchasers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable taste; will keep palatable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances, it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid, gas or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs. gives by this process 280 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread when prepared through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

18 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; put in a piece of lard the size of one of an egg, and make the paste thin with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to kneed into a loaf. Bake.

SWEETMILK BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CORN SPRINKLE CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; then add two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together: add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of butter and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of gour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to this taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, combining all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that have ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, refreshes and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence suits the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have sufficient reason left to be able to dispense no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any General Derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back and Between the Shoulders, Lumbago, Fainting, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent all deleterious consequences following from change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take it to prevent, and if found before setting in, it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not untomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1861.

THE CHRONICLE.

OUR DAILY.—This morning's issue of the Daily Chronicle, commences the 18th (half yearly) volume of its publication—it being eight and a half years to-day since the first number was offered to the public for their consideration. And perhaps it may not be out of place to add—that so well have that public "considered" our efforts, that each year and volume of our enterprise, has been commenced under more and more favorable circumstances, and with yet firmer confidence in its permanent establishment; until, our friends and patrons generally, have come to coincide with our idea of the scheme, entertained at the outset—and to regard the Chronicle as one of the institutions of the city; and they would now, do doubt, be as much surprised and disappointed at its failure, as they have been pleased by its success. We trust we are not unmindful or ungrateful for the liberal patronage, consideration and encouragement of all sorts, which have contributed to this prosperity.

During the term of our newspaporial existence, there have been less changes in the editorial department, than in any other—in fact, the editors are the only ones of the original employees, who yet remain connected with the establishment. And we don't know as we have any particular change to announce in the management of the paper—only, to make it as much more interesting and valuable as we can. The publisher and Junior editor,—who has no faith in, and no regard or sympathy for, any party, sect, or clan,—would prefer that the Chronicle should be still more an "independent" paper than it has been; but the influence of older and of course wiser counsels, (to which he has always readily and willingly deferred,) has often prevailed over our own choice in the matter—and this difference in views entertained, and sometimes incidentally expressed, may perhaps have appeared a little singular. But, at any rate, we have not and shall not attempt to please or serve any political party, as such; and the fact that we have been in turn praised and blamed by all, is to us the best evidence of our fairness and impartiality—which we shall endeavor to maintain, as the years roll round. JR.

☞ Capt. John Pope, U. S. N., who since being relieved from command of the Navy Yard at Portsmouth, N. H., a few months ago, has been waiting orders at this station—has been ordered to command of the U. S. ship Richmond, now in the Mediterranean squadron.

The Navy Register shows that Commodore Pope entered the Navy in May, 1816, and has been at sea since then twenty years and four months, during which period he has visited all quarters of the known world. A few years since he rendered efficient service while in command of a ship on the coast of China, in the demultory war then existing with the pirates who infested that locality.

During all his years of service, he was a general favorite with officers and crews.—An officer of stern countenance and appearance, brave, fearless and prompt in action, he has a kind and generous heart, and an earnest love of justice to all; and is always as ready to hear and protect the humblest seaman in his ship or laborer on the Navy Yard, as the highest officer under his command.

He was, last October, detached from our Navy Yard, which he has commanded for three years,—during all which time we have never heard a word of complaint against him. Firm and prompt, but just and generous, he won the hearty good will and respect of both officers and employees, every one of whom felt that they were parting with a friend when he left, and all of whom will join in our just commendations of one whom we all esteem so highly.

We are told that the Richmond is one of the finest ships in the Navy, and that the Mediterranean is the pleasantest station.—So far we rejoice at the token of esteem evinced by the selection of the Department. Our only regret is that, at this time, when danger threatens our country, one of our best and most true-hearted officers should be away, when the services of such men may be needed.

Com. Pope's family will remain in our city for the present. A.

☞ In the Legislature of Texas, only 17 out of 80 members are co-operationists.—The secession feeling is quite strong there. It is rumored that a body of men are en route to seize the arsenal at San Antonio. General Twiggs called in the troops to protect it. The Knights of the Golden Circle offered him their services. General Twiggs denies the report of his resignation, but has informed the President that he will not use his sword against his countrymen, and when Texas demands the arsenal he shall surrender it to her.

MR. VAN WYCK'S SPEECH.

In the House of Representatives at Washington, Jan. 29, the Report of the Committee of Thirty-Three on the State of the Union being under consideration, Mr. Van Wyck of New York made a speech which may be fairly supposed to represent the views of the Republicans of the Empire State.

Mr. Van Wyck of New York said: This day is the anniversary of one of the most exciting scenes witnessed in the American Congress; on the 28th day of Jan. 1842, John Quincy Adams introduced the petition of 45 citizens of Haverhill, Mass., praying for a peaceable dissolution of the Union. That the whole North and South were then opposed to dissolution. Tho' the slavery agitation was then deeper and more intense, still the madness of Abolitionists did not force the South into treason against God and man. Did you then propose a great National Committee to bargain a truce with traitors by a betrayal of principle? Why did you then deny the power in Congress or the States, to dissolve this Union? Since 1842 you have gained in territory, numbers and power. Why, then, do we find political incendiaries who would trample on the flag and burn the temple of freedom?

Mr. Van Wyck gave a history of the debate, which followed the introduction of the petition, quoting from many Southern men, Messrs. Hopkins, Wise and Gilmer of Virginia; Mr. Meriwether of Georgia; Messrs. Campbell, Rhett and others of South Carolina; Messrs. Marshall and Underwood of Kentucky, all denying the power of Congress or the States to effect a dissolution of the Union, and claiming, that a dissolution of the Union was a dissolution of slavery. You say a removal of the cause of danger will produce peace! Granted! But that cause is not in the agitation but in slavery itself. We ask you not to remove, but to cease your determination to spread it. The condition of all the Territories we now own is settled, and we had hoped the inordinate desire to plunder your weak neighbors was subdued; but the Vice President, in a late letter to the Governor of Kentucky, said:

"The Southern States cannot afford to be shut off from all possibility of expansion to the tropics by the hostile action of the Federal Government."

This key unlocks the Southern mind and passions. Dreams of Cuba, Mexico, the Central and South American States festoon the bloody machinations of Southern traitors, as they rendered gorgeous the unholy schemes of Burr and his confederates While groaning of your burthens, you are boasting of the great power of cotton. We have now to deal with facts, not with fancies; realities, not theories. Have we a Government, and shall free white men regulate its action and control its destiny? Grant, if you please, that slavery is right, we insist that the Territories belong to the whole country; shall not the sovereign people of the whole Republic control them. The majority constitutionally expressed must govern. What do you mean when you talk of the brute force of majorities, which is manifested without force and exercised without violence? You are not excluded from the Territories. Of your 8,000,000 scarcely 300,000 are owners of slaves. The hearthstones of many solitary cabins far away toward the light of the setting sun, are cheered by the songs which the emigrant learned in his Southern home. A fair proportion of the population in California are from the South. The policy of the dominant party must prevail. In 1820, it said that slavery should not go north of 36 30; in 1854, it reversed that policy, and said free labor or slave labor should be baptized in blood on the plains of Kansas. From 1856 the Treasury and the sword were used to subdue us, and afterwards New Mexico was surrendered to the brute force of majorities then. We wave no ruffian's threat or braggart's boast. We are only waiting for another expression of the will of American freemen.

We are told we must submit, because we have been misrepresented at home and abroad. We neither created nor contributed to your ignorance; you have created this storm, now bend before its fury or break. You have been shorn of your strength by your own Delilah, and now in your blindness would wrap your arms round the pillars of the Republic, and perish in its ruins. This hour, slavery, in the language of the highwayman, is demanding our money or our life, our government or our principles. He commented on the demands of the South, that free speech and free press should be curtailed, and on the remark of Mr. Douglas that Mr. Lincoln dare not go by the graves of his fathers in Kentucky. Then he referred to the power of the American flag to protect Martin Costa in the Mediterranean, and wished its aid for Abraham Lincoln and every citizen in this Republic. You ask us to compromise! What have we to concede? We have done you no wrong, and propose none.

You have been compromising for years; the only finality we had was at the ballot-box in November last. You have proposed no compromise which does not involve a surrender on our part. You want the Constitution amended; how would that avail you, if your present position is correct, that one State, however insignificant she may be, can destroy the whole fabric? You, who have violated the Constitution, and have set the laws at defiance, are demanding constitutional guaranties that we will do neither! Do you propose any concession to the North? Any security to liberty and life of the Northern men in the slave States; of property in books; of freedom of speech and press, already secured by the Constitution? You say that you concede to freedom the territory north of 36 30. We have a double title to that already—first by purchase and then by conquest; we bought it when we took Missouri into the Union as a Slave State, and then we conquered it in the strife of a civil war. All our future acquisitions must be in the direction of the tropics, and you demand its unconditional surrender to slavery. You want us to surrender to men who themselves are compromise-breakers. You have been telling us for years that all geographical lines were sectional and dangerous. In 1820 you established the Missouri line to save the Union; in 1854 you destroyed it to save the Union; and now you can see the salvation of the Republic only through its re-establishment and perpetuity, with the new and startling condition annexed, that slavery must be forever protected in all our future acquisitions. Believe not in reconstruction! the compromises of the present Constitution once lost, you never can regain. Think you that another Senate can be formed wherein Florida and Delaware can equal New York and Pennsylvania?

You are opposed to the Army and Navy, because you boldly assert that an enforcement of the laws means a coercion of States; but you were willing to send troops 2000 miles to coerce our brethren in Utah! you sent the Army into Kansas! You have used the Federal troops to enforce the fugitive slave law, and to rescue the Arsenal at Harper's Ferry from John Brown. The camp had no terrors for you then; but now you oppose coercion; yet by force of armed men, you seize the Forts and Navy Yards, and trample the Stars and Stripes in the dust. We do not mean to be driven from the Union by force. Do you desire a peace able secession?—a Convention of all the States would possibly bid you depart in peace.

Mr. Van Wyck was in favor of purchasing the slaves of the Border States and furnishing them a home in Central America, and spoke of the folly of destroying the last home of the oppressed, the last hope of freemen, because some men believed in Universal Liberty, and that the time of returning reason or avenging justice would come. You may destroy the Union, but the holiest associations of ages to come will gather around and garnish its ruins.

"You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still."

Peter faltered in the path of duty and fell. Christ refused to compromise and, established His Divinity. Like Peter we are erring. If anything could seduce us from the integrity of our faith, it would be to strike hands over the altar of our common liberties, with noble patriots at the South, and on this floor, who, feeling that they have a country to save and a God to serve, have rebuked disunion and branded treason. That when the finger of the Almighty was moving on the troubled waters, men and nations will do but little in warring against his decrees, and in compromising his judgments. That when the Catalines of the nation were conspiring in the Capitol while treason has been flaunting in the departments of the Administration, and our ensign has been insulted and defied, you ask us to treat with rebels with cannon pointed at us, stolen from the National Arsenals.

In the madness of the hour you discard the Star Spangled Banner, and Hail Columbia; but beware while you sing the more incendiary Marseillaise to your slaves, they may learn to act its poetry.

That the time would again come when all could gather under the same starry folds and all say,

Be justice the war shout, and bastard is he,
Who would scruple to die 'neath the flag of the free.

☞ A good sturdy democrat of Portsmouth, said, within a day or two, "there would have been no trouble, if we had chosen a democratic president!"

"No doubt of it," replied a republican.

But why was not a democrat chosen?—Because the slave power in the Charleston Convention would not permit the nomination of the only one whom that party could elect, viz. Douglas: and they would not have him nominated because he had in some slight degree rebelled against that power, in the matter of Kansas!

He really rebelled against the slave oligarchy so far as to advocate the idea that a majority should rule, and that a constitution should be referred to the people.

This power that now looms up like a great black monster in the South, demanded of the democratic party in the North, a total surrender of all liberty, for black or white, with Mr. Douglas thrown in for a burnt offering and a peace offering. The party said No:—and the slave power trampled it in the dust.

The consequence was, Lincoln was elected by the republicans of eighteen States.—And now the slave oligarchy demands of the republicans and their president elect, that they shall do exactly what the democrats refused to do, only do it in a worse form—and if they will not do it, the black power is now rampant, threatening to trample down the Union, as it did the democratic party.

☞ The catching of cod and other Fish, by trawl lines—which contain hundreds of hooks—is being quite extensively practiced off Portsmouth harbor, and about the Shoals, this winter. The fish are brought to this city, and conveyed by rail to Boston, Concord and Vermont. One day last week, we are informed, nine vessels arrived here, and discharged upwards of one hundred thousand (100,000) pounds of fine large fish. Staunch boats or vessels, of good size are used, and the business gives employment to quite a number of men, and is capable of being extended almost indefinitely. The fish are taken in deep water, and not unfrequently lobsters of the sweetest flavor are snatched from their winter bed, far down among the treasures of ocean.

☞ The Georgia convention on Tuesday refused to reconsider the revenue ordinance. Resolutions empowering the Governor to issue letters of marque and reprisal were tabled. The convention adjourned to meet at Savannah.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—More Soldiers sent for—A new Plot to seize the Capital—Rumored Attempt to assassinate Gen. Scott—The Kansas Bill Signed.—Special dispatches state that the President has allowed three additional artillery companies to be stationed in Washington.

Mr. Mallory telegraphs to the President that if the Brooklyn appears off Pensacola, Fort Pickens will be immediately taken.

Governor Hicks has informed General Scott of the discovery of a plot to seize the capital.

Five thousand Minnie rifles were received in Washington on Tuesday.

The President has countermanded the order for the Brooklyn to enter the harbor of Pensacola.

A plot to assassinate Gen. Scott is reported.

Two companies of troops arrived at Fort McHenry to-day.

Sixty free negroes passed through Baltimore to-day on their way to Ohio.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 30.—Prominent men, heretofore anti-secessionists, addressed a secession meeting last night.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Less than three hundred troops are here, but they can be concentrated at any point at a short notice.

Postmaster King has received complaints from many northern gentlemen that letters from the South are opened. An investigation is being made.

The President has signed the Kansas bill.

The Constitution newspaper will be defunct to-morrow. It will be revived under the more genial atmosphere of Montgomery, Ala.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The Times' Washington correspondent says it is rumored that a serious disagreement has arisen between the President and Gen. Scott. The President professes to be much mortified that guns of Fort Monroe are turned inland.

The correspondent of the World says a messenger from South Carolina has arrived, bringing the resolutions of the Legislature demanding the surrender of Fort Sumter. If the demand is refused, an attack will follow immediately.

It is asserted that Northern military companies attempting to pass through Maryland to attend the inauguration at Washington would be stopped.

Private advices to the Herald from the South indicate a fight within thirty days.

The commander at Fort Tortugas informs the government that he is sufficiently reinforced to defy any attack.

Col. Judge, from Alabama, has arrived in Washington with power to negotiate for the Federal property in Alabama.

CITY AFFAIRS.—Messrs. Editors:—In your local item in Wednesday's Chronicle, speaking of the action of the Mayor and Aldermen in the election of City Marshal, you "suppose that any one would hesitate to accept the appointment in the face of the strong petition for Mr. Norton." This language implies a reflection on the Mayor and Aldermen, who, after investigation of the whole subject, being under oath, and undoubtedly understanding the merits of the whole case, acted according to their best judgment; and it would naturally appear that they ought to know much more about it than those who probably never gave five minutes' thought to the subject, and who signed the petition out of mere personal feelings. I do not know what were the facts or the reasons that operated on the minds of the Mayor and Aldermen to induce them to act as they have; but knowing them thus far to be honorable men, I have confidence to believe that they were good ones.

In regard to your second statement, that "the Republican wire-pullers in Ward One long ago resolved on their own partizan arrangements of city officers, and to that end commenced to work in caucus;" I know not whom you refer to by wire-pullers, but I never knew of any resolve, or any action by any committee or caucus, in favor of any man for an officer of the city. I have attended all meetings of the committee, and all caucuses of the party, and so far as I know, I deny the charge, in whole or in part. The Republicans in Ward One, and in all other Wards, so far as I know, expect to have the offices filled by Republicans, if they have the power. The question whether it is best to have party nominations for city officers, is not now at issue. And it appears to me that when a party nomination is made, and honorable gentlemen accept the nomination as such, that they are morally and politically bound, as honest men, to abide the positions they have voluntarily assumed; and how any man, under these circumstances, can justify himself for betraying his party, and transferring his vote, and the vote of those who elected him, over to our political opponents, is beyond my political understanding. I think, if I know the feelings of the Republicans of Ward One, that no man can play such a game upon them but once.

If there are no men in the Republican party capable of filling the city offices, had the party not better disband, and not spend their time and have the trouble of contesting elections, but let the loco-foco party rule without date? J. P. MORSE.

Portsmouth, Jan. 31, 1861.

Remarks.—The publisher of the Chronicle—who believes in free speech—is very happy to give Mr. Morse's article a place; and will not, at this time at any rate, attempt to refute any of his statements, or gainsay a single argument.

CONGRESS, WEDNESDAY, Jan. 30.

SENATE.—Mr. Crittenden presented a petition of twenty-four hundred citizens of Massachusetts in favor of his resolutions.

Mr. Mason said the South had never asked for concessions in any form, but only that the constitution might be carried out. The South would be humiliated if it asked for anything less, and the North would be humiliated if it granted anything more.

Mr. Hale of New Hampshire said that he had been waiting since the session for just such a sensible speech as Mr. Mason had just made. Now there was some prospect for union on the subject. The sentiments just expressed were those he (Hale) entertained. He said he would at some future time make some remarks upon this subject.

Mr. Trumbull presented a petition of citizens of Chicago against any concession while the South is in rebellion. Also a petition of the Methodists of Illinois asking if a compromise is made there may be in it a provision for the safety of the citizens in the Southern States, and that no man shall be proscribed for the sake of his religion.

The Pacific Railroad bill was passed by a vote of 37 against 14. The bill to erect the Territory of Jefferson was amended by changing the name to Idaho.

HOUSE.—Mr. Cobb of Alabama withdrew from the House of Representatives.—As he withdrew he implored his friends to do something to refit the country.

Martin F. Conway of Kansas was admitted to the House.

☞ All subscribers to the Weekly Chronicle, who have not paid in advance for 1861, are most respectfully requested to do so as soon as convenient. As to the few whom we have allowed to get in our debt previous to that time, we have nothing to say—but shall "leave them to their own reflections."

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases: and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Colds. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawâm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, men who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 dawâm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of Wistar's Balsam officially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 89 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

DR. SWETT'S

COUGH DROPS,

—FOR—

Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.

☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.

Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:

Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Dr. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."

SAMUEL R. DENNETT.

New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.

Exeter, Feb. 12, 1838.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.

Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.

Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so present at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the sickness, we were obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."

DAVID LANG.

Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.

CHARLES C. RICKER.

Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."

ELIZABETH CURRIER.

Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Exeter, July 20, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."

NANCY F JONES.

Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.

Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.

I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."

Mr. Lemuel Gilbert called upon us yesterday with a communication, called forth by a paragraph, in which it was stated that it was the common talk on the streets that he had discharged the workmen employed in his manufactory in Boston, because they would not vote for Fremont. Mr. Gilbert denies this emphatically, and we are willing to believe it is true. But Mr. Gilbert in answer to a question propounded by him, acknowledged that he voted for Fremont himself, and gave as an excuse that there were no other tickets to vote for, which is so palpably at variance with the truth that it avails him nothing.—Memphis Avalanche.

Before our Massachusetts friends talk much more about mob rule in the South, they will do well to set their own house in order.* If we understand the facts in this case, there is a suspension of freedom of speech in Boston.—Providence Journal.

AYER'S

Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints,

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Swellings, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

Oxford, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. Ayer & Co.—Sir: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it would come out in ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and destroyed me at the stomach. Occasionally it would show itself in my face, and for years my neck and ears with sores, which was painful and troublesome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any. In fact, the disease grew worse. At length I was advised to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla) which would do my case good. On that any thing you made must be good. I tried it. Commenced to get it, and used it till it cured me. I think it, on your advice, to another, who was troubled in the mouth, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My mouth is now entirely well. I know by the feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the benefactors of the race, and express my gratefully. Yours,

ALFRED E. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Wells writes from Schoo, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to be fatal, by the persevering use of your Sarsaparilla, and that Ayer's Ridgeway Dropsicus by large doses, and in time, says he cures the common Dropsy by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Some months of your Sarsaparilla cured my daughter of a dreadful scrofulous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration and Disease.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most powerful alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the characteristic nature. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration which was seen connected with this, my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Morse, of Newbury, Ala., writes: "A daughter of mine came home from Mobile last winter, with what we thought was a confirmed case of Ulceration of the Womb, which had baffled all the remedies we could employ, but at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Her physicians had given her up, saying they could afford relief, but be advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight years no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

New Orleans, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir: I deem it due to you, as the proprietor of your agent, and respect to you some of the cures I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it a very large number of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had suffered with it in his throat, which were consuming his palate and destroying of his mouth. Your sarsaparilla, seemingly taking effect in five weeks, entirely cured him. Not the secondary symptoms in his case, and the mercurial had entered to a considerable part of it, as then I believe the disease would soon terminate in his death. Not it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some deterioration to his health, but with no more than he treated for the same disease in mercury, was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that a change from warm to cold was generating pain in her joints and bones. She too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from the formula, which you have given me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great reality; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not astonished me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Inactivity, Pretter Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful chronic rheumatism for three years, which has at times so lame me that I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me. I have since used it in my family for a liver complaint, and they say it has done them good. I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Mary T. Goddard, of St. Louis, writes: "I have suffered for years with an affection of the liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to give me relief. Your Sarsaparilla, the two last the same years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My friend, Judge Bay, Mr. Gray, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, and I tried it. It was the only thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I am well and hearty. The best that can be said of you is not too good enough."

Schirrous Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy. Our agent here will not admit them. Some of these cures have been published in Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions, when they are torpid, and thus overcomes disease which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the medical profession, and we are happy in the confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the United States, and of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy of their skill and of the victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it can now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Human Blood, or red blood, in all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and nervous derangement, analysis will find it of great utility in clearing the globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and sunken eye, with languor, evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in are to soften the cough, hence the nervous irritation the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a positive cure for all DISEASES of the THROAT, as LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Neuralgia, St. Vitus's Dance, Nervous Headache, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or painful menstruation, whites, irritation of the womb, especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a thing, line or pallor of the face, depression of spirits, nervous irritation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to the fair sex, as it will restore the loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through excessive labor or study, it will be found invaluable. It our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all those of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urinary Organs, &c., it will claim the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A trial will be found the most conclusive proof in regard to the efficacy of the remedy be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in store, we offer the Blood Food to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or otherwise, in particular, and to those, lastly, giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free when desired. We forward Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 per six bottles, for cash; and all cases to be sent but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

DEBILITY,

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common, that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy of its natural state, free from alcoholic admixture, we have, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a nourishing stimulant, when all other fail, we offer our Brandy, as being unadulterated, and as being recommended by the Medical Faculty as a nourishing stimulant, when all other fail. If we invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE.

Or any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we challenge the world to disprove, and which, with its other properties, for infantile diseases, at this time is for the public. We find that throughout the country, and in the Canadas, Brandy has continued of its truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics, giving offensive to the public, and, from their continued administration, being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, giving offensive to the public. Hence in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE.

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, from its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and sickness of the child. We guarantee to you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail in its effects when your child is in need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Sold by DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the editorial order, as well as men of high and unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will prevent the hair from being cut off, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore a head the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to its prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my chaise against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicate to the brain and extend surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of; being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understand the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to try your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had a beautiful head of curly hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall use your remedy in all suitable occasions, however, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,

M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: It is my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. Observing the effects of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew off quite luxuriantly, and he is now a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and adjoining counties, if you will put up proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SEBRINSON.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligation I am under for the more than restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but your invaluable preparation Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very soon valuable invention, quite attractive and efficacious. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and sufficient for one case; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars; the large holds a quart, and twenty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $5 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first choice of infants is one chiefly from a disordered state of the stomach and bowels, and in the conviction we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with great success during a special and extensive practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one that should be in every family. It is a safe medicine ever offered for the public, and is recommended over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Relieving the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES AT TEEMDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Convulsions, Worms, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case where given to children. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

NIGHTLY CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved immediately, as if by magic; and in this disease, as in all other diseases, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering children. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE.

Or any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we challenge the world to disprove, and which, with its other properties, for infantile diseases, at this time is for the public. We find that throughout the country, and in the Canadas, Brandy has continued of its truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics, giving offensive to the public, and, from their continued administration, being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, giving offensive to the public. Hence in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE.

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, from its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and sickness of the child. We guarantee to you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail in its effects when your child is in need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended for Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a short time.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have fallen into a nervous state, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible disease, the Delirium Tremens, Hard Drinkers will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach can receive the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidneys, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the effects of spirituous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the sallow face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles at Twenty Cents.

☞ The South Carolina railroad managers were among the prime movers in the secession affair; but so far from profiting by it, their business has been completely destroyed. The phrase is current that it is "not earning enough to pay the cost of oil for its machinery." The only passengers carried are military, who travel for half fare, and freight now passes up to Wilmington, Norfolk, Baltimore, &c., or down to Savannah. The South Carolina railroad had previously been one of the best paying lines in the country.

☞ The Breckinridge Democratic executive committee, at Washington, find themselves loaded with a balance of debt amounting to $5000, and postmasters and employees of the government refuse to bleed any more, having enough to care for in their own affairs. A circular has therefore been scattered over the country, under the frank of Isaac I. Stevens, chairman, begging "a trifle from each," to lighten the debt, with the promise that these sums, however small, shall be credited to the donors and remembered in the future. Anybody having a pinepence to invest will drop the same into the hat of Frederick A. Aiken, at Washington.

RIDING A HORSE AND RIDING A HOBBY.—Our friend of the Boston Saturday Gazette says truly that there is a deal of sound sense, at times, in the remarks of insane persons. At the South Boston Asylum, a few days since, a patient was asked if he was fond of riding a horseback. "No, sir. I ride a hobby." "There's not much difference between the two," carelessly remarked a gentleman. "Oh yes there is," said the patient, "and it is this. If you ride a horse, you can stop him and get off, but when you mount a hobby you can't get off." There's wisdom for you!

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers will be ready at all times to produce the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available to place and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all the difficulties of the year or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the accession of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of producing gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, so has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily produces about 200 lbs., gives by this process 250 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 15 per cent in the quantity of flour. By conforming to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending the dough, and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt which is medicinally desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle of the flour, and perfectly supplies the place of yeast. Flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; often, in cook and pastry, it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, that the proper use of this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."
HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter or lard the size of an egg; and make the paste thin with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven to one quart of flour, and one gill of molasses; all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
WHITE WEAVER CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a frothy mass for ten minutes.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and half a cup of half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoonful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of raisins, one cup of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix with milk to a stiff batter, and bake.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two cups of sugar, and three eggs well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of six eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to this taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia; strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
is precisely what its name indicates, for, while the former, in the first place, is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, rejuvenates and renews the blood in all its original purity and vigor, thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully compounded as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and have none the smallest shadow of a shade of a shadow of an unpleasant tendency, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly tested for their medicinal worth, both by their curative properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Lassitude, Pain in the Side, and all those of a class, so painfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more ills, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and thus cure disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the secretory functions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon changes of climate or water, and in fact, if a person should take a bottle with them, and all should take a tablespoonful at least before eating. As it promotes the healthy action throughout the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim.—Bitters, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that it is even not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1861.

DR. DEWEY'S VIEWS.

While we see and hear some miserable whining about the evils and follies of political preaching; it is a fact pulpit orators, all over the country, take occasion to speak, directly or indirectly, of the men who live now, as well as of those who perished by the flood in Noah's time; and that preachers, young and old, orthodox and heterodox, take the liberty to give advice on subjects of duty, and express their hopes or fears, as to the events of our own times.

Among those who have spoken recently, Rev. Dr. Dewey, of Boston, preached a sermon on the President's Fast Day, which has been published. The reader will please to take notice of the fact, that Dr. Dewey is a most conservative clergyman, and that he was appointed a chaplain in Mr. Fillmore's time, in consequence, as was supposed, of his approval of the compromise of 1850.

In the sermon now before us, Dr. Dewey shows plainly that the northern people have not changed their views of slavery, since the revolution; but that the leaders at the south have changed their ground entirely. He says:—

In fact, the difficulty and danger that press upon us at this moment consist more in feeling than anything else. The trouble arises from alienation between the North and South;—not from incompatability of interests, but from alienation. The one condemns slavery, the other espouses it; that is the point. We are offended, on moral grounds, with slavery; they are offended at our opinion of it. It is our opinion, our feeling at the North, I frankly say, that has caused all the difficulty. It is our feeling, I say, and not our interest. We have no interest against slavery in the southern States, but for it. It furnishes the staple that has given employment to many of our people, and has greatly advanced our wealth and prosperity. It is in the face of interest, and in spite of it, that the North has given the vote which has so disturbed the South. And on the other hand, it is not any material interest in the South that is assailed by this vote. Still it may be as prosperous as before. It is not even any fear of consequences, so much as a present resentment at this expression of Northern opinion. If we could love slavery, the South would love us; but we cannot, if we would, pay that price for its love, or for union. If, by miracle, the whole Northern opinion about slavery could be suddenly changed, or the southern feeling about that opinion, the difficulty would be settled in a day. It is a feeling at the South that is bidding defiance to all the most obvious dictates of interest.

He then shows that good men in both sections formerly regarded slavery as an evil, to be endured for the present, but removed as soon as might be,—and adds:—

It is sufficient evidence of this, that both North and South joined in passing the ordinance of '87, excluding slavery forever from the northwestern territory.

Think what would be the effect of proposing such an ordinance now? For now, our southern people have left the old ground on which their fathers stood; and they insist, not only that slavery is essentially a good, just and admirable institution, but that we should think of it,—write about,—speak about it, and treat it, as if we thought so too.

This we cannot do; and now I come to speak of the northern feeling. This, we cannot do. Cannot, I say, for it is not a matter of will or of passion, but of judgment and conscience. It is vain to plead this case with us on grounds of interest.—Any interest would we give up; half of our fortunes would we give—multitudes at the North would do it—to free the country from slavery; but it is not a matter of interest. It is in vain to say—"Why will you not concede to the South what it wants, for peace and union? why will you not consent to assume, legitimate, perpetuate, the slave system? Why will you not agree to nurture, foster, spread it?" We cannot. Mr. Webster said that he could not. Mr. Clay said he could not. That is what we all say. We are willing to agree that slavery shall remain undisturbed where it is. It is a slander upon the North to say that it proposes or wishes—i.e., the body of its people—by any legislative act or measure, to interfere between master and slave. Why, the abolitionists themselves have always disclaimed any such intention. They will discuss the system; they will say that it is wrong; they will say perhaps that it ought to be broken up immediately; they will say, very likely, many extravagant and unreasonable things about it; how are we to prevent that so long as speech is free?—but they do not propose to interfere. Let the responsibility for the system remain where it is; all we say is, that we cannot take it.

The present break may be soldered up, as I trust it will be; but this does not compose all the difficulty. There is trouble behind. You see that the South is growing indifferent to all conventions and agreements. It does not care much now, about personal liberty bills, or even about Territories, but is put beside its judgment by a feeling—a feeling of anger and alarm at seeing this great flood of opinion coming down upon it.

Some ten years ago, a speech was delivered in Congress by Mr. Preston of South Carolina, in which he said something amounting to this:—"Tell me not of hostility to our institution, at the North—of abolitionists and abolition societies; these we might cope with: but I tell you the whole civilized world is rising against us." And what was his conclusion? "We must put ourselves upon our defence; we demand new guarantees. Alas! for that conclusion. If the South had been content to stand, where it stood of old, the world would have respected its position. But now it defies all mankind. See what England and France are saying to the South, in the present crisis. "You would tear a fearful realm asunder to obtain the barren right to plant slavery in Nebraska and New Mexico. It is monstrous!" It is monstrous. It is the most terrible insanity that ever possessed any people.

But look, I say, at the history of human opinion on this subject. Vico of Naples said—commonly called the father of the Philosophy of History—"When men first made it a custom reverently to bury the dead, that was a great step in civilization." It was respect for humanity, thus reverently to commit its awful form to the hiding bosom of the earth. This respect has been growing through all ages. Moses taught more of it than had been before known in the world. And although he tolerated slavery, he but tolerated it; and at each fifty year's Jubilee he ordered that every native slave should go free.

Christianity inaugurated a new era of respect, of tenderness and sympathy for man. Slowly its teaching has been understood; but every step in the civilization of christendom has been marked by the advance of that great idea. The progress of civil liberty has been precisely that. Every step from despotism—restricted power of the barons over their serfs, limited monarchy, republicanism,—has proceeded upon this ground of respect for the claims and rights of man—of man I say, not as Lord, Noble or Master, but as man. The Declaration of our own Independence, I need not say, is blazoned over with that one great idea. When the great men of the Revolution signed that declaration, I need not tell you how painfully they felt its incongruity with the slave system. What Washington and Jefferson thought and said of it, I need not tell you. Why, here is our own Daniel Justice Taney, using such language as this. A number of years ago, Mr. Gruber, a clergyman, was indicted in the State of Maryland for preaching a sermon on the evils of slavery. Mr. Taney, as his counsel said:—

"A hard necessity compels us to endure the evils of slavery for a time. It cannot be easily or suddenly removed; yet while it continues it is a blot on our national character, and every real lover of freedom confidently hopes that it will be effectually, though it must be gradually, wiped away, and earnestly looks for the means by which this necessary object may be best obtained. And until it shall be accomplished, until the time shall come when we can point, without a blush, to the language held in the Declaration of Independence, every part of humanity will seek to lighten the galling chain of slavery, and better to the utmost of his power the wretched condition of the slave." * * * And I say it is not mad fanaticism: unless all the world has gone mad on this subject. Man is a being on earth who is conscious of these rights, whether constitutions recognize them or not—"Life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness"—property in himself, are among those rights. He stands alone in this claim. It cannot be abrogated. It will rise higher, as human society rises higher. The Creator made this being in his own image. God has breathed into him the breath of his own spirit. He belongs of right to himself. It is a solemn prerogative. Besides he is my brother. He stands upon parity of natural right with me. And no superiority in power or intellect, though it were an angel's can entitle any being to make me his slave. I am saying what I say in the simplest words I can use; without heat or passion. The thing speaks strongly enough for itself. But if it did not, all the world is speaking for it. What means all high literature and art—all poetry, painting, music, but this? Upon what else is it mainly concentrated, but the illustration of this humanity? And to take the beings who possess this humanity, and buy and sell them, is not, I simply say, and never can be, agreeable to the moral sense of mankind. As an honorable and high-minded planter said to me one day when we were passing near a slave market: "This is the painful part of our system."

LOUISIANA.—The following is an extract from a private letter, dated Jan. 11, just received by a merchant in Boston, from an extensive sugar planter in Louisiana:

We are all going to the Devil as fast as possible. If Old Buck has not the nerve, I hope Old Abe will have, to put down secession. I consider this country lost and ruined. Our property is valueless. No money—no price for our little crops. I see nothing but ruin for the future. Had Old Buck had the nerve of a Jackson, and sent a fleet to Charleston in the first instance, all would have been well.

☞ An Anti-Slavery Convention was broken up at Syracuse, N. Y., on the 29th. Union meetings in favor of Crittenden's compromise, were held in Portland, Me., and in New York city on the same day. Nobody disturbed those.

☞ Since the secession movement the bonds of Louisiana have declined from 95 a 100 to 80, with no buyers at the latter figure; and Georgia sixes, always rated higher than any other southern securities, have fallen from 102 to 75, which is the best bid that has been offered of late.

☞ John Keagy, a native of Lancaster Co., Pa., died at Toronto a few days ago, aged ninety-nine years, nine months and four days. He emigrated to Canada in 1800. His overland journey was through a trackless wilderness, occupying months, and attended with great labor and peril.

☞ The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania voted in favor of sending commissioners to Washington. The Legislature of Ohio, and Tennessee, have voted to send commissioners to Washington.

☞ The grand jury at Washington has found indictments against Bailey, Russell and Secretary Floyd, for a conspiracy to defraud the government.

☞ In New York, the Grand Jury in the Court of Sessions presented Mayor Wood's recent message as a seditious document.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Jan. 28, 1861.

The Boston committee, with its immense petition, which was entrusted to the care of Mr. Rice, filed into the Diplomatic Gallery yesterday noon, led off by Mr. Everett.—Mr. Winthrop came next, then Charles Levi Woodbury, Tobey and Lawrence. After a while Mr. Rice succeeded in being recognized by the Chair, and presented the petition. It was sent up to the Speaker's desk, wrapped in an American flag, laid on the table and ordered to be printed. Some opposition was made to its being printed, but the Speaker declared that he did not hear the objection until the order had been recorded. So the modest little document will go into type.

The mission of the Boston committee is everywhere ridiculed. The absurdity of all these resolutions by caucuses, conventions, or State legislatures, of petitions and prayers asking that "something shall be done," ought to be manifest by this time. There is not a leading Southern man in the Capital, who will admit, in conversation, even a thought of any service to be rendered by concession or compromise. This public bluster about "Union" is all for buncombe. The South supposes that she would be safer out of the Union. She wants to go out and stay out. On the whole, I think she had better have an opportunity to try the experiment. The South is bound to have its Southern confederacy, and will be officered as such within three months. It very much desires the possession of this District. But it cannot be accommodated in this respect. The prospect of a fight over the immense bone known as the District of Columbia, is perhaps more imminent than you imagine.—Grow was right, yesterday, when he introduced a resolution of inquiry upon this subject. I am prepared to witness an attack upon the Capital on the 4th, or on the night of the 3d.

But no aggressive party can by any possibility capture a single public building, or hold it for a single hour. Could a hostile army take Portsmouth, think you, after giving the inhabitants six weeks' notice? No! New Hampshire's sons, from her mountain passes to the sea, would rush to the defence of old Portsmouth, and cover every square foot of her territory, from the Greenland line to Portsmouth Bridge, with armed men. So with this District, and its 22,000 inhabitants. They will fight for their property and their hearth-stones to the death.

I have inquired of the authorities if volunteer troops from New Hampshire would be needed or accepted to assist in the defence of the Capital. I am assured that New York will furnish 100,000 soldiers, if desired, Pennsylvania 50,000,—and other States less remote than our own, all that may be needed under any emergency.—Troops from the Granite State, therefore, will not be required.

But the Capital must and will be defended; that fact established we are safe. The government will go on, and the South may take her own time for action. The revenue must be collected, though it is by no means worth the trouble, and never began to pay the expense of collecting in the Southern States. If, as is hourly expected, an attempt is made by the Alabama troops to take Fort Pickens, there cannot fail to be bloodshed, and at any rate this question is not to be settled without blood. Then the issue will come, whether or not our government is strong enough to protect itself from internal enemies, with the same ability it has ever manifested in repelling foes from abroad. That the South must be essentially whipped is evident.

The idea of attempting to patch this thing up, this weakly bridge over the imaginary gulf, with the plank of compromise, is as absurd a proposition as can possibly be conceived. It comes from the weak-kneed politicians primarily, and is caught up by border-state Republicans, who are anxious to take some action satisfactory to their constituents.

But the true Southern spirit is utterly opposed to compromise; will accept none, will listen to none. The only enjoyment or satisfaction which they find in the various plans of adjustment presented on bended knee by humble dirt-eaters, is the satisfaction of spurning all tenders of compromise, and of laughing to scorn all attempts to conciliate them.

The fact is, Toombs, Jeff. Davis and other leaders know that their political doom is sealed; they know that the strides of humanity are too rapid and gigantic to give them any hope of the Presidency of the United States; but as they want just such a place as this, they secede to gain it. May they be happy in its possession.

But the North must be united, and will be ultimately, so far as this issue is concerned. If it knows its interests, it will deprecate a compromise which must be valueless, which must be rejected. It will not refuse to precipitate the war, if war must be precipitated by lawful action, by a constitutional discharge of duty. If the inauguration of a President constitutionally elected after a battle in which all sections participated, is to bring on a war, let it not be looked upon in the light of a terrible calamity. If to collect the revenue of the country be cause for war, "let loose the dogs" at once. My own feelings, after examining the subject long and carefully, are opposed to concessions which will only prolong this quarrel. Let the battle come, and let the Republican party of New Hampshire stand firmly opposed to concession and humiliation in this hour of just and constitutional triumph. F.P.

HOTEL THIEF CHASED AND CAUGHT. William Gale, describing himself as a liquor merchant from Boston, who has for some time past been boarding at the Stevens House, in Broadway, New York, was arrested on Tuesday night, on a charge of larceny. On his person were found a number of burglar's implements and false keys. Robert P. Walker, upon going up to his chamber, found it fastened and heard some one moving about in it. He remained near the door until Gale came out, and rushed by, and then gave chase and stopped him at the hotel steps.—Boston Courier.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 31.—The Legislature has re-elected Mr. Clingman Senator to Congress. A resolution is under consideration declaring that, in case sectional difficulties are not speedily reconciled by the North, North Carolina will go with South Carolina. The military bill comes up next.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribune asserts positively that dispatches were sent to Pensacola yesterday, saying that Fort Pickens must be stormed, as it is the only way to precipitate Virginia into secession.

At a meeting of the delegates of the border States, Mr. Dodge of N. Y. told them that Crittenden's compromise must be abandoned for some more practicable scheme, as the Republicans will not accept it.

The Times' correspondent says it is unthat the first movement of the board of commissioners of States, which meets on Monday, will be to consider the propositions of Virginia for the withdrawal of federal troops from the capital, guaranteeing that there will be no hostile demonstrations.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 1.—The Committee on Resolutions in the Democratic Convention to-day will make a report opposing coercion and in favor of Crittenden's compromise.

About a year since William Gleason, a young man in the employment of Mr. McCann, a butcher doing business in Brooklyn, N. Y., decamped, taking with him $106 belonging to his employer. He went to Savannah, Ga., where he remained until the secession excitement began, when he received notice to join the army in defence of the State. William liked secession well enough in the abstract, but he had a decided aversion to the smell of gunpowder. So he started for the North as soon as possible; arrived at Brooklyn a few days since, and was arrested on Tuesday by Capt. McCluer of the police.—Boston Courier.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared in a form pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from the Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are perfectly regulable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent. One dollar and six cents in stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov25-dawâm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Colds—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with the Balsam at a time when I was very cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and effectual cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

24 MARKET STREET.....J. C. CARR.

WHO SAW THE STEER?—The richest thing of the season, if we except some of the follies of secession, says the Newburyport Herald, came off the other day in the neighborhood of the market. The greenest Jonathan imaginable, decked out in a slouched hat, a long blue frock, and a pair of cowhide shoes, big as gondolas, with a huge whip under his arm, stalked into a billiard saloon, where half a dozen persons were improving the time in trundling round the ivories,—and after recovering from his first surprise at the to him singular aspect of the room, inquired if "ny of 'em had seen a stray steer," affirming that "the blasted critter got away as he came through town with his drove t'other day, and he hadn't seen nothin' on him since." The bloods denied all knowledge of the animal in question, and with much sly winking at each other, proceeded to condole with him on his loss in the most heartfelt manner.—He watched the game with much interest, as he had evidently never seen nor heard of anything of the kind before, and created much amusement by his demonstrations of applause when a good shot was made—"Jerusalem!" being a favorite interjection. At last he made bold to request the privilege of trying his skill, when he set the crowd in a roar by his awkward movements. However he gradually got his hand in, and played as well as could be expected for a greenhorn. All hands now began to praise him, which so elated him that he actually began to think himself a second Phelan, and he offered to bet a dollar with his opponent, which of course he lost. The loss and the laugh so irritated him that he offered to play another game and bet two dollars, which he pulled out of a big roll—for it seems his cattle had sold well, and he was quite flush. This bet he also lost, as the fool might have known he would, when, mad as a March hare, he pulled out a fifty spot, the largest bill he had, and offered to bet that on another game. The crowd mustered round and raised money enough to cover it, and at it they went again, when by some strange turn the fifty greeny won. He now offered to put up the hundred he had won against another hundred. Of course he could not blunder into another game, so they could now win back what they had lost and fleece the fellow of his own roll besides. They sent out for a famous player, who happened to have money enough to bet with, and another game was played, which Jonathan also won. Another hundred was also raised and bet and won; and it was not until he had blundered through half a dozen games, and by some unaccountable run of luck won them all, draining the pockets of his opponents of about four hundred dollars, that they began to smell a very large "mice." When everybody got tired of playing, gawky pulled his frock on over his head, took his whip under his arm, and walked quietly out, turning round at the door, and remarking, "Gentlemen, if you should happen to see anything of that steer, I wish you'd just let me know." At last accounts they had not seen the steer, but they came to the conclusion that they saw the elephant.

☞ The Joint Committee of the New York Legislature have resolved to report in favor of sending five commissioners to Washington provided the non-slaveholding States are represented there. The commissioners will be instructed to take no action on any compromise without the approval of the Legislature. A United States Senator will be elected on the 5th of February.

BEWARE OF AN IMPOSTER.—For the past few days a woman has been soliciting aid from door to door in Newburyport, and has, she says, already obtained fourteen dollars from the persons to whom she has applied. She represents herself as recently left a widow with five children, dependent on a small farm which will pass away from them unless a certain sum is paid at a specified time. She is a Scotch woman, stout and ruddy, dressed in a red woolen hood, and otherwise comfortably clothed. Many of her statements have been proved to be false, and it is believed she is intemperate in her habits. There are many deserving poor among us, but the aid given to a person of this character is encouragement to vice.—Herald.

COERCION.—It is stated that after the Alabama secession convention had refused to submit their action to popular vote, a very exciting scene ensued. Hon. Nicholas Davis of Huntsville, declared that Northern Alabama would never abide by the action of the convention, if denied the right of voting on it. Mr Yancey thereupon denounced the people of North Alabama as tories, traitors and rebels, and said they ought to be coerced into submission to the decree of the convention. Mr. Davis replied that they might attempt coercion, but North Alabama would meet them upon the line and decide the issue at the point of the bayonet.

PEOPLE'S PLAN OF COMPROMISE.—Purchase all slaves of States which have not and which shall not secede. This will cost less than a civil war, and save bloodshed. After this arrangement, alter the constitution so as to prohibit slavery in the United States. Let seceding States take the consequences of this movement. If they are out of the Union effectually, it will not injure them.—Atlas.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says Mr. Hayne expects to leave on Saturday, with the President's refusal to accept of South Carolin's propositions.

How little we know of life; of its mingled joys and sorrows; of its bitter disappointments and unexpected pleasures; what we anticipate as a day of unsullied happiness may prove a day of unmixed sorrow; and the dreaded hour of affliction which may seem impending over us, threatening to blast all our hopes, may be supplanted by a happy era, lighting our pathway, and cheering us on through a weary warfare.

Sidney Smith said "the great objects of government are roast mutton, potatoes, an honest justice, a stout constable and a clear highway."

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 31.—In the Convention to-day a resolution with regard to the expediency of sending reinforcements to assist in taking Fort Pickens was laid on the table, subject to be called up again. A resolution was passed asking the Military Committee to report progress. A resolution to have the ordinance of secession, as signed, engraved and lithographed, was adopted.

Resolutions were offered instructing the delegates to the Montgomery convention to resist any attempt to re-open the African slave trade. Tabled, 83 against 28. A resolution was passed that this is not the sense of the convention on the subject, but that it did not think it proper to hamper the delegates with instructions. There was much excited debate. George Williamson, a member of the convention, was appointed commissioner to Texas, whose convention meets on Monday.

THE EXTRADITION CASE.—Toronto, Ca., Jan. 31.—There is much feeling here at the action of the British government in the extradition case. The Leader, the government organ, says it is an unprecedented interference with the rights of a free people, and Canada will not surrender her rights in obedience to a writ of an English Court.

SECRETARY BLACK'S DECISION.—It appears from official sources that representations concerning the troubles of foreign vessels in Charleston harbor, have been made to the government by the British, Spanish and Bremen Ministers. Secretary Black's reply is to the effect that the President would deeply regret that any injury should happen to the commerce of foreign friendly nations, and especially that British subjects at Charleston should suffer by the anomalous state of things existing there. He quotes from the law to show that it is within the jurisdiction of the Federal Government to collect duties on imports exclusively, and whether the existing state of things at Charleston will or will not be regarded as sufficient reason for not executing the penalties incurred by British subjects, is a question which Lord Lyons will see there is no necessity of raising until it practically arises. Each case will no doubt have its peculiarities. Mr. Black regrets that this consideration compels him to decline giving any assurance on the point presented. The Treasury Department will give public information of the condition in which South Carolina has put the coast.

☞ Great excitement was occasioned at Danbury, Ct., the other day, by a reliable ryport that a prominent Republican firm had shipped several cargoes of "materials for balls," to the secessionists. The excitement took a different turn, on learning that the "material was codfish.

☞ Mr. Buchanan had a very large reception on Tuesday night. The Boston Committee were present, and most of the foreign legations. Not a single Southern member or senator was present.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., procured me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

DR. SWETT'S

COUGH DROPS,

—FOR—

Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.

☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.

Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:

Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."

SAMUEL R. DENNETT.

New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.

Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.

Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Pauacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.

Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."

DAVID LANG.

Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.

CHARLES C. RICKER.

Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore world sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge." ELIZABETH CURRIER.

Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Rd. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."

NANCY F JONES.

Canaan, Aug. 29, 1859.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.

Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.

I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."

A POSSIBLE BACK OUT.—The Charleston correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:—

There seems to be a feeling growing here in regard to the possibility of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Florida being enticed back to the Union; but South Carolina, it is said here, cannot be enticed back. Yet this admission of the possibility of an attempt of enticing her back being entertainable shows that the Palmetto State is not yet altogether past reconciliation.

It is much to be hoped nobody will entice any of them away from the paths of virtue and prosperity, flowered on each side by slavery,—into the filthy and dangerous paths of freedom, where majorities rule, and every man has to work for a living.

☞ The man Thompson, who was not long since sentenced to twenty-one years hard labor in the Louisania State Penitentiary, for using incendiary language in presence of slaves, will soon be taken to Baton Rouge, La.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be warded by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the functions on which it depends be regulated, and restored to health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the abominable humors which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and disturbs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While this condition, engendered by the derangements, takes Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and how quickly return the feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the desperate and dangerous diseases to which the same purgative effect exerts them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and surely cured by the same means. Hence, those who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever cured with a purgative medicine. The wonderful dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and I believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course take them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1858.

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PRESLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find the beneficial effects upon the liver very marked indeed. I find, in fact, that they are the most efficacious of the cures of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length an aperient pill which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is speedy and certain, and consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. C. Green, of Chicago, Ill.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy in the bowel complaints so prevalent here, which yield to them readily.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in Boston. To regulate the bowels, cleanse the system and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the blood. I do not know of a better.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Madison, Georgia.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should be more generous in giving it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent preventives of the natural sorrow when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to strengthen the stomach and expel worms. They are as much the best physic we have that I recommend to other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PLANTERS' HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 4, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which settled in the sciatic nerve. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Charleston, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been sorely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health, while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules, accompanies all diseases of debility. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of the elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery takes rank of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energies, enrich the blood by restoring the healthy red globules, increase the appetite, remove the color, and clothe the cheek with the glow of health. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT and LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Chronic Cough, Tubercle, Night Sweats, Croup, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In the cases of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those interesting

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., it produces a marked and instantaneous effect, followed with paleness, a clear hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation and a train of nervous symptoms, indicating a prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a want of the elements of health, and whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through excess, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to make the fact of its preparation known. A faithful trial will be found the most satisfactory proof in regard to its efficacy; that could be asked for. With these and hundreds and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the public, feeling that it will be found well adapted as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving full particulars of this remedy be found, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free when desired. Wrappered with Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canada, upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle. Six for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that have our facsimile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention its Genuine characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskey.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for use with great care, it can be relied upon as a pure article for medicinal purposes, and specially adapted for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervous Debility, etc.

As a stimulant it has a tendency to restore the vital energies, while age is its best recommendation in the opinion of many of the medical faculty, and it affords a pleasant beverage for the prevention or recovery of health, through the invigoration of the system, when used judiciously.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in boxes containing one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this country. I know and recommend it for all cases of erysipelas, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling off to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated, to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed, at about the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a prey to my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not little, in its behalf.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; and after using two or three bottles of your Hair Restorative, which he filled very liberally, and after using two or three bottles of his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bedford, and he is very well known in Jefferson and adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

THOMPSON SURGENOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color: about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your valuable preparation it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small hold half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle or the equivalent of three for per cent, the medium in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3 per bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent parent, that the first disease of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection we have it in our power to offer the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL.

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We have it in our power to offer this valuable remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind, in particularly recommended.

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at the period of infantile life, when your tender hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Allaying Pain. FOR DISEASES AT TENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Convulsions, Cholic, and Fever, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS.

From which so many infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved immediately, as if by magic; and in the dread complaint, known as the infantile cholic, so fatal it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of an other preparation of the infantile disease, at least for the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of the truth, and of the blessings of a medicine, which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies made combined with benbane, being insinuated followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL all fears from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities and paralyzing the intellect, but retains its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pal and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend it, therefore, to the attention of parents, but let the, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure in most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

Dyspepsia Remedy

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Headache, Cold Pains, Pain in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Costiveness, Want of Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

Persons whose systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating effects of this Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidneys, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities, bring the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will prove an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

A FIRST RATE NOTICE.—The Washington Correspondent of the Boston Courier, speaks thus scornfully of the Union saving schemers in Boston:—

What a blunder, in the getters-up of the Boston memorial, it was to omit to commend to Congress some particular scheme of adjustment, instead of general recommendation. The result is, that the memorial is of no possible consequence here. It proves nothing, it says nothing. It is the weakest kind of a weak bread pill. It can do no more towards allaying the existing discontents of the South, than a pint of cold water could accomplish in putting out the flames which had enwrapped in their burning arms one half of State street.—* * * There is no statemanship, at this crisis, in dealing in pleasing generalities or displeasing specialities. Leave that to amiable females in sewing societies. The upshot of it all is that your memorial is good for nothing, per se, and amounts to nothing, because there is nothing in it.—Can you not start another, which has some meaning? Put a little backbone, a little iron into it. I tell you, frankly, that I don't believe anything will be done to keep all the slave States from going out of the Union before the fourth of March next. If anything can keep the tobacco States in it is the Crittenden scheme of adjustment; nothing else can or will. Rely upon it, I am correct; and if you doubt me, refer to this letter on Monday morning, the fourth day of March next. Virginia is now the key to the tobacco States. If she remains in the Union, all will be safe; if she goes out, all is lost. * * * And when Virginia and Maryland are out of the Union, will Mr. Lincoln cross their territory to take charge of a government which is to coerce them back into the Union. The man is a fool who thinks the thing is possible.

The Crittenden Compromise, as enlarged by Mr. Breckinridge, amounts to this: Give slavery all it asks now; promise to give it all it may ask next year, in buying, stealing or conquering lands for slavery, whether in Mexico or Cuba; agree to let it rule, in spite of majorities,—and then perhaps Virginia may stay in the Union, and Florida and Carolina may come back,—provided however, they may go again whenever they choose.

Perhaps the majority may vote to do all this:—and then the minority perhaps may spurn the offer and the men who make it, or rather who adopt it.

The Atlas says:—

This correspondent, unfortunately, did not understand the difficulties attending the getting up and signing of such a memorial; the object was to have something general, so that a large number of signatures could be obtained at the shortest notice, and in that way produce an effect.

THE SOUTH DEPENDENT.—The following article from the Lynchburg Virginian, eight years ago, sets forth in a strong light, the dependence of the South upon other portions of the world for articles of the first importance:—

Dependent upon Europe and the North for almost every yard of cloth and every coat and boot and hat we wear; for our axes, scythes, tubs and buckets,—in short, for everything except our bread and meat! It must occur to the South, that if our relations with the North should ever be severed—and how soon that may be none can know—(may God avert it long!)—we would, in all the South, not be able to clothe ourselves. We could not fell our forests, plough our fields, nor mow our meadows.—In fact, we would be reduced to a state more abject than we are willing to look at, even prospectively. And yet, with all these things staring us in the face, we shut our eyes and rush on blindfold.

This is one view; another is, that we are mutually dependent.—And however separated, politically,—we shall wish for and will certainly procure and enjoy one another's productions. We revolted from Great Britain seventy or eighty years ago, but we buy and sell across the water,—and with Canada we trade every day.

Two London cockneys, being amongst the heather in Scotland, thought they would make a little fun of a shepherd on the top of a hill. "You have a fine view here: You can see a great way." "Ou aye, ou aye, a ferry great way." "Ah! you can see America from here?" "Farrar than that," said the shepherd. "Ah! how is that?" "Ou, juist wait till the mist gangs away an' you'll see the mune."

☞ The dykes in Holland were broken in various places, January 8 and 9, sweeping away the houses of thousands of unfortunate creatures, who are wandering, cold, hungry and homeless, upon the dykes.

☞ The Memphis Enquirer says that that city is infested with thieves and burglars, and scarcely a night passes that robberies are not committed. Their depredations are very serious.

Prentice thinks sewing girls cannot be expected to compete with sewing machines, for they haven't such iron constitutions.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nutty, nut taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea, in all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine matter is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs. gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable ingredient in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of mixing."
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860.
HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, pastry, puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water; milk is preferable; make stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCK WHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one cup then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolk of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; rub all sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of leaven, sifted together; one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and one pound of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of four, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to thh taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous system after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR.
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have experienced the debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of ills so decidedly fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, rousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will inhibitly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, the most powerful tonic for literary men. And all ladies not usetmed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable pleasant and efficient remedy against those ills which robs them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so wrapped up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to such we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1861.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Jan. 30.

We are being favored with some right able speeches in the House now-a-days. Harris of Maryland yesterday delivered one of the finest orations which I have ever listened to. It was opposed to secession, which it characterized as rebellion, and appealed strongly in behalf of the Union. But it uttered the old absurdity, "Let Congress do something!" It's so easy to say this; so infinitely easier than to actually do that "something" alluded to, or to produce any effect unless the "something" done is of a nature to humiliate the earnest Union men of the North. It is time that this kind of talk was suppressed, by legislation, if need be.

Pryor's speech, on Monday, was a labored production. The fact could not be disguised that it had first been carefully written out, and afterwards committed to memory. It was a polished rhetorical effort, but attracted no attention whatever from the members, during its delivery. The galleries listened with attention. The only fault in its delivery, and that a very serious one, was the monotonous inflection peculiar to a religious exhortation. Pryor looks young, scarcely more than thirty, I judge; he has long, dark hair, which he adjusts behind the ears. He looks small in stature, is neat in attire and quiet in manner, presenting the appearance of anything rather than a fighting man. In fact, I learn that his fighting proclivities have materially diminished since the spectacle of a huge bowie-knife in the hands of the stalwart Potter of Wisconsin was presented to his astonished imagination. That was a shrewd movement in Potter, and a valuable thing for the country. Its effect has been to make a gentle man of one who was before belligerent and troublesome. The testimony of Congressmen is that the whole nature of the man is apparently changed.

You remember how it was: Pryor was dissatisfied with a remark in Potter's speech, which remark was not, however, one personally offensive to himself. He took the liberty to erase it from the Globe report. Potter would not submit to this trespass upon his rights, and was so justly severe upon Pryor's conduct that the latter sent him a challenge. Potter accepted, and selected bowie-knives as the little implements with which to settle the dispute. Pryor incontinently backed down. After Potter returned to Wisconsin a huge bowie-knife, seven feet long, weighing thirty-eight pounds, reached him by express. It was inscribed, "To Hon. John S. Potter of Wisconsin.—From the Republicans of Wisconsin. On the reverse, "He will never fail to meet a Pryor engagement."

I have said that Pryor looks small in stature. There is something singular about this. You would take him for a man five feet seven inches tall, and weighing one hundred and forty pounds. And yet I am surprised to learn that he is six feet high, and weighs 175 lbs. I cannot understand the phenomenon, yet the fact is as stated. Potter is five feet nine inches, and a splendid-looking man. I find him one of the most genial and well-informed members whose acquaintance I have made. He is very popular, has splendid abilities, and is perhaps as famous for what they here term "back bone," as for any thing else.

A member who has not the "spinal column" pretty well developed, soon loses caste here. New Hampshire, I am happy to say, is looked up to in this respect. It is considered safe at all times for Republicans to vote with our delegation in either branch. It is a satisfaction to hail from a State having such representatives. Their character and standing is a virtual endorsement of the character of their constituents.

Colfax of Indiana is perhaps the hardest worker in the House. It is quite a pleasure to observe with what a pertinacity he presses forward the business of his Post-Office Committee. Members say that he never fails to get the floor when he desires it, even though it be sought for by twenty others at the same moment. He is evidently a favorite with the Speaker, and popular with all. He has a very energetic manner, and is the most rapid speaker in Congress. The most crabbed facts are rendered interesting by his earnest, honest, and pleasing manner of presenting them. It is singular to observe that he rarely fails to impress the House with the accuracy of his positions, or to carry his points. If he cannot do the thing honestly, however, he suffers it to fail. He rarely attempts to succeed by the old and absurd method of parliamentary scheming. His opponents use this engine maliciously, but they are usually few. Everybody says that Colfax ought to be Postmaster General. He is in every way qualified for the position, besides being free from pledges as to policy, or promises as to the distribution of patronage. He has not asked for the place, but some seventy members signed and forwarded to Mr. Lincoln a request for his appointment, the other day.—The application will be unsuccessful. The Cabinet slate is nearly filled, and the worthy, hard-working, high-minded, talented Colfax is left out. The hope is now that Cassius M. Clay will be made Secretary of War. This appointment will be entirely satisfactory to the border States. They prefer a man who lives among them, to an extreme Northerner. All that exists of conservatism in the mind of Clay is induced by his connection with the land of his birth. I told him last night that I could not bring my mind to favor concession. He replied that such would be his feeling if he was a Northern man.

Cookling, of the Utica, N. Y., district is concluding a strong speech, in which he says that he will favor no compromise with traitors until the little matter of the insult to our flag is properly adjusted. He has been repeatedly interrupted by Southern members.

A message from the President has just been received, stating that he has signed the bill for the admission of Kansas. Hon. Martin F. Conway, who for eighteen months has been awaiting this act, in order to take the seat to which he was so long ago elected, has at last been sworn in. His term is nearly expired, but he will doubtless be reelected in April; at any rate he ought to be, for he is a most worthy gentleman, and would have made a handsome Congressional record had his State been earlier admitted.

Mr. Cookling has now concluded his eloquent remarks. Toward the close he spoke as follows in allusion to those who had added to the history of the country its last black page:—

"I believe in preserving the Constitution as it is, and obeying it as it is, even to its uttermost. If degenerate Americans shall hawk at and tear it, freedom will furnish a Gibbon, or better still, a Dante, to immortalize the crime; some limner with infernal pencil to group the assassins in a picture horrid with resemblance, and hang it up to sicken and affright the gaze of those who shall breathe tread the corridors of time."

This, from the manner of its delivery as well as the matter of the remark, brought down the House in a hearty round of applause. F. F.

☞ It is useless for the Republican and Democratic parties to accuse each other of being the cause of Southern secession. At the Charleston Convention, the southern delegates insisted upon inserting in their platform the right to extend slavery over the free territories of the United States.—From that position the Democratic delegates seceded. Had they adopted it, and by a union with the South, elected Mr. Breckinridge President, no slave State would have seceded.

Had the Republican party, instead of obstinately exercising the right of suffrage and voting for a supporter of free institutions, joined hands with the Southern rulers and elected an advocate of slavery, no slave State would have seceded.

If either party ought to be accountable for the secession of slave States, the question is, if either, which party is most in fault? Q.

☞ A petition was recently presented to the Minnesota Legislature from twenty or thirty SIOUX Indians, asking the rights of citizenship. They stated that they had adopted a number of customs in vogue among the whites, such as wearing pantaloons, living in houses, using knives and forks, being content with the possession and control of one wife, being willing to earn their bread "by the sweat of their brows," total abstinence from intoxicating liquors, regular attendance upon "stated preaching," &c.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The first movement in the Board of Commissioners from the States, to meet here on Monday next, will be the proposition of Virginia for the withdrawal of the federal troops from the capital, the States guaranteeing that there shall be no hostile demonstration affecting the peace of the capital.

[We remember an old fable: the wolves and the sheep were about to make a treaty of peace: and the wolves very kindly proposed that the sheep should send away the shepherd's dog, lest he might quarrel with the wolves, and so break the peace.]

VERY BONNY.—On the first introduction of Tractarianism into Scotland, the full choir service had been established in an Episcopal church, where a noble family had adopted those views, and carried them out regardless of expense. The lady who had been instrumental in getting up these musical services, was very anxious that a favorite female servant of the family—a Presbyterian of the old school—should have an opportunity of hearing them; accordingly, she very kindly took her down to church in the carriage, and on returning asked her what she thought of the music, etc. "Ou, it's varra bonny, varra bonny: but oh my lady, it's an awfu' way of spending the Sabbath." The good woman could only look upon the whole thing as a musical performance.—Reminiscences of Scottish Life.

COMMISSIONERS TO WASHINGTON.—Concord, N. H., Feb. 1.—Gov. Goodwin has appointed Hon. Amos Tuck, Hon. Asa Fowler and Hon. Levi Chamberlain, commissioners to the convention at Washington, on the 4th of February. They will arrive in Washington on Sunday.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, Friday, Mr. Simmons, of Rhode Island, reported the tariff bill, with amendments. It was specially assigned for Wednesday next. The Diplomatic, and the Executive and Judicial appropriation bills were passed.

In the House there was some discussion respecting the legality of the election of Mr. Conway, the representative from Kansas. Mr. Sherman reported a bill authorizing the Government to borrow $25,000,000 before the first of July next. Mr. Kellogg, of Illinois, offered a series of amendments to the Constitution, relating to the institution of slavery. Messrs. Hamilton of Texas, and Stokes of Tennessee, made strong Union speeches.

☞ One paper having taken the side of the secessionists, pronouncing their demands very reasonable, &c. — the Manchester American says:—

It is time to speak out plainly. We wish to ask the Republicans of this city if this was the kind of entertainment to which they were invited, when they peaceably deposited their ballots at the polls for President, namely: That if their opponents triumphed, they were quietly to submit, as in duty bound: but in case they themselves were successful, they were ignobly to give up their power and their principles, upon the call of such political dastards, who openly threaten, in case of their refusal, to join fortunes with villains and defend them in their attempts to overthrow the Government and the Constitution!

AFTER DINNER.—Nothing can more powerfully illustrate the deep-rooted character of intemperate habits in families than an anecdote which was related to me as coming from the late Mr. Mackenzie, author of the "Man of Feeling." He had been involved in a regular drinking party. He was keeping as free from the usual excesses as he was able, and as he marked companions around him falling victims to the power of drink, he himself dropped off under the table among the slain, as a measure of precaution; and lying there, his attention was called to a small pair of hands working at his throat. On asking what it was, a voice replied. "Sir, I'm the lad that's to loosen the neckcloths." Here then was, a family, where, on drinking occasions, it was the appointed duty of one of the house-hold to attend, and, when the guests were becoming helpless, to untie their cravats in fear of apoplexy or suffocation.—Reminiscences of Scottish Life.

HOW MUCH WHISKEY TO A "GANG" OF WATER?—The following anecdote is a fair example of Scottish servant humor and acuteness in suggesting the extent of consumption by a convivial party in Forfarshire: The party had met at a farmer's house, not far from Arbroath, to celebrate the reconciliation of two neighboring farmers, who had long been at enmity. The host was pressing and hospitable; the party sat late, and consumed a glorious quantity of whiskey toddy. The wife was penurious, and grudged the outlay. When at last, at a morning hour, the party dispersed, the lady, who had not slept in her anxiety, looked over the stairs and eagerly asked the servant girl, "How many bottles of whiskey have they used, Betty?" The lass, who had not to pay for the whiskey, but had been obliged to go to the well to fetch the water for the toddy, coolly answered, "I dinna ken, mem, but they've drunken sax gang o' water."—Boston Courier.

BRING UP YOUR CHILDREN TO DO SOMETHING.—A great aim in family discipline should be to provide for each of the juveniles some line of pursuit which will give them a sense of their usefulness and necessity to the household. This feeling, properly instilled into their minds, will make them members of society valuable to others and happy in themselves. The Creator, who makes nothing in vain, does not in vain send human beings into the world, if only they would find their places and fill them. Idle men and women are the bane of any community. They are not simply clogs upon society, but become, sooner or later, the causes of its crime and poverty, its folly and extravagance. In plain old English, every family motto should read: "Be somebody. Do something. Bear your own load."—Phil. North American.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—[Washington correspondence.]—Lt. Jewett, formerly of U. S. steamer Crusader, but temporarily of the Wyandotte, has arrived. He was a prisoner at Pensacola, but was released upon his parole not to bear arms against Florida. A passport was furnished him, and he proceeded to New Orleans in the hope of being able to join his vessel, where he was threatened by Collector Hatch with arrest unless he departed speedily. Mr. Jewett does not consider his parole binding, if the Department orders him back to the Gulf.

Gen. Scott thinks Washington is safe now.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1.—The U. S. Mint and Custom House were quietly taken yesterday, and the officials to-day took the oaths of office under the ordinance of secession.

☞ Mrs. Mercy Knight, of Aroostook county, Me., 86 years old, has the past season spun three skeins of yarn per day, and knit over forty pairs of stockings and mittens, since haying.

☞ An Irishman recently died in Newburyport of delirium tremens, who is reported to have drank sixteen glasses of liquor on the day of his death. He had the glory of dying like Alexander the Great, as the fool dieth.

☞ The Farmer Will Case is now on trial at the Supreme Judicial Court, Exeter, and will probably occupy the whole of this week.

☞ Edward Berry and wife recovered $1000 in Maine a few days since for injuries from defect of a highway.

☞ It is now fixed that the President elect will leave Springfield for the capital on Monday, the 11th inst. He will make a stay of one day in the capital of Indiana, and proceed thence to Columbus, Ohio, via Dayton, and perhaps via Cincinnati. At Columbus he will tarry but a few hours, and go thence to Cleveland and Buffalo.—At Buffalo he will take the New York Central Railroad for Albany, where he intends to spend another day. From the capital of New York he intends to go direct to Harrisburg, Pa., thence to Washington via Baltimore. It is possible that the invitation of the Massachusetts Legislature may influence Mr. Lincoln so far as to induce him to visit Boston, in which case he would proceed to Washington through New York and Philadelphia. The original intention is to complete the entire trip in eleven days. Military escorts will not, in any case, be accepted. Mrs. Lincoln and family will follow in a few days, by the most direct route to Washington. So says the Boston Courier.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Two companies of Artillery arrived here to day. About 600 federal troops are now here.

Horatio King has been appointed Postmaster General.

Col. Hayne has received dispatches from Governor Pickens, and has laid the proceedings of the authorites of South Carolina for the evacuation of Fort Sumter before the President.

☞ Harvard University is now in a more prosperous condition than ever before. It numbers 896 students, which is three hundred more than in 1850.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the most confectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 daw3m

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,
Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered state of the system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 daw3m

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Breast—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen.—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial, and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

REVIVALS.—Since the great "revival" of 1859, the religious interest prompted by that revival has been gradually on the wane—if we except a period of six or eight months following the great religious excitement, or interest, if you please; which prevailed not only in this city, or New England, but extended throughout the United States, and even across the Atlantic Ocean. But there has since been a sad declension—a marked subsidence in religious matters, until the present time, when those who desire and earnestly labor for the advancement of our Father's kingdom, mourn over the dearth of piety, and the triumph of wickedness, especially in the city of Portsmouth. These great reactions may be necessary, but we do not believe it. At any rate, when these great religious ebbings and flowings take place—when a great spiritual shower is followed by a corresponding spiritual drouth, the thinking mind is led to reflect, and find out, if possible, the primary cause of this fact.

And first, we believe that this result, to a certain extent, is chargeable to ministers and leading professors of religion, some of whom—although honest in their motives—mistake the human heart, and appeal to the selfish propensities instead of the moral faculties. For instance, a revival is in progress, and we hear sinners told to leave the error of their ways, or they must be lost. This is very well, as far as it goes, but only one idea is presented—that of being forever lost. This idea carried out, amounts to just this: we must turn from our evil ways, because if we continue in them, we incur a risk of being shut out of the kingdom of heaven, which every one ought to reach, either by hook or crook.—Hence we say that only the selfishness of the human heart is appealed to; and no true religion will be found adulterated by that which is, in its unqualified sense, the very essence of human depravity. Selfishness stands in direct opposition to benevolence, which is the essence of the divine character. Consequently there can be no radical change in any person's heart, where these propensities are alone appealed to.

But, says one, "if we cannot reach the heart in one way we must in another; and it is better to frighten them into it, than to leave them to go on following their grosser passions." We answer, that we would not give the snap of our finger for as many battalions of professing christians, as would outnumber the host of Midian, were they brought into the ranks through the incentive of a selfish fear. They won't stand the fire. They get along very well, when they have enough to back them up, and a strong tide of popular favor to bear them on, but by and by the charm wears away, the spell is broken, there is work to do, and they gradually return to their old ways.—But is this really a fall from grace? and is such apostasy strange when the governing principle has been a fear of an eternal death? They never had a spark of extra love for God or their fellow-men.—They have not thought of performing a single benevolent act, nor regarded man as a brother, nor sought to relieve, assist, console, help, or love him as such. They may not swear, or lie, or steal, or cheat, and their outward deportment, for a time, may be correct, but while the heart remains unpurified by love, it cannot be the fountain of true religion.

Therefore we would urge men to do right because it is right! because it will make you, reader, a holy man or woman; and being thus made holy, you teach a fellow-traveler in life's pathway to be holy, and thus cleanse and purify the fountain of the heart, rendering the stream in which flow all our actions, limpid and sparkling. Then the comforts and sweets of religion will transcend all other happiness, and men will begin to believe that God's kingdom will come, and his will yet be done on earth, as it is done in heaven. W.

☞ Portsmouth bakers, it would seem, sell their bread as cheap as the Boston Steam or Mechanical Bakery. The Concord Statesman has lately published some articles about bread, which led to inquiries, and a comparison of prices. A letter to the Statesman from Boston, says, the writer has "used the bread from the mechanical bakery and found it very good. They are selling all they make. Since the bakery commenced, the other bakers have increased the weight and improved the quality of their loaves."

The weights and prices of some of the mechanical bakery loaves are as follows:—Family loaf, 14 oz., 4 cents; do 2 lb., 10 cents; Steam loaf, 1 lb. 10 oz., 8 cents; French loaf, 1 lb., 5 cents; do. 2 lb., 10 cents; Fruit loaf, 14 oz., 5 cents; Hearth loaf, 1 lb. 12 oz., 8 cents; Milk loaf, 1 lb. 5 cents; Brick loaf, 14 oz., 4 cents: Tea loaf, one lb. 5 cents; Dutch 18 oz., 5 cents; Graham loaf, 16 oz., 5 cents; Brown bread, 10 cents.

A letter from Portsmouth states that the local bakers there retail their 15 oz. loaves at 4 cents. They sell 280 crackers for $1.00. It takes from 900 to 950 of these to fill a barrel. Their brown bread loaves weigh four pounds, and are sold for eight cents. Very reasonable prices they are, too.

SNOW AND SLOP.—We are to have our January thaw in February;—Saturday being ushered in by a drizzling rain, which causes the snow to settle in the streets and roads, and to slide from the roofs of buildings—to the danger of pedestrians. Truly, winter has not "rotted in the sky," thus far.

☞ The barque Fury, Smith, arrived in Boston Saturday morning, from Sicily, with a cargo of oranges and lemons. The vessel was built in this city, at the Raynes yard, last summer.

THE CHEMISTRY OF MEDICINE.—Among the special delights which have so richly repaid a visit to New England, was the inspection it was our privilege to make of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s Laboratory, at Lowell. Although we knew, by hear say, that it was large, yet we were surprised when we came into view of its real magnitude, and still more by the extent and complication of its truly immense business. The whole massive structure is in fact one vast chemical laboratory, in which the processes of this wonderful art are constantly going on. Medico-chemical science has found that the curative properties of any substance exist in some one or more of its component parts. Thus the remedial effects of opium are due solely to the morphia it contains, although this is but one eighteenth part of its weight; the other seventeen parts are gum, extractive and inert or offensive matter. Dr. Ayer's system separates the medical properties of each substance employed, and we are here shown the processes by which the virtues of each remedial agent are chased through the alembics until they come out completely pure at last. These concentrated, purified medical properties, or virtues, are finally combined together to produce the remedies which have made themselves a reputation for unrivalled excellence all over the world. Not only does the Doctor disclaim all secrecy in his art, and explain every process and every particular, but he maintains that this is the only process by which the people can be supplied with the best possible remedies for the treatment of disease. The Formula by which his medicines are made are published in the medical Journals, and have been presented to a large part of the medical Faculty of the United States, and are constantly sent by mail to such physicians as apply for them.—Daily Chronicle, San Francisco.

Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has not its equal in the world, as all who have ever used it will testify. If you would preserve health in your families, and good sound teeth, and at the same time be economical, make an investment in a pound of it, and you will ever after use it. Do not be put off with any other. Most all of the grocers have it.

Sold at wholesale, by Israel Nash & Co., Boston; and Sumner, Swasey & Currier, Newburyport.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.
GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

CONSUMPTIVES.
An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same causes arise all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?
For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also
Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which remove or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.
Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.
The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.
Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.
Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.
These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.
Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the
which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.
An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $4. Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 8 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

DR. SWETT'S
COUGH DROPS,
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Dr. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1856.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N. H., May 1, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of my boy, and I would advise all who may a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend that those who all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.
Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F JONES.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that my sister Ann was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OGLESBY, Ind., Oct. June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous taint, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was advised to resort to the Gospel Measure that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Greenland and got it, and used it till it cured me. And what I tell you, is, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scabs, which after a while fall off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel as free to make known what you do, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble, formerly of Rochester, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla. He also cured a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Stone of Perrysburg, Ohio, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I mean cheerfully complying with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects in female diseases, in my own family, almost miraculous. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla healed, and cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable portion of the cartilage. The disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well and hearty. Several cases some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from blotches on her face. Other had symptoms, and sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured by the use of your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy, and I have found its most truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

HOUNSFIELD, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have long been troubled with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, and I tried everything almost. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. Yours, &c.

John Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been for months lying in bed for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. I by hearsay, purchased your Sarsaparilla, to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and I am now able to walk out. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. Yours, &c.

Scirrhus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by this alterative, when all other means failed. It invigorates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such Alterative Medicines have been needed by the community, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is needless to say anything about its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout all the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy to their subdue of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these diseases, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, combining Iron in its highest form, viz: Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health, while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements, in the proper proportions, will lead to a normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discoverer has indicated one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially where the complaint is accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a weakened vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through overwork, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Debility, arising in all stages of life, or from Spinal Irritation, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in our favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of invalids, in the confidence that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the testimonials upon which its merits are founded, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Families and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from a disagreeable flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty in cases of debility, in which other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses in France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and hotels throughout.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of sympathetic diseases of the scalp from brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, stop from falling off by any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community; my hair was entirely destroyed, from the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed every thing I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every experiment, when your Hair Restorative and other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very fine growth of hair, within the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the surprising circumstances which you can make you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's wife resides in Wheeling, and he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you as my testimony, that he was induced to use and sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds a pint and a half, and retails in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 percent more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to everyone, that the numerous cases of the most fatal diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a safe, reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and allaying all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in stating cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at the time before the public. We feel confident that Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction of the faculties, costiveness of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy.

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its peculiar medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Cold Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their spirits, nerves shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full at often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in children or adults.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations of the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

The number of United States forts in slave holding communities—"Secession" or otherwise—is thirty-three, the cost of which was $18,765,403; while the total cost of fortifications in Northern waters amounts only to $8,230,818. The fortifications on the Pacific coast cost $2,450,500. The fortifications on the Northern frontier $730,250. Grand total cost of United States fortifications $30,177,971. We are enabled to perceive from these figures that the amount expended by the general government on warkike works for the defence of Southern ports and rivers, is morn than double that which has been devoted to those of the North.—Boston Post.

This we take it is another illustration of State equality which has been many in changes.

Don't fair ladies, neglect personal attractions, because you are married. The charms that won are just as potent to retain, affection. The beginnings of alienation often lie just here; and many a neglected wife has lost her husband's heart because she ceased to look lovely in his eyes. It isn't in the heart of a man to love a dowdy, careless, fretful, unlovely woman. The husband bargains for something very different from this, and if he finds himself deceived, will assuredly repent of his bargain. So look to it, young wives, that you lose not, through carelessness or neglect, a single charm.

DECAY OF IDOLATRY IN INDIA.—A traveler from Madras to Jaffna states that but few of the heathen Temples he passed were in good order—those regularly repaired and used, are comparatively few.—Many of the Temples are gradually going to ruin—towers, walls and rooms, where the idols sit, are broken; many of the idols, that were formerly carried with great parade, are now resting in their places, with no one to wipe or clean them. Many idol cars, once drawn with great pomp and parade, are so neglected that they can only be used for fuel. The impression is steadily gaining ground among the people, that their idol system has had its day, and that the religion of the gospel will eventually fill the whole land.—Boston Courier.

GETTING FRIGHTENED.—About thirty of our citizens were summoned before the Grand Jury, at Salem, yesterday, to give in their testimony in reference to violations of the liquor law in this town. Some of the dealers have become alarmed, and shut down on their customers, while others we are told, have closed their shops and "cut sticks" for parts unknown. At any rate there is a great flattering among the fraternity, and a "shaking in their shoes," which we trust will continue until they shake themselves entirely clear from their vile traffic, and then keep clear.—Haverhill Publisher.

There are no less than six vacant bishoprieks in France. The Emperor does not fill them up because he knows the Pope would not confirm his appointments. This state of things cannot last much longer. The Emperor must either reconcile himself with the Pope or become a modern Henry VIII.

A gang of thieves at Dennis, Mass., fastened an old lady into her house, of which she was the sole occupant, and then attempted to rob an outbuilding of some fresh pork. The smart and spunky octogenarian snapped a pair of tongs together out of the window, exclaimed, "My pistol missed fire!" and actually frightened the rogues away, minus any spoil.

VESSELS IN DEMAND.—The Norfolk, Va., Day Book says:—"In spite of the cry of hard times, there is a scarcity of vessels in this port, and many of our merchants are retarded in their operations from a want of freight-room."

☞ The owners of the steamer Eastern Queen had a verdict of $8655 given against them in the Supreme Judicial Court at Bangor, for damages caused by sinking the schooner Caroline Stone, in a collision which occurred between the two vessels in 1858.

☞ Mrs. Catherine Hagey, the wife of a revolutionary soldier, died at Nashville on the 13th inst., aged one hundred and six years.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Broad, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 83 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating home keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
If it is valuable because it is not injurious, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances, it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 15 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and this waste is incurred not for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common process ordinarily makes about 250 lbs. gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while the sauces and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; and make the paste into rolls with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal; sift well together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUTTER MILK CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
PLUM CAKE.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk, then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one cup of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to tith taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, invigorating the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "Let it be the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also purifies, vitalizes and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a medicinal form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill to be convinced by every one that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Listlessness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all persons who should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which wish them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the silent path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure you never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1861.

LETTER FROM AUSTRALIA.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 24, 1860.

Dear Chronicle:—'Tis now nearly a year since you have been troubled by me, so I think I may venture to annoy you once more. My last epistle was from China, (perhaps you remember,) from which delectable corner of the earth I returned some six months ago. When I got back, the fight (between Sayers and Heenan) was the all-engrossing topic of conversation; and although the natives of New Zealand had risen on the whites, and were killing men, women and children, burning houses, driving off cattle, and defeating the soldiery at the time, yet the English mail which would decide the bets on the prize-fighters, by bringing news of the fight, was looked for with more anxiety than the Island Mail that told the fate of hundreds of peaceful settlers in the wilderness.

This war with the natives still continues, with small success on the part of the whites. In one engagement the English lost seventy killed and missing. It was a hand-to-hand affair, the English being the assailants, and took place in a breach in a native pah or stockade, which had been cannonaded for two days previously. Since then the troops have been reinforced by the 40th Regt., and 170 volunteers from the frigate Iris and the sloops Victoria and Amelia. One of my acquaintances, (a volunteer of the Naval Brigade,) writing from Taranaas, complains bitterly of want of fuel, stating the forest to be within a mile of the fort, but no one allowed to go for wood. Two more actions have taken place lately, and resulted in the capture of two deserted pahs.

The New Zealanders, (at least all that I've seen,) are a good looking race of men, of the middle size, but strong and active, and their conduct in action proves them not to lack courage. They are good marksmen, and have plenty of fire-arms.

One evening, during last week, I sallied forth with a companion, to see some genuine old English sport. We rambled about from one public house to another, finding the same amusements in each—bagatelle playing, for drink, and singing, with an occasional dance,—till we came to the "All Nations' Hotel," where we found a novelty, in the shape of a "rat-pit." This was a box, about ten feet square by four in depth, where rats were to be turned loose from a trap, and killed by dogs. As no amusement could be more refined and humanizing, we determined to remain and see the rat-match which was advertised to come off at ten o'clock. That the company might not disperse before the grand event of the evening took place, boxing gloves and single-sticks were provided to keep them employed, and much scientific dodging was displayed, in the endeavors of certain enterprising youths to hit others without being hit themselves. Ten o'clock arrived, besides two dogs and two dozen rats, one-half of the latter being immediately turned into the pit. All being arranged, referee, judges and time-keeper all ready, time was called, and a yellow bull-terrier let loose among the rats, his master cheering him on, and pulling him from the dead rats as long as there were any living ones for him to kill. One of the biggest of the long-tails, (the last one of the lot,) made a bold push for his life, by running up the leg of the man in the pit, outside his trowsers. The dog saw him, and in the enthusiasm of the moment he grabbed not only the rat, but a bit of his master's leg, drawing blood freely, to that functionary's great disgust, and the intense amusement of the spectators. When the rats were all dead the dog was taken away, and the time of his performance declared. He had killed his dozen in 55 seconds. The remaining rats and the other dog were then put in, and shortly the second dog was declared the winner, having killed his lot in forty seconds. No sooner was the match finished than the call for drink became tremendous, and for half an hour a torrent of rum, gin, whiskey and 'alf-and-'alf flowed into the room, loading the atmosphere with sweet perfume, and the brains of the drinkers with luminous ideas. As midnight approached, the boxing-gloves, (which had been resumed at the close of the match,) were thrown by, and two bold spirits, incited so to do by mutual dislike, rum, and lots of friends, undertook to bang each other,—which they did to the joy of their friends, and their own satisfaction, no doubt. The last performance I saw in the house was a man knocking another down with a pewter-pot,—after which I left, fully satisfied that America will never be a great country till her states repeal their absurd anti-liquor law, and establish "free-and-easy" rat-pits, and boxing-balls, in place of foolish, useless lecture-rooms, reading-rooms, and Mechanics' Institutes. SOUTHERN NEWS.

WASHINTON, Feb 1.—[Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.]—Evidence before the House Select Committe on Treason shows that a variety of plans have actually been discussed by those in the South who have been determined for years to break up the Union. First, it was believed that a convention of the two houses could be prevented on the 15th inst., when the votes for President are to be counted, thereby avoiding a constitutional count of the electoral votes. Second, to prevent Mr. Lincoln from coming here, by assassination or other means. Third, to take the capital by violence and prevent his inauguration.

Several witnesses testified that these plans were all seriously discussed and abandoned, upon the theory that it would be in the category of crimes punishable with death in the Union, and would not in the end accomplish the object the dissolutionists have in view. After a full canvass of the whole subject it was finally decided to resort to the plan of secession, which was intimated by South Carolina.

Efforts are now making to induce every State south of Mason and Dixon's line to secede, and the most extraordinary influences are being brought to bear upon the delegates to assemble in Virginia on the 4th inst., to carry the convention in favor of secession. It is believed by some that the majority will so vote. This is the great point the secessionists hope to gain, because if Virginia votes against secession there is no hope of carrying Maryland, and without the latter States there will be no such thing as effecting an organization to take the capital.

In view of the supposition that Virginia will vote in convention on the 4th inst., to go out of the Union, which would precipitate the action of Maryland, General Scott, backed by several members of the Cabinet, is in favor of making a more formidable demonstration to protect this city from attack, and thinks the President ought to call upon the States for volunteers. The President is opposed to this policy, unless he has changed his mind this afternoon. The fact that he is opposed to calling upon the States for troops creates a good deal of alarm in many quarters for the safety of the city. It may be asked how the President can call for volunteers when there is no law authorizing him to do so? There is a bill in the House giving him the power to call upon the States, which will pass the moment it known the President will not veto it. It is charged that the secessionists are doing their utmost to prevent the President from signing such a bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.]—Major Anderson must sooner or later be reinforced, because his supplies will not last three months. Vessels drawing twelve feet of water and over can enter the Beach channel, and there are plenty of officers and volunteers ready to run the gauntlet of Morris Island and Fort Moultrie. Mr. Toucey's excuse for not ordering the Brooklyn in States for troops creates a good deal of alarm in many quarters for the safety of the city. It may be asked how the President can call for volunteers when there is no law authorizing him to do so? There is a bill in the House giving him the power to call upon the States, which will pass the moment it known the President will not veto it. Great doubts are expressed whether the Peace Congress, to meet here on Monday, under the auspices of Virginia, will accomplish any practical result. The border States have yet to offer some proposition which does not require a surrender of principle. Thus far, they have asked sacrifices at the hands of the Republicans, without assuming any responsibility themselves. Except in friendly professions, their position is not materially different from the cotton States.

It is ascertained that Mr. Floyd's whole acceptances were $6,900,000. Of these Mr. Russell and partners returned about $3,000,000, first and last, and can account for half a million more. It therefore appears that at least $3,000,000 are still floating about, held by innocent parties, or were discounted by banks and individuals. Large amounts have been recently sent here from New England, which were taken on the strength of Mr. Floyd's assurance, vouched in some instances by Mr. Toucey.

The statement that the conduct of Capt. Randolph, who headed the armed demonstration against the Pensacola Navy Yard, was not known at the Navy Department before his resignation was accepted, is incorrect. Information of its surrender was received on the 13th of January, and his resignation was accepted on the 14th. Other resignations by telegraph were permitted, and thus traitors who would have deserved and been punished with the halter, were allowed to escape by Mr. Toucey's connivance. No confidence in that Department is entertained, and it has been managed in the interest of Mr. Mallory, and other secessionists, for their own personal and political purposes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. Times.]—Mr. Hayne presented a communication to the President last evening, demanding the surrender of Fort Sumter—first, on the ground of eminent domain in the sovereignty; second, on the ground of the right of the sovereign to convey to the public any property necessary for its own protection and independence, by paying therefor a fair compensation. The document assumes the complete independence of South Carolina, and this assumption carries with it the first proposition.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Mr. Sumner had an interview with the President to-day, in relation to the offer of military aid by the Legislature of Massachusetts for the defence of federal property and enforcement of the laws. Mr. Sumner asked what more Massachusetts could do for the Union. The President replied, "Adopt the resolutions offered by Mr. Crittenden." Mr. Sumner rejoined, "The public sentiment of Massachusetts makes that impossible, and I agree with that sentiment."

☞ The prize of twenty dollars offered to the writer of the best article in the University Quarterly, among the undergraduates of American colleges, has been awarded to Oliver Wendell Holmes, jr., of the Senior class at Harvard, for his article on "Plato," in the October number of the Quarterly. The committee of award were Prof. Ticknor, Hon. Geo. S. Hillard, and Ex-President Hitchcock.

HELD TO BAIL.—On Monday evening of last week, while Levi Follansbee, a man 62 years of age, belonging in Hill, was walking in Manchester, he was seized by an unknown person who picked his pocket of $14 in money and $40 worth of notes, but at the cry of watch escaped before the old gentleman could obtain assistance. The police were informed, and watched for the the robber until Tuesday evening, when information was also given them that the same one had been passing counterfeit fives on the Brighton Market Bank: almost immediately afterwards he was arrested, and next morning was arraigned before the Police Court under the name of Charles Pierce, alias Chas. Whitehouse, on five complaints for passing counterfeit bills.—He plead not guilty, and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $500 on each complaint ($2500 in all.)

He is accused of passing four other bills of the same kind, in Manchester, but no complaints on them or on the robbery are contemplated. An officer from Portland was in Manchester about the first of January, and wanted him to answer for some offence committed in that city. He was committed to Amherst jail to await trial before the Supreme Judicial Court at Nashua, in May.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The Illinois Senate Committee on Federal Relations yesterday reported that, with the earnest desire for the return of harmony among all our sister States, and out of respect to the Commonwealth of Virginia, the Governor be requested to appoint five commissioners to attend the convention at Washington on the 4th inst.

The second resolution says that the appointment of a commissioner by the State of Illinois in response to the invitation of the State of Virginia is not an expression of opinion on the part of this State that any amendment to the federal constitution is requisite to secure the people of the slave-holding States adequate guarantees for security of their rights, nor an approval of the basis of settlement of settlement of our difficulties proposed by the State of Virginia.

☞ In the Massachusetts House of Representatives, on Saturday, the Committee on Finance reported a resolve appropriating one hundred thousand dollars for the Emergency fund, letters having been received from Washington advising that the city would be seized on the 15th inst. The resolve was passed to be engrossed, after a secret session. A new Militia bill was also introduced and referred to the committee on that subject.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Times' Washington dispatch says Fort Sumter has been reinforced, the Brooklyn having landed 300 troops in boats with muffled oars.

It is rumored that Fort Sumter has been attacked. The War Department has had no dispatches from Major Anderson for three days.

The President has again countermanded the orders of Gen. Scott, concentrating additional troops in Washington.

The Herald's dispatch says that the plot for the seizure of the capital was disclosed to Senator Douglas by one of the conspirators, who subsequently, under the threats of Mr. Douglas, revealed it to Gen. Scott.

A dispatch sent to Mr. Jones, special agent of the treasury, by Mr. Dix, was stopped by the Governor of Alabama, and forwarded to the Governor of Louisiana, thus preventing the arrest of Capt. Brushwood.

Mr. Dix's orders were to tell Lt. Caldwell to assume the command of the cutter McClelland, and if Capt. Brushwood should attempt to interfere to treat him as a mutiny and if any one attempted to haul down the American flag to shoot him on the spot.

The Tribune's dispatch says that Ex-Secretary Thompson testified before the Special Committee that various plans of secession were discussed in his presence, and sometimes in his house.

Among the plans proposed was one for the seizure of the capital and preventing the counting of the Presidential votes, and another existing Mr. Lincoln's inauguration. He regarded these propositions as foolish, and believed them to have been abandoned to concentrate all their efforts on seperate State action, which he approved. This policy, he said, would lead to the same results by different means.

Major Harvey Brown commands all the troops in Washington, except the Sappers and Miners, who are under the immediate command of Lieut. Doane.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The Commissioners appointed by the several States will meet at noon. New Hampshire, Vermont and Rhode Island are represented.

The majority of the Northern Commissioners are conservative in sentiment.

THE NAVY.—The New York Times' Washington correspondent says that a gentleman from Springfield, Ill., expresses the opinion that the Navy Department will be offered to Geo. Ashmun of Massachusetts, but his personal friends are pressing him for the Boston Collectorship.

We hope he may be Collector of Boston, and that Ichabod Goodwin of New Hampshire will be Secretary of the Navy, for which he is well qualified.

☞ The Mayor of Halifax, Nova Scotia, has been to Manchester, to see about purchasing some steam fire engines. He will probably buy two of those indispensable machines.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The commissioners from New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, and North Carolina have arrived and are interchanging visits.

Additional troops have arrived to-day; also artillery, arms and munitions of war.

An effort will be made by a member of the Joint Committee of Five to report a joint resolution providing for a call of a national convention.

An official copy of the Louiniana secession ordinance has been received, and all of the Congressional delegation, with the exception of Mr. Bouligny, will withdraw tomorrow.

Hon. Joshua R. Giddings of Ohio has arrived.

Governor Hicks of Maryland will be before the select committee to-morrow, as a witness concerning the alleged conspiracy to seize Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Lieutenant Hall's departure for Fort Sumter is postponed. He was to have gone last night.

The U. S. Assistant Treasurer at New Orleans refuses to give up the money at the Branch Mint, on the ground that the Mint has been taken possession of by the State. The subject was considered at an extraordinary session of the Cabinet. Senators Benjamin and Slidell have been sent for to know if they were aware of the transaction. The government has telegraphed to the Collector and Treasurer for the facts in relation to the seizure of the Mint.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 2.—The Senate to-day passed, by a vote of 25 to 12, resolutions appealing to the Southern States to stop the revolution, protesting against federal coercion; that when the Legislature adjourns on the 6th, it be to the 24th of April, to hear the response of her sister States to the application of Kentucky; and that Congress call a national convention.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most sceptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases: and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 daw3m

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excesses and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 daw3m

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILDCHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, and Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug. 4, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ At the Annual Meeting of the Portsmouth City Missionary Society, held Jan. 10, 1861, the clergymen present were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Society relative to the removal of Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody, its former faithful President and patron. The Committee present the following, as a feeble and inadequate indication of feeling which cannot be expressed in words.

Resolved, That in the removal of Rev. Dr. Peabody from our city, this Society has lost its wisest counsellor, and the needy among us a most faithful and efficient friend.

Resolved, That to his judicious efforts and constant careful guidance we are largely indebted for the success which has attended our endeavors to establish a permanent mission of religion and beneficence among our poor.

Resolved, That his labors and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance by all who have been associated with him, and that the contemplation of his example shall ever be an incentive to good works.

Resolved, That the poor miss him, that we all miss him.

Resolved, That we are only reconciled to his removal by the thought that he has gone to a field of wider usefulness, where his rich and varied culture, and his eminent christian character may be largely instrumental in moulding the hearts and giving direction to the purposes of the young men who come within his influence.

Resolved, That our esteem for him as a man and a Christian, our gratitude for his labors in behalf of this society, and our prayers for his prosperity and happiness in his new and responsible position shall follow after and attend him continually.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Dr. Peabody, and that they be published in the papers of the city.

WHIDDEN STREET.—Messrs. Editors: Through the columns of your paper, the citzens of Whidden street would call the attention of our Street Commissioner to the impassable condition of that street; for it is utterly impossible for a team of any description to go there. If a fire engine was needed there at the present time, the firemen would have to break out a path in order to get there. Last week there were two cases where fire-wood was needed in which the wood was dropped at the head of the street, and then carried in the arms and on a hand-sled to the houses. Is it not the duty of the Street Commissioner to keep the streets in a passable condition? Why should the city pass by that street? The Collector never forgets to present the residents there with their tax bills. We have not yet seceded, but talk of it unless our rights are granted us. TAX-PAYER.

☞ Ashes are not worth much, at least, coal ashes are not. Then why not make a good use of them, by a liberal distribution of the same in front of dwellings, stores, shops, &c. It would be a trifling act, but it might prevent a serious accident. These very icy pavements suggest an immediate response to the above appeal, to enable us to preserve an upright position, and help locomotion.

☞ The ship Judah Touro, now lying at Pier Wharf, in this city, is being loaded with hay for Mobile. She has been supplied with a new foretopsail yard, and with rolling topsails, new sails, &c., besides a few alterations on deck. Her cargo is nearly all stowed, and if the weather is favorable she will sail the latter part of this week.

POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Odell. Simeon S. Pickering was brought up on the charge of being a common drunkard;—plea not guilty; considered guilty, and sentenced to be confined at hard labor in the House of Correction ten days, and to pay costs of prosecution. Mittimus issued.

☞ On Sunday last, the ordinance of baptism by immersion, was administered to five persons, on Christian Shore, by Rev. Hiram Munger of the Advent Church.—Mr. M. is to lecture at the Advent Chapel this evening, and if circumstances favor, he will remain here through the present week.

THE OLD POST OFFICE.—Messrs. Editors:—Please to ask Uncle Sam (if that venerable relative still lives) to take down the old Post Office sign, and stop up the letter slip in the old door, so that transient people need not drop letters there on Sunday, or at other times. And if it would not be asking too much,—let him put a sign on the new one, and cut a letter slip there. A. B.

POST OFFICE ROBBERY.—On the night of Tuesday, Jan. 29th, the Post Office in Great Falls was entered by boring out a panel of the back door. The thieves secured about $25, in stamps and money, mostly coppers. They opened a large number of letters and scattered the contents; whether these letters contained money it has not been ascertained. No clue has been obtained as to who the parties may be.

☞ Col. Fremont arrived in New York on Friday, in the steamer from California.

S. J. COURT—EXETER.

The trial of the "Farmer Will Case" was commenced on Thursday afternoon, before the following jury, viz.:

John Sanborn, Sandown, foreman;—Francis Ham, Exeter; Daniel C. Leavitt, William B. Lowd, 2d, Portsmouth; Thos. M. Arnold, Hampstead; Harrison W. Bartlett, Nottingham; Samuel S. Johnson, Northwood; Jonathan Palmer, Hampton; George Copp, Windham; Hiram Fellows, Sandown; Daniel Young, Kingston; Dan'l Beede, Fremont.

The counsel engaged in the case are Messrs. Christie, Wilcox and Shapley in support of the will; and Hon. H. F. French, B. F. Ayer, and M. N. Collins for the contestant.

The case in behalf of the executor of the will was opened by Mr. Wilcox, and the three subscribing witnesses to the will were subjected to a lengthy examination, which was concluded Saturday forenoon. The original will was then read to the jury by Mr. Christie.

At 11 o'clock on Saturday, B. F. Ayer, Esq., opened the case in behalf of the contestant of the will, and addressed the jury for three-quarters of an hour, stating clearly the issues for trial—after which Mrs. Ann Clement, who was the nurse of Betsey Farmer during her last sickness, and the principal witness in behalf of the contestant, was called and sworn. The direct examination of this witness was commenced, but will occupy a day or more.

The Court on Saturday P. M. adjourned to Monday. The jurors not drawn for the trial of this case were discharged until Monday, Feb. 11.

The trial, as before, excites great interest in this vicinity, and the Court room is crowded daily, a large number of ladies availing themselves of the opportunity to attend. The trial will probably occupy the whole of the present week.

☞ The Grand Jury of the Court of General Sessions of New York, in their presentment state that the number of incendiary fires are increasing, and denounce the seditious doctrines set forth in the recent message of Mayor Wood, observing that such sentiments pander to the worst passions of men: and urge the importance of having an efficient police to suppress crime and protect the citizens.

☞ Three brothers Gill, who live in Henderson, Jefferson county, N. Y., have all become insane on account of incumbrances on their property. They own 1000 acres of land.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,

is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound entirely cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was confined with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroys, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest extremes. What, then, are the cause of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—A deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgic complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduced the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded that "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or care it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $4. Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 8 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church A. Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

DR. SWETT'S
COUGH DROPS,
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.

☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.

Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:

Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Dr. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.

New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.

Exeter, Feb. 12, 1838.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.

Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.

Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispersed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured." DAVID LANG.

Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them free of charge." MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.

Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge." ELIZABETH CURRIER.

Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Exeter, July 30 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F JONES.

Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.

Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.

I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe case of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

AYER'S

CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and you should be warned by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered impurities; purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed. Health will again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous action, and thus expel disease from the channels which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. The skin, the bowels, the lungs, become clogged, and need assistance to throw off the disease. Nature, in this condition, oppressed, asks for help. Give her a dose of Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true in a slight case of this kind, and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Cleansed by similar medicine and disencumbrances of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Where the disease has taken root, and is of long standing, the effects of Ayer's Cathartic Pills will be neither immediate nor so perceptible as in those cases where the system is in a healthy state. But they will do their work, and the patient will find the benefit of it in his improved health. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the intestinal canal, and render them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR SIR, AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than by saying that I do not cure treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing none so efficient as Pills, I afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. SIR: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can be bothered with by one of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Charlton

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial action upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any other remedy I am acquainted with, and I regard that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, } Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1857.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since they were made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we possess. Their operating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangement of that organ. Indeed, I believe that most of the liver disease so common that it did not really yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever used. Their adaptedness to cases where the liver is involved in disease, and their ability to cure them, are an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhea. Their sugar-coating makes them acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and have found them a valuable aid in diseases. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I am confident I can safely recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent cathartic to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they deserve the gratitude arising it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prophetic of others that are worse. I believe it to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. R. Hurst, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent. Pills better after the manner than wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawker, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which yielded to your medicines. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your brother, Dr. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass., Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By perseverance in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

ISRAEL CRAMMER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Nov. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a family medicine. Free from the mercury these Pills are free from the disease which frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, Mothers, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is believed to be the only position with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—

—AND THIS—

DEBILITY,

pale countenance, want of nervous derangement, and eyes of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in the case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its healthy standard. The point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the quantity and quality of energy, enrich the blood, by restoring the missing red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food is all to found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, and Pulmonary Consumption. Speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Scrofula, or Fits, Chronic Fever and Ague, &c. its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In the class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which are so frequently consumptive, and so difficult to Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, loss of color, lassitude, debility, irritation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the strongest confidence in recommending the Blood Food to those who have the misfortune to lose of vitality or energy, and to those whose medical or bodily powers are prostrated through exertion, either of the mind or body, and we desire it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, it is unequalled by any preparation in the portion of sufferers which cannot be over estimated.

A faithful trial will be found the most conclusive proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the Blood Food to the public in the confidence, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, natural or chemical, in point of efficacy. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States on receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to ascertain that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 416 Broadway, New York.

And sold by them, and all respectable druggists.

Sold in Portsmouth by PRESTON, THACHER, HUTCHINGS and KIMBALL. s6 1y

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristic which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for sick with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and particularly adapted for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to convert and strengthen; while age has long contributed its ripening influence, and rendered it with a delicacy to the old only body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, for through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

For sale in a variety of attractive forms, in Groceries, Wine and Liquor Stores, and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and wine agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. Many have testified to its virtues, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddle against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which immediately broke the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered the dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professed gentleman myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

Your Hair Restorative was then recommended me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very beautiful growth of hair. After the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincerest thanks. Rest assured, dear Sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,

M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Fluvanna, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances which you may use if you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was induced to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known throughout adjoining counties, I may properly add, in justice to the truth of this statement, I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. I can add my testimony in favor of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my hair turning gray, I thought it was a paltry becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue, to my great satisfaction, and I can with confidence recommend it, as well as agreeable.

S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, large, medium and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more than one pint, and retails for $1 50; the large holds a pint and a half, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success in his extensive practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince the public of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is partic ularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable for Griping Pains, Costiveness, Inflammation and Relaxing all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Convulsions, Nervous Irritation, Fever, Wind, Colic, and Pain in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case where it is used in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its ingredients in this respect can hardly be estimated.

CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this great complaint it is no idle boast to say, that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering children. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we do not claim to be true of any other preparation, nor of any other preparation for infantile disease, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of a this truth, and of the astonishing effect upon them which are certain to result from the use of narcotic administered in the form of quieting remedies; their confirmed administration being unnatural, followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here is DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL offers from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, rather does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but nothing, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and can safely be given to the most delicate infant.

Take home but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has now been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Cole Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intermittent Fever, Costiveness, Chills and Fever, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subjected to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind in the Bowels, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all such feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, to move all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the delicate face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

No Aid for Traitors.—Capt. Parrot, of the large foundries at Cold Spring, opposite West Point, (one of the foundries most extensively engaged in the casting of cannon in the country) has refused to fill any orders for arms which may come from the secessionists. At the time of the secession of Georgia, he had large orders from the government of that State for cannon, which he promptly returned on receipt of the news, and also refused to make any delivery of cannon already cast.

The Utica Herald calls attention to the refusal of a manufacturing firm in Ilion, N. Y., to furnish arms for the traitors. The establishment is largely engaged in the manufacture of guns and pistols. They refuse to fill any orders, whether to regular customers or others, when they suspect the arms are to go directly or indirectly into the seceding States for the use of the rebels.—They have in several cases returned drafts sent in advance for guns and pistols ordered.

☞ The fishermen are anxious about their bounty, but they are waiting as patiently as possible. Mr. Alley wrote to the Gloucester Advertiser recently, that he had received assurances at the Treasury Department that the bounties would soon be paid, but the Secretary feared that the recent loan would all be exhausted in payment of claims which stood before the bounties.

☞ At Milford, on Wednesday, the building not long ago erected on the Fair ground, broke down from the weight of snow on the roof, crushing beneath it some $600 worth of carriages that had been stored in it.

☞ The dead body of a man named Daniel Whayland was found in the woods between South Abington and North Bridgewater, on Friday last. The deceased was intoxicated when last seen.

☞ The list of shipwrecks kept at Lloyd's reveals the fact that five vessels were wrecked upon an average each day of the past year.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical research. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner at once equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with respect to its purity and efficacy of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or starch, the principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturerers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."
HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCK WHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teaspoonful of butter; add two eggs and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; well mixed together; add one gill of molasses, and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs; all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add pound of sugar, half ounce of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of Peruvian Bark, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, promoting a good relish in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is no can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said—"I use it in the best practice of Physic that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, invigorating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity and vigor, gives vigor and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and force each to co-operate, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combined, powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, and by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so painfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements, Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back Side, and between the Shoulders, precipitation on slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate much more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the Liver, stomach, arousing the Liver to action, promoting a healthy flow of all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water, which travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it pre-tones, invigorates and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illusions or deceits not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known to the latter, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business life, that if were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.
O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1861.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Feb. 1.

The "special order" is again before the House, the morning hour, which extends from twelve to one o'clock, having passed. Gen. Hamilton of Texas is just concluding an able, a patriotic, a noble Union speech. He is willing to accept the Crittenden proposition, or he is willing to vote for the admission of New Mexico, in order to reconcile the present difficulty. He compliments the proposition of Mr. Adams of Mass. in the highest terms. He denies the right of any State to secede. He believes that revolution for great cause, and after long enduring great wrong and injury, and where no constitutional remedy exists, is right;—but he insists that no such cause really exists or ever has existed in the country. He asks some action, not that he deems the North wrong, but because the people of the South suppose and actually believe that the new administration designs to prohibit the inter-State slave trade, and to abolitionize the country.

He concluded his eloquent address with the remark that he had been entreated, implored to come out from the Union; but he would never waver in his attachment to it, and he hoped to live to see the fallen pillars re-erected, and the grand fabric restored. As he concludes, the clapping of hands among the members is more general than I have ever before witnessed.

There has been a great dearth of news for the last day or two. We have been expecting a standing item from the South in the shape of an attack on Fort Pickens, but it don't arrive. A dispatch was positively transmitted to Florida yesterday, advising an immediate attack, and asserting that the fort was soon to be reinforced by the Macedonian and Brooklyn. If this advice be followed, we shall be compelled to record a bloody battle. Fort Sumter will also be attacked at once, should the attempt upon Fort Pickens succeed. There is not a little unspoken rivalry between the troops of Alabama and Florida, and those of South Carolina. The former think they are fully competent to "Show how fields are won,"

if an opportunity is but offered them. They think, too, that Anderson fairly out-generaled the Charleston boys, and feel strong in the faith that they are not to be thus entrapped. They are exceedingly anxious to fire at something, and no longer enjoy the operation of trench-digging. It is labor, and therefore an entrenchment upon the natural rights of these sovereign masters.—The Southern press compliments certain gentlemen who have volunteered the services of their slaves to aid in fitting up dismantled fortresses, and calls upon others to render the same assistance, that the strength and vigor of the soldiers may be preserved until the hour of battle.

I anticipate a fight. I feel sure that no opportunity for a battle will be lost by the Southern mob. They call it "fighting in a righteous cause," but the world will look upon it in a different light. Blood corrodes iron very rapidly, and if a million or two of chains should be weakened or rusted off by this "holy warfare," it will be but the legitimate result of an attempt to rivet human manacles anew in this day of world-wide progress and enlightenment. When the clearly-defined conflict comes between humanity, the attribute of the Almighty, and oppression, the attribute of tyrants, the triumph is certain to be on the side of right. The sword wielded by tyrants is ultimately turned upon themselves, and the blood shed in defence of evil ever enriches the ground for the uprising of a host of champions of the right. F. F.

VIRGINIA ON SECESSION.—The Washington correspondent of the the N. Y. Journal of Commerce writes:—

I have heard from various quarters of the State, in regard to the probable result of the election of delegates for the Convention on Monday, the 4th, and are led to conclude that the body, will be about equally divided on the question of immediate secession. But if the secessionists come so near to a majority, they will carry the point.

Possibly the movement may be retarded by difficulties that may be produced by the action of the Montgomery Cotton State Convention. That Convention may not choose to admit Virginia into the cotton State league. Where cotton is king Virginia cannot be queen.

☞ Last Tuesday morning, Mr. Morris Slockbower, residing near Newton, N. J., was carelessly handling his gun, preparatory to going out hunting, when by some means, one of the barrels was discharged, the load taking effect in the side of his wife, and causing her death in a few minutes.

☞ Delegates to the Virginia Convention were elected on Monday. So far as heard from, a large majority of those elected are Union men.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29.

Hereafter my scribblings must come under the head of "foreign correspondence." On Saturday last, the convention at Baton Rouge passed the ordinance of secession from the United States, with only seventeen dissenting votes. The news was received here with demonstrations of joy such as are wont to usher in the morn of July 4th in the North. The stars and stripes gave way to the broad white flag, with a pelican within a star in its centre. Now that the die is cast every one seems to breathe more freely, and the bright sun coming from long days of concealment at that particular time was hailed as a good omen.

The convention re-assembled in this city to-day.

Anticipating trouble in clearance after secession, nearly all the masters in port obtained clearances last week. On the 21st there were 57 cleared, including 32 ships and 12 barks; on the 22d, 38 cleared, among them 12 ships and 18 barks. Freights are very high, some ships getting 2 1-2 c. per lb. to Havre, and there is not a disengaged vessel in port. The ship New Hampshire arr. here the 20th from Mobile, and on the 21st cleared for Havre with 2300 bales.

The Delta has christened Buchanan "the old public defunctionary." Miss Maggie Mitchell is advertised to appear at the St. Charles "in two parts"—in opposition, I presume, to Christine Milly (the double girl) who appears as one at the Museum. Among the military men of this city who are ready to take up arms in defence of Southern rights, is a brother-in-law of Abraham Lincoln, Capt. Todd, who is also a cousin of one of the unsuccessful competitors of Mr. L., John C. Breckinridge.

The last forty-eight hours have fully sustained the unenviable reputation for bloody deeds which New Orleans has obtained at the North. On Sunday evening John Ferris wantonly stabbed an Italian waiter in "Ned's oyster saloon," on Front street, in the abdomen, as he was passing him with a plate of soup. Last night Charles Miller was seriously stabbed, by an unknown person in the "Age" coffee-house, and three men were dangerously cut in a row at the foot of Canal street. Twenty or more persons were poisoned Monday morning at the Seamen's Home—as is supposed, through the malice of the "sharks," who cannot swindle Jack so well at the "Home." A drunken man was run over by a cotton-loaded dray, crushed, and expired in an hour. Another drunken man rolled a hogshead of sugar on Hieronius Pijo, an Italian boy four years old, crushing his shoulder badly; the little fellow was taken to the Hospital, where he died this morning.

The St. James Hotel took fire last evening from its gas-room, but the hour being early it was extinguished without great damage.

The mortality bill for the city the past week shows two instances of old age, both put down at over 115 years. ION.

MAINE.—Looking away from the South, we see at Portland a Union Meeting, of parties so variant, that Neal Dow, John Neal and Geo. F. Shepley supported the resolutions, which were Union, concession, and protection, by force if need be.

Mr. Shepley said he did not believe secession originated in South Carolina nor did it originate from the election of Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency. It originated long before his election, among a nest of traitors as he had chance to witness, in an attempt to destroy the Democratic party, and thus give Mr. Lincoln a clear chance to the Presidency in order that they might finish their traitorous schemes. They cut the throat of the Democratic party at Charleston as a part of the programme, which was to lead to the election of Mr. Lincoln, and afford a shallow pretext for disruption.

For once the Argus and Advertiser are perfectly agreed. Both papers pronounce the meeting "a magnificent success," "a model meeting"—the resolutions just the sentiments of a vast majority of the people of the city and State—and the speeches "eloquent, in the kindest spirit," and with scarce an allusion to party politics.

☞ The cooks and confectioners of St. Louis gave a grand ball and supper last week — the wealthiest gentlemen of the city dancing with chambermaids and scullions, and ladies in rich silks and diamonds dancing with journeymen cooks, who sported the white cap and jacket usually seen in the kitchen. The supper was one of the finest ever seen, and was the result of the united skill of seventy cooks.

☞ The manufacturing business at Dover, N. H., is in a very prosperous condition. Nearly 300,000 yards more were printed in 1860 than in 1859. The increase of valuation of Dover since 1856 has been $762,000, and her saving banks now hold $625,000 deposits, an increase of almost $80,000 during the past year.

☞ On Wednesday, says the Boston Courier, a colored fellow turned up at Ipswich, and represented himself as a fugitive slave, en route for Canada. Cash and clothes were furnished, and he was put into a car. Conductor Cram, however, knew him as a drunken humbug, whom he left at Wenham on Tuesday.

CONGRESS.—The members from Louisiana retired from the U. S. Senate Monday, on account of the secession of their State. Mr. Clingman of North Carolina made a Union speech, expressing his willingness to do almost anything to save the country.

But the movements for peace must come from the Republican side of the House.

He then argued against coercion, and disclaimed any knowledge of an intention to make an attack upon the Capital. But war was as likely to come here as elsewhere. The passage of the Pacific Railroad bill, and the attempts to make three routes to the Pacific, and the tariff bill, all were directly against the interests of the South, and the homestead bill, giving away the public lands, will drive many sensible men at the South into a separation. The Republican Senators carry with them peace or war to the country; which will they give to the country. If war, the South would meet them, and rather than submit, go down like Samson, taking the edifice and leaders of the Philistines with them.

Mr. Hale of N. H. protested against the assertion that the North was making war. On the contrary, their position was such as to subject them to the charge of cowardice. The Senator said there was a force at the North favorable to his section. If war should come, the first thing to do would be to take care of Northern traitors.

Mr. Lane of Oregon wanted to know whom he called traitors.

Mr. Hale—Exactly those men who fight against their own State.

Mr. Lane—All who are fighting for the Constitution and the rights of the States. I will allow no man to call them traitors.

Mr. Hale said he wanted to define no man's position, but he repeated that if forced into a war they would first take care of treason at home.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA REBELLION.—Thaddeus S. Strawiniski, only 18 years of age, a member of the Freshman Class of the South Carolina College, died at the Marine Hospital, Charleston, on the 26th ult. He was a member of the Columbia Artillery stationed at Fort Moultrie, and came to his death from an accidental wound from a revolver. While on the litter, being carried to the Hospital, he said to those conveying him, "Friends, oh! how sorry I am you are to attack Fort Sumter without me." During his sufferings, he mourned that he could not be at the taking of the Fort. A mother's gentle influence soothed his dying hour, and a soldier's spirit nerved a father to resign his son to his Creator.

IN DEATH NOT DIVIDED. — Died in Newburyport, 31st ult., Mrs. Lucy Cook, wife of the late Deacon Thomas Cook, in the 76th year of her age. Mrs. Cook was the daughter of the late Silas Adams, an officer of the army of the Revolution. She was born the same year with Dea. Cook, and they lived together in the same house for more than half a century, and his decease on the 21st ult. was the first death that occurred in the house. She fell sick on the same day of his death, and has so soon followed him to the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

☞ The Charleston correspondent of the Baltimore American writes, under date of Jan. 29:

Rest assured of it, the people of this state will never suffer Lincoln to hold and command the post. I believe every man in Charleston will suffer the last drop of blood to flow from his veins before he would submit to this. The people have cut the last ties that formerly bound them to the old federal Union. They will listen to no compromise, and in future will treat the North only as a foreign State.

BASIS OF OPERATION.—Some people are under the impression that the Republican basis of operation for March is the majority obtained in November for Honest Abraham Lincoln. It is a great mistake; and if the Republicans go to sleep upon that vote, they will wake up on the morning after town meeting a cheap looking set of men as ever appeared out of doors.—There is work to be done, even to obtain for our excellent candidate for Governor as large a majority as that given last March for our present Chief Magistrate; and if the canvass is suffered to go along, slipshod fashion, we may be shaken down to 3000 majority.—Statesman.

☞ On Saturday night a young man named Mead attempted to imitate Rarey in Newark, N. J., by taming horses in public. He had a horse of not very vicious propensities, but the natural inclinations of the animal to resist the strapping process, proved too much for the awkwardness of the operator, and finally the horse backed off the side of the stage, dragging the professor with him.

☞ The Nashua Telegraph says that Captain John G. Foster, of the Engineer corps, now in Fort Sumter, was formerly a resident of that city. He is the gentleman who believes it practicable to shell Charleston from the Fort; or who will not think the contrary true until he has tried.

The members of the Lyndeborough Artillery—the only company of artillery at the Nashua encampment last autumn—have held a meeting, and voted unanimously to hold themselves in readiness to fight for the Union. The company is composed of Republicans and Democrats in about equal portions.—Statesman.

☞ The Osnipee Register says that during the recent great snow storm, the people of that town were without a mail, or any intelligence from the rest of the world, for three days.

WASHINGTON CONVENTION.—Washington, Feb. 4.—The convention was in session to-day with closed doors, Mr. Wright, of Ohio, temporary chairman. All the States that have appointed delegates were fully represented except New York, Tennessee, Missouri, and Illinois. A motion to admit the press was tabled. A committee on permanent organization was appointed. Adjourned till Tuesday noon.

Ex-President Tyler will probably be permanent President. It is understood that the whole proceedings will be conducted in secret session.

The Virginia Commissioners held a caucus last night, and decided that the Convention should sit with closed doors—they also determined to demand full equality, or in other words the protection of slavery in the territory hereafter acquired. This is their sine qua non, and if it be not granted, they will then arrange for a separation.

The Convention will not demand the removal of troops from Washington, but Virginia will concentrate a large force at Alexandria to be ready in case of the secession of the Slave States.

The Pennsylvania Commissioners say that by their instructions they can do nothing. Ex-President Tyler thinks the action of the Key Stone State is positively offensive to Virginia.

President Buchanan has given no explanation yet of the movement at Fort Monroe, asked for last week by Mr. Tyler.

The general impression here to-day is that the South is so imperious in its demands that the Convention will not effect the object for which it has been convened.

FROM PENSACOLA.—Baltimore, Feb. 4. The latest mail dates from Pensacola are to the 27th ult. They speak of the withdrawal of the troops. No mention is made of the steamer Brooklyn.

Montgomery and Milledgeville (Ga.) papers speak of the withdrawal of the troops from Pensacola as a thing fixed upon.

A Pensacola correspondent says it is deemed impossible to take Fort Pickens unsupported by a war vessel.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Report says a resolution will be introduced in the House of Representatives at Washington on the 7th to repeal the law making New Orleans a port of entry, and providing for the collection of the revenue at the mouth of the Mississippi.

☞ At Washington a committee from the secessionists of Maryland, protest against the admission of the Maryland delegates to the Convention.

Gen. Scott has been informed of a conspiracy to poison the artillery horses.

Senator Bigler of Pennsylvania gives passports to Pennsylvanians travelling South.

Inquiries at the Treasury Department give little reason to believe that the fishing bounties will be paid at present.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 30.—The House, by a vote of 65 to 13, passed a bill legalizing the convention under the bill of rights.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

THE MOST EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, &c.

The most solemn assurance is given that there is not a fact stated with respect to the powers of this invaluable remedy, which is not fully established in every class of cases for which it is recommended, by a mass of evidence which must carry conviction to the most skeptical mind; and the medicine, though thus highly effectual in its remedial character, is in the utmost degree innocent in its composition, and may be taken by the most delicate. It invariably gives relief within TEN MINUTES in all cases; and a few days' perseverance will be sufficient to effect a cure in all recent attacks of Coughs or Cold. They are pleasant to the taste, the active principle of the herbs being combined with sugar in the least objectionable form, and any child will readily take them.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. nov28 dawâm

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

The Proprietors hold hundreds of testimonials to the virtues of SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS, but their peculiar nature prevents publication; but certain it is that they are the only sure and safe remedy in use for all those painful and dangerous diseases peculiar to the female constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites, all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed. They never fail to moderate excessive and to remove obstructions, from whatever cause. They are purely vegetable, and will not injure the most delicate constitution.—For particulars, send for a pamphlet, to the Agent.

One dollar and six postage stamps sent to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, by return mail. nov28 ewdm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe ior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO.—Gentlemen—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with the disease, and a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a permanent and effectual cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ The following bill of mortality is reported for the month of January, 1861.

Males seven—aged 2 mos., 20 y, 30, 54, 67, 75, 78.

Females fifteen—aged 1 month, 2, 14, 3 yrs., 4, 22, 37, 37, 61, 64, 64, 72, 72, 72, 90. About twice the usual number of deaths.

☞ Mr. Robert Bell, who has long been known in this city as the hearse-man, is to resign his position in April next, which will complete his 25th year of service in that capacity. During this quarter of a century he has probably consigned upwards of three thousand fellow mortals to their last resting place. It has been his lot to witness lowered into the silent grave, the aged of three score and ten, with the furrowed cheek and silver locks, who having passed through the allotted existence of man, could but expect the certain visit of the great Reaper; the middle-aged, in the prime of life, engrossed in its busy cares, hurried off the stage to join the countless throng of predecessors; the young man and woman in their spring-time, with happy anticipations of a joyous future, all nipped in the bud by the cruel hand of the death angel; the once ruddy youth, bidding fair to participate in every act of life's great drama; and the tender infant, taken away just as the panorama of life commenced to unfold. All these reminding him that "man cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not."

POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Odell.—James Pollard was arraigned for an assault on Ellen Hunter. James plead not guilty; but the Judge not concurring, sentenced him to pay a fine of one dollar and costs, taxed at $4.83.

☞ Harper's Magazine for February, contains three illustrated articles beside the Little Daughter a la Punch—to be had at Locke's.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Union men are much encouraged by the news from Virginia, showing that the secessionists will be in a large minority in the State Convention.

Mr. Botts was defeated at Richmond on personal grounds, but two other Unionists were elected.

The cheering intelligence from Virginia will prompt the liberal Republicans to conciliate and encourage the turning tide of Southern opinion.

Mr. Hayne, the South Carolina agent, and Lieut. Hall, of Fort Sumter, will leave this afternoon for Charleston, but the Virginia news will probably prevent immediate hostilities, if any have really been contemplated.

DEATH OF AN ARMY OFFICER.—A man who is supposed to be, from letters and papers found in his possession, Lieut. B. D. Forsyth of the United States Army, was found dead in his bed on Friday morning at the Delaware House in Port Jervis, N. Y. He is supposed to have friends in or near Quincy, Ill., and in New York city.

FOREIGN ITEMS.— The liberty of the press has been considerably enlarged in Spain.

The emancipation of the serfs in Russia will be finally effected by an ukase in the month of March next.

In the oligarchy of Quattlebum, it is proposed to make slavery perpetual; and the liberty of the press has already been abolished.

"HARD TIMES" IN CONNECTICUT.—In Meriden, Conn., a company has recently been formed with $100,000 cash capital, for the manufacture of gimlet-pointed screws, by newly invented machinery. A New Haven company will soon commence the manufacture of files at Stonington; and a large shoe manufactory is also in contemplation there.

☞ Two thousand merchant vessels, which had been accumulating in the neighborhood of Gibraltar for nearly two months, owing to westerly winds, were liberated by a strong Levanter on the 11th of January. The wind had not been from the East at Gibraltar since Nov. 4.

☞ Gold is so plentiful in New York, that even English sovereigns are there at a discount, and the banks will not take them. This is one of a thousand facts that show that the panic we experience was got up by politicians, for the purpose of coercing the people, though "coercion" is so unpopular at the White House.

☞ The New Orleans Delta treats the secession of Louisiana in grandiloquent terms, and says "this act of Louisiana closes the lid on the coffin of the old Federal Union."

☞ A mounted battery of four guns, with seventy men and horses, left New York on Friday for Washington, where it will be stationed until further orders. This battery is the one that has been on duty, for a long time, at West Point.

☞ A young man from Salisbury is this winter engaged in lumbering operation, in the forests above St. Anthony, Minnesota. One day of late he was left alone in charge of the camp, when five Indians, half drunk, came up and demanded whiskey. Being told he had none, they become very violent, threatened his life, and at length made an assault upon him with knives. With a pole which he had used to stir his fire, he knocked three of them senseless to the ground, and the others fled.

☞ One hundred citizens of Albany, having petitioned Mayor Thacher to prevent the meeting of abolitionists in that city next week for fear of a riot, he replies, stating that he has neither authority nor inclination to interrupt freedom of speech; that he has no fear of a riot in Albany, and that the best way to treat the abolitionists is to leave them alone, and give them no capital by creating an excitement about them.

"Renounce party ties, where party conflicts with patriotism," says the Post, which means that the Republican party should capitulate, abandon the principles upon which they have achieved a victory, and allow the pro-slavery Democracy to take possession of the government in 1864. Does the Post renounce the party who are sustaining treason?—Boston Journal.

☞ Statistics of the Roman Catholic Church, from 1808, prove its steady progress in the United States. During the last year, the foundations of 36 new churches were commenced. In 1808, there were only 68 priests, 80 churches, and 2 bishops in the United States. In 1860, there were 2235 priests, 49 bishops, and 2389 churches.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,
is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious remedy for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

DR. SWETT'S
COUGH DROPS,
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Dr. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, freely to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.
Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F JONES.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr Swett."

A NEW VERSION OF THE FALL.—The following is pretty good if authentic: "The Mandans, a Dakota nation, profess to be of subterranean origin. Formerly they were shut out from the light of Heaven, and dwelt together near a subterranean lake. A stray grape vine from the upper earth extended its roots into their dark region, and by means of this, one half the tribe climbed up to the surface, and were delighted with the new world, its fruits and game. But unfortunately for the possible, a fat woman attempted to climb up, the vine broke, and the balance of the tribe were forced to remain below."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous taint, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it breaks out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach, so my sister says it broke out on my head and covered my ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

Yours, ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Dyche writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1857, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Sabeden Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre, which was swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, in that I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. Numerous are my grateful cases of Leucorrhoea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration doubtless was cured, but the accompanying leucorrhoea yet remained, which I attribute to the debilitated state of Leucorrhoea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration doubtless was cured, but the accompanying leucorrhoea yet remained, which I attribute to the debilitated state of the system. Our physicians have long since ceased to use Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proves effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1858.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have combined with it, in the treatment, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Tumors and Mercurial Diseases. One of the most remarkable cures was in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in a few months. Another was cured of secondary symptoms in his nose, and the absorbents had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the bones would soon reach his brain. Your Sarsaparilla yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the bones healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfigurement to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather, that on a damp day she said she felt excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its fruits, which your agent has shown me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great curer of numerous severe diseases, and that it is the most powerful blood purifier. Very respectfully yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 4th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I had given up all hope of ever for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Depp, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla. I did so, but with little hope, and my thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make me a healthy man. I feel it my duty to say the best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Scirrhus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of these may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into healthy action, and then overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the medical profession, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is needless here to enumerate its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, in this country who have not some personal experience of its efficacy—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the deceitful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtue that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance, disordered nervous arrangement, and yeses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, are a sure index of vigorous health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, in which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanied by disordered organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not make the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, we believe, is attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood, by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES OF BREATHING ORGANS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, in Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Scurvy, Psoriasis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In Female Diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as to those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend to undermine their constitutions, and render difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation and want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the unanimous testimony of those who use the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose nervous system is shattered by any cause, whether over-use, either at the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Nervousness, and in all diseases of Kidneys and Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. We have so much faith in the Blood Food, convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have by us in favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged, even by those who are prejudiced against patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, and the numerous cures of remarkable nature will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Medicine, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcohol, flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often compelled by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we now are bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character. Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighths and Quarter Casks, by

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest school as well as new, give their testimony in qualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but also have used it, under the impression that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

OAK GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my carriage, which was cast over the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicates, to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional gentleman, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and a thousand circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result. Two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of growing hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Best assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquiries; moreover, I shall use its influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish what you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Halifax, Va., 1st Mo., 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that it was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known throughout this section, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can use it in any manner you think proper. The state and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time your agent visited Charleston, my hair was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as the most wonderful invention quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small, retailing for half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retailing for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first occasion of infants being cross, from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this condition, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success in his extensive practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its efficacy, when youever other preparation at the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the suffering of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Convulsions, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one generation to another, as the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we believe distinguishes it from many other preparations of a similar character, and is a strong consideration in favor of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are unanimous in testifying to the truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotic preparations, and the fearful results therefrom, their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Sold by DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, but on the contrary, by relieving the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and irritation, it will be a blessing to mothers, to you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is not a secret nostrum, but a medicine, for nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, find a happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as Stupefied by the use of the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by the use of this, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

The proprietor asks, as a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

The George's Fishery is now being prosecuted with vigor; quite a large fleet have already sailed, and the number is increasing daily. This affords employment to many of our citizens, and the ready sale of halibut, at good prices, is quite an item in these times. Secession or no secession, the halibut will bite, and our fishermen are just the boys to engage in the dangers which accompany fishing on George's Bank in midwinter. Three good trips arrived last week, the crews averaging from $30 to $50 a share.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

HOMELY BUT DISINTERESTED ADVICE. A good-hearted old Republican yeoman of Illinois, having imbibed the foolish notion that attempts are to be made upon Mr. Lincoln's life by poison or otherwise, recently walked a long distance for the purpose of uttering his solemn warning. Arriving in the presence-chamber of Republican royalty, he became abashed and forgot his errand. He was turning to leave, when a sudden inspiration struck him, and he said quickly, "I won't leave till I tell ye, sir! Just mark my words! Don't you eat nothing except what the old woman cooks for ye!"

A western negro being told that the "Baths" at Chicago were intended for folks to "wash in" paid his quarter, and was left in the bath-room. As he did not make his appearance when there above an hour, he was angrily called to by the bath-keeper, when he opened the door and exhibited the walls of the room covered with clothes which he had washed and hung up to dry, and said "Look here! How you talk—I'd like to see you wash and hang out two dozen pieces in less time than I've been at it!"

The Prince of Wales' Newfoundland dog has insisted that the sailor boy who took care of him on board the ship be taken into the palace and made a gentleman of. The dog refused to leave the ship without the boy; refused to go to Windsor without him; and when the Queen sent the lad away with a handsome present, the dog refused to be comforted until his keeper was sent for to come back. The happy youth thinks he is a gentleman for life.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.
CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce loaves of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.
Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible, and nutritious; has a more agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.
It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea, in all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or of ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.
It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 225 lbs. given by this process 230 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.
CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.
"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it is free from all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.
The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove the compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1859."

HOW TO USE IT.
We append a few receipts, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake; also in fruit puddings and other pastry.
BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.
LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.
GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.
BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal; all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.
BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and bake quick.
DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.
CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold milk, or water, to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.
CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour; one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.
JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.
ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.
CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together: add one gill of molasses and two eggs; thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.
CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.
LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of six eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.
WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of gour, three cups of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one cup of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to tbh taste. Bake about half an hour.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities.
This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and *stomachic*s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."
Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.
For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,
is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all, that is chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so painfully and fatally misunderstood to be time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general disarrangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Obstinate Cough, Constipation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debilitated, following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. For your mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

TEXAS A NATION.

The Legislature of Texas met at Austin, January 22d. Old Sam has yielded to the spirit of the times so far as to recommend a State Convention. The Legislature was unanimous against coercion, taking the same ground as Kentucky and Virginia on this point, the South being united in opinion that the forcible coercion of the seceding States is to be resisted to the last extremity. Four-fifths of the Legislature are in favor of immediate action and unconditional secession, and probably a majority are opposed to entering a Southern confederacy, and ready to unfurl the "Lone Star." The New Orleans Bulletin of the 21st, says:—

We learn from private sources that the tendencies of public sentiment in that State are decidedly in that direction, and the papers rather confirm this view of the subject. The letter from Gov. Houston in reply to the Commissioner of Alabama, just published, affords additional evidence of it. He intimates that the conviction is strong among the people of Texas that it will be for their interest to avoid entangling alliances, and enter once again upon a national career.' "No claim," he continues, "would then exist upon Texas, for her co operation has not been deemed important at a time when it was essential to her safety; and her statesmen will deem that she violates no duty to the South in unfurling once again her Lone Star banner, and maintaining her position among the independent nations of the earth." "Texas," he declares, "has views of expansion not common to many of her sister States. Although an empire within herself, she feels that there is an empire beyond essential to her security."

The Newburyport Herald remarks, as follows:—

Texas declared independence about a quarter of a century ago, with a very small population, and fought during eight years for that independence. She supported her sovereign position, not having more than 80,000 inhabitants when she was annexed to the United States. Now she has at least 600,000 inhabitants; her territory has been connected by lines of railways; her schools have been established; she is free from debt; and she not only looks to the re-establishment of a separate nationality, but old Sam wishes this rebel province of Mexico to govern and give laws to that country. For a long time he has urged a protectorate by the United States. Congress refused to listen to him, but the old Texans burn for a march to the city of the Montezumas. Texas is strong enough today to ally with one of the factions that rend Mexico, and place Sam Houston at the head of government, and support him there in peace. Houston has twice hoped for a nomination to the Presidency of the United States, and twice failed. If Texas secedes, Sam Houston will be for a third time President of Texas; and he may live to be President of a Southern Republic of 8,000,000. It is probably this hope that has induced him to call a convention; he would take advantage of a tide that he cannot resist, and float to greatness. When old Sam starts his boys over the Rio Grande, the territory south of the United States which is now so great an objection to the adoption of Crittenden's compromise, will be taken care of. In thirty days from the time Sam Houston calls for his fillibusters, he will have an army that can march over Mexico as easily as our Cushing Guard, in good October weather, could march over the old Turnpike to Boston.

Uncle Toby remembers that the American settlers of Texas swindled her away from Mexico: then the slavery propagandists swindled her into the Union, at the cost of a Mexican war, and $100,000,000, which the Union has partly paid, and is yet paying. Now she swindles herself out again, with the boast that she does not owe a dollar—as we have paid her debts.

What will the honest freemen of the North say to this tragic farce, of swindling, stealing, and freebooting?

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It is certain that Massachusetts Democrats have been consulting with Southern Commissioners.

A large proportion of the Republicans now here express a willingness to meet the Border States in conciliation and compromise.

There is not the least danger of an attack upon Fort Pickens while it is so well guarded by the Government. Neither is there any apprehension of an immediate attack upon Fort Sumter.

The Southerners are delighted at the defeat of Horace Greeley for U. S. Senator from New York.

☞ Mr. Tappan of New Hampshire made a frank and manly Republican Union speech, in the House of Representatives, on Tuesday. His appeal to the Democrats of New Hampshire is a very strong one, to say whether they would adopt now, the slavery protection clause, which they rejected at Charleston.

At Colt's factory in Hartford they are making 300 pistols a day, and about 500 revolving rifles a month. Contracts for 10,000 rifles, to be completed within a year, were concluded at Sharps' rifle factory last week.

LONGING FOR VERY OLD AGE.—Heber C. Kimball, one of the Mormon Elders, says he wants to live to see "the righteous root out wickedness."

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4.

Late hours are the rule at the National Hotel. The old maxim of "early to bed and early to rise," is more completely reversed here than anywhere else upon the continent. As I take my seat at the breakfast table at 10 A. M., I discover on all sides the friends from whom I parted at supper, just before midnight. Whether the attendant moral of the aforementioned maxim obtains, I am unable to state. Observation however induces the belief that health, wealth and wisdom are very handsomely represented within the walls of this massive edifice.

The "feeding" department is conducted on a grand scale at the National. I hear it rumored that the regular breakfast commences at 7 A. M., though the fact is unverified by personal observation or the assertion of any acquaintance of mine. I can testify, however, that the morning meal is daily served up as late as 12, meridian.

Early dinner is said to begin at 1, and close at 3 P. M. As nobody appears to be missing at the grand dinner, which is announced at 4 1-2 and continues until 6 1-2, I conclude that this early dinner is a myth, or, to accept a more charitable suggestion, a reunion of children and servants, together with guests who are to depart by the 3 o'clock train.

But 5 o'clock or thereabouts, brings the multitude upon a common level. Let us take a view of the great dining hall, and the company assembled. Truly a busy scene! A table one hundred and twenty five feet long extends from the entrance to the farther extremity. On each side is a score of smaller tables, standing at right angles, with the principal table. Every seat is filled, and a hundred waiters in spotless aprons are running to and fro in apparently inextricable confusion. At the door stands Mr. Kibby, the commander of this army of serving men, who directs this battle as modestly as though the prestige of a thousand similar conflicts had not crowned him with imperishable laurel.

Entering slowly upon crutches, is Hon. B. B. Brabson, M. C., of Tennessee, who is suffering from a recent fracture of the leg; his seat is at the principal table, and near the door. Higher up, is Dr. Rabe of California, a leading politician, devoting his energies to the darling project of all the residents of the Pacific coast, the consumation of the Pacific railroad scheme.—Still further on is Senator Baker of Oregon, a noble-looking gentleman of forty-five, with hair slightly silvered, and form erect as an Indian's. Next is Col. Cassius M. Clay of Ky., whose fine, erect, Websterian figure is set off by a dark blue coat of matchless fit, and whose prominence as a politician and possible Secretary of War, makes him a center of attraction. Near him, the genial, manly, statesmanlike Senator Hale; the popular, fine looking and energetic Tappan; the able, determined and unyielding Grow; the undaunted, hard working, defeated but not annihilated Burlingame; the honest, shrewd, persevering and handsome Fogg; and near by, the dignified Senator Green of Missouri. Still farther on, is Van Wyck of New York, one of the ablest members of the House; Martin of Va., who goes in for secession; Hawkins of Florida, who don't believe the Union worth preserving; and a couple of hundred well dressed gentlemen holding various positions in the Departments, acting as agents for the prosecution of claims, or, like your correspondent, mere lookers-on at the nation's great political battle-field.

Occupying the side tables, we observe first on the right, Ex-Gov. Robert J. Walker, a little man, with a jolly, rubicund face, strongly indicative of high living, and surrounding him a happy circle of thoroughgoing Douglasites. Next is Hon. Jno. W. Stevenson, M. C., of Kentucky, and family. Then follows Senator Crittenden and wife; and at the same table, Hon. E. G. Spaulding, M. C., of N. Y., and wife, having for their guest, Senator Seward, the scholar and the statesman. At the next table are Senators Fitch of Ind., and Brown of Miss., with their ladies, and a lady friend of Mrs B., in the person of a beautiful young widow, Mrs. Bass of Miss. Farther on are Hon. Messrs. Mallory and Bristow, members from Ky., and beyond these, Hon. Messrs. Peyton, Burnett and Simms of Ky., and Scott of California.

On the left we discover, first, Mrs. Gen. Gaines, the rich widow, whose immense and successfully contested claims before the U. S. Courts are so well remembered—and by her side a beautiful daughter of twenty. You will think, perhaps, as I did, before seeing her, that Mrs. Gaines is quite an aged lady; but on the contrary, she is but forty five, and looks scarcely forty. She is as distinguished for her beauty and kindness of heart, as for her marked intelligence and great wealth.

The talented and genial Kellogg, member of Congress from Illinois, occupies the next table, accompanied by his family.—Senator Chandler and family come next; then the distinguished Judge Nelson, of the U. S. Supreme Court, and family; and Mr. Otero, the smart little Spanish delegate from New Mexico. Mr. Z. K. Pangborn, the accomplished editor of the Boston Atlas & Bee, has a table just beyond; and the young and beautiful blonde by his side is Mrs. Pangborn. Those two fine-looking gentlemen at the next table are Messrs. Stewart of Md. and Smith of N. C.

We must leave unnoticed the host of generals, colonels, professors, doctors, ministers, clerks, &c.; for the ominous "popping" in every direction announces that the wine is circulating, and that the magnificent dinner will soon be ended.

I have indicated only a few of the leaders in political and fashionable life, who have homes in this vast hotel during the Washington season. I may add that it is not an uncommon occurrence to see the tall Vice President, Maj. Breckinridge, or the taller military chieftain, Gen. Scott, among the guests.

Twice each week the furniture is removed from the great parlors, and the "hops" for which the National has become famous, occur. These are attended by, and are free to, all guests of the house. They commence at 9, and continue until 2, and frequently later.

The proprietors of this hotel are Messrs. Tenney and Dr. Jones, both formerly citizens of Manchester. They give their personal and undivided attention to the comfort of their many guests, and every detail of their business is under their constant supervision. No convenience is here wanting, which modern ingenuity can supply.—Even the telegraph, that necessity of the times in which we live, is stationed in the office of the National; and the traveller, while registering his name, may dictate a message, announcing his safe arrival. In short, no inducement is here wanting to secure the patronage of that large concourse of human beings who occasionally find it either their duty or their pleasure to visit the capital, and who are compelled to seek "Life's warmest comforts at an Inn."

F. F.

CONGRESS—TUESDAY, Feb. 5.

SENATE.—Mr. Trumbull reported a resolution for counting the votes for President and Vice President.

The loan bill was taken up and passed; Mr. Pearce advocating it.

The President's message was taken up.

Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, made a speech supporting his former position against secession, and defending himself from attacks in consequence. He said he had struck treason a blow, and the men engaged in it being traitors, felt the blow.—He took the ground that Louisiana had no right to leave the Union, and take possession of the public property without the consent of the rest of the States. There was no need of going beyond the Constitution to find what is treason, and treason should be crushed, whether it be at the North or the South, and traitors should meet with a traitor's reward.

A message was received from the President, transmitting from the Governor of Kentucky the resolutions of the Legislature of that State asking Congress to call a Convention to present amendments to the Constitution. The President says it affords him great pleasure to perform this duty, and he feel confident that Congress will, after with the careful consideration to which the resolutions are entitled, on account of the patriotic source from which they emenate, as well of the great importance of the subject to which they refer.

HOUSE.—Mr. Taylor, of Louisiana had the secession ordinance of Louisiana read, and then made a speech in which he took leave of the House. He argued against coercive measures, and said the manufacturers were dependent upon the South for cotton, and it was for the interest of trade if a separation took place that it should be peaceable.

Mr. Sickles, of New York, asked if Taylor did not consider that war had already been initiated by the seizure of the mint and other property of the United States by Louisiana—and if the protective measures adopted by the Government were not essential to the honor and rights of the country.

Mr. Taylor replied that it was the duty of Louisiana to protect herself, by taking possession of the forts, etc., as coercion was threatened against their right of revolution.

Mr. Spinner, of New York, raised a point of order that Mr. Taylor was not a member of the House.

Mr. Taylor said that the first attack upon the South would bring the whole people of the South to the rescue, including Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Missouri, and civil war would be the result.

Mr. Boulligny, of Louisiana, made an explanation. He said he had received an official notice of the passage of the ordinance of secession, and as he was not elected by the Convention he should not be governed by their action. He was elected to Congress as an American Union man, and to this principle he would stand forever.—(applause.) When he came here he took an oath to maintain the Constitution of the United States. Does that not mean the Union of the States? By that oath he would stand. Whenever his immediate constituents instruct him to withdraw from the House their wishes would be complied with. He would, however, not only with draw, but resign his seat, and after he had done so he would still continue to be a Union man, and stand under the flag of the country that gave him birth. (Long continued applause on the floor and in the galleries and cries of "good!")

The bill suspending postal service in the States where the mail had been obstructed was taken up.

Mr. Branch, of North Carolina, opposed it on the ground that such action would be a tacit acknowledgement of the independence of the seceding States.

Mr. Sickles, of New York, advocated it, as there was no power here to protect the mails from robbery.

During Mr. Sickles' remarks the morning hour expired, and the report of the Committee of Thirty-Three was taken up.

Mr. Hughes of Maryland advocated Mr. Crittenden's propositions.

Evening Session.—Mr. Logan, of Ill., opposed coercion. He regarded the revolution as accomplished, and counselled concession and compromise.

Mr. Tappan, of New Hampshire, then addressed the House. He said if the Constitution was not strong enough to carry the country through this crisis, no remedy that this Congress could apply would be likely to effect a cure. He had faith in the Constitution. It was apparently weak now, but it was strong, and in the end would put forth its power, and the country would rise from its prostration stronger than ever before. He then went into an argument to show that the Constitution ought not to be amended so as to give any new guaranties to slavery.

Mr. Moore, of Kentucky, spoke against the right of secession, and argued that the South had equal rights in the territories now, and when the dogmas of the Republican platform were put into practice it would be time to revolt. Kentucky never regarded the government as oppressive.

Mr. Trimble, of Ohio, felt confident that the Union would be preserved, and opposed Mr. Crittenden's propositions. Adj.

RICHMOND, Feb. 5.—Very few of the delegates elected to the Convention are submissionists. They intend exhausting every honorable means, but will go for secession unless Southern rights are fully guaranteed. If the Peace Convention at Washington fails to effect a settlement, the Convention will doubtless refer the question to the people. Ex-Governor Wise is elected to the Convention by a decided majority. Matthews, secessionist, is elected in Montague.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5.—The Custom House was opened yesterday by the government of Louisiana.

It is rumored that the Texas Convention has passed the ordinance of secession by a vote of 124 against 6. The sentiment in favor of uniting Texas to a Southern Confederacy is said to be largely in the ascendant.

The Convention has passed the military bill.

"Having witnessed an exhibition of Capt Williams's wonderful voyage of a South Sea Whaling Voyage, we take great pleasure in bearing testimony to its great artistic merit—to the fidelity with which the ocean, under its various aspects, is depicted; to the accuracy which marks the representations of the various places visited by whalemen on both sides of the continent; and to the valuable information imparted by the graphic and eloquent description given by Capt. Williams, who was an actor in the scenes so beautifully portrayed on the moving canvas. But the most interesting feature of this exhibition is a practical illustration of the manner of capturing the Sperm Whale, by means of a large whale-boat, manned by a well-trained crew. The excitement and danger incident to this hazardous employment, are vividly brought before the spectator, who thus witnesses what scientific voyagers have sailed many hundreds of miles to see." WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe rior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of Dr. Wistar's Balsam as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I feel cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved from the misery of a cough. I became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service to pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

24 MARKET STREET.....J. C. CARR.

Local.

☞ The alarm of fire on Wednesday afternoon was caused by the burning of a wooden fire-board, in a house on Bridge street, corner of Hanover, occupied by Mr. Critchley.

☞ It will be seen that Capt. Williams's "South Sea Whaling Voyage," an exhibition that has met with unbounded success in every place where it has been exhibited, will open in Portsmouth on Friday evening. "It could have been run in Boston a year, provided a hall could have been obtained; as it was, it was run nine weeks."

RAILROADS IN MAINE.—By the report of Mr. James Hall, (formerly of this city) Railroad Commissioner for the State of Maine, made to the Governor of that State, we are informed that the whole number of railroads in operation in the State is fourteen, which have been constructed at a cost exceeding nineteen millions of dollars; and which have an indebtedness, exclusive of capital actually paid in, of eleven and a quarter millions of dollars. The length of these roads is five hundred and eleven (511) miles. The tables exhibit the aggregate number of passengers carried over these roads the past year, to be 748,506, and the tons of merchandise to be 453,000; to which may be added the transportation of cattle, which is very large on the Androscoggin, Androscoggin and Kennebec and Portland roads. To this aggregate should also be added the large traffic in lumber and merchandise done on the three roads in Washington county.

The Commissioner remarks, in relation to Railroad Bridges, there can be no doubt that bridges built of iron have the greatest safety, and, from their durability, are in the end, the cheapest. They have been introduced upon the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad to general satisfaction; but their cost has been unnecessarily large, being $81 per foot, which is $50 more than the cost of wooden bridges.

I have taken pains during the past year to examine bridges on railroads in other States. On the New York Central road, they have commenced replacing their wooden bridges with iron structures of a firm and substantial character, which have cost but $50 a foot, being but $20 more than the cost of wood. At this rate, iron, taking all things into consideration, is the most economical.

The additional cost of building roads upon credit is commented upon. In many cases, roads which could have been built and equipped for a sum of from $17,000 to $20,000 a mile, have cost from $30,000 to $40,000 a mile, and have caused a total loss of the capital paid.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6—[Washington correspondence.]—A canvass shows that eighteen Republican Senators are opposed to any compromise.

Secretary Dix has received intelligence that the Louisiana authorities have seized the revenue cutter Washington, now repairing at New Orleans.

A large number of promotions in the Navy have been sent to the Senate, on account of the resignations of Southern officers.

Leading Conservative men from Virginia declare that there will not be ten men in the convention who are not in favor of making Crittenden's plan the ultimatum. Pryor, Floyd and Wise were defeated for the convention.

It is reported that Judges Wayne and Campbell of the Supreme Court are about to resign, in which case the name of Caleb Cushing will be sent to the Senate to fill either vacancy. Mr. Douglas, it is said, will oppose both him and Mr. Black.

DISUNION AND SECESSION.—We notice that Hon. E. H. Rollins, Republican candidate for Congress in the second district, has dissolved his connection with, and peaceably seceded from, the firm of Rollins & Co., at Concord. Those orators who speak for the Union may still take courage, for the Bronchial lozenges will, as before, be manufactured; and the Chairman of the Republican State Committee will support the Union with all his might, both before and after his election to Congress.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Among the passengers by the steamer Montgomery, from Savannah are O. D. Kinsman, late civil engineer, in the employ of the Fernandina and Cedar Keyes Railroad Company, Florida. He was lynched and driven from the State without an hour's notice.

From the Boston Traveller Extra.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Bouligny of La. still refuses to withdraw from Congress.

The bill reported by Mr. Colfax, of Ind., suspending postal routes where the laws of United States are resisted, has passed by one hundred and five majority.

The President replied to Col. Hayne that Fort Sumter belongs to the government, and he has no authority to dispose of it.

The new tariff duty will probably be one cent per pound.

☞ Hon. Samuel D. Bell received the unanimous nomination of the Democratic Convention at Concord, on Wednesday.—He is to run for Congress in place of Mr. George, against Mr. Rollins.

THE ANDERSON CASE.—Toronto, Canada, Feb 5.—In the Anderson case the evidence has been given to the Canadian over the English writ of habeas corpus. The case is to be argued on Friday.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.—Fort Kearney, Feb. 5.—The Pony Express from San Francisco 19th has arrived.

The markets were dull and downward. Money easy.

The Republicans and Douglas members of the Legislature coalesced on Speaker, and the same coalition will probably elect a U. S. Senator in place of Mr. Gwin.

The Governor's message is strongly in favor of preserving the Union. It opposes a Pacific Republic, and urges that Congress be petitioned to extend the boundary of California so as to take in the Washoe region.

A Union meeting has been proposed at Sacramento, and all the candidates for the U. S. Senatorship have been requested to be present and define their position.

Letters from Congressmen Burch and Scott favoring a Pacific Republic had been published and were severely censured.

Resolutions of fealty to the Union were before the Legislature, and would undoubtedly pass.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The steam frigates Colorado, Mississippi, Minnesota, and Roanoke are all ordered to be put in service immediately for collection of the revenue.

The Times Washington correspondent says that Col. Lander has offered his services in any capacity to General Scott.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 5—Nothing of importance is transpiring here. The report that Fort Sumter has been reinforced is false.

☞ The Coast Survey Schooner captured by the Floridans has been re-captured by her officers. The schooner is expected to arrive at New York soon.

☞ The Legislature of Massachusetts has passed a resolution to be represented in the Washington convention, and Gov. Andrew has appointed five commissioners who have gone to their post of duty.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

DR. SWETT'S

COUGH DROPS

—FOR—

Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.

☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above-named complaints.

Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:

Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."

SAMUEL R. DENNETT.

New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now before the public for colds and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.

Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.

Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.

Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At the stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."

DAVID LANG.

Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.

I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.

CHARLES C. RICKER.

Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.

"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."

ELIZABETH CURRIER.

Exeter, March 3, 1841.—"Many of my brethren in the ministry frequently complain of oppressed lungs and hoarseness of voice, after frequent labors. I wish by this card to say to them, and to others affected, that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Swett, of this town, are a valuable remedy. I have found nothing that gives relief so quick.—Let every suffering preacher take a phial and try it." Eld. EDWIN BURNHAM.

Exeter, July 30 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."

NANCY F. JONES.

Canaan, Aug. 29, 1859.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.

Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.

I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Swett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr Swett."

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—As the down train, on the Cheshire railroad, was passing through Fitzwilliam, N H, it came to a crossing of the public road just as a sleigh, occupied by a man, woman and child, was crossing. Frightened by the steam whistle, the horse left the town road and took the railroad. He was at once instantly caught by the train going at full speed, the sleigh upset, and the woman and child cut all to pieces. The man, more fortunate, escaped unhurt.—Worcester Transcript.

The Courier du Bas Rhin states that the late census of the Swiss Canton of Bale (country,) makes known the existence of a family composed of father, mother, and nineteen children, the oldest of which is 28, all robust and healthy.

The Soubegan Manufacturing Company, of Milford, is in a very prosperous condition. The mills are running upon full time, and have orders for nearly all the cloth they can make between this and the first of May.—Statesman.

It is proposed to light the ships of the British navy with gas, manufactured on board.

AYER'S
CATHARTIC
PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disorder. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and how fully the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them quickly, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all but one over front with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PRESLEY, Clerk of Court.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the liver very marked indeed. In this respect they have proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative pill in which we can place full reliance, and which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for dyspepsia of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not yield readily to them. Practically yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relaxed Bowels, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best purgatives I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious derangements of the digestive organs, and their mildness makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Hilmes, Pastor of Salem Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in sickness. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the best medicine I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. A. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe ailments to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretions when wholly or partially suppressed, and very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PLEASANT HILL, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and bowels in December, causing neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effect was prompt and sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a pills, pill from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain remedy for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been reserved for this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is true able to a fixed cause, which removed or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen we inhale in the lungs, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract, and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c. A deficiency of the red corpuscles, combining the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, feble and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "Elixir vitæ," we do assert that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who are daily consuming the flesh or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the diseases known as female complaints, be persuaded the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An eminent physician writes us as follows, fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two postage stamps. The "Blood Food" is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $6. Price, single bottle, $1 00; six bottles, $5 00, put in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with, and in large bottles, in dark green. Beware of Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

BININGER'S
OLD KENTUCKY
BOURBON
"1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskey.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly adapted for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and invigorate; while age has long contributed its genial charm, and ripened it with a delicious flavor and oily body, it affords a pleasant force-tive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in ironbound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

as to

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified approbation and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain, but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will prevent the hair from being grey, from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the middle of my head, which may have caused a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and extended to the surface of the skin, the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but to no final relief, as every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have reluctantly to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquiries; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as an editor, to inform you, in state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (whom I have been well ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your Hair Restorative which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now wears a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of the statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, the medium holds a pint, and the bottle the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the medium holds fifteen per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we propose to offer a remedy for the prevention and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We have set forth reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at the period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Allaying all Pain. FOR DISEASES OF TEETHING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the bowels, and add to the health and vigorousness in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word, and its commendation is not a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE.

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in a strong cannot be said of any other preparation of the kind, or, at least, not before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and that its extensive sale, unprecedented, which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies, their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here is DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of the system, but satisfies the entire nature medical qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, quieting your little one with a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.
